Friday Morning, January 3, 1890.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY-

The holiday trade in Bellefonte is said to have been unusually good this year.

-Heart disease caused the death of Mr. Jacob Runkle, of near Tusseyville, on the Sunday before Christmas. The newly elected officers of is supposed to be the oldest woman with an act of the Legislature. in Clinton county.

this Friday evening. The tower on the new Evangelical church on Willow Bank street, put up after the erection of that structure, adds greatly to the general appearance of the building. -A few days before Christmas

Lavton McClosky, of Curtin township, killed a blacksnake, which was out enjoying the fine weather, and which measured five feet six inches in length.

next Monday evening, the members of continue its interesting disclosures; the G. A. R. of that place, of which the there will be music by the Howard Glee cipate in the festivities. Harry J. Patterson, who was and a general discussion.

in this county during the holidays.

-On a recent Sunday while the family of Alfred Johnsonbaugh, near Houserville, were at church, marauders broke into his house and stole nearly all of the fine lot of apples he had stored for winter. Nothing else was taken.

___It is now reasonably certain that Rev. Dr. McGlynn, who had an appointment to lecture in Bellefonte some weeks ago, but was unable to be here, will deliver one of his popular lectures in the Court House, in this place, on Tuesday evening, the 14th inst.

-Nearly one hundred invited guests were present to witness the wedding of Miss Anna M. Ott and Mr. John Breon which occurred at the residence of the bride's parents at Centre Hall last week. There was a grand dinner and many handsome presents.

-The grading of the street in the neighborhood of Hale & Garberick's Mill and Crider & Son's planing mill and lumber yard, one of the lowest and muddiest points in the town, was a good piece of work for which Street Commissioner Shaughensy is entitled to son, Jr.

-Mrs. N. L. Atwood, of Smithport, Indiana, originally from this county, died last week and her remains were brought to Howard for interment. She was a half-sister of ex-Governor William F. Packer. Her husband, · Rev. Mr. Atwood, was a brother of Mrs. Judge Orvis.

---Some days ago a French crimina named Xavier Francis Pacavez, who had assumed the American name of Frank Franklin, was arrested at Philipsburg by Capt Simler, of that place, and a detective from New York. There are charges against him ranging from theft to murder.

-Mrs. Sarah Witherite, of Union township, whose recent death was caused by paralysis, was the widow of William Witherite, of Boggs township, who died in the army during the late war. She was in her 56th year and her remains were buried in the Mes- Christ, Prof. John Hamilton, James to be a grand affair and one of the best siah's church cemetery.

-John A Rankin, Esq., was home from his official station at Washington during the holidays and was warmly greeted by his many friends in this place. He never looked better. Squire Daly, of Curtin township, who also home on a holiday visit.

-Judge Mayer, of Lock Haven, is down with La Grippe. In consequence of the attack he was unable to attend the proceedings of the interminable State College during the institute are case. What a pity that La Grippe, or mittee on entertainment. case and summarily dispose of it.

---The last Teachers' Institute of this county was very ably managed Harrisburg. Snancially as well as in other respects. For programmes and special informa- net player living; John Thomas, the into the telegraph station and getting tion than Hopkins, and earnestly pro-Heretofore the receipts from the lectures tion concerning this institute, address popular American humorist, Rudolf into difficulty with the operator, a tests that he is innocent. Those who together with the two hundred dollars H. P. Armsby, Chairman programme King, the brilliant pianist and accom- young man by the name of Snyder, beat have visited him in his cell find it d. iffiallowed by the State were about suffi- Committee, State College, or cient to pay expenses, but the surpl

A FAIR OLD MAN .- Elias Fair, of Lock Haven, is 91 years old and is still able to move about. Mr. Fair says that he served three years in the regular army, during which time the Seminole Indian war occurred in Florida and he was one of of the veterans who helped sublished unless accompanied by the real to whale the red-skins. During the war with Mexico he served one year, where Mr. M. H. Guise, of Penn Hall, is the duly he had one of his legs broken by his authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg horse falling on him. In the war of the rebellion he served eighteen months and received a scalp-wound from a bullet at the battle of Fair Oaks in Vir-

AN IMPORTANT AGRICULTURAL EVheld at Howard on Tuesday and Wed- | church of that place, Dialogues, char-Gregg Post, G. 'A. R., of this place, will ance to such of the farmers of this sec- the intertainment. Admission 10 and 15 be installed next Monday evening, 6th tion as may choose to attend. It will cents. have the prestige of being held under -Ninety-two is the age of Mrs. the auspices of the Pennsylvania State Elizebeth Quiggle, of Beech Creek, who Board of Agriculture in accordance

In the programme for Tuesday -Colonel Burchfield, commander morning Mr. Isaac Frain, of Jacksonof the 5th Regiment, N. G. P., will ville, will speak of "Improved Live inspect Company B in its armory, Stock as an Aid in Making the Farm Pay," and Mr. R. S. Searle, of the State Board, will talk about the "Care of Live Things on the Farm." These will be followed by a general discussion. The Question Box will be opened in the afternoon, and there will be addresses by Dr. H. P. Armesby, of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Experiment Station, on the "Application of Science to Cattle Feeding," and by Mr. Joel A. Herr, member of the State Board, on "Wastes of the Farm," a general discussion con-The 56th natalanniversary of Dr. cluding the afternoon's proceedings Hensyl, of Howard, will be celebrated In the evening the Question Box will Doctor is a member, intending to parti- Club, an address by Mr. F. B. Ferry, of Hudson, Ohio, on the "Wife's Share," graduated at the Pennsylvania State On Wednesday morning addresses by College and is now a professor in the Mr. T. A. Long, of Howard, on "Feragricultural department of the Mary- tilization," and by Mr. A. C. Sisson, of land State College, was visiting friends | La Plume, Pa., on "General Fruit Culture." with question from the box, and general discussion. In the afternoon's proceedings Dr. Geo. W Atherton President of the Pennsylvania State College, will speak of "What is a Practical Education," and Mr. J. F. Ailman, of Thompsontown, Pa., will talk about "The Education Needed by the American Farmer." The leading features of Wednesday evening session, in addition to the question box and general discussion, will consist of addresses by D. F. Fortney, esq., of Bellefonte on The Road Laws of Pennsylvania, and by Mr. S. R. Downing, Ex-Lecturer of Pa. State Grange on Permanent Roads."

AT STATE COLLEGE. The Institute will adjourn from Howard to State College where it will be held in the College chapel on Thursday and Friday, January 9th and 10th, with the following programme: Address of Welcome-Pres. Geo. W Atherton.

Response—Dr. E. W. Hale. "Care of live things on the farm,"

Hon. R. S. Searle. "Horse Breeding," Wm. I. Thomp-

"Relation of the transportation ques-

Thursday afternoon-"Permanent roads," S. R. Downing.

"Road laws," John A. Gundy. "The Education of the American Farmer," J. L. Ailman.

Thursday evening-"Industrial education," Pres. Geo. W. Atherton. "Domestic Hygiene," Dr. J. Y. Dale. "The Wife's share," T. B. Terry.

Friday morning-"Microbes," g Prof. W. A. Buckhout. "General fruit culture," A. C. Sisson. "Feed as a fertilizer," Dr. H. P.

Armsby. Friday afternoon-"Saving manure," ward. Committee on Programme-Dr. H. P. Armsby, chairman; Dr. Theo. S. Holmes, Hiram Thompson.

T. B. Terry. "Wastes of the farm," J. A. Herr.

Committee on Entertainment-John W. Stuart, chairman; Henry Hartswick, address and company to Secretary Secretary; W. C. Patterson, Geo. C. Charles A. Steiger, 1028 Leithgow street Butz, Em. Musser.

Stages will connect with all trains. the book. Arrangements will be made for a special is also a Washington functionary, was train on the B. R. R. if a sufficient number of persons inform the Secretary of the entertainment committee of their desire for such a train.

Persons desiring accommodations at Lycoming county contested judicial requested to communicate with the com-something like it, can't get hold of that For general information concerning institutes apply to Thos. J. Edge, Esq., Secretary of the Board of Agriculture, the treat they are offered.

-Mr. T. B. Waddle, of Buffalo Run, last week attained the patriarchal age of 80 years.

-During County Institute week 385 persons registered as visitors at the county jail. Morbid curiosity is drawing a great many people to that insti-

-There are but seven prisoners in our county jail, but the gravity of the offences with which two of them are charged amply makes up for the smallness of the number incarcerated.

-The entertainment in Boggs Hall, Milesburg, on Saturday evening ENT .- The Farmers' Institute and Gen- 4th inst., will be for the purpose of eral Farmers' Convention, which will be raising funds to repaper the M. E. nesday, the 7th and 8th inst., will be an ades, tableaux, and vocal and instrumenoccurrence of great interest and import- tal music will constitute the features of > -Supervisor Downs, of the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, who lives at Tyrone, Thursday evening of last week met with a painful accident in the railroad yard at that place, by getting the toes of his right foot under the wheels of a car, they being mashed in consequence. It was found necessary to amputate the big toe.

-The death of G. S. Hoy, of Walker township, is among the recent local occurrences, it having been caused by drops, after a linger illness of over two years. He was 66 years of age and was one of the most prominent citizens of the section in which he lived. He left a wife and seven children, six daughters and one son, all of whom are

----The Centre County Commissioners will borrow the Lycoming county gallows on which to hang Seely W Hopkins, the double murderer. It is probable that the gallows will remain was a big time in the Chrissman housein Bellefonte until the murderer of Miss Price is made to suffer the penalty of his crime. Governor Beaver is expected the nicest kind of a tree was set up to to fix the day of Hopkins' death soon. -Williamsport Sun and Banner.

-The barn of Samuel Mitchell in Dry Valley, Mifflin county, was destroyed by fire late on Christmas eve. It was a comparatively new structure and contained 1,000 bushels of wheat, a hav and other articles. The loss is estimated at $3,000; insurance $1,500. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

--- With the object of enlarging the supply of raw material required by Mr. Runkle near the Old Fort, from cents a ton to the owner of the land. This bank will be connected with the Lemont road by a switch.

The annual ball of the Logan Hose boys are hard to beat.

----The County of Centre is one of the eleven counties which will form the Sixth Census District, as follows: Bradford, Cameron, Centre, Clearfield, Clinton, Elk, Lycoming, Mc-Kean, Potter, Sullivan and Tioga. There are ten census districts in this State, and each district will be under the direct charge of one supervisor. The coming census will be the Eleventh and the Superintendent is Robert P. Porter.

The arrangement committee of the 5th Pa. Cavalry Regiment Association are making great preparations for their next reunion and banquet which "Have a care," Hon. J. A. Wood- will be held on the 22rd of February, 1890, at Philadelphia. All the survivors are respectfully invited to be present on the occasion, as it is intended ever given by the association. Those not on the roll should send their names, Philadelphia, so they can be entered on -It is seldom that the people of our town have the chance to enjoy an entertainment of such high merit as they are promised by Emerson's Boston Stars, this (Friday) evening, Jan. 3rd, in the Court House. They come heralded by the most flattering notices of the press all over the world, and a glance at the names of the artistes composing the company will satisfy music loving people with the genuineness of

A MERITED TRIBUTE. -The teachers at the recent County Institute passed a set of resolutions expressing their sentiments on different subjects connected with their meeting, but upon no point did they more justly apply their commendations than they did in speaking of the present County Superintendent, Prof. D. M. Wolf. Under the long administration of his superintendency the schools have made great advancement, a stable, and candidates for that office are growing interest in them has been ex- already on the war path. cited, and they have been made to attain their present excellence in a great measure through the efficient management and conscientious care of Prof. Wolf. Such being the case, the teachers paid him a merited tribute in their reso-

AN OLD IRON FIRM IN TROUBLE .-Last Tuesday morning judgments to the amount of $80,118.02 were entered in the Prothonatary's office against Curtin & Co., proprietors of the Curtin Iron works at Roland, this county. Executions were issued and put in the hands of the sheriff. It is greatly to be regretted that this misfortune has overtaken one of our oldest and best known industrial firms. The members of the firm have the sympathy of all right thinking people in this community.

We further learn that an assignment has been made to ex-Governor A. G. and Constans Curtin, uncles of the young men who compose the firm, and that the liabilities amount to $200,000.

Bright, of Sunbury, made his appearance in Bellefonte as usual on Christmas to act as Santa Claus for his two little nieces, children of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Chrissman. Regularly at the festive holidays and at Easter, and often between those interesting periods of the year, Frank wends his way to this place to perform the duties of an indulgent uncle. Of course last Christmas there the wirter with his sister. hold. There were presents in number sufficient to fill a large catalogue, and appropriately signalize the merry occasion. A turkey of large dimensions had to give up its life to contribute to the festivities, and that turkey involved an occurrence that rarely happens in any household either at Christmas tide or at any other time. After the turkey cleared off the variety of articles that opened a vein of pipe ore on the farm of constituted the dinner, and rigged up life. another table. There was a little mixing up of gravies and side dishes, but viands.

company came off in the rink, a la Democrat, of Lock Haven, the Demo- and were witnessed by quite a number masque, on Tuesday night and Wednes- cratic organ of Clinton county, was half of invited guests. The bride and groom day morning in excellent style. It a hundred years old on New Year's day, took their departure on the evening was a jovial assemblage of fair women and its daily issue of Wednesday gave train for Pittsburg and McKeesport, and brave men, who gayly danced the an interesting history of its long and where they intended remaining a couple old year out and the new year in. Joy | checkered career. It is almost as old as | of weeks, when they will return to Philwas unconfined as they chased the glow- the county and antedates Lock Haven ipsburg to hereafter reside. tion to agriculture," Prof. John Hamil- ing hours with flying feet. In such a as an incorporated borough by more merry chase the Bellefonte girls and than three months. The first issue of the Democrat made its appearance on the 1st of January, 1840, Wilbur & place, next Saturday, January 4th. Shriner being the editors and proprietors. It changed hands frequently and suffered the vicissitudes incident to the career of struggling country newspapers. It was scarcely more than three years old before it was sold at constable sale. That eccentric newspaperman, Col. John R. Eck, became its editor in 1843. In 1844 H. L. Dieffenbach came up proceeds will be devoted to the liquidafrom Northumberland county and took charge of it. His lease expiring in 1850 George A. Crawford became the editor and proprietor. He was follow- Elliot, daughter of Rev. Mr. Elliot, of ed by Henry Frysinger, of Mifflin Unionville, was the cause of great sorcounty, his successors being Atwood and Wilson, who in 1856 were followed family. Her funeral took place on by James W. McEwen. Near the close Monday of last week, from the Presbyof that year it was purchased by terian church in this place, the inter-Henry L. Dieffenbach who continued ment being made in the Union cometits publication until January 1st, 1867, ery. The pall bearers were W. Fred when he sold the office to a joint stock Reynolds, Jno. Potter, A. G. Curtin, company with J. W. and W. P. Furey Jr. Budd Thompson, Mr. Bing and as editors and managers. Two years James Hamill: The officiating minisafterwards it was sold to Whaley and ter was Rev. Win. Laurie, D. D., of Orth and went through a number of the Presbyterian church, assisted by changes of ownership and editorial Revs. W. R. Houck, Mr. Kelly, of management until purchased by Clark Baileyville, and W. L. Hayden. & Co., its present proprietors. J. W. Furey became the editor in 1886 under There is a stream of visitors at whose able management this veteran the county jail to see the convicted murjournal appears to be in a prosperous derer Hopkins, and Andrews who condition. We wish it a Happy New is charged with a murder even more at-Year and continued prosperity in the trocious than the one for which Hopkins vears to come.

above expenses this year was about $150. Board for Centre Co., Bellefonte, Pastars that compose this brilliant cluster. offenders have since been arrested.

-Geo. Huss, Esq., Harris townships ooss boot and shoemaker, spent his Christmas in Lock Haven.

Prof. R. M. Wilson, assistant principal of the Philipsburg public chools, is out as a candidate for County Superintendent.

-At the next February election each ward of Bollefonte will elect a con-

Methodist Church last Tuesday night.

--- Deputy Sixth Auditor Rankin, of Washington and Dr. Joe Brockerhoff, of Pittsburg, ate their New Year's , dinner with relatives at home here.

-- Mr. A. J. Miller, of Millheim, is improving his time and showing his good judgment by trying to increase the subscription list of the WATCHMAN in that section of the county.

-As if disgusted with the broken parts over the streets of that place.

-Editor Joe W. Furey of the Lock Haven Democrat was kept busy shaking hands with and greeting old friends hereabouts on New Year's day. Joe has still a warm side for Bellefonte, A CHRISTMAS COMEDY.-Mr. B. F. and our people always have a greeting

> -Mr. J. C. Saners, of Coalport, Clearfield county, one of the best Democrats that walks, and a soldier with a record for actual service that any one might be proud of, was in town a few days since on his way to New York State, where he expects to spend part of to suit the times. Per ect satisfaction

-Services will be held in the Re formed church at Boalsburg every evening next week except Monday evening. The German preparatory service will be held on Friday morning and the English on Saturday morning. These services will end with the Holy Communion on Sunday morning, January 12th inst. All are invited.

had been carved and the plates were be- Boggs township, a Democrat all the large quantity of barley and oats, besides ing helped, the table broke down, col- time and under all circumstances, is relapsing just at the point where the fowl, joicing over a Christmas gift of a done to a turn, was located. Frank bouncing boy baby that promises to be grabbed one end of the fractured table just as good a citizen and Democrat as and Chrissman the other, and between its happy dad. What makes Mr. Leythem they kept it from falling until man particularly proud is the fact that Mrs. Chrissman and the servant girl it is the only present of its kind he has

---One of the most fashionable wedhundred tons a day at a royalty of 25 the turkey was kept from being precipidings that has taken place in Philips- and wish the happy pair a prosperous and lovitated to the floor. It is seldom that a burg in some time was that of Mr. table breaks down under its weight of Charles Campbell to Miss Emma Parker, which occurred on the afternoon immediately preceding Christmas. The FIFTY YEARS OLD.—The Clinton ceremonies came off in the M. E. church

> -A Fair and Festival will be held in old St. John's Catholic church, this Among the many articles to be chanced off will be a valuable carriage at one dollar a chance. The time for drawing will be announced in the county papers, and will be especially attended to by the pastor, as will also that of all the other articles, in order that there may be no suspicion of dishonesty. The tion of the debt on the new St. John's Catholic church.

-The recent death of Miss Bessie row to her friends and those of the

has been condemned to swing. Thelatter appears to enjoy the attention he is re-- Last Saturday evening a rather ceiving and finds a ready sale for his disreputable young man named Iddings photos. There is something wrong in raised a disturbance at the Snow Shoe allowing capital offenders to be made Intersection. He and a number of objects of public attention. Andrews Walter Emerson, the greatest cor- other young toughs intruded themselves seems to be more affected by his situapanist, and Medora Heuson-Emerson, the him so severely that it was necessary cult to be impressed with the idea of L is Dr. E. W. Hale, Member of the distinguished prima donna, are the for him to have medical treatment. The guilt. His trial will take place in the last week in January.

The State Horticultural Associaion of Pennsylvania will meet in the court house in Mifflintown, on the 15th and 16th of January, 1890. Eminent specialists in horticulture, floriculture, etc., will be present. All sessions open to the public free, and every one welcome to take part in the discussion.

The WATCHMAN is under obligations to John I. Rankin, Deputy Sixth Auditor of the post office department. for a copy of the annual report of that The old time-honored custom division. It has the same romantic inof watching for the advent of the new terest to the general reader that is bound year was observed in the Bellefonte between the lids of other public documents, and is a book that of course should be on the "table of every well regulated family."

THEY WANT CLEARY TO HAVE AN-OTHER TRIAL.—The Renovo Record says of Charles . Cleary, the young man confined in the Clinton county jail for the murder of Philip Paul:

His friends in this place have now in circulation a petition praying the court to granthim a new trial. It has already been numerously signed, among the promises it represented, the wind on signatures being the names of nearly all Christmas day tore the Harrison pole at the pastors of our churches and leading Milesburg to pieces and scattered its merchants, business and railroad men in town. They do not, of course, ask the court to grant a new trial for the purpose of releasing him from the penalties of the law, but that his life may be spared and his sentence be made one of imprisonment for a term of years in the penitentiary.

> A SALARY.-With expenses paid will come handy to any one who is now out of employment, especially where no previous experience is required to get the position. See advertisment on page 5th headed, "A Chance to Make Money." 4t

-Now is the time to leave your order for a Suit and Overcoat. Prices in everything fully guaranteed. MONTGOMERY & Co. Tailors.

Married.

SMITH-POTTER.—At the residence of Wm. McMichael, Thursday, Dec.19th, 1889, by the Rev. J. H. Mortimer, near Jerseytown, Mr. B. F. Smith to Miss Emma E. Potter, the latter of Columbia county, and the former of Howard, Centre county Pa.

BODLE-KOCH.-At the bride's home in Benner township, Dec. 12th, 1889, by Rev. G. P. Sarvis, J. W. Bodle and Julia Roch. LYON—STRUBLE.—At the home of the bride in Spring Township, Dec. 28, by Rev. G. P. Sarvis, William B. Lyon to Minnie B. Struble.

ROSS—TRESSLER—At the M. E. Parsonage, Pleasant Gap, Doc. 23, by Rev, G. P. Sarvis, William Ross to Sally Tressler, all of Con-tre county.

EMERICK—KRYDER.—On the 25th of De-cember, by Rev D. O. Shoemaker, Geo. Ly-man Emerick, of Walker township, and Miss H. Etta B. Kryder, of Porter township, Cin-WHITAKER-FULTON .-- On the 25th ult., at Sarvis, George Williamsel Fulton, both of Bellefonte At the above wedding a large party of friends were in attendance, to witness the ceremony sents were received, and a most enjoyable supper partaken of.

Died.

HOY.—Near Jacksonville, on the 12th of Dec. 1889, George S. Hoy, aged 62 years, 10 months and 5 days.

RUNKLE.—Near Tusseyville, Pa., Dec. 22d, 1889, very suddenly, Mr. Jacob R. Runkle, aged 72 years, 6 months and 6 days. RANKIN.—Onlthe 2d ult. in Snow Shoe town-ship, J. C. Rankin, aged 59 years and 6

Farewell, dear wife farewell, A long farewell to thee, And you my children all

Our father is gone and we are left But we hope to meet with him. With Christ, before God's throne

Farewell, farewell to you.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by GEO. W. JACKSON & Co: The following are the quotations up to six clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press:
White wheat, per bushel..
Read wheat, per bushel...
Rye, per bushel....
Corn, ears, per bushel....
Corn, shelled, per bushel.... Oats—new, per bushel. Barley, per bushel...... .$4 00 to $6 00

Bellefonte Produce Markets: Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co

Potatoes per bushel .
Eggs, per dozen......Lard, per pound......CountryShoulders..... Hams. Turnips, per bushel. The Democratic Watchman,

Published every Friday morning, in Belle-fonte, Pa., at $2 per annum (if paid strictly in advance); $2.50, when not paid in advance, and $3.00 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no papes will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. ablisher.
Papers will not be sent out of Centre county
nless paid for in advance.
A liberal discount is made to persons adverng by the quarter, half year, or year, as fol

Brace occurred.	3111	om	Ly
One inch (12 lines this ty	ype $ 5	$ 8	$ 1
Two inches	7	10	1
Three inches	I9	15	2
Quarter Column (41/2 inc	hes) 12	20	3
Half Column (9 inches) 20	35	5
One Column (19 inches).	35	55	10
Transient advs. per line. Each additional insertion Local notices, per line Business notices, per line Job Printing of every ness and dispatch. The been refitted with Pow Type, and everything in be executed in the most the lowest rates. Terms	kind done ve Watchman rer Presses of the printing	with a office and g line	octs octs octs neat has New can
Alf lattere phould be a

P. GRAY MEEK, Proprietor.

SPACE OCCUPIED.