HISTORY OF THE WAR DETWEEN GERMANY AND FRANCE-By James D. McCabe, Jr. 'llustra-ted. National Publishing Company, Phila-

Mr McCade, has evidently studied his subpet deeply, for he writes as an historian, and not as a politician, as one who places facts on record for the verdict of inture ages, and not as one who seeks to win the favor of either as one who seems to win the farth of either the Germans or the French of to-day. The great charm of the work is its impartiality. His book fascinates while it instructs, for it His book resentates while it instructs, for it tells in graphic and eloquent language, the most wonderful slory of modern times. He traces the causes of the war from their origin to the beginning of hostilities; sets forth the diplomatic history of the preluduto the war, with clearness; and states foreibly, and in detail the causes of the triumph of and in detail the causes of the triumph of termany and the failure of France. The nar-nitive of the great battles which opened the campaign, and hurled the French back upon the interior of their own country; the effect of these reverses upon the French Nation; the frantic efforts to rescue the beaten army, and the terrible disaster of Sedan ; the capture of the Emperor Napoleon and an entire army, the Revolution in Paris; the rise and formation of the Republic; the flight of the Functions from Paris; the Siego and surrender of Strasburg and the frontier fortresses of France, the triumphal advance of the German armies to Parls, the Sieges of Metz and Paris in detail a full diary of events in Paris during the Stege; the campaigns on the Loire during the range; the campaigns on the lotre and mother parts of France; the peace nego-tiations, the surrender of Paris and the treaty the naval history of the war, the his-tery of the formation of the great German Improved the problemation of King William Emperor and the realization of German unity, the civil war and second siego of Paris, with its terrible scenes of bloodshed and vandalism, all these and other events of the war are related with a graphleness and brilliancy which render this a work of unusual value. The author goes deep into the philosophy of the war, and impresses his readers profoundly the war, and impreses in trace is providing with the great lessons of the conflict. The low price at which the book is issued. brings it within the reach of all, and no one wishing to keep abreast of the times should fail to read it. It is published in both English and German, sold by subscription only, and agents are wanted in every county.

A LIVE HOME JOURNAL-NOTABLE CHANGE,-Lust October, Hearth and Home passed into the hands of Messra. Orange Judd & Co., of 245 Brondway, New York, the well known publishers of the American Agriculturist-a journal long without a rival in sterling value and circulation. The maked improvements then ex-pected to appear in Hearth and Home have been fully realized, and it is now one of the choicest illustrated journals anywhere issued for the family sircle-adapted to both the jurenile and adult people, and meeting the spe-cial wants of the housekeeper Basides it supplies very useful chapters for the garden and farm, and an important news sheet, giving a valuable resume of the news for a week up to the moment of issue From $500 to $800 worth of very fine engravings beautify each weekly number. We notice now astill further mark of enterprise on the part of the pub-lishers, they have secured the exclusive edi trial services of Edward Eggleston, so wide-i) and favorably known by his writings in b) and involution with the second and command a prominent place in every household, in city, village, and country.

THE STATE FAIR - The policy of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Soci-ety, is to make choice of a location for ety, is to make choice of a location for holding its Exhibition, and make an ar-rangement for its second show at the same point, so that each portion of the State shall have the opportunity of wit-nessing the progress in Agriculture, Horticulture, and Cognate Industries in its own, and from other portions of our Common wealth. In pursuance of this Common wealth In pursuance of this plan, Scratton is again the location for the coming Fair. To give Exhibitors every opportunity for the display of their productions or articles, a carefully prepared and large space of ground has been enclosed, abundantly supplied with water; easy of access to any part of the city of Scranton, and surrounding towns, and upon which has been erected two halls, carefully protected from the weather, 25x30 feet each; one hall 175x45 several anacious tents: 125

THE LOUISIANA OUTRAGE.-It does not require much space to say that a Re-publican State Convention in. Lousiana was prevented from assembling, at the point of the bayonet, by the United States Marshal, the collector of the port of New Orleans and other government officials, because its members were presumed to be unfavorable to Grant's renomination; nor does it demand many words to give color to the character of the high-handed outrage perpetrated upon Gov. Warmouth and the best Republicans of the State. No administration journal has yet de-nied that Grant's collector, theother-inlaw and or and sciences acted under au-thority from Washington. The New York Tribune says: We note with great mortification the fact that United States Marshal Packard, with superserviceable zeal, told the dissenting members of the Republican convention at New Orleans that he was authorized by President Grant 'to use 'the custom house for the convention, 'and to bring United States troops there for its protection. We don't mean to believe him unless we must."

-EIGHTT.TWO. -Our well-known neighbor, Mathlas Zahm, who has been an officer of our County Courts for half a century-len years as Tipslavo and forty years as Court-crier-celebrated his 82d anniversary gosterday He is in good health and expects to fulfil the duties of his office when Court opens on Mon day next. The lives of our County Court er-ers would seen it overify Jefferson's state ment about office-holders in general, that 'few die, and none resign'. Mr Zahm's prodecess sor in the office was Daniel Ehler, who was cries for thirty seven years, and his prede cassor was Poler Row, who was appointed at the commencement of the Revolutionary war Thus, there have been but three Court criers in Lancaster county from the beginning of Zahm was quite a poet in his time, and his ident for rhyming has not yet forsaken hum Meeting a friend on the street, yesterday, he perpetrated the following impromptu These score years and ten,
