-Within the last month Isaiah Ardery and his wife and child, living at Kylertown, near Philipsburg, died of typhoid fever.

Festival on the 20th, 21st, and 22nd | the porch. inst., will be held in the vacant store room next to the post office.

-D. M. Clemson will move with his family, in the spring, from Scotia mines to Pittsburg where he will occupy a position in connection with Carnegie's works.

-Harry Shuey, of Lemont, whose death from diabetes occurred last week, was buried on the 14th inst., the first anniversary of his marriage. He was 23 years old.

-The marksmen's badges, 63 in number, awarded to Company B, of this place, for good shooting, were distributed at the armory on Friday evening by Captain Reber.

-Mr. G. B. Brandon, of the Brock erhoff House, this place, was elected at the G. A. R. convention held last week at Shamokin, delegate to the national encampment to be held in Boston during the coming summer.

-Some evenings ago many friends participated in celebrating the 70th birth-day anniversary of Mr. Daniel Garman, at the Garman House, this place. Mr. Garman is a good specimen of a well preserved old gentleman.

Many friends of the deceased and of the family attended the service, which was conducted by Rev. F. J. Clerc, D. D., of the Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. J. H. McGarrah, of the Methodist Episcopal church. Ceremonies were conducted by Constans Commandery of Bellefonte.

-The story published last week about an alleged shooting affair near Coburn, between persons named Freed and Klinefelter, in which it was said that the latter attempted to shoot the former on account of a supposed intimacv with his wife, appears to have been an exaggeration. The difficulty seems to have sprung from the intoxication of Freed who in an altercation with a party named Raymond, at Mr. Klinefelter's house, snapped a pistol twice, but the weapon was not loaded. Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter are respectable people and were in no way connected with the affair.

-A yang girl of this place named Fisher, who is a sort of waif, attempted to commit suicide on Thursday of last week, at her home on Halfmoon Hill. On the evening previous she obtained some poison from a drug store, but it being discovered that it was in her possession it was taken from her. A morning with the intention of killing herself was also taken from her. She then completely undressed herself and going into the cellar lay down and refused to get up. The authorities were sent her to jail. She seems to be out of order mentally as well as morally.

M. E. CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS .-The Conference News, in noting matters generally pertaining to the M. E. church, savs :

The church at Curtin appointment. Howard charge, Altoona District, was re-opened on January 26, by Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D. The repairs on the church consisted of a vestibule and tower, and painting outside, papering and painting inside, a new pulpit and chandelier, and a window in memory of Philip Antis, the founder of Methodism in Bald Eagle Valley. The cost of these repairs was $740, of which $350 was to be raised on re-opening. On the morning of the 26th, Dr. Gray preached a sermon of much power, after which gation was dismissed $200 had been pledged. > -Another fatal accident occurred some days ago at the weigh scales of the Beech Creek railroad, near Beech Creek borough, by which young William Shaw, youngest son of Hugh Shaw, of Pine Creek township, lost his life. Mr. Shaw was a brakeman on a coal train and while assisting to weigh the cars of his train was caught between the bumpers and crushed to death. When found he was in a standing position between the bumpers, perfectly dead. The body was taken to Jersey Shore, near where the deceased resided. He was aged 34 years; married and leaves a wife and four small children.

-While Mr. W. H. Kremer was driving with his wife and son, one day last week, on the turnpike between Coburn and Millheim, the front wheels of their buggy ran into a deep hole in the middle of the road, breaking the front spring and smashing the buggy to pieces. A PIOUS LETTER FROM HOPKINS .-The Philipsburg Journal of Saturday published the following letter from Seeley Hopkins to a friend in that place, the tone of which showed that he was in a contrite frame of mind and hopeful as to his situation in the next world:

BELLEFONTE, Pa.,

February 15th, 1890. DEAR FRIEND CANN.-This lovely morning I will write you a short letter; and as it will be my last to you I will endeavor to thank you for your kind and good advice to me while I have A W Dale. been confined here. I thank God I heeded your, and other kind friends' advice, for to-day all is well. I shall die content. The world seems bright to me, yet I do not want to stay. The promise God has given to me is far brighter than anything this world contains. I shall die with no malice towards any one. I forgive all and earnestly hope that God will be as merciful to all those who have any enmity towards me as He has been to me. Dear friend Cann, the words you told me in my cell are ever ringing in my ears, and I shall pass from this world to a better with them ever present in my mind.

My earnest prayer is that the ranks of the Y. M. C. A. will increase tenfold, and my advice to all young men is that they become members of good societies and be true workers in God's cause, for if I had heeded God's commandments I to-day would be a free man. Tell them to stop before it is forever too late; tell my friends' and associates that I hope they will all seek

God while yet they have time. I hope some poor wanderer will heed DEATH OF GEORGE BOSTLEY .- The my advice. I now close with a long grip has claimed another victim in the farewell, and may God reward you and death of Mr. George Bostley, who died at the members of the Y. M. C.
