

No End to Extravagant Expenditure.

Philadelphia Record. Secretary Windom's report shows that as fast as we reduce the interest charge on our national debt we proportionately increase the payments for pensions.

So excessive is the drain of taxation that the ingenuity of statesmen has been constantly taxed during the last quarter of a century to spend the money in the Treasury as fast as it should accumulate.

The recommendations in the message of President Harrison in favor of enlarged expenditure for pensions, coast defenses, national education, steamship subsidies, and for other purposes, prove that the hope for any relief of the public burdens at the hands of a Republican Administration is hopeless.

The Deadly Wire Again at Work.

New York, Dec. 9.—Peter Clausen, a New York man, met his death today in a manner similar to that by which Feeks was killed several weeks ago.

In a few minutes three policemen reached the spot, and Thomas Smith, a driver, went to help them. The four tried to get a rope around the body of the lineman, and at the first attempt received a shock which knocked Smith senseless.

When the body was finally lowered life was found to be extinct. An examination showed that the electric wires had burned the flesh off the right hand to the bone. The flesh on the right forearm from the elbow to the wrist was also burned and necrotic.

Another Terrible Nitro-Glycerine Explosion.

BUTLER, Pa., December 10.—At 9:45 this morning Butler was shaken by a nitro-glycerine explosion at the Butler Torpedo company's magazine, twelve miles south of town.

The woods in the vicinity of the magazine are being searched by hundreds of men for the remains of the men, and the greatest excitement prevails. The greatest part of the factory buildings is demolished, the factory is crushed down, and only the smoke stack remains intact.

Wood's shoulder and right arm were found twenty rods away. A small part of Medill's trunk was taken from the top of a tree. The theory is that Wood let a can of explosive drop while handing it up to Medill, who was in the wagon.

It is reported on high authority that the prospect of forming one Republic out of the five Central American States of Nicaragua, San Salvador, Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala is likely to be realized.

INCAPACITATED.—Humane pedestrian to woman splitting wood—I should think your husband would do that kind of work for you.

"Oh, he says his arms are too tired to split wood." "Indeed! What makes him so tired?" "He's the cannon ball tasser in Havergall's Herculean Museum."

"Jack the Ripper" in New Jersey.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—A special to the Record from Millville, New Jersey, says: The body of Mrs. Annie Borden, a colored widow, was found shockingly mutilated on the floor of her home here this morning.

Coroner Miller was summoned and took charge of the case. A medical examination revealed the fact that the woman had been outrageously assaulted and in a manner rarely recorded in medical or criminal annals.

The police investigation led to the suspicion of a dissolute glass blower named John Knox, who had been seen to hurriedly leave Mrs. Borden's house about sun down last night.

Two gunners who met Knox last night on a road leading out of town testified at the Coroner's hearing that he told them that he had made away with a damned black wench who had refused to yield to his advances.

In his own defense he denied that he had committed the horrible crime charged against him, and accounted for the blood on his hands and clothing by saying that he had cut his hand with a piece of glass.

Liquor Sold to Minors.

An Important Interpretation of the Pennsylvania High License Law.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Dec. 9.—A case involving an important and interesting point in the liquor laws was decided here in the court of quarter sessions.

One day in October last Charles B. Yost, landlord of the Wormansville hotel, this county, went away from home on business, but before leaving particularly cautioned his wife not to sell to minors or persons of intemperate habits.

During the evening Edwin F. Holden and William Keeler, two youths aged about 19, entered the barroom and asked for a pint bottle of whisky.

Judge Yerkes in charging the jury said that where the landlord issued instructions to his agent or bartender not to sell to minors, to persons visibly intoxicated or to habitual drunkards, and the bartender disobeyed those orders, the landlord could not be convicted if the jury believed such orders to have been issued in good faith.

To Honor General Jackson.

Governor Taylor of Tennessee Invites the Co-Operation of all Pennsylvanians.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 6.—Governor Beaver has received the following letter from Governor Taylor of Tennessee: "I desire to request your excellency's co-operation in promoting the purpose of the National Jackson club to honor the name of that illustrious patriot.

It will be of great interest to those who have never visited us to look in upon the wealth added to our great country by the valor of Jackson and his compatriots—a country not only rich within itself and destined to take the lead, but which adds a mighty volume of wealth and glory to the whole nation, and reflects honor and glory upon the patriots and heroes who rescued it from the wilderness and savage domination."

A Horrible Death.

A Man's Body Pierced by a Red Hot Iron Rod.

TRENTON, Dec. 7.—A terrible accident occurred at the wire mill of J. A. Reobling's S-n's company, in which an Italian named John Hitchkash, who works on the rolls, was instantly killed.

The red hot iron bars are put through a long roll, which has a series of holes, each smaller than the one preceding it. It was Hitchkash's duty to catch the red hot iron as it came through the rolls and insert the end in the next hole.

LIABLE TO DO DAMAGE.—"Gracious," exclaimed Mrs. Malaprop, "I read in the papers of a 'Congressman at large.' I do hope they'll capture him before he does any harm."

THE SUN FOR 1890.

Some people agree with The Sun's opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind.

Democracy know that for twenty years The Sun has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the party it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor.

Eighteen hundred and ninety is the year that will probably determine the result of the Presidential election of 1892, and perhaps the fortunes of the Democracy for the rest of the century.
