

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., October 4, 1889.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. Geiser, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Sheriff Leiby has taken six prisoners to the Western Penitentiary convicted at the Clinton county court last week.

Esquire Reifnyder, one of Milheim's most prominent citizens and always a straight Democrat, had business in town on Monday.

Henry Iddings, a former highly respected citizen of Bald Eagle valley died at Bellefonte, Blair county on the 20th ult. His remains were interred at Unionville.

Hon. Leonard Rhone, rested from the fatigue of his duties at the Granger's picnic, was in town on Monday, looking brighter and better than we have seen him look since his serious illness in the summer.

Dr. Lytle, one of Phillipsburg's most popular physicians, performed the double duty on Monday last, of accompanying the prisoner Hopkins to the county Jail, and of attending the meeting which was held for candidate Boyer's benefit, in this place on the same day.

Mrs. Jennie Gunter, of Phillipsburg, is one of the kind of ladies who knows a good thing when she sees it. In a note enclosing $2 to be credited on her subscription list account, she says: "I can't do without the WATCHMAN in my family." The plecter such women are in the country the more intelligent families we would have to be proud of.

Mayor Foreman, of Williamsport, has received a message from Gov. Beaver saying "you can count $15,000 as coming from me in your fund for distribution and proceed accordingly." This amount is to be applied to reimbursing the local fund for money expended in cleaning the streets after the flood, the Governor having at the time assured the city the funds necessary for the work.

The Lock Haven Democrat tells this snake story, which our readers can believe as much of as they have a mind to. Joseph Trick and two companions, while rambling over Bald Eagle Mountain last Sunday presumably in search of chestnuts, were disagreeably surprised to meet twenty-five rattlesnakes and two watersnakes, all of which they killed. This is a large snake story, and at the same time possesses the virtue of being a true one. It is very seldom that a party of men, especially so small in number, succeed in killing so many snakes in one day. The men were not out after snakes, but it appears the snakes were out after them, possibly because the trio were desecrating the Lord's day by hunting for chestnuts.

At a Hungarian christening at Morrisdale on Sunday last, a lot of drunken participants got into a fight which terminated in a regular riot and the murder of one of the number, Mike Ketch. Several others of the Huns were badly cut and bruised and the noise made during their revel was heard a mile and a half distant. The body of the murdered Hun is said to have been badly mutilated and showed much brutal work on the part of his assailants. Four arrests have already been made and the suspected parties are now in the Clearfield jail. There are warrants out for the arrest of nine others, supposed participants, and altogether it looks as if our neighboring county would have a wholesale hanging before many days. Fifteen kegs of beer and one keg of whiskey is reported as having been consumed on the occasion.

By reference to our Phillipsburg correspondence it will be seen that it is denied that one of the Hungarians was murdered although several of them were seriously hurt.

The WATCHMAN, as well as other papers of this section, did Constable Gorton of Phillipsburg, an unintentional wrong last week, which it now desires to correct. In our account of the Hopkins murder, carelessness on the part of the Constable was given as a reason why Hopkins was not brought to jail, on failing to furnish bail for his appearance at Court at the time he was bound over for abusing his wife, some two weeks before the tragedy. Had this been done the terrible crime would not have been committed, at least it would not have been committed, at the time it was. Since our publication of last week we have learned that it was at the special request of his wife and mother-in-law that Constable Gorton allowed him to go at large ostensibly to find bail, and that they made this request hoping that he would either reform and do better or leave the country. They did not want to appear against him at Court, and in the hope that something would turn up to save them that humiliation they made the request, and Constable Gorton complied with it. To him no fault attaches at all.

RAILROAD WRECK.—Last Friday afternoon an accident happened to Conductor Reimer's passenger train on the Bellefonte and Lemont railroad which came very near being disastrous in its consequences. When approaching Humes' Mill, beyond Axe Mann, a cow made its appearance upon the track and as frequently happens in such cases there was a collision between the engine and the animal. Engineer Cherry attempted to stop the train, but as it was going at a rapid rate of speed the cow was struck and thrown into the air, but in descending she fell upon the track and getting under the wheels of the engine derailed it. The ponderous piece of machinery bumped along the ties for some distance and then went over the embankment. It was followed by the tender and both were badly damaged. The combination baggage and passenger car was also derailed and was hauled over the ties for the distance of about a hundred feet, but fortunately it did not follow the motive power down the embankment and was not injured, although the passengers were badly shaken up, they being more scared than hurt. The stove was upset and would have got in its usual destructive work if the flames had not been extinguished through the efforts of the passengers. The wrecking train from Sunbury was soon on the scene of disaster, and had the track cleared for travel and traffic in a short time. The loss to the company was about $5000.

THE PHILIPSBURG MURDERER IN THE COUNTY JAIL.—On Monday morning last, Constable Gorton, of Phillipsburg, accompanied by two assistants, brought Hopkins, the murderer of his wife and mother-in-law, to the county jail. So well had those having him in charge guarded the secret as to when he was to be brought over, that none but the officers of the law knew anything about it. As a result, there was neither a crowd about the depot nor any unusual excitement upon his arrival. The train that brought him was stopped at the nail-works, where the cot that he was stretched on was transferred to a wagon which hauled him up to the jail. Dr. Lytle who accompanied the officers tells us that he stood the ride very well and seemed none the worse of the trip after reaching his cell. He is still unrepentant and shows no sign of regret for the commission of the horrid crime. Physically he is unable to help himself in any way, his left side, shoulder and neck being paralyzed from the effects of his wounds.

WAS IT AN ATTEMPT AT HIGH-WAY ROBBERY?—On Saturday morning last Wm. Johnson, of Centre Hall, who sells rustic stands and tables, left home about three o'clock with the intention of doing a full day's business along the Bald Eagle Valley. When coming down the hill at Mann's Aco-Factory while it was yet too dark to see his horse he was seized and stopped by some one who immediately tried to crawl on his wagon, at the same time demanding his money. Considerably frightened, Johnson answered that he had no money and struck his horse which suddenly started, throwing the fellow, who was on the wheel at the time, full length on the road. Johnson did not look back to see what became of him, but hurried on to town, not knowing exactly whether it was a case of actual attempt at highway robbery or an effort on the part of some one to make him the victim of a practical joke.

COMPLIMENTARY TO A FORMER BELLEFONTE.—The following which we get from the Pittsburg Dispatch, we know, will be read with pleasure by many of our patrons here about who have a personal acquaintance with and a warm side for, the gentleman referred to. It is from the Derry correspondent of the paper named: The presentation of an elegant silver tea set to Foreman Jack McClelland, of the round house here, the other evening, indicated both his popularity with his associates, the donors, and their sincere regrets that he must leave them, though he goes to the more responsible position of round house foreman at Altoona.

APPEALS FOR THE JOHNSTOWN SCHOOLS.—D. M. Wolf, Superintendent of the Centre County Schools, issues the following: Strong appeals for help from the school authorities of Johnstown and the other flood districts of the Conemaugh Valley have reached me. Their need of help is extreme and I trust that our teachers and schools, and friends of education in general, will respond promptly and liberally. Please send contributions to Prof. D. M. Wolf, Bellefonte, designating how much is for Johnstown and how much for the other districts.

EXCURSION TO SUNBURY.—The tick ets sold for excursion to Sunbury, leaving Bellefonte by regular train 6 o'clock a. m. 9th., will be good to return next day.

Some days ago Mr. Foster Williams returned home from a days hunt along the Bald Eagle, with a string of ten gray and eight black squirrels.

The Bellefonte Band will accompany the G. A. R. excursion to Sunbury on the 9th inst.

Last Monday Howard Leber, of York, was lodged in jail at Lock-Haven on a charge of forgery. It is charged that Leber, shortly after the late flood, was working for Mrs. Mary B. Irvin, in Lock-Haven, and being paid by her with a check he became acquainted with her signature. It is further stated that he owed his landlady a board bill which he paid with a note which the name of Mrs. Irvin was signed, but not by that lady. The warrant was issued for Leber's arrest nearly a month ago, but the young man was not captured until the time above mentioned.

The splash let off by the lumbermen of Williamsport last Sunday morning for the purpose of taking down stream the logs scattered between that city and Sunbury, seems to have worked with excellent success. Reports from down the river are to the effect that a nice rise in the water was produced, and large numbers of logs were taken to where they were in reach of the jack mills. The expedient will be repeated, and it is expected that in this way all the logs will be collected.

The will of Samuel H. Reynolds, Esq., was admitted to probate in the orphan's Court of Lancaster county on Monday last. It was made on December 13th, 1888. The first codicil to it was dated July 27, 1886, and the second August 12, 1888. In his will he gives to his wife during her life or widowhood the use of the mansion in which he lived, and the interest of $75,000. This amount he increased to $100,000 by the codicil made last August. The remainder of his estate he divided into five equal shares, one for each child and they also participate equally in the money set apart for Mrs. Reynolds, after her death. The executors named are his brother, Wm. F. Reynolds, and his sons, Wm. Frederick and Samuel H. The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities is the trustee of the fund set apart for the daughters. David McMullen, Esq., is the attorney for the executors. The estate is estimated at $250,000, made up of personal property, except his residence on North Duke street and the building on East King street, in which his office was. The family will continue to reside in Lancaster. It was reported shortly after Mr. Reynolds' death, it was the purpose of Mrs. Reynolds to make her future home in Bellefonte.

GRAND REUNION OF G. A. R. BOYS AT SUNBURY, OCT. 9th.—The meeting of Grand Army Posts at Sunbury bids fair to be the largest ever seen in this part of the State. Detachments of Peters Bros. Post; Dr. Geo. L. Potter Post; Grove Bros. Post, and Wm. I. Furst Post will join here, and all along the line of the railroad to Sunbury the G. A. R. Posts will consolidate on the train as "The organization of Centre county Posts of the G. A. R." The excursion will be by regular train, leaving Bellefonte Station at 6 a. m. and arriving at Sunbury at 9:40 a. m. in time for the grand parade which moves at 11 a. m. sharp.

The rates of fare to Sunbury and return will be, from Bellefonte, $2.25; from Lemont, $1.99; from Oak Hall, $1.94; from Linden Hall, $1.88; from Centre Hall, $1.72; from Rising Spring $1.54; from Coburn $1.34. The tickets sold for the above will be good to return next day, but for the accommodation of those who wish to return same night a Special Return Train will leave Sunbury Station for Bellefonte at 10 o'clock p. m. Excursionists will please understand that this excursion is to Sunbury and not to any other point. The rates of fare are for Sunbury and return to the place they departed from.

The Railroad company headquarters at Williamsport have afforded the G. A. R. much accommodation in getting up this excursion and liberal patronage is expected from the citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity who may wish to see probably the largest gathering and parade of the veterans of the late war ever witnessed in the central part of the State, or perhaps in the whole State.

R. C. IRVIN, Secretary.

During his visit to town on Monday last, candidate Boyer did the WATCHMAN the honor of calling and paying his compliments. He doesn't have hoofs nor does he wear horns, and outside of his politics, is as near a gentleman and a good citizen as the majority of the men you run across. It is the principle he represents politically, the associations he must keep if elected, and the manner in which the office he seeks must be conducted under his party's orders, if he is successful, that the intelligent and honest voter objects to.

Simon Loeb, the popular clothier of Bellefonte, has just received a large assortment of Fall and Winter goods which he is offering to the public at rare bargains. Mr. Loeb made a happy hit in his purchases and buying so largely succeeded in securing the largest and best selection ever offered to the people of Centre county. You will save the expense of many miles railroad travel by buying your Fall and Winter goods from Mr. Loeb. Go and get his prices.

Mrs. Gilmore has the sole agency for the celebrated Centeneri kid gloves.

Wanted.—50,000 pounds of wool. Lyon & Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Peter Lauck, Esq., the old wheel horse of Democracy up in Ferguson township, never forgets the WATCHMAN when in town. We had a pleasant call from him on Monday last, and the tab on his paper will hereafter read Jan. 1, '90.

Miss Mollie Snyder has gone to New York and Philadelphia and will buy the largest and finest line of millinery ever brought to Bellefonte or Centre county. With it she brings an expert trimmer and would ask citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity to call and examine her grades. Opening, Wednesday, October 9.

There were fifty or sixty private conveyances in the procession at the funeral of Miss Laura Eckly, on Monday.

Piles of fall styles of hats as high as a hay stack at Lewin's.

Mrs. Frank Baney, of this place left on Tuesday for a visit to her sister and other friends in Illinois.

Mrs. Robert Gilmore is now in New York and Philadelphia making her selections of millinery goods. Mrs. G's. experience in her business gives assurance that what she purchases will be the latest styles and best quality.

At the concert to be given under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, the 11th inst. Prof. Bane, of Boston, the celebrated guitar soloist, will be one of the attractions from a distance to take part in it. Admission only 35 cents.

Miss Macbride and niece Grace are now in New York and Philadelphia selecting Winter stock. They will attend the October opening and have the latest. Miss Grace will give attention to children and Misses styles. All look for opening notice and call.

Although you missed Lewin's advertisement from our columns for some months he has not been asleep. He has been devoting his time to increasing his stock, getting the latest fashions, and filling up the largest and cheapest clothing house in central Pennsylvania.

On Tuesday, October 15, at one o'clock, Thos. Loughry, at his residence, one and a half miles east of Unionville, will sell horses, colts, cows, cattle, etc.

Applebutter, Jellies, Jams, Honey Pickles, Olives, Table Oil, and Ketchup at Sechler & Co.'s.

The Y. M. C. A., of this place, will hold its annual election of officers this Friday evening.

You should see the line of neck wear displayed in the window of Rochester Clothing House. They are the finest ever shown in Bellefonte.

If you notice a chap who is dressed exceptionally nice, you can depend upon it he is a customer of Lewin's.

Frank Courter, of Eagleville, and R. H. Smith, of Milesburg, last Monday shot 43 squirrels.

A Prohibition club was organized at the office of H. H. Harshberger, Esq., in this place, on Monday night, at which the attendance was very good. Prof. D. M. Lieb was chosen President, Samuel Schaffer and Jared Harver vice presidents, A. J. Cook treasurer and E. T. Burnside secretary. Many gentlemen signed the roll of membership.

You can certainly suit yourself in an overcoat by visiting the Rochester Clothing House.

If you want a good reliable Kid, get the Centeneri; for sale at Mrs. Gilmore's.

The coal miners of Houtzdale, Phillipsburg and vicinities have contributed $1,500 to the starving miners of Illinois and Indiana and have assessed themselves 1 cent per ton a month, which amount is to be sent them as long as they hold out in their present strike.

There is no use in your going cold or rough looking when you can buy a suit of good and fashionable clothes for nearly nothing at Lewin's.

The fashionable dressed people whom you meet at every corner, nearly all buy their clothing of Fouble at the Rochester Clothing House.

Thomas Holt, of Williamsport, has held the position of engineer at the Dodge Mills in that city for a period of twenty-five years. During that time his engines have furnished power for manufacturing 650,000,000 feet of lumber.

Every body about the Rochester Clothing store is busy opening, marking and showing the new fall styles.

Mr. Andrew Thompson, of Unionville, has a Quince tree that bloomed early in the spring and now bears a large crop of quinces. About four weeks ago, this same tree was covered with blossoms, and at this writing gives promise of furnishing a second crop of fruit.

Fine cheese, Hams, Bacon, Dried Beef, and Canned Meats at Sechler & Co.'s.

MONEY ALL RAISED FOR BAND.—The committee on music for Sunbury excursion, Wednesday, Oct. 9th., composed of John Anderson, Geo. B. Brandt, Amos Mullen, and Dan I Eberhart, take pleasure in stating to those commands outside of Bellefonte that intended to contribute towards the expense of taking a Band to Sunbury, that they have sufficient funds raised and will not call on them for anything further.

R. C. IRVIN, Secretary.

RAILROAD EXTENSION.—The Phillipsburg Journal says that "the outlook for the extension of the Tyrone & Clearfield railroad from Curwensville to Mahaffey is assuming such shape as to warrant us in saying that railroad connection between the two places will soon be made. A number of the prominent men of Curwensville, Clearfield and this place are urging the matter of extending the road believing that it will be to the best interests of the people of this section. Hon. E. A. Bigler and Wm. H. Dill, of Clearfield, George W. Hoover, of this place, and A. E. Patton, of Curwensville, visited John B. Green, Third Vice President of the Pennsylvania railroad, on Wednesday of last week, and presented the matter of such extension as a matter of vital benefit to the Company and to the people of the surrounding community."

Foreign and Domestic dried fruit and canned goods at Sechler & Co.'s.

Mr. Jackson Clevenstein, one of the best known citizens of Walker township, a most excellent man in every respect—suddenly expired at the supper table at his home in Hulersburg on Sunday evening. He was sexton of one of the churches in the town and had attended to his duties during the day. At supper he complained of not feeling right and moving his chair back from the table fell over dead. We have not heard to what cause his death is attributed.

WALL PAPER.—Large stock—must be sold. Prices astonishing, write for samples to JOHN M. DEAN & Co., Williamsport, Pa.

A sad accident by which Mr. Leslie Markle of Walker township, lost his life occurred on Saturday last near Hulersburg. While he and a friend named Fisher were attempting to subdue an unruly colt, he was thrown from the buggy, receiving injuries from which he died about three hours afterwards. Mr. Markle was in the prime of life, well known and respected and leaves a wife and three children. Mr. Fisher was considerably injured but is getting well.

An opportunity for a bargain is offered at the public sale of personal property—live stock and other articles—of Mr. James Walker, of Cato, on Thursday Oct. 17th, at 10 a. m.

All the New Woollens, for the coming season now being received. Liberal Discount for early orders during the dull season. Our Fall stock will be the finest we have ever shown. Prices and a good fit guaranteed.

Phillipsburg Pickings.
A Batch of Interesting News Collected and Written by Our Own Special Correspondent.

Chestnuts have commenced to come into our market.

William F. Eaton and Maggie Elias, both residents of Phillipsburg, were united in marriage by Rev. W. C. Wasson on Thursday evening of last week.

We understand that Mr. Samuel Rhule is endeavoring to secure the position of Chief of Police. Sam would make a good chief, and we hope Council will make him chief.

The Mountain Wheel Club will have a star course of lectures in the opera house this winter. We have not as yet learned who the lecturers are, but hope to be able to give their names in next week's issue.

Rev. B. Morgan, pastor of the Haven Chapel, this place, has sent in his resignation, and preached his farewell sermon on last Sunday night. He is going to Warren, Ohio, where he will take charge of a large congregation.

G. W. Rumbarger resigned his position as salesman in the general store of C. Munson & Son, in this place, last week, and returned to his home at Unionville. The firm lost a general first class, accommodating clerk when Mr. R. sent in his resignation.

Rev. S. A. Cornelius, pastor of the Presbyterian church, this place, preached his farewell sermon on last Sunday evening. He will remain in Phillipsburg until the meeting of the Synod, when he and his family will take their departure for their new home, Santa Cruz, California.

One day during the latter part of last week while Mr. John Feightal was at work in his shop, he was seized with a paretic stroke, which caused him to be entirely helpless on his left side. He was taken to his home on Presque Isle street, when a physician was summoned. At this writing he has regained the use of his arms and legs.

Mrs. James A. Ganoe, one of Phillipsburg's most estimable Christian women, died of cancer in the stomach, on last Thursday at noon, aged sixty years. The deceased has been a resident of Phillipsburg since 1850. Her husband still survives her, and a son George, the only child. Her remains were interred in the new cemetery on last Sunday afternoon at one o'clock.

The report that a Hungarian had been murdered at Morrisdale Mines, at one of the collieries operated by R. B. Wigton & Sons last Sunday, was without foundation. True there was a quarrel among the Hungarian population, and a couple of them were pretty seriously injured, but neither of them dangerously. Four of the participants were taken to the Clearfield jail on Monday.

It was thought that the Reliance Fire Com. pany would dedicate their new building on October 10th, but owing to the weather being so unfavorable for the carpenters to do much work upon it for a couple of weeks during the month, it will not be dedicated much before the 20th. In the meantime the "boys" are the recipients of a great many valuable articles which they will offer for sale at their fair. All those who are desirous to see the boys get by donating to them gifts will please leave them at Crissman's drug store.

Mr. John E. Hancock, one of our oldest and most estimable citizens, died on Thursday morning of last week, aged about 52 years. He was born in Phillipsburg, and with the exception of about six years has always been a resident of our town. His father was one of the early settlers of Phillipsburg, having taken up his abode here in 1818. The deceased has been suffering greatly during the past few years with bronchial affection and catarrh of the stomach. He leaves a wife and six children and three sisters and one brother, who are Owen Hancock, Mrs. Mary Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Flock, of this place, and Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, of Shamokin. The funeral took place Friday afternoon, and the remains were followed to their last resting place on Friday afternoon.

For reliable goods, largest assortment, low prices and fair dealing in every respect; be sure to call on Simon Loeb, the popular Bellefonte Clothier.
