A Modern Lothario.

An Ex. Volunicer Marries Three Wo. men and Seduces Two Others.

James L. Rider, of Sag Harbor, L. L, a young man of good family, enlisted during the late war in company B, ed during the fate war in company B, slat regiment New York volunteers. After a time he was discharged at Portsmouth, Va., where he took up his residence, became acquainted with Miss Sallie A. Weaver, a daughter of miss same in the leading citizens of the place, and soon after married her.

After living with his young wife four years he cruelly deserted her and four jean neylvania, where he married another girl, living with her till the another girl, living with her till the Spring of 1870, when he went to the village of Highlands, Ulster county, to work for Charles Wooley. He took apartments at Eli Warring's, where Laura F. Warring, aged 14, resided. Rider path his addresses to her, and being well educated, he soon succeed ed in winning her affections, his attentions to her being entirely unknown to her parents.

On the 13th of last June⁴ they re solved to get married clandestinely. On the evening of that day the bigamist's victim announced that she was bing to call at a neighbors, but met Rider instead, and with him went to the residence of the Rev. Mr. Travers, of the First Methodist Church, who married them. The girl returned home, and the next day Rider made his appearance and claimed her as his wife. Mr. Warring was indignant, and appealed to the daughter to know if it was true. She at once admitted the marriage and was driven from home. She went to the residence of a Mr. Craft, where the bigamist met her 21st of June.

The village was then startled by another event in the bigamist's life. On that day Miss Abby Horten, of Elunge, and charged James L. Rider with seducing her under promise of marriage. A warrant was issued, and Rider was taken from Craft's house to the Justice's Office, where he pleaded guilts, and was at once sent to Kingston jail to await the action of the grand jury. After his departure infor-mation was received that still another young girl had been his victim. She reside- about half a mile from Highland, and R visited her secretly, at the time giving out that he had joined the Presbyterian Church in the village. After his arrest for seducing Abby Horton the father of Miss Warring, aided by consel, proceeded to learn all about Rider a mother antecedents. He tound Rider's mother in Brooklyn, and was shown by her a letter from his wife in Virginia. Mr. Warring next went to Portsmouth, and there procur el a certified copy of Rider e marriage certificate on file in the county clerk's office together with other necessary documents He reached Highland on the 4mot July and showed them to his daughter, who was almost heart brokes, and asking forgiveness, was taken home again. Mr. Warring has taken steps to have the marriage of his daughter declared null and void, and has also placed a warrant in the hands of the sheriff of Ulster county

So strong is the feeling against Rider in Highland that if he were there now he would be in danger of lynch ing .- New York Tribune

A VETERSN --- There lives within a few miles of Philipeburg, this county, a veteran of the war of 1812, who en tered in the Federal army when he was eighteen years of age and served till the close of the war, afterward participating in the Florida war. Ilia name is Thomas Gilman, and for the past two years he has suffered under he silliction of a total loss of eyesight. He applied for a pension under the last act granting pensions to the surviving soldiers of the war of 1812 and their widow, through Capt. M. H. Jolly, of that place, to whom we are indebted for the following recollec-tions of W. Chilma is moments which encamped. They then marched with in six miles of Fort George, on Lake Ontario, with the Intention of taking it, but Yancy, who was to attack on the water side, notified Gen. Brown that he could not attack on account of sickness in his fleet, and the army then fell back to Niagra Falls, where they had a hard battle with the enemy who retreated at midnight, leaving all their artillery and many prisoners, including their commander, in the hands of the Americans. The day after the battle they returned to Fort Erie, which during August was invested, and bombarded it for forty days, making at last a general attack upon the fort, during which it was blown up, and the enemy were repulsed with very heavy loss, the Americans losing only seven men. In September Mr. Gilman was discharged, his term of enlistment having expired.—Philipsburg Journal.

A Negro Jury.

A startling evidence of what the country is coming to under negro rule has shown itself in New Orleans, where, as in New York, intelligent men are debarred from sitting on a jury because they are said to have formed an opinion. But in the new order of things in the South it is not necessary to spend three or four days drumming up illiterate, ignorant white men; they can step outside the court room door and in five minutes the sheriff can gobble up a dozen of negroes who have formed no opinion because they cannot read. Thus at a murder trial in New Orleans recently no white man could be found who had not read the papers, and necessarily formed an opinion, and the re-sult was that Charles Barlie and John Mr. Craft, where the bigamist met her Garney, white men, were tried and and where they lived togather till the condemed to die by a jury composed wholly of negroes who had formed no opinion. If this is not entering to igno rance, and making mockeries of justice, what is it? If Louisiana has arrived Highland, appeared before Justice at the point that white men can't be tried before a white jury, because it is too intelligent, is it not about time for white men to leave the State and per mit ignorance to enjoy its own dark ness?

Government at Long Branch.

The Detroit Free Press draws the following picture of the Chief Magis trate of the United States, who, desert ing his post at Washington, as none of his predecessors have done, is splurging at watering places.

Grant draws considerable attention at Long Branch, despite the other at-tractions. He rides out in a carriage presented to him, behind a span of horses presented to him by an office seeker, harnessed up in gear presented by a Philadelphian, driven by a man in the service of the government, and returns home to a cottage bought by his admirers, sits on chairs presented by a New York house, walks on carpets presented by Stewart, cats from dishes the gift of a Boston man, and rises from the table to go to bed on the gift of a cabinet maker of Troy.

And this is the man whom the Resublicans intend to again run for the Presidency?

-Gorna Back on Him.-All through the war the radical papers were profuse in their compliments of the McCook tamily, the members of which at the time were regarded as the pride of Ohio. Of this family, the father and six brothers went to the war. and all of them attained high rank, their promotion having followed gal-lant services in the field. This was in war times, but now that one of these gallant warriors, Gen. George W McCook, is nominated by the Democ racy for Governor of Ohio, these very same papers that used to laud hun, turn about and question the value of his military services. This is the way with the radical party. It matters not what sacrifices a man may have made in the service of his country if he refuses to bow down and worship the ebony idol, he is ostracised, and the

-----In California, where wooden pavements have been fully and thoroughly tested, the papers are unani-mous in their condemnation. Among other things, they charge many forms of sickness to the malaria by the decaying wooden blocks. The San Fran-cisco Chronicle speaks thus of an experiment by Dr. Rosenthal, at a consultation of the ablest physicians upon the subject: 'At a consultation of our ablest physicians, Dr. Rosenthal had one of the decaying blocks of wooden pavement from Vallejo street. He roceeded to show the noxious effect of it on the atmosphere when the sun comes out after rain. For this purpose he placed the wooden block in a basin of boiling water. The air in the room became suddenly heavy, and the distempered malaria soon forced Dr. Lyle, who was taken with a fit of vomiting, to raise the window and hold his head out. We expect to be able to publish the result of their scientific labors in a few days.' Surely it is not at all wonderful that six inch es depth of rotting timber in so large an area should breed a poisonous malaria anywhere. From all quarters evidence accumulates as to the worthless and even dangerous character of wooden pavements, and yet the 'Ring' in order to rob the city treasury of two hundred thousand dollars, are deter mined to put down a pavement of this kind on Broad street. The people are opposed to this job. But the 'Ring' agents boast they can afford to pay fifty thousand dollars for the job, and declare that sum will fix Select Coun cil. Any man who has heretofore op posed wooden pavement and alters his vote now, must not complain if the people have certain opinions and state them in plain terms. - Age.

tions of Mr Gilman's movements while in arms, which may not be uninter esting to our readers. He will he 76 years of age on the 27th day of next September, and his memory of the events through which he passed is good, as will be seen from the annex-ed account of his experience in the lue line .

Mr. John Gilman enfisted at Guil ford, Meredith Bridge, New Hamp-shire, with Capt. Stark, early in March, 1813. The company rendezvoused at Concord, and marched to headquarters at Burlington, Ver-mont, where it joined the 11th U.S. mont, where it joined the 11th 0.55. Infantry, Col. McNeil commanding, Gen. Wade Hampton being the bri-gade commander. In the fall they left for Cumberland Head, an island in Lake Champlain, where they lay for some time. Thence they marched to Odeltown, Canada, and had a to Odeltown, Canada, and had a skirmish with the Canadians and Indians, taking a block house. They were then marched up the St. Law-rence and through the Shatagee woods. and fought the Canadians and Indians at Cedar Swamp, driving them from the woods. Thence they marched to Shatagee 4 Corners-then to Plattsburg, on Lake Champlain, where they lay a month or two, and then back to Shatagee 4 Corners and to French's Mills, on the St. Lawrence, where they went into winter quarters. In February they burned the barracks and marched to Buffalo, on Lake Erie, where they joined the command of Generals Scott and Brown. Buffa-lo had been burned by the British and Indians a day or two before, and and indians a day or two becord, and its ruins were still emoking on their arrival. They lay there until the 3d of July, 1814, when they crossed the lake and on the 4th took Fort Eries with its standard the prison with its garrison, sending the prison-ers, 400 in number, under guard to Green Bush.-On the 5th they fought the battle of Chippewa Plaine, whip ping the British badly, and on the next day marched to Queenston, Upper Caunda, taking that city, where they | last few days.

hounds of faction are let lose to tear and rend his character. - Ex.

A dispatch from New York says about the recent New York riots : At various points in the march, lowbrowed wretches with great revolvers on their persons, and with murder in their countenances, were detected, and the disposition made of them was summary and effective. The man would be pointed out; there would be a rush by the police, not a word would be said; the heavy locust would come down with a sickening thud upon the riotor's skull, the revolver would be torn from his posecssion, and the lawless conceiver of inurder and violence, with blood streaming from his head would be dragged among the police, and be made to participate, as he little imagined he would, in an Orange procession.

RAILROAD TIME MARKER .--- An instrument has been invented that marks 'the ebb of time,' showing how many minutes there is prior to any event. If placed in a post office it reads: 'Mails open in thirty minutes;' one minute later it reads; 'in twenty-nine minutes,' then in twenty-eight and so on. At a railroad station it reads; 'This train leaves in ten minutes,' then in eight, etc., and when the index roaches 0 the train starts. Thus any passenger on entering the station knows just how much time he has for getting tickets, checks, a newspaper and a seat without consulting a watch or a clock to ascertain the hour of the day.

--- It is said that when Brigham Young was asked, the other day, which son he had at West Point, the conundrum so staggered him that he was obliged to refer to the family record to solve it. 'Do they miss no at home?' is not much sung in that family.
