THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Nasby's Almanac for sale at Rankin's.

"Songs of Gladness," at Rankin's.

The work of rebuilding the bridge piers is progressing.

The rain of Tuesday put out the fires that have been raging in the mountains.

The "Mission of Skinenoyh" is the title of the lecture which "Nasby" is to deliver in this place.

"My Wife and I" Mrs. H. B. Stowe's latest book will be published on the 25th inst.

Look out for Petroleum V. Nasby, the political humorist, at Reynolds' Hall, on the evening of the 14th proximo.

William Gardner, of Huston township, a member of the Unionville Cadets, died on Saturday night last, of typhoid fever.

The accident to Mr. Orvis, one of the principal counsel in the great case of "The City of Philadelphia vs. Smith, Rhodes & Smith," has compelled the adjournment of court until Monday week.

A ladies' gold watch and gold locket were lost on Friday, the 26th inst., between Bellefonte and the Bulling Spring.

A class to study the "Philosophy of Memory," was formed at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on Wednesday evening, under the tutorage of Prof. Armes.

At the lecture on "Memory" at the Wigwam, on Tuesday evening, brother George Hale was politely asked to "pass around de sassafras."

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Thomas Linn, in another place.

The lecture of "Petroleum V. Nasby," on Tuesday evening, the 14th of November, will be a good thing.

We are informed that Mrs. Kettering, in Johnstown, Pa., has an egg that bears date "1842," on the shell.

The Sabbath School Convention for the district composed of Howard borough, and Howard, Marion and Walker townships, will hold its next meeting in the Reformed church of Jacksonville, on the first Saturday of November next.

A one-horse show in Bush's Hall on Tuesday was principally advertised by means of a cracked hand-organ.

Our friend, Jack Nolan, of Snow Shoe, showed us a very large turnip which he raised; it weighed something over five pounds.

An attempt was made this other morning to start the United States Mail between this point and Hubersburg, from the post-office door.

HALLOW-EVE.—As next Tuesday night will be Hallow-Eve, on Hallow-ecen, the following article, which one of our exchanges has gone to the trouble to get up, will doubtless be interesting.

First in order are the DREAM-PRODUCING CHARMS. She who desires to know to what manner of fortune she will be married, will grate and mix a walnut, a hazelnut, and a nutmeg.

LEMN PEEL CHARM. Carry two lemons all day in the pocket, and at night rub the four posts of the bed with them.

THE CABBAGE PULLING CHARM. The maiden walks backward till she gets to the cabbage bed, and pulls the first she stumbles over.

THE LIME KILN CHARM. Steal out all alone to the lime-kiln and throw in a ball of blue yarn.

THE GLASS AND CANDLE CHARM. can be practiced by both sexes. Take a candle—go before the looking glass and cut an apple.

APPLES. play a prominent part on Hallow-ecen. Apple-pieces hung over the shoulder always get into the mystic letter on that night.

THE "LADY BIRD" CHARM. is one of the prettiest. One of the cunning winged things is caught, and held tenderly, while this rhyme is repeated.

LASTLY. Three times round the house backward, and you walk into the arms of the man you are to marry.

Why can't those unsightly old walls on Burnside's corner be torn down. Some day a hurricane will center them in the streets.

There are several lady teachers in the county, who are, as yet, unemployed for the winter.

Harris township contributed $385 to the Chicago Relief Fund.

BUTTER.—Probably, as much bad butter comes to the Bellefonte market as to any other market of its size in the State.

THE PURE BUTTER.—How Made.—The best part of butter at Albany was made by W. and H. Knudsen of that city, Schuylkill county.

On Friday afternoon of last week, while Mr. Kench and family, (consisting of a wife and one daughter,) were at work in a field husking corn,

John H. Orvis, Esq., of this place, was thrown from his buggy on Sunday afternoon last, and badly hurt about the head.

On Tuesday evening last, as Mr. Andy Lytle, of Harris township, was entering his buggy at Pine Grove for the purpose of returning home,

MARRIED.

FREEST-SCHROYER.—On the 17th instant, by Samuel Gramley, Esq., John Freest, of Clinton county, to Miss Christina Schroyer, of Brush Valley.

DIED.

PAULKNER.—On Sunday, October 15th, 1871, Miss Louisa Paulkner, daughter of Allen and Charisa A. Paulkner of Phillipsburg, aged 25 years, 5 months and 2 days.

After a protracted illness of two years Louisa has passed from our midst into the better land.

Just before she died she called her parents, brother and sister to her bedside and bade them farewell, and to her sleeping mother she said, "I am resigned and ready."

"Oh, yes," said a fair critic, with that vivacity of speech and manner in which the beau seer indulges when packing a friend to pieces.

An editor out West stated that a great many young ladies were in the city in the fall.

A Chicago girl last week had a young man before a justice of the peace for imposing upon her, and the solemnity of Miss Christina Schroyer, to Miss Christina Schroyer, of Brush Valley.

We overheard the following conversation in print as it did in vocabulary.

The Democratic party has been calamitously defeated in Pennsylvania.

High hopes that burned, like stars, down to the bottom of the heavens of freedom.

When bitterest we need rest, but never sit us down and say, "There's nothing left but sorrow."
