Friday Morning, April 25, 1890.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. GIBBS, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Judge Chestnut has been nominated and confirmed as postmaster at Renovo.

Dr. Dartt has commenced the building of another house on East Lamb street.

The address at Howard on Decoration Day will be delivered by Clement Dale, esq.

The Decoration Day oration at Milesburg will be delivered by W. I. Swoope, esq., of this place.

The foundation being already completed, the brick work on the Garman opera house was commenced this week.

Mr. Teller, late of the Bush House, has presented to Gregg Post, G. A. R., an original picture of Libby prison.

The delegates to the Republican State Convention from Blair county were instructed last Saturday for General Hastings.

The branch of the Bald Eagle Valley railroad to the new Morris lime quarry is completed and ready for business.

The sewer that is being put in on the south side of East Lamb street will be a great improvement to that quarter of the town.

The Patrons of Husbandry of Centre county will observe Arbor Day today the 25th, by planting trees on their picnic grounds at Centre Hall.

The pensions of George W. Grimes, Joshua Folk and Charles Eckeroth, of Bellefonte, and Henry Houtz, of Linden Hall, have been increased.

The Patrons of Husbandry of Centre county will convert the 25th inst. into an Arbor Day by planting trees on their new picnic and exhibition grounds at Centre Hall.

The largest trout caught this season, of which we have any record, was captured by Register Rupp, its length being 17 inches and its weight two pounds.

Some days ago Martin L. Myers, of Tyrone, while coupling cars at that place had his right arm so badly crushed that it was necessary to amputate it close below the shoulder.

The lumbermen of Williamsport have decided on a general advance in the prices of all grades. The hemlock output down the Susquehanna is 90,000, 000 feet short of what it was last season.

Chief of Police Chatham, of Lock Haven, resigned because his salary was reduced to $40 a month. That is rather boggarily pay for the head of the police force of a town that aspires to the dignity of a city.

Some very old people are dying this spring. Among others over 90 who have recently passed away was Mrs. Catherine Bender, of Nippanose Valley, on the 16th inst., at the great age of 93 years, 3 months and 14 days.

Mr. Hipply has succeeded Mr. Westfall as superintendent of the eastern division of the Philadelphia and Erie railroad, which includes the Bellefonte, Nittany and Lemont, and Lewisburg and Bellefonte railroads.

The Bellefonte friends of John M. Ward, the famous base-ball player, will be sorry to learn that such a disagreement has sprung up between him and his actress wife, formerly Helen Daury, that a separation is contemplated.

Dr. Seibert having purchased the property on Allegheny street recently occupied by ex-Sheriff Woodring, has had the old wooden dwelling house torn down, on the site of which he will have a handsome structure built for his future dwelling.

The arrangements for the parade to be given in Tyrone on the fourth of July by the Central Pennsylvania Association of Patriotic Order Sons of America, including about seven or eight counties, are rapidly progressing. A big crowd is expected.

The Northern Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania, will convene at Centre Hall on Tuesday evening of next week, 29th of April, and will continue to May 1st. The opening sermon will be preached by the President of Conference, Rev. H. K. Felton.

The firemen of Huntingdon had their hands full last Friday afternoon. The residence of Mr. Thomas B. Boring took fire and was damaged to the amount of about $500 before the flames were extinguished, and scarcely was this attended to before fire broke out in the Eagle hotel. That neither of these fires was allowed to extend is evidence that the firemen of that place understood their business.

BOROUGH BUSINESS.—At a meeting of the borough council on Monday evening the application of Mr. E. Graham for the exoneration of his taxes for 1888 and 1889 was referred to the Finance Committee with a favorable recommendation. The Water Committee recommended the laying of water pipes on East Howard street at a cost of about $125. Fire and Police Committee recommended the purchase of 900 feet of rubber hose for the Undine Hose Company at a cost of one dollar per foot. Nuisance Committee reported an agreement with John Potter for the rent of a stable for a pound for 5 months at $3 a month. The Water Committee was given permission to paint the water works and the fence around the spring. William Garis and Joshua Folk were unanimously re-elected policemen for the coming year at $35 per month.

PAST NINETY.—A correspondent in speaking of the recent celebration of the 92nd birthday of the venerable Samuel Hess, of Pine Grove Mills, says: It was in 1831 that he came to Pine Grove Mills and settled where he now lives. He raised a family of eight children, six of whom are still living and holding prominent positions in business and society. "Pap" Hess has always been known as a man governed by upright principles, and has held many positions of prominence in Centre county. He has a very remarkable memory, and relates his early adventures in a most entertaining manner. It is a real treat and pleasure to spend a day with him. He is a most consistent Lutheran and the oldest member of the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills. It is the hope of his children and friends to meet him again on his next birthday.

LOCK HAVEN GYPSIES.—A mong a tribe of gypsies encamping at Williamsport are a couple who are well known in Lock Haven. They are Charles Humberger and his wife Mary, who not over three years ago lived in that city. Mrs. Humberger is better known by her maiden name, Mary Worley, and any person who once knew her could readily recognize her by her peculiar personal appearance. Mary has an interesting history, and those who knew her when a young girl say that she was at one time considered neat and pretty looking. The couple are evidently only a late addition to the "tribe," as gypsies style themselves, but they bid fair to become two of its influential members. When questioned by a G. and B. reporter Charles stated that he had been roaming around over the country for the past few years, and that the life he was leading suited him. He was rather reticent and did not state when he joined the band.

NEARLY A CENTENARIAN.—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Jane Mays, the oldest resident of Tyrone, one day last week gave her a party to celebrate her 98th birthday. The old lady is well known in Centre county. Among those at the entertainment were all her surviving children, and a number of her grand-children and great-grand-children were also present.

Mrs. Mays was born in Huntingdon county, the fifteenth day of April, 1792, and now when only two years short of the century mark, she is as hale and hearty as many a person thirty or forty years younger. She reads without the assistance of spectacles, sews neatly, and last summer she made jelly. Her memory is excellent. She recalls vividly the story of the hanging of James Monks at Bellefonte in 1819, which has been rehearsed lately in the papers in connection with accounts of the recent executions in Centre county. She is a remarkable old lady and bids fair to live some years yet.

IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE.—Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, a most distinguished Washington lawyer, and the only woman ever nominated for the Presidency, will deliver her justly celebrated lecture, "Is Marriage a Failure?" in the Court House on Tuesday evening April 29th, 1890, for the benefit of the senior class of the Bellefonte High School, the proceeds to be devoted to the purchase of books for the library of the High School.

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle says: The curiosity to see and hear Mrs. Belva Lockwood, added to the flattering but truthful things which the Eagle said about her yesterday, sufficiently accounted for the great throng that awaited her coming at Everett Hall last evening. The auditorium was crowded to its utmost capacity. Her appearance was the signal for a burst of applause, and when it had subsided the only woman who ever ran for President of the United States delivered an exceedingly interesting and able address on the subject, "Is Marriage a Failure?" It was what we prophesied it would be, an "intellectual treat." Her lecture combined humor, pathos, eloquence and logic, and, as a whole, in real strength, in clear comprehensive grasp, in brilliancy and in the rare blending of wit and earnestness, we have never heard her superior.

Some 7000 young trout from the State hatchery were placed in Sinking creek, one day recently, by Wm. Moyer and Peter Jorden of Tusseyville.

An important suit for damages is pending in Huntingdon county, ex-sheriff Thomas K. Henderson, of Union Furnace, claiming to have been damaged by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. In order to straighten their roadbed at Union Furnace the railroad company took up a strip of Mr. Henderson's land. The complainant avers that the change thus made in the roadbed has very materially injured the approaches to his mill situated near by, and claims damages to the amount of $15,000. The company offered him $600. Colonel D. S. Keller, Constance Curtin, W. C. Patterson, Samuel Gilliland and William McFarland, all of Centre county, were appointed jurors by the court to assess the proper amount of damages sustained by Mr. Henderson. The jury were engaged all last week in hearing testimony on both sides and will render their verdict this week.

The hop to be given by the class of '90 at the Pennsylvania State College this evening is expected to equal in grandeur the one given by Ward McAllister in New York last fall. Its being the occasion of the opening of the new armory and also of the inauguration of dancing at the college, will make it an event of great interest to the students and patrons of this rapidly growing institution. We understand that the list of invitations number about one thousand and a large number of them have brought acceptances. With a polished maple floor 160x80 feet, and Stopper and Fiske's entire orchestra, the student, ought to be able to make this their first dance an occasion long to be remembered.

The organization of the Union veteran Legion, under the title of Bellefonte Encampment, No 59, formed last week, has the following officers: Col. Commander—John I. Curtin; Lieut. Colonel—Charles Smith; Major—Geo. E. Parker; Sergeant—Jas. Thompson; Chaplain—W. H. Musser; Adjutant—G. B. Brandon; Quartermaster—Cyrus Goss; Officer of Day—Amos Mullen; Officer of Guard—Wm. Gehret; Sergeant Major—W. H. Port; Quartermaster Sergeant—H. H. Benner; Color Sergeant—Wm. Garis. It started with 35 charter members, and its regular meeting nights will be the second and fourth meeting nights of each month, in the Gregg Post rooms.

The Renovo News says: John A. Buck, a traveler of Alex. Beede & Co., Williamsport wholesale grocers, lost a pocket-book containing $776 at the Renovo House Wednesday morning, $670 of the amount belonging to the firm for which he is traveling, and he did not relish the idea of losing the money. Joe Southern, Will Elliot and Frank Meisel found the pocketbook and returned it to the loser. Mr. Buck rewarded the boys by giving them $20-$10 to Joe Southern and $5 each to the other two.

The Altoona club of the Interstate League will play a return game of ball with the State college boys on the college grounds on Wednesday afternoon, April 30th, at 1:30 p. m. sharp. The Altoona's are one of the strongest teams in the League, but the collegians are going to work hard to win their first game at home. All lovers of good base ball should attend the game, as this will be a rare opportunity of seeing good teams play.

The new Presbyterian church at Mill Hall was dedicated last Sunday. Rev. Pomeroy, the pastor, was assisted by Revs. Freeman of Huntingdon, and Hartman, of Lock Haven. The amount required to clear the building was about $1,800 and the people responded liberally, raising the entire sum in a comparatively short time and leaving the edifice free of all encumbrances. The cost of the building complete, excluding individual windows, was $5,800.

Superintendent Westfall, of the P. & E. railroad, has succeeded Thomas Gucker as Superintendent of the Philadelphia division of the Pennsylvania railroad, the latter gentleman taking the place of Mr. Neilson as general superintendent of the Sunbury division of the Northern Central. Mr. Westfall's location will be in Harrisburg.

Numerous California trout have been caught in Cold Stream this season already, and some of them have been very large. The fact that these trout were put in the stream only two or three years ago demonstrates the wisdom of continually stocking the stream with them in addition to our Pennsylvania beauties.—Philipsburg Journal.

Next Monday evening Prof. and Mrs. Bonbright, assisted by their classes in elocution and music, will give a concert in the rooms of the Y. W. C. T. U. in Crider's Exchange building, which will embrace an exceedingly interesting programme.

The lecture of Belva Lockwood, under the auspices of the graduating class of the Bellefonte High School, in the Court House, next Tuesday evening, will be worth hearing by those who want to know whether marriage is a failure.

THE CLARA PRICE MONUMENT.—A correspondent of the Pittsburg Times writes to that paper as follows: I have a suggestion to make which I hope you will not consider altogether a Quixotic one. In your issue of March 3, you speak of a movement being on foot to raise money for the erection of a monument for the murdered girl, Clara Price. I believe a very simple memorial is only about $300. We have many magnificent monuments setting forth the valor and heroic deeds of man, but I believe there is not a single stone in all the world that has ever been raised to the honor of any woman who valued her virtue greater than her life.

Could not the Times take up this noble work, and instead of the fund being fixed at $300, let it be ten times more?

With such backing as your paper would give the enterprise, its success would be assured, and then no mean tablet would mark the last resting place of the noble girl, "Pretty Clara Price."

One of your readers,
JESSIE B. SMITH,
Jeannette Pa., April 16.

To this editor of the Times adds: The movement to erect a monument to the memory of Clara Price, who was brutally murdered in Centre county a few months ago while defending her honor, by Alfred Andrews, is in the hands of citizens of Centre county. E. I. Gilliland, of Pottersdale; J. A. Heckendorn and W. B. Potter, of Karthaus, have been designated as the committee on funds. Mr. Potter writes the Times that the committee has received about $250; that the people who knew Clara Price are too poor to give much and that contributions from other counties will thankfully be received and properly applied.

A QUADRUPLE CHRISTENING.—Says the Philipsburg Journal of Friday: The quartette of girl babies born to the wife of Michael Newton, of this place, February 12, were baptized on Sunday, at St. John's Roman Catholic church, at Scotdale. Only a few persons were present and those mostly friends of the Newton family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Lambing, pastor of the church. The little ones, were christened Agnes, Aloysis, Ada and Agatha. The children are healthy looking and it is with difficulty one can be distinguished from another.

The parents are natives of Ireland and are in poor circumstances. Mr. Newton working at mining and getting only four days' work each week. The pictures of the babies have been taken and one sent to Queen Victoria, also one to President Harrison. They have been copyrighted and will be put on sale for the benefit of the family.

A SINGULAR WARNING.—The Philipsburg Ledger mentions the following singular case: Mr. A. P. Lucas, of this place, went out into the country on Monday to sell wire fencing, for which he is the agent. While working at his business down below Kylerstown, he became impressed with a feeling that something had happened, and that he ought to go home. He tried to dismiss the feeling, but it clung to him and at last he yielded to the conviction and on Thursday morning started home. On his arrival he found a telegram announcing the death of his brother, Mr. J. P. Lucas, which occurred on Monday. The funeral took place on Wednesday. The dead man was a resident of Marsh Creek, this county. He was a married man about 40 years of age. If Mr. A. P. Lucas had obeyed the conviction of trouble and come home at once, he might have had the melancholy satisfaction of attending the funeral. He feels sorely troubled that he did not heed the singular warning.

AN EXCITING FIRE.—Last Wednesday evening the people of our town were thrown into great excitement by the sudden appearance of a brilliant light on East Linn Street which looked from the lower portions of the town as if a great conflagration was prevailing in that direction. It was soon discovered that a fire had broken out in the large stable of Mr. M. Cowdrick, which spread with such rapidity and burned with such fierceness that the building was soon enveloped in flames. It being a fine evening everybody rushed to the scene and the firemen were promptly on hand, but it was impossible to do more than to save the neighboring buildings. The roof of Mr. J. C. Harper's stable near by was burned off and also Judge Orvis's chicken pen. The stable where the fire originated was burned to the ground with all its contents, including three horses, two cows, two pigs, a lot of chickens, a couple of carts and a wagon, and a quantity of corn, oats and hay. As the stable was locked and the fire spread with great rapidity, the animals could not be rescued. One of the horses belonged to Mr. Samuel Gault. The loss sustained by Mr. Cowdrick amounted to about $1000, on which we have not learned whether there was any insurance. The firemen labored under the disadvantage of a scarcity of water. How the fire originated is a mystery.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.—On Thursday of last week the hospitable home of John S. Hoy, near Jacksonsville, in Marion township, was the scene of mirth and jovial pleasure. It being his sixty-fifth birthday, his sons and daughters conceived a plan of surprising Mr. Hoy and the inmates of the old home by calling on him in a body in the form of a reunion party, although it was a very busy time, as he lives on the farm and has a big spring crop to put out. On the morning of the surprise the friendly callers found the old gentleman in the field busily engaged in plowing. Of course the family knew nothing of the party, it being indeed a surprise, and it was only after quite a number had arrived that Mr. Hoy began to comprehend the strange but very pleasant proceedings of his sons and sons-in-law. When he finally unhitched the team from the plow and went home, with as much pleasure as astonishment he there met all of his children and grand-children, as follows: Four sons: Z. W. Hoy, wife and family, from Clinton county; J. A. Hoy, wife and family, from Zion; J. C. Hoy, living at the old homestead; and J. F. Hoy, wife and family, from Hubersburg. The sons-in-law were, Wm. Corman, of Marion township, with wife and family; J. C. Wilson, of Marion, with wife and family; G. M. Harter, of Marion, with wife and family. Nine children, one being a boy about nine years old, twenty-four grand-children, and a couple of farmhands, composed the party, and when the many well-filled baskets were emptied and the table was loaded with reliable refreshments the enjoyment began and all did justice to the elegant entertainment prepared by the kind and affectionate children.

Presents to the old gentleman, were given by the following persons: A spittoon by Mrs. Caroline Lesh; a mustache cup and saucer, by Emma P. Hoy; a black silk muffler, by Mrs. John E. Hoy; a shaving mug, by Raymond Harter; an umbrella, by Mrs. Z. W. Hoy; a handkerchief, by Henry Lesh; fancy mug, by Mabel G. Hoy; a pair of hose by Rebecca Corman; a pocketbook by John H. Hoy; a pair of suspenders by John C. Hoy; a bottle of wine, by Eve Corman; a smoke pipe, by Wm. Corman; a pair of slippers by Mrs. G. M. Harter; a pair of suspenders by Alfred Corman; a pipe, by Wm. Felamale; a pair of ornamental jugs, by Harry S. Hoy; a pair of slippers, by Mrs. J. A. Hoy; a cake stand, by Mrs. Z. W. Hoy; a plush album by Z. W. Hoy; a pair of slippers, by Mrs. C. H. Wilson; a box of cigars, by G. F. Hoy; a pair of hose, by Harvey Hoy; a handkerchief, by Cyrus Hoy; a handkerchief, by Carrie Harter; oranges by Harry Corman; a handkerchief by C. W. Hoy; a handkerchief, by Edna Wilson; a handkerchief, by Emma Corman; a quarter of a pound of tobacco, by George Wilson.

The following were received by Mrs. John S. Hoy: A black bordered handkerchief from Mabel G. Hoy; a handkerchief from Emma C. Hoy; an apron and handkerchief from Mrs. William Corman.

After dinner was over amusements were engaged in, merry laughing and talking prevailed, and music added its charms to the entertainment. Mrs. G. F. Hoy played on the organ, with a violin accompaniment by J. C. Hoy. In every respect it was a delightful reunion, and will long be remembered by those who took part in it.

WAS HE ROBBED?—Yesterday we printed the burning of the residence of Hiram Crouse at Lairdsville, Lycoming county, and the sad death of Mr. Crouse in the flames. It is now reported that some of the people of Lairdsville think he was robbed of his money and the store set on fire to cover up the marks of the thieves. While this is believed by many, others will not accept it as truth. It is positively known that Mr. Crouse had nearly $400 in coin on last Saturday, yet a dozen men have been scraping the cellar of the store and not a dollar has yet been found. A gentleman was seen from Lairdsville this afternoon and he states that the people are growing more suspicious of foul play. They have only found one coin with all their work, this being a $2.50 gold piece, and was found some feet away from the cellar, showing that it had likely been dropped by the thieves.—Lock Haven Democrat.

DEATH OF NORMAN H. HOOVER.—A telegram was received in this place on Wednesday morning announcing the death of Norman H. Hoover, esq., at Little Rock, Arkansas, on that day. No particulars were given. He was about 45 years of age, was formerly a member of the Centre county bar, and was well known in Bellefonte and neighborhood.

The Bellefonte Daily News last Tuesday attained the age of eleven years. It is a useful chronicler of local events and deserves the support of the community in which it is published.

IMPROVEMENTS TO THE SPRING AND WATER HOUSE.—The improvements which Superintendent Rine, of the Water Department, is making around the spring and at the pumping house are worthy of notice, and we are gratified that council has shown its appreciation of his efforts by directing that the house and the fence around the water premises should be painted. He has lately given the spring a thorough cleaning, which he does annually, and, in addition, has straightened its banks which he will cover with crushed limestone to the extent of about eight feet under water. He also intends to put a gravel walk around the spring. These improvements will make it one of the most attractive places in the town.

Ex-Governor Curtin, who had been out of town for several months, most of the time in Washington, where he received distinguished attention from his old friends and associates, returned home last Friday evening in excellent physical condition, showing no traces of the grip by which he was taken down during his absence. We are glad to be able to say that the old war governor is in a good state of bodily preservation.

Mrs. General Tom Thumb and Company, formerly under the management of P. T. Barnum, with a select company of Bell Rings, Operatic Singers, Performing Birds, and Magicians, will appear here on Thursday, May 1. This is her first appearance since marrying the Count Magri who will accompany her. The crowded houses when they appeared here before will fill it now. They will appear in Bush's Hall, Matinee at 3 p. m., evening as usual. Reserved seats on sale at Arcade Book Store.
