

Democratic Watchman.

Friday Morning, August 30, 1889.

To CORRESPONDENTS. — No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. Geiss, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

—The corner stone of a new Reformed church will be laid at Coburn on Sunday the 8th of September.

—Dr. J. D. Wingate, a former resident of Bellefonte, and brother-in-law of County Superintendent Wolf, died at Carbondale last week.

—It is reported that Rev. Z. A. Yearick, of the Reformed church at Aaronburg, has accepted a call to preach at Mercersburg, where he will go about the 1st of October.

—J. W. Gephart, Esq., returned home on Monday evening from his European trip which included an attendance at the World's Sunday School Convention in London and a visit to the Exposition in Paris.

—Assistant Bishop Rulison, of the Episcopal Diocese of Central Pennsylvania, will visit the Episcopal parish in this place next Monday and administer the rite of confirmation to a large class of candidates for admission into the church.

—The best yield of oats, by the dozen of sheaves, that we have heard of the present season, is that of Mr. Isaac T. Behers of Half Moon, who threshed 35 dozen one day last week, from which he had 80 bushels.

—Some days ago Fish Romig, of Rebersburg, before engaging in a game of ball took off his vest, which contained a gold watch, and laid it down. When the game was over and he put on his vest he found that the watch had disappeared.

—Mrs. Ed. Smith, of Farrandville, on Saturday afternoon killed a big rattlesnake right at her back door, where her children were playing at the time. The reptile probably in a moment more would have gotten in his deadly work on one or more of the little ones.

—Quite a notable wedding occurred one day last week at Boalsburg in the marriage Mr. D. E. Kreamer to Miss Annie Condo at the home of the grandfather of the bride, Mr. James Price. There were sixty-five wedding guests, some of whom were from Bellefonte and Milesburg.

—There will be a festival held on the ground of the new church at Mt. Eagle, Saturday August 31st, afternoon and evening. Benefit for the new Christian church. A cornet band will be in attendance. The public is cordially invited to attend. By order of Superintendent.

—Complaints are made that the law protecting game, song and insectivorous birds is being openly and wantonly violated by boys and pot-hunters of a larger growth in this section of the country. These violators of the law should be looked after and proper punishment meted out to them.

—R. M. Magee, Esq., formerly of this place, at present in Philadelphia, greeted his many friends here about on Tuesday last. Mr. Magee is still successfully managing that popular Life Insurance Company—the Brooklyn—in Pennsylvania, but don't like Philadelphia as a place of residence as well as his former home.

—Mr. Thomas Farley, of Brookville, Jefferson county, brother of Mrs. James Caldwell, of this place, died suddenly last Saturday from an attack of rheumatism of the heart. As he was a man of unusually good health, never having known a day's sickness in his life, his sudden death was a great shock to his friends in this place.

—The coroner's jury that "sat on" the body of Charles Campi, a Swede, recently discovered in Hayes Run, near Eagleville, decided that his death came from accidental drowning, although at first there was a suspicion of foul play. He had gone in swimming with a companion, and in getting beyond his depth it is supposed he was drowned, and his companion disappeared. His body was found and the inquest held upon it the same day. The remains were interred at Eagleville, the Lutheran minister of that place officiating.

—A letter has been received in this place directed to the Board of Trade, an organization, however, which has but an imaginary existence, inquiring what inducements would be held out by the people of Bellefonte for the removal of a shoe manufacturing establishment from Philadelphia to this place, that will employ 150 hands and add about 450 people to our population. It is signed by J. E. Sollers, of the Sollers shoe Manufacturing Company. If it is shown that this is a bona fide offer and the proposals made are reasonable, it should meet with encouragement on the part of our people.

A DISTRESSING FATAL ACCIDENT.

It is not often that we are called upon to give the particulars of so distressing a fatal accident as that which happened on Wednesday afternoon to young Lorie Heisler, son of Mr. Charles Heisler, of this place, while he was assisting to load a large boiler on a car at W. B. Maitland's boiler works. The boiler, which was of great weight, was being rolled up onto a car by means of a rope and an incline made of heavy timbers. As it progressed up this inclined plane Lorie's duty was to place blocks in position to keep it from rolling back. He was enjoined to be careful as the work was dangerous. But unfortunately proper care was not exercised. The rope slipped, the blocks were unavailing in keeping the ponderous mass from rolling down, and the head of the poor boy was caught between the skids and the boiler and literally mashed. Death was instantaneous, the body, which was otherwise uninjured, falling to the ground between the timbers. It was taken to the boiler shop of Mr. Maitland where a coroner's inquest was held. The unfortunate boy was only about 14 years of age, bright and industrious, and was regularly employed at the shop. What makes his sad death peculiarly distressing is the fact that he was the only child, of his parents, who have the heartfelt sympathy of this entire community.

The following is the report of the inquest:

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, ss.

CENTRE COUNTY.

An inquisition indented and taken at Bellefonte in the county of Centre on the 27th day of August, A. D. 1889, before me, Samuel Foster, J. P. of the county aforesaid, upon the view of the body of Lorie Heisler, then and there lying dead. Upon the oaths of S. A. McQuiston, H. C. Crissman, H. D. Landis, Charles Beezer, Lafayette Muhollen and Lawrence Fesser, six good and lawful men aforesaid, who, being sworn to inquire on the part of the Commonwealth, when, where, how and after what manner the said Lorie Heisler came to his death, do say upon their oaths, that the said Lorie Heisler came to his death by accident while helping to load a boiler at the Bellefonte Boiler Works, the rope having slipped while loading the said boiler, and the said Lorie Heisler being caught between the boiler and the skid, thus crushing the top of his head, and causing instant death. They further report that after hearing considerable evidence, they find that Wm. Maitland, the proprietor of the Boiler Works, was very careful in the management of his works, and that he frequently cautioned the said Lorie Heisler to be very careful about accidents happening him; and we find that the said Wm. Maitland is in no way responsible for any negligence, and that the death of Lorie Heisler was purely an accident.

In witness whereof as well the aforesaid Justice of the Peace as the jurors aforesaid, have to this inquisition put their hands and seals on the day and year at the place first above mentioned. SAMUEL FOSTER, J. P., S. A. McQUISTON, H. D. LANDIS, J. L. MUHOLLAN, CHARLES BEEZER, LAWRENCE FESSER, H. C. CRISSMAN.

—The bucktail reunion at Philipsburg last week was a great success, affording much pleasure and satisfaction not only to the veterans who participated in it, but also to the large number of citizens who took an interest in the proceedings. On Wednesday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. R. Hartshorn, Curwensville; Vice President, J. V. Morgan, Round Top; Treasurer, E. A. Irvin, Curwensville and Secretary W. H. Rauch, Philadelphia. At the public meeting in the opera house in the evening the Bucktails were welcomed by a crowded and enthusiastic audience. The stage was handsomely decorated with bunting and flags, and was occupied by representative men of other regiments, and others, and also ladies of the Sheridan Circle. Among those of the former were: Major Wolfe, W. E. Landon, Judge Munson, Capt. C. T. Fryberger, Rev. Dr. Clerc, Burgess John Gowlard, W. H. Bryson, Dr. Humphreys, Col. Ed. Irvin, Hon. H. H. Brown, S. Jewitt, A. J. Graham, —Apley, and Capt. Mayers. Capt. C. T. Fryberger presided and greeted the veterans, to which Col. E. A. Irvin, of Curwensville, responded. On Thursday evening many of the old soldiers went to Clearfield and Curwensville to participate in the festivities which had been prepared for them at those places.

—Charles Noll, son of Mr. John Noll, of this place, who is connected with the telephone service in Lock Haven, met with an accident in the latter place last Saturday morning that nearly proved fatal. The line running to the new Normal School building having become crossed by telegraph wires he was sent to discover where the difficulty was. He climbed a pole and was engaged in separating the wires when the pole broke off near the ground, carrying the young man with it. It fell upon him, knocking him senseless. Upon his being taken to the office of Dr. Watson, where his wounds were dressed, it was found that his jaw was broken and he was otherwise seriously bruised. Fears were entertained that he was injured internally. He was brought to his home in Bellefonte on Monday and his attending physician is hopeful that he will bring him out all right again. Young Noll is an intelligent young man who graduated at the Bellefonte high school last spring, and had gone to Lock Haven about six weeks ago to take a position in the telephone office at that place.

—Another camp of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America has been organized in this county at Sandy Ridge,

THE CENTRE COUNTY PROHIBITIONISTS.

—We last week briefly alluded to the convention of the Prohibitionists of Centre county held at Unionville on the 20th inst., and gave the names of the gentlemen who were selected to act as delegates to the Prohibition State convention. After the report of the finance committee which showed that their accounts were square, it was decided to pledge $25 for State work in the county. The resolutions, expressing the feelings of the Prohibitionists after the great defeat of the 18th of June, were, however, the most interesting feature of the proceedings, and we give them as follows:

We, representatives and members of the Prohibition party in Centre county, in convention assembled, this 24th day of August, 1889, do hereby declare the following to wit:

Whereas, nonpartisan Prohibition by Constitutional Amendment has, within the last three years, suffered eight successive defeats in as many different states; in addition to which the repeal of the Amendment in Rhode Island demonstrates beyond cavil that Prohibition without a prohibitory party behind it is impracticable; and

Whereas, the Republican, the only old party even laying claim to sympathy with our cause, has in its recent State convention declared for high license, ignoring even a promise of Local Option to the twenty-nine counties giving majority for the Amendment; thus, and in numerous other ways, furnishing convincing proof that the liquor men remain in, and continue to dictate the policy not only of the Democratic but of the Republican party. Therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That we deem it the height of folly to try to convert a party from the error of its ways by remaining in said party and supporting its policy as dictated by the enemies of our cause.

Second, That if High License, as claimed, was a step toward prohibition, it should have insured instead of prevented the success of the next and final step, on the 18th of June last.

Third, That however pronounced in their temperance views the nominees of the old parties may be, they are unworthy of our support, because placed in nomination by powers already in affiliation with liquor men; hence, their personal views and temperate habits cannot command our suffrage, for in electing them to office we raise into power their party, and consequently a liquor party the dictates of which they are pledged to obey.

Fourth, That in County, State and Nation we will persistently and earnestly, by voice and by vote, support that party and that party only which by the liquor dealers is avoided and feared and by the old party leaders is sneered and ridiculed, while its votes are coveted and its voters if possible bribed; knowing that in this course we are right because we are acting contrary to the wishes of the foe we encounter.

Fifth, That in view of the treachery of the Republican leaders of our State in submitting the amendment to hold the temperance vote, and enacting so-called "high license" to effect its defeat when submitted, allowing a defeat which gave the Supreme Court a pretext to nullify the best provision of said law immediately after it had subverted its purpose in defeating the Amendment, and now audaciously thrusting us aside with a proposal to remedy said defeat, which they can not even pretend to accomplish for at least a year and a half—in view of all this, it behooves us as good citizens of the Old Keystone State to make our Commonwealth in fact as well as in name the keystone of the arch that shall bring the chasm into which our Nation must inevitably plunge, if corrupt politicians, under the lash of the whiskey oligarchy, shall continue to rule.

Sixth, That while we may honestly differ as to minor points we should be willing, for the sake of harmony on these points, that the majority should rule; remembering that unlike either of the old parties we have at least one issue on which we all agree; that issue is Prohibition. And we invite to full party fellowship all who on this one dominant issue are with us agreed, believing that our party can and will remove sectional differences, promote national unity, and insure the best welfare of our country, State and Nation.

Seventh, That this convention appoint a committee of three to formulate rules for adoption at our next nominating convention, for the future government of our county conventions and delegate elections.

J. ZEIGLER, Isaac Geiss, Committee.

—The apparatus for the production of gas at the Bellefonte Nail Works is nearly completed. Its object is to furnish a fuel for the operation of the works that will be more economical and effective than bituminous coal in its crude state. In the old method of burning coal under boilers and in puddling furnaces a large percentage of its heat-producing properties is wasted, but this loss will be saved by converting it into gas and using the latter for fuel. A surplus of production can be stored in tanks and used when required. There will be no smoke arising from its combustion, nor will any smoke be produced by the process of converting the coal into gas. It is pretty much on the same principle as the fuel furnished by the natural gas wells. It has been suggested that this gas could be used in operating the glass works, and might be instrumental in reviving that suspended enterprise.

—The public school teachers of Bellefonte are preparing to begin their fall and winter campaign. The schools in the Allegheny street stone building will open on Wednesday, September 11, and all in the Bishop-street building except the High School, will begin on Thursday, the 12th. The fall term of the High School will commence on Monday, September 23. For some of the schools the term during the year has been extended to nine months. This includes the Primary and First Intermediate grades.

—One day last week W. C. Kress, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Lock Haven, had a slight stroke of paralysis at Jamestown, Dakota, where he was visiting. It partially disabled his left arm, side and leg.

—No preparations appear to have been made in this place for the observance of Labor Day, which comes next Monday, September 2nd.

—It is rumored that the owners of the Williamsport Grit contemplate a dissolution of partnership, and that Mr. Rianhard offers $30,000 for the interest of the Lamade Brothers, or will take $15,000 for his own interest. In the event of the latter's withdrawal he may go into business in Springfield, Ohio, or Rochester, New York.

THE BIG SHOW COMING.—Sparks Bros. & Sterens Mammoth Uncle Tom's Cabin Company and pavilion opera house will exhibit at Bellefonte Sept. 5. An excellent rendition of the immortal drama. Watch for the street parade. Children admitted to the afternoon performance for 10 cents. General admission 25 cents. See large bills for particulars.

—The people of the town of Lamar in Clinton county, being ambitious of having a boardwalk along their principal thoroughfare, adopted the novel method of raising the money for that purpose by holding a festival which came off last Saturday and was attended by a large number of people from the neighborhood. An excursion went from Milesburg attended by the band of that place.

—The Educational News, in regretting that Prof. George P. Bible is no longer connected with the Lock Haven Normal School, says: Mr. Bible will not be connected with any normal school this year, but will reside in Lock Haven and have a class in elocution and will do his usual work at the county institutes. He has heretofore been a drawing card for school institutes and societies and will doubtless so continue.

KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN EAGLE.—Next Monday, September 2nd, there will be a reunion of the Knights of the Golden Eagle at Lewisburg. A parade will come off at 1 o'clock p. m. A number of Castles from a distance will be in attendance, and many prominent State officers will be there. Arrangements have been made for excursion trains on the railroads. A special will be run to Spring Mills, leaving Lewisburg at 10 p. m.

—Miss Nora McClain, daughter of Mrs. McClain, a resident of Allegheny street, this place, died last week at Mount Saint Vincent Convent near New York, of which she had been an inmate for some years as one of the sisters under the name of Mary Alma. She was but 27 years of age although she had been in the convent for about eleven years engaged in the humane work in which the sisters are so efficient. In addition to her mother, her sister Ella resides in Bellefonte. The death of this exemplary young lady who at so early an age devoted her life to the cause of religion and charity, abandoning pleasures that are so seductive to the young, has been a severe stroke to those to whom she had endeared herself by her many excellent qualities. She will be greatly missed in the sisterhood of which she had become so devoted a member.

A PROMPT INSURANCE COMPANY.—The following which we get from the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin is but a repetition of the prompt manner in which the Brooklyn Life Insurance company has always been noted for doing its business. That paper says: R. M. Magee, Esq., manager of agencies for Pennsylvania for Brooklyn Life Insurance Company, New York, was in the city yesterday, to pay to the widow of Hon. Hugh H. Cummin, $5,856.40, although the claim would not have been due until the 23d of October. In addition, the proofs of the claim were not presented to the company until yesterday morning. That this is prompt payment and a credit to the company cannot be disputed. The accumulation or profit in this case was $856.40, being 33 per cent. of the entire amount paid in.

—A singular shooting case, and one that might have had fatal consequences, but fortunately didn't, occurred in Lock Haven last Sunday night. It appears that Nelson Vanatta, living on Peach street, was about going to bed and picked up a loaded self-cocking bull-dog revolver to remove it to another place from where it had been lying. While looking at it one of his fingers in some way became entangled in the trigger and it went off, the ball going through the window and entering the kitchen window of the Rathgeber house just after that individual had entered the door with a bucket of water in his hand. The ball struck Mr. Rathgeber in the breast near the heart, making a large hole, but Dr. Ball says it struck a rib bone and was repelled and bounded out again, a fact that undoubtedly saved Rathgeber's life. When the pistol went off Vanatta was in the up stairs room over his kitchen. The distance between the two houses is very considerable. The next morning Mr. Rathgeber suffered a good deal of pain where the bullet struck him, but beyond that there was no serious injury. This was another warning against the careless handling of fire arms.

TENT AND RAILROAD ARRANGEMENT.

—PATRONS' PIC-NIC—EXHIBITION.—The committee on the Patrons' Picnic and Exhibition, to be held in "Fort Woods," near Centre Hall, on the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of September, 1889, take pleasure in inviting you to attend our 16th annual gathering.

Col. Taylor's "Fort Woods" is a delightful grove of 15 acres proper, with additional grounds for horses and wagons. The Bellefonte and Lewistown turnpike runs through the grounds from the North and South, the Boalsburg and Millheim and Brushvalley roads from the East and West.

Railroad accommodations complete. Groves within twenty rods of the Centre Hall Station on the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad. Those from the East and South can come by Montandon on the P. & E. R. R. (of the Northern Central system.) Those from the North by way of Lock Haven, and those from the West via Tyrone and Bellefonte.

Trains will leave Bellefonte each day for Centre Hall at 6.00, 7.00, and 10.30 a. m., and 2.30, 4.30 and 6.15 p. m. Returning, trains will leave Centre Hall at 8.25 a. m. and 2.30, 4.28, 6.15 and 9.00 p. m., making connections with regular trains on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad both ways.

Special train will leave Sunbury each day at 7.55 a. m., and arrive at Centre Hall 11.30 a. m. In addition two regular trains will leave Montandon 5.50 a. m. and 2.05 p. m. Returning will leave Centre Hall 6.52 a. m. 3.20 and 8.30 p. m. Trains will leave Coburn each day for Centre Hall, 7.52 a. m. and 3.55 and 7.00 p. m. Returning leave Centre Hall at 6.52 a. m. and 3.50, 6.00 and 8.30 p. m. All trains stop at way stations.

Excursion tickets from all points on Pennsylvania Railroad system in the State, on card orders, September 14th to 20th inclusive, good to return until September 23rd inclusive, at single fare for the round trip. (Ticket orders furnished on application to the Chairman of Picnic, Hon. L. Rhone, Centre Hall, Pa.)

Excursion tickets to the public, (without ticket orders) at the same rate September 16th to 20th inclusive, good to return until September 21st inclusive from Tyrone, Lock Haven, and intermediate points and all points on Lewisburg and Tyrone branch from Montandon to Bellefonte, inclusive, and from Williamsport, Sunbury and intermediate points. Arrangements have been made with the railroads for the transportation of all baggage and necessary camping equipment free. A baggage room has been provided on the ground near Headquarters, where baggage can be checked for the accommodation of visitors, for a mere nominal sum. Post office and Telephone on the grounds.

The committee has arranged for a full supply of tents, so that all who desire can secure tents at the following rates: Wall tents 9x10ft.—$2.25. Tents should, as much as possible, be engaged in advance. All tents will be put up by committee ready for tent holders on arrival on ground.

The most delightful way to attend the picnic is to engage tents. A pleasant way for one or two families to go together instead of so many going into one tent as to be uncomfortable.

Bring with you camp equipage, lamp, bed clothing and chaff-ticks; straw will be furnished gratis with each tent.

There will be a first-class boarding house on the ground, kept by D. C. & J. A. Keller; the charges will be reasonable and hotels near by.

Hacks will be run at stated hours each day from the picnic ground to the top of NITTANY MOUNTAIN 1 1/2 miles distant, which affords the most interesting and magnificent view of varied landscape in the State. Hacks will also run to PENN CAVE, 3 miles distant, the most wonderful, interesting and attractive subterranean wonder to be witnessed anywhere. It is entered by boat on a sheet of pure chrysal water about 1200 feet long overhung with rock and ornamented by beautiful stalactites.

Hoping to hear from you early as to number of tents wanted.

LEONARD RHONE, Chairman.

CENTRE HALL, PA.

—Passengers on Day Express, due at Philipsburg at 4.30 p. m. on Thursday of last week, made a narrow escape from instant death, says the Ledger of that place. As the train was rapidly rounding the last curve on the south side of the big fill, the locomotive jumped the track and ploughed into the bank on the right hand side of the road, only escaping being plunged down that terrible embankment by about two feet. The passengers were thrown from their seats and the cars instantly filled with steam, smoke and dust. The terror and consternation which followed can easily be imagined. From 15 to 20 Philipsburgers were on the train, returning from camp meeting, and they hadn't yet recovered from their fright on reaching town at 6 o'clock.

—Landlord Brandon, of the Brock-erhoff, is in Milwaukee this week attending the convention of the G. A. R. as one of the delegates from Pennsylvania.

—The Wage Earners of Axe Mann will hold a Festival on Saturday evening August 31st in the grove near the Toll Gate on the Lewistown pike. A first class dancing platform has been erected and with the aid of a good orchestra the committee will be enabled to promise all who attend an enjoyable time. Refreshments will be served on the grounds.

—The ladies of the Methodist church at Unionville will hold a lawn festival to-morrow (Saturday) evening.

—Jerome Harper is away from town on a trip to Chicago and other points in the West.

—All the New Woollens, for the coming season now being received. Liberal Discount for early orders during the dull season. Our Fall stock will be the finest we have ever shown. Prices and a good fit guaranteed.

MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

WALL PAPER.—Large stock—must be sold. Prices astonishing, write for samples to JOHN M. DEAN & Co., Williamsport, Pa.

—Foreign and Domestic dried fruit and canned goods at Sechler & Co.'s.

—Fine cheese, Hams, Bacon, Dried Beef, and Canned Meats at Sechler & Co.'s.

Tribute of Respect.

Snow Shoe Aug. 23rd, 1889.

The committee appointed by Snow Shoe, No. 223 L. O. O. F. to draft resolutions concerning the death of our worthy brother, Mitchell Lucas, reports as follows:

Whereas, death has invaded our beloved order, and broken a link that binds our fraternity in Friendship, Love and Truth, when our worthy brother was stricken down in the prime of life;

And Whereas, the demise of brother Mitchell Lucas should admonish us to conduct our lives that our works of love and charity will remain bright lights to guide future generations longer after our bodies return to their native dust;

Whereas, in accordance with the inevitable laws of nature our beloved brother, Mitchell Lucas, a worthy member of Snow Shoe Lodge, No. 223 L. O. O. F. departed this life August 16th, 1889, in the 31st year and 2 days of his age;

Resolved, That while we mourn his loss we will cherish his memory, and try to imitate his good acts during his sojourn among us; that we tender to the mother and friends of our late brother our sympathy in this bereavement and commend them to the care and protection of him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That our chapter be draped in mourning for the space of 90 days, and that each surviving brother wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the friends of the deceased brother, and to the papers of the county for publication.
