THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY NOMINATIONS.—The Republican County Convention met in the Court House in this place at 1 o'clock p. m., on Wednesday, and was fairly well attended, with a few of the districts unrepresented. It was called to order by Chairman Brown, and the organization was effected by Mr. J. B. Childs, of Phillipsburg, being elected President, with W. F. Reeder, Esq., of Bellefonte, as reading clerk, and Oscar Miles, of Millsburg, and J. H. Barton, of Unionville, as Secretaries.

The first nomination made was for Associate Judge. The names offered for nomination were Wm. Thompson, of College township; A. B. Rishel, of College; Geo. Dale, of College; Wm. J. Thompson, of Pottery Mills; Michael M. Musser, of Harris. The number of candidates clearly indicated that Republican aspirants had quite a desire for the honors and emoluments of the Associate Judgeship. It is evident that the aim of the party is to get entire control of the judicial department in this county and run things with a high hand to suit themselves and the interest of their party. But if we are not greatly mistaken the people will object to such an arrangement. They have already felt the injury of having some of the most important of the county offices filled by Republicans, notably the Commissioners' office where the control of the present incompetent majority of the Board is increasing the county debt and preparing a future load of taxation for the tax-payers. The voters are certain not to make the situation worse than it already is by putting the court entirely under Republican control.

It took but one ballot to determine the nomination of Associate Judge, as follows: Wm. Thompson, 7 votes; A. B. Rishel, 4; Geo. Dale, 38; Wm. J. Thompson, 5; Michael M. Musser, 61. The nomination of Musser was then made unanimous. The nomination for Prothonotary was next in order, and but two names were offered, Wilson J. Fleming, of Bellefonte, and Guyer Mattern, of Patton township. The ballot stood 80 for Fleming and 36 for Mattern.

So easy a victory for the Bellefonte candidate, with so large a majority on the first and only ballot, was quite a surprise to the uninitiated who had not been allowed to get behind the scenes, but it was taken as a matter of course by those who understood that Mr. Fleming was the man that had been selected by the ring of politicians who manipulate the Republican movements in Centre county. Personally Mr. Fleming is an unobjectionable man, but he will be objectionable to a large majority of the voters as a ring candidate. The objection will be strengthened by his being put up against Mr. Schaeffer who is universally acknowledged to be one of the most efficient and accommodating incumbents that ever occupied the Prothonotary's office. As the opponent of so good and popular an officer as the Democratic nominee unquestionably is, Fleming's political goose may be considered as already cooked.

The convention next took up the nomination for District Attorney. There being no opposition to him, Wm. E. Gray, Esq., of Bellefonte, was nominated by acclamation. Mr. Gray is a nice young man and means well, and would certainly like to do the State's prosecuting in this county for the next three years for such emoluments as may be in the job, but the voters are not prepared to discharge the present experienced and efficient prosecuting attorney for a green hand at the business. Mr. Meyer has proved himself an excellent man for the official position he now holds and in which the people are going to keep him for three years more. He has just effected a reform in getting the grand juries to work immediately upon the opening of court, which not only facilitates the transaction of business, but saves about $500 each term in the ordinary expense of running the court. It will be the part of wise voters to extend his opportunity of bringing about such reforms.

After his nomination Mr. Gray was called on for a speech and spoke his piece very nicely. He made a good many speeches in the campaign last year, and those who heard him will remember that he said a great deal about the blessing that a high tariff was to the working people, and how they would secure plenty of work and good wages if they would only elect Harrison and maintain the tariff. It would be a good joke on candidate Gray if those to whom he will apply for votes this year should ask him whether those tariff benefits he promised last year are lying around loose where they could get their hands on them, and what has become of the two dollars a day and roast beef which were to reward workmen for voting for Harrison and the tariff?

Next in order the convention nominated a candidate for County Surveyor, of the contestants being Jesse Cleaver, of Unionville, who got 63 votes, and P. W. Fletcher, of Howard, for whom 52 votes were cast. The ticket was completed by the unanimous nomination of Dr. J. W. Woods, of Harris, for Coroner. Lawrence L. Brown was re-elected county chairman for the year 1890.

John A. Daley, of Curtin township, has been appointed a watchman in the Patent office at Washington.

A display of C. K. Sober's wonderful marksmanship will be one of the attractions at the Grangers' picnic.

The occultation of the planet Jupiter by the Moon on Tuesday evening had a large number of observers in Bellefonte.

Among the recent happy matrimonial events was the marriage of Mr. Austin Grumly, of Aaronsburg, and Miss Annie Blint, of Logantown.

After an absence of nineteen years from Aaronsburg, Dr. Long, of Fredericksburg, Va., has recently been paying a visit to the former place.

James E. Scott, some time ago connected with the Keystone Gazette office, of this place, and more recently of Gallitzin, is about moving to Alliance, Ohio.

There will be a festival held in the Court House yard, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, September 11th and 12th, for the benefit of the United Brethren Church.

The funeral of Lorie E. Heiler, the young lad who met with such a sad death last week at Matlands boiler works was very largely attended Thursday afternoon of last week.

Rev. John L. Baker, a former Bellefonte pastor, will preach next Sabbath, September 8th, morning and evening, in the United Brethren Church, corner of Water and Thomas Streets.

Mr. Ellsworth Heverly having received his commission as postmaster at Mt. Eagle, has moved the office from the store of R. C. Leathers to his own home, which he has fixed up in good style for the purpose intended.

Mrs. Matilda Courter, wife of Squire William Courter, of Eaglesville, died on Thursday morning of last week of typhoid fever, after an illness of three weeks, she having been preceded by her half-sister, Mrs. Emma Streetar, of Bellefonte, Millin county, who died on the 21st of August, of consumption.

The members of the United Brethren church of Bellefonte will hold a festival in the Court House yard, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, the 11th and 12th of September, where the usual refreshments will be served. Proceeds for benefit of the church. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

A harvest home picnic which will be participated in by the farmers of Nittany, Penns, Brush and Bald Eagle Valleys, will be held on the Clintondale camp grounds in Nattany Valley on Saturday, the 15th inst. In addition to amusements agricultural addresses will be delivered. In the evening there will be a festival for the benefit of the Nittany charge of the Evangelical Association.

THE PENNSYLVANIA VETERANS.—Through the kindness of Major R. H. Foster we have been favored with the following official programme of the exercises of the 14th P. V. Regiment in the Gettysburg ceremonies next week:

Wednesday, September 11th, the members of the Regiment will assemble at the monument in the Wheat Field at one o'clock, P. M. at which hour the dedication ceremonies will take place.

Phillipsburg Pickings. A Batch of Interesting News Collected and Written By Our Own Special Correspondent.

The colored people of our town and vicinity are holding a camp-meeting in the grove near Gray's week. It is largely attended.

A report is in circulation that Mr. Sol. Schmidt, of the firm, of H. & S. Schmidt, this place, is shortly to be married, the lady of his choice being Miss Tillie Handler, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Hoover, Hughes & Co. expect to put their mammoth saw mill, at Curwensville, in operation by next Tuesday. We are told that they employ over fifty men at the mill, and all get good wages.

The store building, together with all its contents, at Ashcroft Mines, belonging to M. B. Hyson, went up into smoke on last Sunday night. The work was that of an incendiary. Loss about $1500, which was partially insured.

The following sport came off at the Driving Park on Labor Day: Two horse races, a foot race and a sparring match. An address was delivered by our young friend, Larry Melbon, ad of Clearfield. The crowd present, however, was rather slim.

Centre Council, No. 803, Royal Arcanum, was expected to go to Houtzdale yesterday on a basket picnic excursion, and although we are writing a little previous, yet if it didn't rain yesterday, the crowd that left this place would have a delightful time.

The marriage of Miss Mary Gill, of this place, and Mr. Owen Burns, of Clearfield, will take place at the latter town on Thursday morning, September 12th. A reception will be given them at the residence of Wm. Gill, 14th street, this place, at 10:30 Thursday morning.

The Baptist Convention, which convened in this place, was one of the most successful gatherings of its kind ever held in Phillipsburg. The convention lasted three days and about two hundred delegates from other towns were present. It will convene at Tyrone next year.

The lawn festival, which was held at the residence of D. S. Rumbarger, on Saturday night by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, was the most successful ever held by them. They took in almost one hundred dollars, and their expenses were only three dollars and a few cents.

Mr. Ritchey, the new Principal of our schools, has arrived in town, and is getting things in readiness for the opening of the school on next Monday morning. He is a fine young man, has the necessary pushing qualifications, and will no doubt make an efficient, capable and energetic Principal.

Col. E. E. Hagerty, one of our most prosperous bakers, has purchased the Phillipsburg Coal & Land Co., for lot on northeast corner of 4th and Pine street, for six hundred dollars, and broke ground Monday for the erection of a fifteen hundred dwelling. We are assured that it will be an ornament to that locality.

A report is going the rounds, and one which we believe is the truth, that a dry goods clerk and one of our most excellent young ladies, are about to become man and wife, and the invitations are expected to be distributed in a couple of weeks. It will be a huge wedding when it comes off. Look out for it.

A sparring match for points, between William Sinner, of Phillipsburg, and Ed. Curie, of England, will take place at the Driving Park, in this place, on Thursday, October 10th, for one hundred dollars a side. Six rounds will be fought, Marquis Queensburg rules, with eight ounce gloves. We'll bet our last nickel on our Bill, for he's an old time slugger. He'll "knock the bloody 'ell" out of the Englishman without any over exertion.

The coal trade in the Phillipsburg district, which promised a couple of weeks ago to become more active, has again taken a downward tendency, and fallen into the same old dull rut of a couple of months ago. The cause is attributed by the operators to the scarcity of cars on both the Pennsylvania and Beech Creek railroads, but whether this is true your correspondent does not know; at any rate the coal business is not what it really should be at this time of the year, as September is usually lively month for the coal business. Never has there existed a more friendly relation between the operator and the miner than there is at present in the Phillipsburg district. The miner appearing to be satisfied with the price he receives for his coal, and the operator, on his part, being satisfied with the price he receives for his coal, and the operator, on his part, being satisfied with the price he receives for his coal.

The word "protection" has an alluring sound; the thing it really stands for is damnable. The mill owners of Connecticut and Massachusetts were hoodwinked last autumn. They were told if the protective tariff were taken off their raw materials they would be ruined. They therefore voted for the republican policy, and went to sleep with the feeling that they had done a public service.

They now see that unless they get their raw materials free of duty they will soon have to close their works and lose what little they have made. A very great change in this respect has taken place within a few months. Eastern manufacturers are in the dumps; they voted for the sword which cut their own throats, unless they jam back in its sheath. They now demand a very material reduction of tariff duties. It is a matter of life and death with them.

They couldn't understand this last year, but now their decaying business has made it altogether too plain. They are penitent, but the penitence comes too late.

If they had re-established the Democratic policy of a lower tariff their business would now be booming. They want a large market for their products. If they could get access to the markets of the world they would undersell all competitors, and their mills might be run on full time with profit to the owners and workmen alike.

But the Republican bosses won't admit this, and so the mill owners will lodge bankruptcy if they can, and the laborer must keep from starving if possible.

It is not Mr. Harrison's fault. He is a good man with a bad theory; that is all. The Democrats have been sneered at by party workers because the last campaign was an "educational" one, in which the Democratic party was knocked out.

All right. Mr. Harrison's four years will also be educational, and when they end the people will refuse to be the cat's paws of monopolists any longer. Then the Republican party, with its protective humbuggery, will be sent flying. The people are learning their lesson very rapidly.

Below is an act of Assembly, approved April 26, 1889, that will be of interest to many of our readers:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act, no stallion, bull, boar, ram or jack, shall be permitted to run at large on the public highways of this Commonwealth.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful for any person finding any such animal running at large to have the same impounded, and such impounding advertised within ten days from date of impounding, in one weekly newspaper for two weeks, published nearest the place where such animal is impounded, and if said animal be not reclaimed within twenty days after such advertised notice by payment of full costs and charges, together with one dollar to the person causing the said animal to be impounded, it shall be sold at public sale, and the amount realized from sale, less the said cost and charges, shall be paid to the treasurer of the school district wherein such animal is impounded.

An unusually large number of veteran warriors will be present and the dedicatory ceremonies will be highly interesting to old soldiers and civilians alike.

September 11th and 12th will be Pennsylvania days, and the State monuments will be dedicated.

For the benefit of visitors the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all principal stations in the State of Pennsylvania to Gettysburg, September 7th to 12th, valid for return until September 13th inclusive, at the rate of a single fare for the round trip.

Can Afford to Sit Still.

The New York Herald, one of the ablest papers in the country, says: The Democratic leaders can afford to sit still while the country slowly drifts in their direction.

The people made a mistake last autumn when they voted for a Republican policy, and are beginning to see it.

As to Mr. Harrison, he represents policies, however, which he is bound to carry out. He will undoubtedly be true to his convictions, and there is the danger, for the more he insists in carrying out those convictions the worse it will be for the country.

Hamilton, the father of the Republican party, was an aristocrat. He had no sympathy with the governing masses, always distrusted them and preferred a monarchy to a republic. He had very little faith in the perpetuity of American institutions, because he despised what are known as "the people."

He felt that the moneyed class should be the ruling class and that the masses ought to be kept in the background.

Mr. Harrison's party has inherited that conviction and represents it at this moment.

Under the rule of that party the rich continually grow richer and the poor continually poorer.

Its policy is, therefore, a political blunder, and in its last results will become a political crime.

It consistently throws its influence in favor of the monopolist and is the natural parent of the combine.

While it continues syndicates flourish like a green bay tree and the workmen will be ruthlessly sacrificed.

What it calls protection is simply a protection of a few, while the many are driven to strikes in order to obtain wages above the starvation point.

The word "protection" has an alluring sound; the thing it really stands for is damnable.

The novelists of the French Crooles, Mr. George W. Cable, in a recent delivery at Chautauque, censured the south "for refusing to educate its colored population." The New Orleans Times-Democrat calls a halt on Mr. Cable, and declares that "a section which, impoverished as it is, has given $37,000,000 for the education of its negroes, can scarcely be regarded as refusing them education."

The Times-Democrat prints a table of the amount given in proportion to each $100 of property, showing that the South has been even more liberal than New England and the Middle States.

It appears from this table that Mississippi has given proportionately more than any other state in the Union; that Missouri, West Virginia, and Arkansas follow next in the order named; Ohio comes next, and then Connecticut, with an amount the same as the average of the entire South. The average for the New England states is higher than that of the Middle States, Pennsylvania being credited with the smallest school contribution in proportion to wealth of any state in the list.

The Judge and the Granger.

They Have a Friendly Conversation at the Sunbury Depot.

Northumberland County Democrat. Hon. Victor Piolett, of Wysox, Bradford county, was in this city on Monday on his way to attend the Grangers' picnic at Williams' Grove. He has always attended the picnics and all the Democratic State Conventions. While standing at the railroad station Judge Bucher, of Lewisburg, came along and shook hands with the old granger and complimented him on his good looks and how easily he was bearing his years. After a few bantering remarks the Judge said:

"Piolett, at a State Convention over twenty years ago, I remember you told me how David Wilmot had gone to bed one night up in Bradford county, and when he awoke in the morning he said the great Democratic party had left him, and that they all turned over in the night, and that he was right, while the entire party was wrong. The way you acted last fall put me greatly in mind of your old story about Wilmot." (It will be remembered that Piolett refused to support Cleveland last fall on account of his stand on the question of protection.)

"I tell you, Judge, I did not leave the party," said the old granger. "They left me and went after strange gods. I helped to beat Cleveland and I would do it again."

"That is just what you told me about Wilmot; you used to swear about him for the same thing," answered the Judge.

"You are a better Judge than you are a politician," was the old gentleman's last remark as he hurried away to catch the train.

A Lying Renegade. The novelist of the French Crooles, Mr. George W. Cable, in a recent delivery at Chautauque, censured the south "for refusing to educate its colored population." The New Orleans Times-Democrat calls a halt on Mr. Cable, and declares that "a section which, impoverished as it is, has given $37,000,000 for the education of its negroes, can scarcely be regarded as refusing them education."

It is now occupied by Mr. F. L. Olds. The other lots are vacant and the adjoining this one. This is a first class chance for an investment, as the property can be leased very advantageously and with no difficulty whatever.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third cash on confirmation of sale; one-third in one year, and one-third in two years, the second and third payments with their interest semi-annually, to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises. For any further information inquire of the undersigned at State College, Pa., or of James L. Hamill, Attorney for Administrator, at his office in Bellefonte.

W. C. PATTERSON, Administrator. 34-35-4
