Pine Grove Mentions.

Lieut. Armstrong Baily, of Sterling Run, Cameron county, Pa., paid a brief visit to his old home and friends hereabouts.

D. S. Erd, one of our former merchants, and a victim of the recent fire, has just returned from the Eastern cities with one of the largest assortments of merchandise ever brought to our town.

Last Friday, the 11th inst., the old patriarch of Ferguson township, celebrated his ninety-second birthday. Quietly seated in his arm chair he was surrounded by a number of immediate friends to whom he related bygone usages, such as borrowing coal to light fires, and how the old flintlock gun was used.

On Saturday the 12th inst., everybody was astonished beyond degree at the sudden death of W. F. Weiland, one of our best farmers, who came to his end by his own hand, caused by domestic trouble, and his death is inexpressibly sad.

Johnstown Tribune, of 15th. Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning Annie Baines, a cobbler-picker, met with a horrible and probably fatal accident. She was at work on the dump in Frog Hollow, between the Fourteenth ward and Rosedale. Just after a dump of hot cinder Annie and the other pickers, as is customary on such occasions, made a rush for the material to secure the first choice of cobbles.

A certain village in this county, whose case may have a general application, has a scandal monger among its citizens, who to a great extent infect our moral community and have been applying their tongues to the injury of their neighbors.

There is a class of human creatures, he's and she's, things that are neither men nor women, but hyenas in human form who gorge themselves to the full on the foul and false falsehoods that continually ooze from the stinking sewers of each other's mouths.

man, woman, or girl. The males of this species of ghoul are always happiest when spreading the spawn of their treacherous lies over the sacred name of wife or mother, for by so doing the devilish lies dripping from their glib lips will eat through and poison the whole family.

Shut your ears and doors against them. Let these filthy fiends feel that you loath them as you do the sow fresh from the wallow. If the long-eared and long-tongued hound comes into your presence, bid him begone and return to his vomit. Kick these skunks of society from your path; make them feel they are no more welcome to your home or presence than is the bed-bug or polecat.

We furnish the following at the request of a Catholic of this borough who takes exception to the manner in which Catholics assist at the mass at Father McNeil's Church, particularly in standing when the Lord's prayer is chanted by the priest.

When the priest leaves the sacristy, the faithful rise and remain standing while the priest comes down from the altar steps to begin the first prayers. They all kneel, and remain so during the whole of the Mass, with the exception of the two Gospels. During the reading of the gospels all stand. It is not allowed to sit down during the Low Mass, neither for priest nor for people.

The following are the precise rules: 1.—All rise when the priest leaves the sacristy, and remain standing until he comes down from the altar to say the first prayer.

2.—Then all kneel until the first intones the Gloria. 3.—At the introduction of the Gloria, all rise and remain standing until the priest sits down.

4.—After the priest is seated the congregation sits down. 5.—When the priest kisses the altar before the prayers, all rise and remain standing during the reading of the prayers.

6.—When the epistle is sung all sit down. 7.—When the priest begins Dominus Vobiscum, before the Gospel, all rise and remain standing during the singing of the Gospel.

8.—If the sermon follows the Gospel, the faithful kneel during the Veni Creator, stand at the reading of the Gospel and sit down during the sermon. If the Bishop preaches, the faithful must remain standing, unless the Bishop invites them to sit down.

9.—When the priest commences the Creed, all rise. They kneel with the priest, when he says Et incarnatus est—(i. e., And He was made flesh.)

10.—When the priest sits down, also the faithful sit. 11.—When the choir sings Et incarnatus est, homo factus est, the priest uncovers his head. The faithful kneel. Afterwards they sit down until the priest returns to the altar and kisses it.

12.—Then all rise and stand during the Dominus vobiscum and the Oremus. 13.—Then all sit until the priest commences to say per omnia secula seculorum.

14.—All rise at these words, and not only at the Sursum corda. 15.—All stand during the Preface.

16.—From the Sanctus to the Second Ablution after Communion all kneel. 17.—At the Second Ablution the faithful sit down until the priest kisses the altar to sing Dominus Vobiscum before the last prayers.

18.—All stand during the last prayers, and remain so until the priest has sung Te igitur. 19.—All kneel then to receive the blessing. 20.—During the last Gospel they all stand.

A Girl Almost Roasted. Johnstown Tribune, of 15th. Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning Annie Baines, a cobbler-picker, met with a horrible and probably fatal accident. She was at work on the dump in Frog Hollow, between the Fourteenth ward and Rosedale. Just after a dump of hot cinder Annie and the other pickers, as is customary on such occasions, made a rush for the material to secure the first choice of cobbles.

She was finally dragged aside the remnants of her clothing which had not been consumed were torn from her body and she was carried to the home of her stepfather, a man named Rager, on Connelly avenue, Fourteenth ward. There she was attended by Dr. W. B. Lowman who had promptly responded to a summons. He found her legs, hips, and thighs roasted and charred in a sickening manner and numerous burns on her body.

Carriages.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS! CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, AND SPRING WAGONS, at the old Carriage stand of McQUISTON & CO., NO. 10 SMITH STREET, adjoining the freight depot.

We have on hand and for sale the best assortment of Carriages, Buggies, and Spring Wagons we have ever had. We have Dexter, Brewster, Elliptic, and Thomas Coll Springs, with Piano and Whitechapel bodies, and can give you a choice of the different patterns of wheels. Our work is the best made in this section, made by good workmen and of good material. We claim to be the only party manufacturing in town who ever served an apprenticeship to the business. Along with that we have had forty years' experience in the business, which certainly should give us the advantage over inexperienced parties.

In price we defy competition, as we have no Pedlars, Clerks or Rents to pay. We pay cash for all our goods, thereby securing them at the lowest figures and discounts. We are determined not to be undersold, either in our own make or manufactured work from other places; so give us a call for Sitties, Plantations, Buggies, Spring Wagons, Buckboards, or anything else in our line, and we will accommodate you.

We are prepared to do all kinds of REPAIRING on short notice. Painting, Trimming, Woodwork and Smithing. We guarantee all work to be just as represented, so give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't miss the place—alongside of the freight depot. 34 1/2 S. A. McQUISTON & CO.

Saddlery. A GOOD RECORD. THE OLDEST HARNES HOUSE IN TOWN.

Over 18 years in the same spot—no change of firm—no fire—no going back, but continued and steady progress. This is an advanced age. People demand more for their money than ever before. We are up to the times with the largest and best assortment of everything that is to be found in a FIRST-CLASS HARNES STORE, and we guarantee, either in quality, quantity or price, NO SELLING OUT FOR THE WANT OF TRADE. TO COMPANY—NO PARTNERS—NO ONE TO DIVIDE PROFITS WITH BUT MY CUSTOMERS. I am better prepared, this year, to give you more for your money than ever before. Last year and this year have found me at times not able to fill my orders. The above facts are worth considering, for they are evidence of merit and fair dealing. There is nothing so successful

AS SUCCESS.—and this is what hurts some. See my large stock of Single and Double Harness, Whips, Tread Dusters, Horse Sheets, Collars and Sweats, Bed, Riding Saddles, Ladies' Side Saddles, very low. Fly-Nets from $3 a pair upwards. Axle, Coach and Harness Oils, and Harness Leather SOLD AT THE LOWEST PRICES to the trade. Harness-makers in the country will find it to their advantage to get my prices before purchasing hardware elsewhere. I am better prepared this year than ever to fill orders promptly.
