

Bellefonte, Pa., November I, 1889.

To Correspondents. - No communication published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. Guise, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the Watchman for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

----Spring Mills had two inches of the first snow of the season last week.

-Jacob Meiss, a Tusseyville farmer, raised 375 bushels of potatoes this season. course of lectures this season will be but

----Major Hues of Linden Hall was dog in Bellefonte on Wednesday last. - Charles W. Chambers and Miss

---The new frame Evangelical church on Willow Bank Street, of which Mr. C. H. Evey, of Lemont is contractor, is nearly completed.

----Mr. Henry Kabella, formerly of this place, but for a number of years a resident of Denver, Colorado, spent a few days among friends hereabouts the past week.

-The eight-year-old daughter of Mr. Emory Stover, of Warriorsmark his approaching departure and had "set township, died this week of diphtheria, his house in order" in every particular. it being the second child in the family carried off by that disease within the past few weeks.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have a "Martha Washing- sons and a little adopted daughter to ton" supper on the evening of the 7th of November in the room adjoining the gain. post office, and will have similar enter_ tainments once a month during the win-pleasant party Tuesday evening in hon-Altoona, who has been spending the past week with Miss Sheridan and other friends in this place. She returned home on Wednesday morning.

- Henderson and Decker gave the contract to build the abutments of the Karthaus bridge to a party worker for $3100, when another party had offered to build them for $1800, and when they really could have been built for $1200. No public letting was allowed, as it was intended to be a political job. This is made to go.

curred, Mrs. Hess was taken with apoplexy and died soon afterwards.

-A recent number of the Philipsburg Ledger says that while Brooks Butler, son of Mrs. Sarah Butler, was out hunting he met with an accident which may terminate fatally. He was standing on a log when his gun fell from his hands and the hammer striking the log, the gun was discharged. The load blew off part of his right hand and attended and nursed.

—An item in the Philipsburg Ledghave our doubts. We infer that he pany. would rather stick to his office chair in New York City. Nevertheless, if he

DEATH OF AN OLD METHODIST MINof Rev. J. Benson Akers which occurred | Centre Hall, are soon to be married. at Bellwood last Monday morning. He was about 60 years of age and well known in this county. He graduated from Dickinson college in 1858 and immediately entered the East Baltimore conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. The following are the appointments which he filled: Shrewsbury, Spring, 1863-4; Mercersburg, 1865-6; in Centre county and devotes his entire Matilda, 1870. In 1871 he was princi- profession. pal of Catawissa seminary, and he then ——Admission to the Bellefonte Star Haven, 1872-3; Hiner's Run, 1874-6; filled the following appointments: White Howard, 1877-9; Penn's Valley, 1880-1; Glen Hope, 1882-4; Bellwood, 1885-6; Shrewsbury, 1887-8. In 1888 he was lucky enough to get $25 cash for a coon superannuated. He was assistant secretary of the East Baltimore conference line. several years and when the Central Elsie Hastings, both of Bellefonte, were Pennsylvania conference was formed married in Williamsport week before filled a similar position under Dr. D. S. Monroe, the secretary.

His ministerial work ended where it began, at Shrewsbury, York county. After thirty-one years of faithful toil in the church of his choice, he asked a superannuated relation and removed to his home at Bellwood to enjoy his well-earned rest. But on the 2d of April he was stricken with paralysis and rallied but slowly through the summer, only to sink autumn leaves. He was conscious of With the words "Praise the Lord," "Almost home," he passed from labor to reward.

He leaves a wife, a daughter and two mourn the loss which is his infinite

Miss Lonberger wore blue; silk. The ties of married life at Axe Mann. bride was attired in a handsome white swiss and embroidered suit and carried the way the county surplus has been a bouquet of exquisite white flowers. - Last Monday two sudden deaths riage ceremony, and after the many deaths had occurred that day, but severoccurred at Woodward. The deceased friends had given the newly married vere William Orndorf and Mrs Hess, couple their best wishes and the bride had the disease. The public schools were widow of John Hess. The first died at changed her dress for an elegant suit of closed by the authorities and they are to two o'clock in the afternoon, he having black silk, all withdrew to the dining remain closed until the disease disapsuffered for nearly two years from room where a sumptuous dinner awaited pears. The physicians say the disease is Bright's disease of the kidneys. While them. After all had partaken of a hearin the company of friends speaking of ty meal the bride and groom accompanied this death, a few hours after it had oc- by Mr. Alfred Wasson and Miss May Miller, started on their wedding tour. leaving the guests to their own enjoyment the balance of the evening.

> The presents received were very numerous and costly as well as useful and White in the Allegheny County Court, lends assistance in poisoning the atmostouched a case which is as likely to hap- phere. pen in Centre county as in Allegheny passed through his side, coming out at A jury, after being out six hours, sent his back. Dr. Buckingham attended to down word to Judge White that they his injuries and he will be carefully were unable to agree on a verdict, the jury standing eleven to one and the one -Druggist William Rhoads of would not give in. Judge White had Philipsburg was suddenly stricken down the jury brought into court and in kind, last Friday, and up to last accounts was but firm words, informed them that he entirely out of his mind. He has rooms was surprised that they could not agree. at the Porter house, and is being attend- The case was a trifling one, and involved ed by Dr. Porter. It is thought the hardly anything more than the question disease will finally develop into typhoid of costs, as he had intimated in his pnuemonia. It is only recently that charge. His honor stated that the proyoung Mr. Rhoads' father, Dr. Rhoads bability was that the one juror was of Houtzdale, was stricken with paraly- wrong, as there were eleven to one chances sis, and died after an illness of four or that way. The juror should feel that the eleven men were as honest and in--Besides the extensive repairs and telligent as he was. It was not a quesextended improvements at the Robert tion of conscience with jurors; that is a Mann & Son and T. R. Mann & Co., mistaken idea; it is simply a question of it may acquire toward "bursting the axe manufacturers, of Mill-Hall, have judgment, and a minority could agree made at both works and surroundings, a without injury to the conscience. His number of new houses are being built to honor stated that he could not think of accommodate their workmen, whose discharging the jury, and hoped they number has been increased by the en- would reach a verdict in a few minutes. larged capacity of their shops. These The obstinate juror was evidently imfirms are full of enterprise and their pressed with the judge's remarks, as he work competes with the world for fine- immediately gave in to the other eleven, ness of finish and durability of axes and and without leaving the box a verdict of not guilty was handed down.

---The Pittsburg, Beech Creek and er states that ex-President Cleveland is New York Railroad company, chartered coming to Clearfield and Centre counlast week with a capital of $1,500,000, ties to hunt bear and deer and that his intends to build a line from Mill Hall to guide through the woods will be John Uz-Butler, Pa., a distance of 150 miles, and zle, his son George and several other it is supposed that it will connect famous hunters of that section. It is with the Bellefonte and Eastern railpossible that the ex-President may con- road at this place. Larenzo Everitt, of template a visit to this region but we Watsontown, is President of the com-

---Two Beech Creek hunters, Mess rs. who was captured by Constable Felter should come, there is no bear or dear re- Quigley and Clark, killed a bear near berger on Friday and taken before sort that the Uzzles couldn't show him that place last Friday. Another bear Squire Kelly, who held the prisoner t and they would certainly give him a that was in the woods whipped three the sum of $200, and in default of by dogs and chased the men up a tree. he was sent to jail.'

-It is announced that Mr. W. W. STER .- The Methodists of this neigh- Bayard, recently in the drug business in porhood will regret to learn of the death this place, and Miss Laura Strohm, of

> -Rev. John Hecter, the celebrated colored orator, will speak in the Court House next Saturday evening in the interest of Prohibition. Admission free to all without distinction of sex.

-The Philadelphia Times of Tuesday said: John G. Love, the Belle-1858-9; York Springs, 1860-1; Cata- fonte lawyer, is at the Girard with his wissa, 1862; Sharpsburg, and Clear bride. Mr. Love is the leading lawyer Liberty, 1867-8; Freedom, 1869; Port time and attention to the pursuit of his

-The Altoona Times is authority for the statement that there is a probability that the Bell's Gap railroad will be diverted from its present route and made to connect with the main line at or near Altoona. This cut off will can get it very cheap at Rhoad's coal straighten and greatly shorten the main | yard.

-One day last week a gang of workmen in the upper shops, under E. S. Hall, were engaged on a piece of heavy oak timber, perhaps fifteen inches square, such as engine bumpers are made of, and upon sawing through it a cavity was discovered in the centre of it about two inches in diameter and three inches | Her remains were brought to Tyrone | long. A piece of crumpled newspaper | for interment. fell out of it which upon being examined the date, June 5, 1783, was found upon it and a reference to a balloon aspeacefully to rest with the falling of the cension. How it came there is a mystery that will never be solved, as well as where the paper was published and the tree grew. Suppositions are idle but it is certainly a remakable occurrence and a relic worth carefully preserving in a museum.—Altoona Graphic News.

The society event of Bellefonte during the past week was the marriage of Mr. Horace Mann, eldest son of J. Fearon Mann, esq., and Miss Annie WEDDING AT PLEASANT GAP-A ve- Speer, only daughter of Mr. W. T. ry brilliant wedding took place at Pleas- Speer, esq., at the residence of the bride's ant Gapon Thursday, Oct 24, at the home parents on Lamb street, on Wednesday -Miss Lida Sheridan gave a very of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lonberger, the afternoon. The ceremony was performcontracting parties being their daughter ed by Rev. Laurie of the Presbyterian or of her friend, Miss Lula Crider, of Lizzie and Mr Robert Murray of Belle- church, in the presence of a large numfonte. Upwards of two hundred invited ber of friends and acquaintances. The guests had assembled to witness the presents were exceptionally numerous ceremony which took place at 3.30 and beautiful. After congratulations o'clock in the afternoon. The bridsmaids and refreshments, the happy young were Miss May Miller and Miss Hettie couple left on the 5 p. m. train for a Lonberger; the groomsmen were Mr short honeymoon trip, bearing with Shoe. Oscar Lonberger (brother of the bride) them the best wishes of every one who and Mr Alfred Wasson. Miss Miller knew them. On their return they will wore a suit of blue henrietta cloth and settle down to the enjoyment and reali-

> ---Mill Hall is suffering from a scourge of diphtheria, there being fifteen Rev. W. D. Fisher performed the mar- cases reported on Wednesday. No al children were lying very low with of the most malignant type, and there is every probability that many more cases will result. There seems to be good reasons for the belief that the disease originated from the bad sanitary condition of the public school building. All the children of the borough attend school in the one building in which there are three rooms, and it is stated that the cellar has never been cleaned since the flood. THE ONE JURYMAN WHO KNEW IT An old unused well in or near the build-ALL.—The following action of Judge ing is filled with stagnant water and

> > JUNIATA FARMERS ORGANIZING .-A number of farmers having lands in Logan township met at Juniata yesterday and succeeded in perfecting an organization of a local branch of the Patrons of Husbandry by the election of a full set of officers. The branch will be known as Juniata Grange. The new organization starts out with a charter membership of twenty-one of Logan township's most prosperous farmers. At the meeting great interest was shown by those present who were charter members, and a number of applications for membership have already been filed. The grange asks for the co-operation of all persons interested in farming matters and it promises to exert all the influence trusts" and "cracking the corners which have been formed to the detri ment of the farmer. The monopoly was tariff under which farming is becoming more unprofitable every year, should be one of the first objects of their atten

ARRESTED FOR CHOOTING TAME TUR-KEYS .- The Huntington Local News says: "A party of hunters from Har risburg have been stationed in Hender son township for several days spending the time hunting for turkeys. On Wed nesday last, a flock of turkeys was seen in a field near Adam Gerlock's residenc and one of the party named Harry Dea either through wanton sport or ignor ance deliberately shot nine of the tu keys, killing five and wounding tou-Mr. Gerlock came to town and had warrant issued for the arrest of Dea:

----Among the recent weddings in Bellefonte that excited more than usual Lewistown railroad, completed a service interest was that of John G. Love, Esq., of a quarter of a century as conductor on Nellie M. Kline, daughter of Ex-Sheriff tween Lewistown and Sunbury. He D. Z. Kline, at the home of the latter on served a term of seven years as brake-Spring street, Thursday evening of last man before he was promoted to his week, Rev. W. A. Houck, of the Methodist church, officiating. The ushers were J. L. Spangler, Esq., Prof. D. M. Leib and Messrs. H. P. Harris and Geo. Johnson. There were about fifty guests in attendance from Bellefonte, Tyrone, Howard, Unionville and other places. The presents were numerous and elegant. The bride is one of the most interesting and estimable young ladies of the place and is congratulated by her many friends and the groom is to be congratulated on having won so fair a prize.

-If you want good dry kindling wood either by the bunch or cord, you

-Fine cheese, Hams, Bacon, Dried Beef, and Canned Meats at Sechler &

-Mrs. Hattie Fowler, wife of Mr. John T. Fowler, of Fowler Station, on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, died some days ago at the home of her sister, Mrs. Peter V. Atkinson, in Philadelphia.

-Ladies' Seal Plush Jacket and Coat, from $8.50, to $20.00, Lyon & Co

-Philip Walker, of Porter townmorning of last week, aged 76 years last January. He left a widow and five children, viz: Mrs. L T. Eddy, of Milesburg; C. M. Walker, present Jury Commissioner of Clinton county; Mrs. T. S. Bell, of Bellefonte; Mrs. C. H. DeHaas, of Altoona, and H. A. Walker, of Porter township. He was a consistent member of the Evangelical church and a man universally respected true-blue Democratic newspaper all the

-Miss Mary Kreiser, of Centre Hall, drew the premium for handsome present time and under present circumneedlework at the Union county fair.

-Ladies' Seal Plush Saque, 40 in.

Run, some days ago was seriously hurt among the people, and not among the by the limb of a tree falling on him politicians.—Record. while working in the woods near Snow

---Hon, W. K. Alexander, wife and daughter, who have been in Colorado since August, in the hope of improving the health of the latter, returned home to Millheim on Thursday last, little encouraged with their long trip.

-Applebutter, Jellies, Jams, Honey, Pickles, Olives, Table Oil, and Ketchup

-A number of workmen, among whom are James Haves, O. W. Brickly and William Long, of Howard, and to lose the earnings of several months hail from Williamsport. work in building coke evens for the Cameron Coal, Coke and Iron Company on account of the dishonest and irre-

-All the New Woolens, for the coming season now being received. Liberal Discount for early orders during the dull season. Our Fall stock will be the finest we have ever shown. Prices It is sincerely hoped that the Clearfield coal and a good fit gnaranteed.

MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

COME HOME, OH COME HOME.—An exchange pathetically says: The print- again occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian er's dollars, where are they? A dollar church, in this place, on last Sunday morning here and a dollar there, scattered all over and evening. There is a probability of his the numerous small towns of the country, miles apart—how shall they be ronize the oyster support to be given by the gathered together? Come home, ye are Hope Fire company, to morrow (Saturday) wanted. Come in single file, that the evening in Barber's old stand. In addition to printer may send you forth to battle for oysters their will be coffee, sandwiches, cakes, him and vindicate his credit. Reader.

-Boys' Suits from $1.25, to$6.00, they were by the Morrisdale Knights.

___John A. Shellenberger yesterday nauled three hundred and sixty-six oushels of charcoal from the coaling to Tyrone Forge with two horses. The vagon in which the coal was hauled veighs twenty-one hundred and fifty | coat, and a smoking set, by the Reliance Fire ounds and the wagon and coal com- company, came off on last Friday night. Lew ined tipped the beam to the tune of inety-four hundred and twenty pounds. Now, you teamsters with strong horses, ome forward and break the record, if off to morrow (Saturday) evening. ou can .-- Turone Herald.

$12.00, Lyon & Co.

-Hugh Smith, of Keating, on Satirday shot two catamounts within a few ards of his home. The animals were hased down from the woods and at last ook refuge in a tree to the rear of Mr. Smith's house. That gentleman proured a rifle and killed them both. They vere large, fierce looking creatures and epresentatives of a class of animals that re rapidly disappearing from this section, here is a bounty of $2 a piece in Pennylvania and Hugh will be repaid for vorld of their existence.

-Children's Coats, from $1.50, to 6.00 Lyon & Co.

---Conductor A. J. Wolfkill, of the one of our prominent lawyers, and Miss Friday, eighteen years of it being beposition as conductor. This makes thirty-two years service in the employ of the Pennsylvania Company.

---Girls' Coats, from $5.50, to $8.00, Lyon & Co.

--- Pheasants are very numerous on the R. R. depot is to be located. are bringing quite a high price in market. One sale is recorded of one dozen

Wale Suits from $7, 30, to $18,00, Lyon

---On Thursday of last week, Mr. John Gartland, of Roaring Spring, per- bride and groom a bright future. formed a remaakable feat on the farm of For some six months or more the division of the fodder. This was a great day's

-Ladies' Long Coats, from $2.50 to $15.00 Lyon & Co.

-The arrangement by which Mr. Newton S. Bailey was to take the mannounced last week, seems not to have been perfected, as he has disconnected Charles L. Gates has assumed control of the News and Republican.

-Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, and all fruits in season at Sechler & Co.'s.

-Ladies' Short Coats, all styles Beaver, Directoire, Tailor made from $3.75, to $10.00, Lyon & Co.

-The Atlanta Journal, which is a year round, say: "The sentiment of the Democratic party in Georgia is overwhelmingly in favor of Cleveland at the stances." This is probably the sentiment of Democrats at the present time in every State in the Union, and it is not long for $10.00 to $25.00, Lyon & Co. likely that any change will be develop--Geo Knowlton, of Chatham's ularity is and has been from the start ed before 1892. Mr. Cleveland's pop-

> Philipsburg Pickings. A Batch of Interesting News Collected and Whitten Ey Cur

Correspondent. A delightful social dance took place in Nason's Hall on last Saturday evening.

Rev. B. B. Henshey preached in the English Baptist Church at Brisbin, on last Sunday morning.

John Flynn, a miner at Walton & Co's. Spring Hill mine, was killed by a fall of coal one day Hector, the colored orator, will lecture in the opera house this (Friday) evening. Admission free. A quintette of Adventists have taken up George Hoover, of Bellefonte, are likely | their residence in South Philipsburg. They

> An oyster supper under auspices of St. Peter and Paul's church, was held in the Reliance's new building on Tuesday night. Elmer Curtin, of this place, and Miss Clara sponsible contractor for whom they work- | Caldwell, of Bellefonte, are one of the recent marriages by James Duncan, Esq.

The Foster brick block is receiving a new coat of paint. Jones & Carboy are doing the work, which is a guarantee that it will be done right.

region will get a goodly share of the 6000 new cars which are now being built by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Rev. H. R. McClelland, of Allegheny City, accepting the pastorate of this charge. It is to the interest of all good citizens to pat-

The Knights of Pythias dedicated their new are you sure you haven't a couple of hall at Morrisdale on Wednesday of last week, printer's dollars sticking about your and quite a number of the members of the lodge from Philipsburg were present, and all speak in glowing terms of how well treated

> In conversation with Manager Herd, we are told that the opera house will possitively be heated by steam just as soon as Jones & London complete their contract to heat the hospital, which will not be long any more. The theater-goers will hail this information with de-

> The drawing for a gold watch, a ladies' plush Jones had the lucky number which drew the watch: Miss Sophia Avers the coat, Prof. Lewis Chase the smoking set. The Hope's drawing for a gold watch and a gold headed cane comes

Up to last week Philipsburg had seven meat markets, but this week she has nine. John -Young Men's Suits from $2.50, to Cowher has started one in the store room on the premises of E. A Dorland, and a Mr. Ellenberger has in course of erection a building on the vacant lot on Spruce street, owned by Miss Bertie Haines, which he will use as a meat shop. Both of these new shop are in the Third Ward, which will be a great convenience to the residents of that section of town.

Mr. William Sankey, an uncle to ye scribe, quite a number of years, and who was one of the most successful merchants of that town. sold all of his property in there and moved to Mount Union where he will live in retirement. Mr. Sankey is one of the most faithful Democrats in existence, and he tells us while visiting Philipsburg Saturday, that he has been a subscriber to the Watchman for many, many he ammunition he used in ridding the years, and if he had to give up all other newspapers, the Watchman would be the last one to drop from his list. He says it would be a great inconvenience to do without the WATCH-MAN. Mr. Sankey's head is level there.

ine Grove Pickings. The boss thresher, Ed Corl, shells out the golden grain at the rate of one hundred and fifteen bushels of wheat per hour. Mrs. H. M. Meek, of Altoona, is visiting her numerous relations and friends, not looking much older than when she used to grace our Assessor J. T. McCormick was in town on his campaign walk which means the whole vote will be gotten out for Bigler, Riley Schaeffer, Meyer, Johnson and Neff. Rumor says Collins has lately purchased the James Krape farm, which gives vent for discussion among our town dadds as to where the mountains around Lock Haven and The champion corn-husker, Andy Lytle, comes to the front to the tune of one hundred and sixteen bushels in six hours. This appeared for a time a little fishy but it was done for five dollars, or more than forty cents on a wager of $5 and won, he husking his own corn.

-Men's Corkscrew and Broad their honeymoon trip on Saturday last and W. G. Gardner and bride returned from were given a reception at the home of the groom's parents on Monday afternoon last. where a large number of guests partook of an elegant supper, all joining in wishing the Eli Lower, in Taylor township, by husk- our township has been agitated. Viewers were ing 155 bushels of corn and tying up appointed and returned the line we mentioned formerly, and a vote ordered at next election. which will be held next Tuesday. Just what the object of the proposed division is we have failed to learn, as it was gotten up by republican leaders who say if the division is not made why then College precinct will ask and get what is known as the Krumrine school district, which is a good solid taxable district. with good roads and no bridges, whilst in Colagement of the Daily News and Repub- lege township taxes of all kinds are much lican of this place, and which was an- higher than Ferguson's. After College has new school buildings, good roads and new bridges, it would be fair to suppose that Pennsylvania State College will be incorporated himself from both of those papers and into a Borough at the expense of whom? In the ship, Clinton county, died Thursday will go to Galesburg, Illinois. Mr. event should the proposed division carry and a portion be added to College township it would add three solid Republican townships to their column, just what they want, and are Demo crats willing to give it to them? Where part of a township is to be annexed to another township, only that part to be annexed has the right to vote, but in our present case where a new township is to be formed the old and new both vote "for or against."

> -Men's Over Coats from $4.00, to $18,00, Lyon & Co.

Trial List.

The following cases are on the trial list for November term of Court: P. Gray Meek vs. A. Hoy's executors Mrs. John Morgan vs. J. H. Lutz. J. H. Auman vs. J. W. Stam. Mrs. Julia Walk vs. John S. Gray. R. V. Weaver vs. George B. Walker.

SECOND WEEK. Rachel Shontz vs. Adam Moyer, Sr. Rachel Shontz vs. Adam Moyer, Sr.
Kate Rhul vs. Israel Osman.
L. H. Everts vs. A. J. Griest.
C. A. Moyer use of, etc., vs. E. M. Sturdevant.
Bunnell & Aikens vs. Ellis L. Orvis.
Lehigh Valley Coal Company, vs. Clearfield
Bituminous Coal Corporation.
E. C. Humes vs. Nittany Valley R. R. Co.
A. V. Miller vs. John and William Bilger.
Samuel Downing's trustees et al vs. James Sommerville.
Mercantile National Bank vs. Nittany Valley
R. R. Co.

George W. Jackson vs. Nittany Valley R. R. Elizabeth D. Kunes vs. H. H. Montgomery.

tecutors. M. H. Guise vs. J. H. Bibby. Franklin McLaughlin vs. Centre Mining o., Limited. L. G. Kessler vs. Silas Blowers and wife.

W. H. Pifer vs. Union County Mutal Liv stock Insurance Co, John Curry vs. Bellefonte School District. James Smith vs. Margaret A. Riter &c. P. C. Frank vs. Levi Long. Evan Evan's heirs vs. Wm. Thomson et al. Alice Fetzer vs. Robert Cooke, Jr. National Park Bank, vs. Bernard Lauth. Martha E. Zeigler et al vs. William Corman. John Molton vs. Amelia Johnston, et al. J. H. Bryan vs. Borough of Be l'efonte. J. H. Bryan vs. Borough of Be lefonte. Catharine Holt, deceased vs. A. R. Hall, etc. Ellen Levy et al vs. Mary Hall. Empire Coal Co. vs. Chipman & Hall.

Married.

HARTZOG—LEATHERS.—At the residence of the bride's father, R. C. Leathers, at Mt. Eagle, Centre county, by Rev. G. W. Headley, October 24th, 1889, Mr. Wm. A. Hartzog and October 24th, 1889, Mr. Wm Miss Teassie M. Leathers.

A pleasant time was had by the many guests, and many valuable presents were received by the bride.

KLINE-MYERS.-At the home of the bride's father, in Huston township, near Julian Furnace, on the 23d of October, by Rev. John. Craig, Mr. Joseph Kline and Miss May My-

After the ceremony the happy couple started for Pittsburg and Steubenville, Ohio, on their wedding tour.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

	Corrected weekly by Geo. W. Jackson & Co:
	The following are the quotations up to si	x
	o'clock, Thursday evening, when our pape	1
	goes to press:
	White wheat, per bushel 7	5
	Read wheat, per bushel 8	0
	Rye, per bushel 4	5
	Corn, ears, per bushel 2	0
i	Corn, shelled, per bushel 4
	Oats—new, per bushel 2
i	Barley, per bushel 4
	Buckwheat per bushel
	Cloverseed, per bushel$4 00 to $6 0
i	Ground Plaster, per ton 90	U
	de la secontamientamentament de la company d

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co
Potatoes per bushel
Eggs, per dozen
Lard, per pound
CountryShoulders
Sides
Hams
Tallow, perpound
Butter, per pound
Onions, per bushel
Turnips, per bushel
A / A

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Belle-fonte, Pa., at $2 per annum (if paid strictly in advance); $2.50, when not paid in advance, and $3.00 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county nless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons adver-ising by the quarter, half year, or year, as fol

One inch (12 lines this type	$ 5	$ 8	$ 1
Two inches		10	1
Three inches	10	15	2
Quarter Column (41/2 inches)	12	20	3
Half Column (9 inches)	20	35	5
One Column (19 inches)	35	55	10
Advertisements in special co- cent. additional. Transient advs. per line, 3 inserti	ions.	20	cts
Each additional insertion, per lim	e	8	cts
Local notices, per line		28	o cts
Business notices, per line		10	) cts
Job Printing of every kind do	ne u	rith 1	naat

SPACE OCCUPIED. 3m 6m 1y

Job Printing of every kind done with neatness and dispatch. The Warthman office has been refitted with Power Presses and New Type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. Terms—CASH.