

'Fight For The Flag.'

Democrats! The County Committee has determined to present to the election district making the largest Democratic gain in proportion to its vote at the last election, an ELEGANT FLAG.

Will you fight for it? There is no telling how much of a gain will win it. A very few votes may secure it, and it may take a considerable number. It is worth fighting for, and the election district that wins it will be counted the banner district of the county.

Roll up your sleeves and fight for the FLAG.

Some low-lived, back biting scoundrel having sent the editor of the Harrisburg State Journal, who seems to be an honorable man, an anonymous communication, making a personal attack on Hon. William A. WALLACE, that editor considerably and wisely threw it into his waste basket, with the following remarks:

"We oppose Mr. Wallace on principle as a partisan. We differ with him broadly on measures of government, and believe he is radically wrong in his political course and acts—but we have yet to learn that he is a dishonest and dishonorable man, and we cannot open our columns even to a professed friend, who seeks under cover of an anonymous communication, to strike a blow and honorable political opponent in the back."

"Bully" for the editor of the State Journal. We wish that the majority of the Radical editors in the State were only half as honorable; for then the asperities of our political campaigns would be as nothing to what they are now. It is the reckless slanders of our opponents—their unblinking columns—their heartless attacks upon private character that make our political campaigns so bitter. We rejoice to know that there is one honorable, conscientious man among them.

Pennsylvania is to be the battleground of the Presidential canvass of '72. The Radicals proclaim it, and feel its significant truth—hence all their desperate efforts to achieve a triumph for their State ticket on Tuesday next. With their defeat, they signify a ready abandonment of Presidential success. The Old Keystone is emphatically Democratic. It has been so in the past, and can be made so in the future, if you, Democrats, will but put your shoulders to the wheel, and roll up your united strength at the polls. WILL YOU DO IT? A restoration of the old, time honored party, is a boon worth laboring for. We need Democratic hands at the helm of both State and National governments, and we must have it, ere the country is restored to prosperity and peace.

Democrat, you have but three days more in which to work; but in those days much can be done. Let them not be unemployed. In your wards, in your social meetings—everywhere—have an eye to the success of your ticket. Do not wait until the election day to do it. True you can do much then; but labor performed now will leave less for you to do on that day. Don't be chary of your words, your arguments, or your actions. Every effort that you can put forth is needed and demanded of you. Do not with hold it, and glorious triumph will reward you.

TWO THOUSAND MILLIONS OF ACRES of the public land have been given away, while one hundred millions of dollars, which Mr. Boutwell has permitted to be idle in the Treasury, could have built the Pacific railroad and a ship canal to the South Atlantic, by which Western products could have reached the Southern and Eastern seaboard and good markets. But that was not Radical policy. It would have prevented Radical Congressmen and the favorites of the party from amassing the colossal fortunes which they have by the letting of jobs in the construction of the road. This is Radical management of the finances.

Every vote cast for the Democratic ticket is a rebuke of the Radical Internal Revenue Collectors, who have stolen twenty millions of the people's money—not one of whom has been brought to punishment. Remember, too, that if the Radicals succeed in electing their State ticket, they will cover over all the immense swindles of these, as well as of Evans, the embezzler, and the entire amount—$363,000—of his plunderings be lost to the people of the State. If the Democratic ticket is elected—McCandless and Cooper—the whole pack of thieves concerned in this robbery will be exposed and made to disgorge the amount to the State.

McCandless and Cooper are eminently the leaders of the people in this contest. They bear off the banner of Right, which, like the serpent in the wilderness is lifted up that the people may be healed of the wounds of Radicalism.

GREELY HEARD FROM.

He Unbosoms Himself to the Wrong Man—The Result.

[From the Milwaukee News, Sept. 16.]

During the recent visit of Horace Greeley to this city, the venerable sage was sitting on a sofa at the Newhall House, conversing with a friend, when Colonel Sawyer came up and joined them. Greeley turned to speak to him, and while he was thus engaged his former listener departed. Colonel W. S. Kershaw happened along just then, dropped in the vacant seat. Presently Horace, not perceiving the change in the occupancy of the adjacent seat, turned around and resumed the conversation. He said, apparently resuming a conversation where he had left it shortly before: "It is the most disgraceful administration that ever was witnessed in a civilized country. It has become intolerably corrupt. There must be a change, or there will be a revolution. Why, through his Congressmen and office holders, he is trying to control the politics of every State in the Union, as he has yours here in Wisconsin, and as you will see he will next week in New Jersey and Maryland, when Republican conventions are to meet there. Your man (Washington) has been placed on the track through these detestable influences." Here it occurred to Col. Kershaw that he was becoming the recipient of confidence not intended for him, and he stated to Mr. Greeley that probably his remarks were intended for another man. The philosopher stared blankly over his spectacles with an air that was childlike and bland, while a look of astonishment and disgust stole gradually over his placid countenance. With a most expressive "ought" he started from his seat and betook himself to the opposite side of the room in great haste. But he had said his say.

THE BLACK MAN'S FRIENDS.

How the Hotels in the Banner County Treated "a Man and Brother."

The Evening Mail of yesterday says: "We understand that the Georgia Minstrel had a hard time to find a place of entertainment on their arrival in this city. Their agent, it appears, had engaged their board at Harb's Hotel, but when they made their appearance, and the proprietor of that Republican headquarters found that they were real 'darkies,' he would not allow them to stay in his house. They met with the same cool reception at all the hotels in the city where they applied for admission. They say they have traveled over most of the United States and Europe, and never were so treated by proprietors of public houses before. This looks rather bad for the Republican banner county of the State."

This is strictly true, and shows in a glaring light the inconsistency, demagoguism and false pretences of those who prate so much about the rights of their dark skinned brother. They use colored men as Vice Presidents at their one horse political meetings, but when it comes to giving them an office, or placing them on equality, or giving them a "square deal," our Republican neighbors "know how it is themselves."

The new voters will doubtless discover before long that they are used by these unblinking hypocrites as convenient tools or political tempers, to be picked up and knocked down at their convenience. It is very clear to every one not purposely blind to the fact that the Republican party have been, as Henry Ward Beecher says, preaching cream and practicing skim milk all through this colored business.

The Evans Villainy!

Under the pressure of public demand, a warrant for the arrest of the swindler Evans was issued, and in Harrisburg policeman was sent to New York with a requisition to arrest him, but after a day or two spent in that city the policeman returned with the information that the fugitive could not be found! It was a little curious that no effort was afterwards made to capture Evans, and it was quite curious that no reward was offered for his capture.

It turns out now that Evans has made no effort at concealment but is daily walking the streets of New York! If the policeman sent after him did not see him it was because he did not want to! It is asserted publicly that Evans boasts that his party does not dare to arrest him because too many of its officers and prominent men were concerned in his fraudulent transactions!

It is plain that if Dr. Stanton is elected Auditor General no further effort to ferret out this villainy or to recover the stolen money will be made. The only hope that justice may be done in this regard is in the election of Gen. McCandless—in that is the only hope that other monster frauds will be exposed or prevented—in it the only hope that the State Treasury will be protected from future illegal and corrupt depletion! The Radicals having all the rest of the State officers, should there not be one Democrat to watch them?—Columbian.

It must excite a smile upon the faces of soldiers who served anywhere in the ranks of the Reserves, to hear Radical journals praise the military services of Dr. Stanton and private Beath, and attempt to deprecate those of General McCandless, who led a division the greater portion of three years, and of Captain Cooper, the fearless scullion man, whose battery was the theme of praise throughout the army. It might do to "tell the marines," but the returned soldiers know all about the record of these heroes.

Grant is economically administering the Government at an outlay of about seven hundred millions of dollars per annum. As no intelligent man believes that a country requires even had that amount to be expended in the maintenance of all the money? The extraordinary deflections that are daily turning up may account for a large portion of it.

Radical Subterfuge.

The Greenville Argus, in an article which is bodily copied as editorial into the Harrisburg Telegraph, manages to concentrate more Radical falsehood, for electioneering purposes, than is usually found even in journals of the most ultra ilk. Passing by the gratuitous asserion—ridiculous as it is malicious—that every Democrat is a rebel and Ku-Klux, we wish simply to subject a few of its assertions to the test of history. It asks the people to believe that the Republican party has redeemed all the pledges it made in 1868, that peace has been made secure, that the States lately in rebellion have all been restored to their proper positions, and are now in the enjoyment of free State governments; that the nation's credit has been sustained, and the revenues faithfully collected and honestly applied. Is this the truth? If the rebel States have been fully restored to the enjoyment of their sovereign rights, what means the quartering of United States troops in their midst to prevent the free exercise of the franchise, and the holding of Federal officials who interfere with the control over petty local officers by the control of Federal bayonets and Gatling guns? Is that sovereignty? Is it such an exercise of the elective franchise as is contemplated by the existence of peaceful relations? Or is it not, rather, such a condition of affairs as exists in revolting provinces, or under the most arbitrary rule of a tyrant? Peace, forsooth! There will be no peace until Grant and a second installment of his iniquitous and imbecile administration is foisted upon them at the point of the bayonet; for it is the Radical determination to still further invade even the sanctity and privacy of Southern homes and to usurp control of the ballot; to humiliate and degrade, on the one hand, and to complete the triumph of their unhallowed schemes on the other.

Has the nation's credit been sustained? If so, why the prolonged gong of Boutwell and his agents in Europe, and his mendacious supplications at home, for the taking of his proposed loans? Poor revolutionary France, just emerged from her Franco Prussian war, in which she was subdued, and a fratricidal strife at home, in which she was well nigh impoverished, had more than three times the amount asked tendered for her acceptance, while Spain, ever in worse revolutionary plight, was offered more than five times the sum required for the liquidation of her revolutionary debt and the conduct of her governmental affairs. Have we less wealth or less of patriotism at home, that a deaf ear has been turned to Mr. Boutwell's entreaties, and his proposed loans, which should have been taken at once, divided down to an insignificant syndicate? Where were the shoulders who made millions out of the war by an righteous contracts and the most stupendous frauds? We were the snobs who so lavishly poured their presents of money, houses and lands into the lap of President Grant? Had they faith in the credit of the Government? About as much as the capitalists of Europe, who withheld their funds and preferred, rather, an investment in the securities offered by impoverished France and revolutionary Spain.

Have the revenues been faithfully collected and applied? Let the millions upon millions which have been stolen by government officials, with scarce an effort at exposure or punishment of the offenders, answer. Ten more years of Radical rule, and the country will be engulfed in inextinguishable ruin. Democrat, ponder these facts, and let your seal of condemnation be put upon the administration and party by which they were brought about. Republicans, Conservatives, contrast the ten years of Radical rule with the eighty years administration of the Government by the Democratic party, and on Tuesday next calmly, honestly and dispassionately decide which of the two parties claiming your votes is the best fitted to be entrusted with the country's destinies.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

Democrats always have opposed and always will oppose social equality between the white and black races, therefore, they are consistent when they object to sitting beside colored people at hotels and opera houses, sleeping in the same beds and sending their children to the same schools. Radicalism has contended that these rights belong to the colored population, but when they are called upon to take their own medicine they make wry faces. The Gazette, however, was consistent when it declared that the little peccaninies have as good a right to the public schools as the children of white men; but to try that consistency a little further, we propose to ask its opinion in regard to the Georgia Minstrels, a body of decent colored men, who behave themselves and pay their bills. We propose to ask the Gazette what it thinks of the Radical hotel proprietors who refused the Minstrels accommodation, and if colored men haven't as good a right to eat and sleep at the Monongahela House as white men? Will the Gazette give a square answer to the above?—Pittsburg Post.

Why They Want to Defeat McCandless.—The reason why the Radical leaders are so anxious to elect Stanton Auditor General is apparent when it is known that through his hands passes all the corrupt and swindling bills like the Evans swindle. If General McCandless is elected the Democracy will place a guard over the State Treasury, and all the robbing, plundering schemes will have to pass under his observation before they are settled. He will be in a position then to head them off and choke the leeches. No wonder then that Evans, Bergner and the other vampires who live and thrive by gorging themselves with State plunder want McCandless defeated. McCandless's election would be the death of their rations on the Treasury.—Montrose Democrat.

More Radical Robbing.

George F. Chase, a messenger at the Post Office Department, and Frank McGraw, a watchman at the State Department, have been arrested at Washington, on a charge of robbing the State Department of a number of gold and silver treaty seals. The accused confessed to the larceny of seven seals which they had melted and sold. The detectives recovered a number of gold and silver nuggets into which the seal had been melted. The Department claims that ten seals were stolen, as that number are missing. One of the seals were attached to a Turkish treaty, and one to a German convention. The value of the melted silver recovered is $75, while that of the gold is several hundred dollars. It is roughly estimated that the money value of the stolen seals between $400 and $500.

DON'T TRADE.

DEMOCRATS DON'T TRADE. There is not a man on your ticket but will be elected, and trading only helps the enemy that much. Beware of the man who proffers to trade. Vote the whole ticket and prove yourself Democrat.

The Republican State Convention of New York.

The New York World in commenting on the proceedings of the convention says: "It opened with a free fight among its members, succeeded by a bitter war of words after the meeting had been called to order. Each faction accused the other of having brought ruffians and shoulder hitters from New York to add physical force to its arguments, and each insisted that the other made up of corrupt politicians and traitors to the party. The truth of the first of the accusations is established by the facts, and few people will need any argument to convince them of the existence of corruption in factions led by Senator Fenton on the one side and the chiefs of the Custom House 'ring' on the other. But what an edifying spectacle is presented by the party of great moral ideas holding a convention in which frontal vituperation and brutal rodneyism are the most prominent features! Had the scenes of the Syracuse Convention taken place at a Democratic primary in the Sixth Ward, how quick the Radical papers would have been to charge that the entire Democratic party is made up of brawlers and blackguards."

DON'T SCRATCH YOUR TICKET.

Clerks in the Department at Washington, who refuse to contribute a sum from their earnings to help carry on the Radical political campaign, are requested to give a reason for not "scratching down" with the money. Of course a reason would be, "Because I have a family to support, and cannot afford it." We all know the significance of requiring a reason. That means, contribute or off come your head. The Radicals are merciless, they will not spare the poor devil of a clerk, even if he refuses to contribute because it would rob his family.

DON'T SCRATCH YOUR TICKET.

A fool, a barber, and a bald-headed man were traveling together. Losing their way, they were forced to sleep in the open air, and to avert danger, it was agreed they should watch by turns. The first fell to the barber, who, for amusement shaved the fool's head while he was sleeping. He then awoke him, and the fool, raising his hand to scratch his head, exclaimed, "Here's a pretty mistake, you have awakened the old bald-headed man instead of me."

DON'T TRADE.

Workingmen! when you see the bondholders, and bankers, and the monopolists of the whole country, combined and voting as a unit with the Radical party, is it not proof, incontrovertible, that your interests require you to vote against them? The Democratic party is the enemy of all these combinations of capital, and is the friend of the workingmen. Give it your support.

DON'T TRADE.

Some queer scenes ensue in Wyoming, where the women vote, serve on juries, &c, like their lords and masters. Recently six married ladies and as many gentlemen were employed upon a public case there, and it became necessary to close them up at night. Three of the husbands stormed and raved at the judge, and a half dozen children made the court-house ring with their cries, but the judge was inexorable, and put them under lock and key.

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

A stranger meeting a man in the streets of Boston, a few days since, roughly accosted him with, "Here, I want to go to the Tremont House!" The deliberate reply was, "Well, you can go, if you won't be gone long!"

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

Fifty-five millions of dollars have been collected from the people of Pennsylvania by the Radical party during the last ten years and of this sum but about seven millions have been paid on the State debt. Where have the other forty-eight millions gone? But General McCandless in the Auditor General's office and you will learn something about it.

VOTE THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Why has there been no attempt to bring the pirates to justice who wrecked the government vessel "Golden Rule," and robbed it of $3,000,000 belonging to the government? One of the men charged with complicity in this raid has been taken into the confidence of the administration, and has made a number of valuable presents to different members of the President's family. Is this Civil Service Reform to be delivered from?
