

Democratic Watchman

Friday Morning, March 28, 1890.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. GEISE, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—A population of between seven and eight thousand is claimed for Lock-Haven.

—There is a report that Forepaugh's show will exhibit in Bellefonte during the coming season.

—Mr. Frank Miles, of Milesburg, died on Monday morning last of typhoid fever, and was buried on Tuesday.

—Governor Beaver has appointed Friday, April 11th, and Friday, April 25th, as arbor days for the spring of 1890.

—Mr. Caleb Kephart, of Buffalo Run, was in town on Monday, looking up some new points on which to—his fellow man.

—The Commissioners of Clinton county want to borrow $25,000 with which to rebuild the bridges washed away by the flood.

—The firemen were supplied with a relishable lunch by Colonel and Mrs. Mullen after the fire on Bishop street last Sunday evening.

—A little rum and a large amount of profane language entertained a motley crowd in front of the Broeckerhoff house on Monday afternoon.

—Workmen have begun the digging for the foundation of the Garman Opera house. It is the intention to have it done by the first of August.

—The party who lost a pair of silver framed eye glasses on the streets of Bellefonte on Monday last can have them returned to him by calling at this office.

—Dr. Hale, of this place, is slowly recovering from a serious illness that extended through a number of months, and at one time appeared as if it would prove fatal.

—Dr. Seibert has moved his family and office into Mr. Bartruff's house on Bishop street, opposite Father McArdle's residence, where he will be pleased to meet all his friends.

—Last Friday Miss Mary Wallace, of Milesburg, and Mr. Wm. Pletcher, of Pittsburg, freight conductor on the P. & L. E. railroad, were married at the home of the bride.

—Several weeks ago we noticed the departure of Mr. Paul Sternberg, of this place, for Seattle, State of Washington. The young man has got there, and has already secured a place in a store.

—On the 10th of the coming May the people of Milton intend to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the big fire that demolished their town. It seems to be a rather singular thing to celebrate.

—James McCan, ex-Chief Burgess of Tyrone, and for a number of years agent and weighmaster at the Tyrone scales of the Pennsylvania railroad, died at his home in that place last Monday.

—The Telephone company at this place have just erected six new and very long poles preparatory to transferring their office from the Haupt building to more commodious quarters in the Bush Arcade.

—The Constans Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 33, of Bellefonte, will attend the Grand Annual Conclave in Lock Haven next May. There will be some forty of them, and they have already secured accommodations at the Keating House.

—Last Friday, while James Davis, brakeman on the Bald Eagle valley railroad, was coupling cars at Unionville, the thumb of his left hand was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated. He had just recovered from an injury to his right hand.

—The people of the Reformed congregation at Bousburg, this county, have been made the recipients of a very handsome Bailey Reflector at the hands of Mr. & Mrs. David Sparr, and they are accordingly very grateful. The expense of the Reflector was $90.

—Last Friday morning, Christian Mott, of Mill Hill, an employee of the Mann axe works of that place, died of axe-maker's consumption, at the residence of his parents at Roopsburg, near Bellefonte, at the age of about 34 years, leaving a wife and three children.

—Sheriff Cooke, it is said, will issue four hundred passes to the Andrews' chinking bee at Bellefonte on the 9th proximo. We had supposed that under the law public executions in Pennsylvania were done away with. But it seems such is not the case.—Lock Haven Democrat.

—Samuel Strayer, of Lock Haven, was arrested on Thursday last week for having attempted to shoot his wife with a pistol. They were not living together, and the cause of the attempted shooting was her refusal to give up a child which he wanted. He was lodged in jail in default of $500 bail.

MR. CARNEGIE'S VALUABLE PRESENT TO THE PENNA. STATE COLLEGE.

—Mr. Carnegie has just donated to the Library of the Pennsylvania State College a work of exceptional importance and interest. It is entitled "Facsimiles of the Manuscripts Relating to America, from 1783 to 1789, in the Archives of England, France, Holland and Spain." The cost of the series which contains 100 volumes, is $2,000, and it will take ten years to complete the series. Only 200 copies of the work are to be printed, and the negatives are destroyed as soon as each volume is printed.

The importance of this publication will be appreciated when it is understood that it is a catalogue of the documents relating to the Revolutionary War now remaining in foreign archives, with exact photographic facsimiles. A state paper often exists in more than one form and frequently in several collections. The original may be found, for instance, at London, while copies of it, perhaps in cipher, may be discovered at Paris, or at the Hague, or in Spain, having been sent thither by an ambassador or secret agent. Each copy was prepared for a special purpose, to accomplish a certain end. Whether that end was or was not attained, the means by which its object was effected, or the causes which prevented the expected results, are often shown by memoranda and endorsements made upon it by the public minister through whose hands it has passed. These memoranda and endorsements are often of the same historical value as the paper itself, and enhance its value correspondingly. It is, of course, impossible to bring them all together, but Benjamin Franklin Stevens, the author of this stupendous undertaking, proposes to give American scholars an opportunity to see photographic copies of many of the original documents pertaining to the Revolution.

The importance of these fac-simile reproductions will be further seen when it is remembered that many of these manuscripts in foreign archives are in a decaying condition and are already almost illegible. Again, no facilities exist in this country for consulting the original manuscript.

The State College is to be heartily congratulated on this magnificent addition to its Library.

CONDITION OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN THIS DISTRICT.

—At the Central Pennsylvania Conference in session at Carlisle last week, Presiding Elder Hamlin made the following report concerning the district over which he presides:

In the work of church building and improvement, the enterprise and zeal of our people have suffered no abatement. A willingness to contribute liberally to these purposes is everywhere manifest. During the year five new churches have been dedicated. Gray's church in Half Moon charge, a beautiful brick edifice costing about $4,000, was dedicated early in the year. At Lemont, in Pine Grove charge, there now stands as a monument to the liberality of the small membership at that place an elegant little church, erected at a cost of about $2,000. It was dedicated December 15 with all indebtedness provided for at Bania, Ramey charge, the church, the foundations of which were laid last year, has been finished at a cost of about $3,000, only a light indebtedness remaining. It was dedicated in August, the Rev. G. D. Penepacker and the Rev. M. L. Ganoe officiating, to whom for services on that occasion rendered, we are greatly indebted. At a cost of about $1,200 has been erected at Madera, Glen Hope charge, a comfortable little church. It was dedicated free of debt by Rev. Dr. Reed, president of Dickinson college, whose visit to this growing town was a great blessing and will be long and gratefully remembered.

Many of the churches in the district have been greatly improved, notably the church at Bellefonte. Of the expense incident to this costly improvement $1,775 has been collected and paid this year. The reopening services were intensely interesting, Dr. Reed, of Carlisle, preaching on the occasion two eloquent and appropriate sermons. The church at Centre, Howard circuit, has also been enlarged and improved at a cost of $735. It was reopened by Dr. Gray, of Dickinson seminary, through whose skillful and vigorous management the whole indebtedness was provided for.

The church at Birmingham charge has also been improved and made beautiful, at a cost of $650, all of which has been paid. At a considerable cost several other churches have been improved. The whole amount collected and paid on church improvement during the year will aggregate $5,000.

About $1,500 have been expended in the improvement of parsonage property. A parsonage costing $950 has been purchased at Spring Mills, a central location of Penns Valley circuit. At Tyrone also a comfortable parsonage, well located, has been purchased at a cost of $4,500.

The following missionary collections were made in this county during the past year in different Methodist charges: Bellefonte, $400; Half Moon, $257; Howard, $11; Milesburg and Unionville, $67; Penns Valley, $123; Philipsburg, $980; Snow Shoe, $81.

—It is always a pleasure to have a visit from our former townsman, R. M. McGee, Esq., which pleasure we had on Wednesday, he being on a visit to Bellefonte from his present place of residence, Philadelphia.

—Mr. Dorsey J. Gingery, a promising young merchant and Democrat of Woodland, Clearfield county, with his father, Mr. Samuel Gingery, of Martha, were among the many welcome callers at the WATCHMAN office, the past week.

—C. D. Keller, esq., formerly a prosperous merchant of this place, but for several years back getting wealthy and making himself popular not only as a citizen but as a business man of La Josa, Clearfield county, spent Sunday with friends hereabouts and in Penns Valley.

—The lady members of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium having been at considerable expense in furnishing curtains, and having other articles to purchase, have decided to charge all lady visitors, who are not members, the small sum of five cents admittance, which will be placed in the furnishing fund.

—Owing to a change in territory J. A. Woodcock, district agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of N. Y., will locate in Williamsport, Penn., it being a more central point for his business, besides affording an opportunity for his son Jay to attend Dickinson Seminary which is located in that city. Mr. James McKee has leased Mr. Woodcock's home on East Linn street and will occupy it about the 10th of April.

—Last Friday morning Alfred Davis, the man who had been arrested on suspicion of being one of the parties that robbed Budinger's store at Snow Shoe, had a hearing, before Judge Furst. Testimony was given by half a dozen witnesses, making a rather strong case against him. Two revolvers that were stolen from the store were found in the garret of his house, and also a box of men's caps. A Pinkerton detective from Philadelphia, named Day, had been set on his track, and developed the facts against him. This same detective was the one who entrapped "Red-nosed Mike." In default of $1,000 bail Davis was remanded to jail to await his trial.

FIRE ON BISHOP STREET.—Last Sunday evening about half past eight o'clock fire was discovered breaking out of the roof of the residence of Mr. Vincent Bauer on Bishop street. Although the alarm was immediately given and the ever alert firemen was on the ground as soon as possible, the fire burst forth in great volume and made a big smoke, the building being an old frame and very combustible. At one time it looked as if the whole block would be involved, but by great exertion the fire was confined to the house where it originated, the upper part of which was badly burned out, and the lower part much damaged by the water used in extinguishing the flames. The house was occupied by Mr. Bauer and Ollie Miller. The furniture of the former was much injured, but Mr. Miller saved most of his. The loss of the former on house and furniture was about $3,000, on which there is $2100 insurance. Miller had no insurance.

As the fire progressed and the energies of the brave fire boys waned in their endeavors to save property at the risk of life or threatened disease from wet and frozen clothing, where, oh, where! was the inspiring and resuscitating coffee cart! Can it be possible that our courageous temperance association is becoming disheartened in the good work, or were they so exhausted from overwork in their attempt to control the action of the court?

DEDICATION OF A COSTLY CHURCH.

—The memorial Methodist church and chapel, built at Lewisburg by Thomas Beaver, as a memorial to his father, Rev. Peter Beaver, and which is represented to have cost over $100,000, will be formally presented and dedicated at Lewisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, May 14, 1890. Rev. Bishop Foss, D. D. L. L. D., of Philadelphia, will preach the dedicatory sermon at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Dr. John DeWitte, of McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, will preach at 3 o'clock p. m. In the evening Rev. Bishop Bowman, D. D., of St. Louis, will preside at a platform meeting when addresses will be delivered by Rev. Bishops Fowler and Vincent, Dr. J. M. Buckley, of New York, Gov. Jas. A. Beaver, President Reed, of Carlisle College, and Dr. C. C. McCabe Services and lectures Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. On Sunday, May 18th, Bishop Fowler and Vincent and President Reed will occupy the pulpit. These services will be continued during the week, and addresses will be delivered by the prominent ministers of the Central Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Conferences.

FOR THE CLARA PRICE MONUMENT FUND.—We acknowledge the receipt of a contribution of one dollar to the Clara Price monument fund from Miss Celia C. Armor, of Bellefonte. Any other contributions to this worthy object that may be sent to this office, will be duly acknowledged and forwarded to the treasurer of the fund.

MORE VIOLENCE IN CLINTON COUNTY.

—Wm. G. Newberry died in Lock Haven last Saturday morning, the cause of his death being supposed to be injuries received from blows struck by Charles Mosher on Thursday night at Leman's hotel. There were a number of bruises on his head and on his body, and Saturday morning blood and water are said to have run out of his mouth. The deceased complained of sickness and headache early in the morning, and did not get up, and in the afternoon Dr. Hayes was sent for, made an examination and left a prescription. The family did not anticipate a serious result, but death's coming was swift and sudden. Deceased was an old soldier, about 57 years of age, and a member of the G. A. R. Mrs. John Whiteman, of Milesburg, was one of his children. A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday afternoon, and Charles Mosher, the party charged with inflicting the injury, has been arrested.

We have since learned that the coroner's jury found that Newberry came to his death from apoplexy superinduced by injuries to his brain caused by blows received from the said Mosher. When knocked down the first time Newberry's head struck on the stove, whereby a severe hurt was received on the left side, under which the doctors found clotted blood on the brain, about half an ounce. On the second knock down he fell on the back of his head, striking the floor with full force, receiving an injury near the top of the head, on the right side of the dividing line, which produced three and a half ounces of blood on the brain. These clots the physicians, Drs. Walls and Hays, who made the post mortem, say produced the apoplexy from which death resulted.

A QUIET THOUGH JOYOUS WEDDING.

—The wedding of Mr. J. Miles Kephart and Mrs. Emma Graham Wakefield, which was consummated at the residence of Wm. F. Reber, esq., on High street, on Tuesday afternoon last, at four o'clock, was one of the quietest yet happiest events that has transpired in Bellefonte for a long time.

This union was somewhat romantic in that Mr. and Mrs. Kephart were lovers before the war. Unforeseen circumstances having separated them, she married Mr. Wakefield of Lewisport, at that time Recorder of Mifflin county.

Mrs. Kephart has been confined to her bed all winter by nervous prostration, but was able to be up while the Rev. Dr. Laurie conducted the service which made her the bride of one to whom she had pledged her troth years ago.

The groom, a resident of Fleming, Pa., is one of the most intelligent men in this community and served as a commissary during the war with honor to himself and his country. Miles is a whole souled, generous fellow, and will make one of the best of husbands. His bride is a sister of Mrs. Butts, and an aunt of Mrs. Wm F. Reber of this place, and is a lady of refinement and culture.

On account of the physical condition of Mrs. Kephart, the ceremony was celebrated with less pomp than would have attended it had everything permitted but from the expression of the groom's face when we saw him we knew that even if there was not the usual splendor of such an occasion, there was the greatest of joy.

We bespeak for Mr. and Mrs. Kephart a long life of wedded happiness.

A SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

—The closing of Prof. Morrison's second term as teacher of the South Philipsburg grammar school on the 19th inst., was attended with an entertainment in the evening which had many pleasant features and was a great success in every way. Although the admission charged was merely nominal a neat little sum was realized which will be devoted to purchasing new books for the school library. The schoolroom had been transformed into a miniature theatre by the erection of a temporary stage, on which the actors and actresses rendered a program with such excellence as to hold the attention, and please the entire audience, and well repaid those who had come from the neighboring school districts to see and hear. The program was large and well rendered, and the scholars gave evidence of the culture they have received from Prof. Morrison.

The performance was followed by an address from the Professor, who upon its conclusion presented Misses Nellie Batchelor and Nettie Bathgate, each with a beautiful silver cup as rewards for regular attendance and good conduct. Nettie Bathgate, Della and Grace Pearce and Grace Hazard, each won class prizes which were presented to them, and then the Professor was the subject of a little surprise when Prof. McDonald in a short but very well worded address presented him with a valuable and useful Paul E. Wirt fountain pen, a gift from his school. It was evident that there was a mutually cordial feeling between the teacher and the scholars.

A BRILLIANT HOUSE WEDDING.

—Bellefonte society has been set agog by the brilliant wedding of Col. Jackson L. Spangler to Mrs. Lida Holiday, at the home of the bride on the north-east corner of the Diamond.

The nuptials were celebrated at seven o'clock on last Tuesday evening, Rev. Houck, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. The bride's handsome attire of heliotrope silk and velvet, and her stately mien, made her most charming indeed, while the Colonel in conventional black looked the picture of joy.

After the ceremony was performed a wedding supper was served by our popular caterer, Joseph Cedar, and those who were fortunate enough to partake of it say that it was a veritable symposium.

Col. Spangler, the groom, is one of the most successful lawyers at the Centre county bar and figures prominently in political and social life. He is interested with Adj. General Hastings and others in extensive coal operations.

Misses Myra Holiday and Millie Smith were maids of honor. The presents were of the most valuable nature, those of the groom to the bride being diamond earrings, bracelets and brooch.

Many prominent guests from a distance were present, and telegrams of regret were received from Gen. Hastings and brother.

The couple departed midst a volley of old shoes and rice for a tour through the principal southern cities.

Upon their return they will occupy the old Hale mansion on Allegheny street, which Mr. Spangler recently purchased and is going to have remodeled.

McCALMONT & CO. IN THEIR NEW PLACE.

—It is now a matter of interest for the large number of patrons of Messrs. McCalmont & Co. to know that they are moving their agricultural implement and seed store into the large and commodious Hale building. They will be able to show their implements, seeds and serve their customers to a much better advantage than heretofore.

They are supplied with Conklin Wagons for which they are the Manufacturers' agents in Centre county. These wagons commend themselves to all judges of good wagons—they have no competitors in this locality for light running and durability. The Champion is a new wagon, which commends itself on rough roads and a front movement, which saves the team.

The "South Bend Chilled Plow" is one of the most attractive features of this new store room. Farmers cannot afford to delay in supplying themselves with the South Bend.

A full supply of plow-shares for plowing soft, hard or gravelly soil, on hand at lowest prices.

The Roland Chilled is the best bevel land side plow in the market. They defy competition, as to strength, durability and light running.

They guarantee the best shares and are ready to compete with any bevel land side plow in existence.

They also have some Universal Plows at reduced prices.

The French Cultivator with two rowed corn planter and fertilizer attachments, are included in their stock.

They are glad to inform their farmer friends that the monopoly in Spring Tooth Harrows no longer exists. They invite their friends to examine their wooden and steel frame Spring Tooth Harrows, which are the best in the market and sold at the lowest prices.

They are supplied with choice farm and garden seeds and they only state facts when they inform their farmer friends that they are the only dealers in Central Pennsylvania who make it a specialty to deal in choice re-cleaned clover seed.

THE PLACE FOR HOLDING THE NEXT M. E. CONFERENCE.

—Concerning the place for holding the next conference the question came up before the M. E. Conference at Carlisle on Monday, invitations being extended from Mt. Carmel, Sunbury and the First church, at York. Mt Carmel received 51 and Sunbury 91 votes. On motion of Rev. Ferguson, the vote for Sunbury was made unanimous. By a vote of the conference thanks were tendered to Mount Carmel and York for the invitations extended. Dr. Monroe pleasantly suggested that York be requested to invite the conference in 1892.

Died.

EVANS.—Rufus D. Evans, of South Williamsport, but residing in Bellefonte at the time of his death, died of typhoid pneumonia March 17, 1890, aged 29 years 4 months, and 1 day.

The deceased was a young man of much worth, highly esteemed for his intelligence, and dearly beloved by all who knew him, for his generous and benevolent nature. He leaves a young wife and many dear friends to mourn his loss.

He has passed from the world forever, But still lives in another sphere, Our earthly eyes cannot behold him, Yet we still his presence near.

When we are clothed in the immortal, We shall pass beyond this wall, And join him within the portal Of the being of us all.

Safe Register.

For the benefit of those who contemplate making public sale during the coming season, we will keep a register of all sales within the county as fully as possible, examination of which will be free to all. Persons having their bills printed at the WATCHMAN office, will secure notice of sale in this column free of charge.
