

Democratic Watchman

Friday Morning, January 24, 1890.

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. Guss, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Recorder Harter has been laid off with an attack of the grip.

All the members of some families in this town have been down with the grip.

Cramer's coach shop at Milesburg was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning.

Sixty-four licenses to sell liquor were granted and twenty-four were refused by the last Clearfield county court.

The reopening of the Methodist church at Curtin's has been postponed until the last Sunday in this month, January 26th.

Edward C. McClure, esq., cashier of the State Bank, at Lock Haven, died in that place 1st Saturday in his 65th year.

While making a pastoral call one evening recently at Nittany Hall, Rev. J. M. King was made the victim of a thief who stole his wolf robe.

The Lock Haven boom company is preparing for next spring's log booming, but the absence of snow greatly interferes with this winter's logging.

Last Friday morning Thomas Shaughnessy, one of Bellefonte's oldest citizens, died at the age of 87 years. He came to Bellefonte from Ireland in 1832.

For the purpose of accommodating an increased freight business, it is said that the Bald Eagle railroad will be double tracked from Lock Haven to Beech Creek.

The Prohibitionists of the county are called to meet in convention in the court house, this place, on Saturday, January 31st., to organize for next fall's campaign.

The fire brickyard produced at the bank opened up at Port Matilda, this county, is pronounced to be of the very best quality, and it will be of great value if the quantity is as great as the quality is excellent.

The other day a hog belonging to the proprietor of the Loyd House, at Philipsburg, died of the grip, and it wasn't the grip of the butcher, either. The disease resulted in the clear loss of about 200 pounds of pork.

The State Flood Commission has appropriated $40,000 for a hospital at Johnstown and $5,000 for hospital purposes at Williamsport. The Lock Haven papers are kicking because their town was not included in this relief arrangement.

Notwithstanding the report that Mrs. Johnson, of Hubbersburg, had died and confessed on her death-bed that her husband was implicated in the Culvey murders, the Lock Haven Express has discovered that she is still living happily with her husband. She didn't even have the grip.

The citizens of Decatur township, Clearfield county, seem bent on erecting a Poor House of their own, and have petitioned the court for authority to proceed with the same. The building will be erected on ground owned by Robert Lloyd, of Philipsburg, and will be located only a short distance west of the latter place.

Griffith Garrett, of Rebersburg, recently met with a serious accident while harnessing his horse. The animal kicked him in the face, badly cutting it and knocking the teeth out of the lower jaw. He was found unconscious in his stable where the accident occurred, having lain in that condition for twelve hours.

Lemuel Watson, an old citizen of Lamar, died last week at the age of 82. The old gentleman died where he was born and had always lived. He had never been in a railroad car, and when he visited Ohio as a young man he walked the entire distance both ways. He belonged to the Presbyterian church and always voted the Democratic ticket.

As Mr. G. H. Bartly, of Hubbersburg, and Franklin Hardyshell, of Clinton county, were peeling logs near the Wister mines on the 13th inst., a log started down the hill, knocking Bartly over and breaking Hardyshell's leg above the knee. It was a very close call for both of them, and the wonder is that either of them escaped being mangled to a jelly.

Mr. Daniel Bittner, one of the pioneer residents of Lock Haven, died in that place on Thursday evening of last week, in his 83rd year. Born in Dauphin county, he came to Lock Haven from Lewistown in 1840. He was among the first to organize a Methodist congregation in Lock Haven and was a member of that church for sixty-two years.

THE CLEARY CASE.—The Renovo Record learns that Messrs. McCormick and Kress, counsel for the defense in Charles Cleary murder trial, have advised that the case be carried up to the Supreme Court of the State for the purpose of obtaining a new trial, and that preparations are now being made for that purpose by the relatives and friends of the prisoner. They entertain strong hopes of success.

THE NEXT INTELLECTUAL ENTERTAINMENT.—All holders of course tickets for the series of W. C. T. U. entertainments as well as the public in general, will take notice that the date of the lecture of Russell H. Conwell, which was to have been delivered in this place on February 7th, has been changed to a little more than a week earlier. It will come on Wednesday, January 29, when that Bellefonte favorite, Mr. Conwell, will appear in the court house, this place. The lecturer is so well known by many persons in Bellefonte that any comment might seem superfluous, but for those that have not heard him we quote the comment of the New York Evening Post: "Unexcelled by any orator in America, and perhaps the equal of any in the world in his marvelous discriptive powers." Secure your tickets now, as the court house is well undoubtedly be crowded to overflowing.

PROSPERITY OF THE STATE COLLEGE.—The great forward stride made by the Pennsylvania State College is spoken of as follows by "Jason," a noted Huntingdon county correspondent: "The success of the State College under its new organization is one of the most talked of and admired things in the great state of William Penn. With its lectures, its books, its collections in science and art, its corresponding and honorary members in various parts of the world, the frequent meeting of its many departments, and the ambitious spirit that characterizes it, this institution has stepped to the front rank among the intellectual forces of the state. The simple fact that its membership is now increasing is sufficient to indicate its popularity. The men who are managing the institution wish to make it the centre of the scholarship of the state, not to be maintained out of the tax collections of the state, but out of the pockets of those who regard its benefits as worth what they cost."

GRASSHOPPERS IN JANUARY.—A country that can grow grasshoppers in January is certainly not to be sneezed at when you are hunting for a land without winter. The Bermudas, West Indies, Mexico or Florida may outdo us for a tropical sun's salubrious climate and the safety of a shirt-sleeve regalia, but they ain't much ahead of us here in Centre county, this season, in the want of weather that makes a winter. As evidence of this fact on Monday last Mr. J. J. Tressler and Mr. Phillip Moyer brought to this office a half grown grasshopper, caught by Mr. Close near the Oak Hall railroad station on Saturday last. It was as lively as grasshoppers usually are in August, and although minus one leg and a little the worse otherwise for its enforced captivity, it managed to hop out of reach in about two minutes after it was liberated on our desk. It was no old soldier that had hidden away last fall and came to life through a stray ray of the sun, but had every appearance of a hopper that had been hatched and grown since last year's crop disappeared.

The Lock Haven Express of the 16th inst. gives the following account of a forger's operations in that place: Last evening between 6 and 7 o'clock a stranger called at the clothing store of Raff Brothers on Main street and asked to be shown some clothing. He selected a suit costing $17 and offered in payment C. S. McCormick's check on the First National Bank of the city for $24, payable to Charles Miller. Under some pretext or other the Messrs. Raff asked for a few moments' time before giving the man his change, and Lewis Raff, one of the firm, went to Mr. McCormick's house with the check where he learned that it was a forgery. In the mean time the stranger while waiting for his change said he would step out and buy a pair of shoes. Raff Brothers kept the clothing and the man departed to buy his shoes, stating that he would be back in a few moments. After leaving the clothing store the stranger went to the shoe store of J. H. Bentley on Bellefonte avenue where he purchased from Mr. Bentley's little son, who was attending the store, a pair of No. 7 shoes, made by J. E. Dayton & Co., Williamsport. He offered in payment for the shoes a check similar to one given Raff Brothers, but for only $11. The boy gave him the shoes and $8 in change, and the man hurriedly left the store, leaving his old well worn shoes and rubbers. The stranger was a man of light build, wore a flannel shirt, cutaway coat and slouch hat. He said he lived at Pine.

We see in the Philipsburg papers that within two weeks from the 5th inst. Mr. Frank Peters, of Blue Ball, lost three children, two boys and a girl, from croup and diphtheria.

A Morrison Cove farmer named Guss, living near Martinsburg, Blair county, met with a strange adventure a few days ago. While at work plowing he noticed his lead horse suddenly sinking into the earth, and before he could rescue it the other horse began to disappear in like manner, both animals going down about fifteen feet before they found bottom.

The parishioners and friends of Rev. G. P. Sarvis, of the Methodist church, generously and bountifully remembered their pastor last Friday evening, gathering in large force at his residence at Pleasant Gap with a large variety of substantial. Among the special donations was a new set of harness and whip for the reverend, and a purse of $12 for Mrs. Sarvis.

New coal mines with a 3 1/2 to 4 feet vein of a very superior quality of bituminous, have been opened on the line of Snow Shoe and Boggs township, about five miles east of the town of Snow Shoe, and such improvements are being made as are preliminary to a heavy shipment of the product over the Beech Creek railroad, on the line of which the new mines are located.

A preliminary meeting has been held in Philipsburg to take steps for the formation of a Board of Trade. Mr. George W. McGaffey was elected temporary President, and Mr. Crissman, Secretary. Attorneys G. H. Lichtenfaler and W. Crosby, and Mr. W. Cann, were appointed a committee to make inquiry of cities and towns where such organizations are in successful operation.

The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county have elected the following officers for 1890: Directors—S. J. Herring, Samuel Gramley, Daniel Brumgard, Samuel Slack, Wm. McFarlane, J. B. Fisher, Jacob Bortoff, H. C. Campbell, J. G. Bartley, H. E. Duck, Fred Kurtz, J. H. Musser. President, Frederick Kurtz; Vice President, S. J. Herring; Treasurer, Wm. Wolf; Secretary, D. F. Luse.

The coal business over the Beech Creek Railroad in the Clearfield district was very fair during 1889, although not so good as the previous year. The shipments up to the close of the year show that 1,566,930 tons of coal passed over the road, though a falling off in total in favor of last year of 126,565 tons. The total coal shipments over the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad, for the year 1889, ending December 31, were 3,149,919 tons, a decrease from same date of 1888 of 117,159 tons.

Last Thursday conductor Allison Houpt, on the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad, got into an altercation between Clearfield and Curwensville with a young man who was a passenger on his train, and was compelled to put him off, whereupon the latter hurled a stone at Mr. Houpt, striking him with so much force on the head as to cut a deep gash and almost knock him down, and then continued to stone the train as it moved off. Information was made by Mr. Houpt and a warrant issued for the arrest of the offender.

At a meeting of the Centre County Bar Association, on Monday morning, to take action concerning the death of Hon. F. Milton Spear, of Huntingdon, and to appoint a committee to attend his funeral, E. M. Blanchard, esq., was made President, and L. A. Schaeffer, Secretary. The following committee was then appointed to draft suitable resolutions and also to attend the funeral of the deceased: Hon. A. O. Furst, John B. Linn, John G. Love, J. L. Spangler, Clement Dale. The above named committee departed on the 10.30 train on Monday morning for Huntingdon, together with E. M. Blanchard, W. F. Reber and L. A. Schaeffer, Esqs.

Mr. Samuel Rink, manager of the Bellefonte Water works, is a decided fish fancier. In addition to stocking the big spring with some splendid specimen of trout, he has branched out on gold fish, having recently obtained some twenty-five of that ornamental variety of the finny race from the government fish hatchery at Washington, which he has placed in an aquarium in the engine room of the water works. It is his intention to get a glass tank about ten feet in length which he will have divided into different apartments for different kinds of fish. Some of his gold fish have tails of very curious formation. They are worth seeing.

George Evans, of Houtzdale, who was sentenced by the Court in 1881 for twenty years in the Penitentiary, for killing Goodwin while both were serving a term in the county jail, in 1881, has made application through his attorney, W. L. Shaw, for a pardon, which application was presented to the Pardon Board on January 21st. Evan was but a boy when the crime was committed and it is said that the eight years of his confinement has done much towards his intellectual and moral development. Being illiterate when he entered the penitentiary, he can now write a model letter and is a good scholar in all common branches. He is in failing health.

THE BELLEFONTE HANGING.—Concerning the approaching execution of Hopkins, the Lock Haven Democrat says: "Clinton county's excellent sheriff, Mr. Leahy, thinks that he will probably go to Bellefonte on the 20th of February to see what sort of a job Sheriff Cooke of that county will make in the suspension of the murderer, Hopkins, from the gallows. Sheriff Leahy's management of the Shaffer tragedy here was first class in all respects, and if the Centre county sheriff can get along with the disagreeable duty that will be his to perform on Feb. 20th, it will be a matter of satisfaction and congratulation to everybody concerned. Sheriff Leahy hopes that he may not be obliged to execute anybody else during his term of office, which has almost a year to run yet. The presence of our cool-headed sheriff in Bellefonte on that momentous occasion cannot fail to be of great encouragement to Sheriff Cooke, especially if the latter is in any degree nervous."

METHODIST DISTRICT CONFERENCE.—The following programme, to be followed at the M. E. Conference for this district, to be held at Clearfield, on the 11th and 12th of February, has been sent us with the request to publish: Report of the Presiding Elder; Reports from Pastors.

Bucknell University at Lewisburg is going to have a new and thoroughly equipped gymnasium. The proceeds for it are in the hands of the treasury, and the building will be ready by the opening of next year, September 11, 1890. The latter building is the gift of Hon. William Bucknell, who has also made recently an addition to the endowment of $65,000. This raises the endowment of the institution to over $350,000 and places the school in the very first rank among colleges of the country.

Dr. Allison of Spring Mills and Miss Annie Runkle, were married at the home of the bride, near Centre Hall, on Wednesday.

Sheriff Cook has been resisting an attack of the grip.

The Farmers' Institute at Mill Hall was fairly well attended.

J. G. Heberling has been appointed postmaster at Pine Grove Mills.

Prof. Wilse Reitmeyer, of Lewisburg, is giving the Zion Band instructions in new music.

Luther G. Clark, a well known citizen of Lock Haven, died on Sunday in the 43d year of his age.

The new Bellefonte gymnasium will be opened on this Friday night with a general reception.

The appointment of J. A. Fiedler to be postmaster at Bellefonte was confirmed by the Senate on Tuesday.

W. J. Swope, esq., is back in Bellefonte, after a three months sojourn in Texas, looking and feeling well.

The civil cases on the trial list that were set down for trial next week, will be postponed on account of the Andrews trial.

The report that the Logan House, at Loganton, in Sugar Valley, was destroyed by fire some days ago, was not true.

Prof. Reber, of State College, told the agriculturist at the Mill Hall Farmers' Institute what he saw and heard while acting as commissioner at the Paris exposition.

Dr. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte, Dr. Theo. S. Christ, of State College, and Dr. James A. Thompson, of Martha, have been appointed as a new Pension Examining Board for Centre county.

It is said that the winter of 1828 compared with the present one for warmth and forced vegetation. On Feb. 16 of that year peach trees were in blossom at Bellefonte, and the fact was found in an old Pennsylvania Gazette of Harrisburg.

The work at the new Morris line quarries, to be connected with Bald Eagle Valley railroad by a branch, progresses steadily. The building in which the crusher will be operated has been raised, its size being seventy-five by two hundred feet.

The Williamsport G. and B. says that it comes from very good authority in Philadelphia that B. S. Bentley, Esq., the contesting candidate for the president judgeship, will be the next postmaster of Williamsport. This looks as if the decision of the court in Judge Metzger's favor was anticipated by Mr. Bentley's friends.

The Wage Earner's Journal of Philipsburg, since its enlargement, has jumped into popularity so rapidly that it now takes the capacity of its new press to furnish a large enough edition to satisfy the demand for the paper. We congratulate brother Kinsloe on his good work and promising prosperity. May they continue and grow.

Chief of Police Chatham, says the Lock Haven Democrat of Saturday, went to Bellefonte that morning for the purpose of bringing here an individual supposed to be the gay and festive character spoken of yesterday. He returned on the 11 o'clock train with the man, but although answering the description in most respects it turned out that he was not the chap that was wanted.

Last Monday evening Calvin Meyers, living about a mile from Linden Hall, met with an accident while working in the barn connected with the premises where he resided, which terminated fatally. He and his brother went to the barn to do the evening's feeding, and while going from one part of the mow to the other he fell through to the floor below, fracturing his skull, from which injury he died in about two hours. He was unmarried and aged about 35 years.

The much advertised marriage ceremony of Mr. Benjamin Cogan and Miss Mollie McGee was celebrated with due fitness in the show window of an Altoona furniture house on Thursday evening of last week. About two thousand people thronged the street to witness the ceremony which was performed by Mayor Turner. The bride and groom immediately entered a carriage and drove to the station, taking the next train for Hollidaysburg, where they belong. The reward for making such a public spectacle of themselves was an outfit of fine furniture.

Last Tuesday evening officer Garis arrested in Lyon's store, this place, a young man named Wm. Young, on a charge of having robbed a Hungarian of $20. He was searched, but no $20 could be found upon his person, and the officer was about to conclude that it was a false alarm, when a Hungarian who was along with the robbed party, stepped up and said that Young had the money in his mouth. The latter refused to open his mouth for investigation, and upon his being thrown down and therein opened two $10 bills were found therein. He was put in jail for a hearing.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following legal permissions to get married according to law, were obtained at the Register's office of this county during the past two weeks:

James Moore and Miss Sarah Mill, both of Buffalo Run, Benner twp., married Jan. 9th. Charles Botterick, Philipsburg, and Miss Ella Buth, Ayer Valley, Huntingdon county. Dr. P. W. Swope and Miss Sallie E. Morley, both of Julian. Married Jan. 9th. Samuel Edwiston, Philipsburg, and Miss Maggie Boyle, Clearfield county. Jacob E. Felty and Miss Noah, N. Burchfield, both of Boalsburg. Wm. S. Walker, and Laura A. Watson, both of Mitesburg. John Zaenkomire and Miss Ellen Furgis, both of Bellefonte. John R. Aikens and Mary Y. Rickard, both of Philipsburg. Dr. J. R. G. A. Ison, Spring Mills, and Miss Annie C. Runkle, Centre Hall. Philip J. Busman, and Miss Nora M. Mowery, both of Nittany. James A. Shield, Ashcroft, Pa., and Miss Amye E. Lewis, Philipsburg, Pa. Almabie Vondermer and Miss Annie Joseph, both of Philipsburg. Calvin Rishel, Gregg township, and Miss Lizzie Miller, Miles township. James Bailey and Miss Annie Mears, both of Decatur Mines, Pa.

DeVoe, of New Jersey, has some what lost his reputation as a weather prophet, but is trying to recover it with this prediction: He says the present mildness is caused by warm equatorial currents. Owing to the shifting of storm belts, the rain in this section will be turned to snow this month. We shall have three cold waves yet. The ice men can cut by February 1. The last cold wave will be here February 17th. There will be a snow storm in March, followed by an early spring. As the weather seems to be determined to be contrary to what DeVoe would have it, there would seem to be a very slight chance for snow or ice this season.

At the musical convention that will be held next week at Snydertown, to be conducted by Prof. Weaver, and which will continue from Jan. 27th to February 1st, Prof. F. Dietrich will assist, playing upon a number of musical instruments. Singers from different localities will be present and participate. Every effort is being made to make it a success.

The spring lamb has made its appearance in Centre county and the chirp of the little chick is already heard in the land. For the confirmation of this wonderful news visit Haupt's farm in Benner township. So says the Lock Haven Democrat.
