Mr. M. H. Geiss, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the Watchman for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

The Phillipsburg Mennerchor will have a grand picnic at Bilger's Park, Monday, May 26th.

Cunningham is surrounding the court house with a tar pavement, effecting a decided improvement in that quarter.

In noticing the death of Mrs. Patrick Dooly last week the figures made her age 95 years. This was an error, as her age was 65.

Last Saturday evening about a hundred Italian laborers arrived at this place and were sent up Buffalo Run to work in the Collins' ore mines.

Last Tuesday D. M. Brungard was elected Superintendent of the Public Schools in Clinton county, there being no opposition to him, and the salary was increased from $1200 to $1500.

The family of the late Judge Hoy, of this place, have vacated their residence on High street and moved to their farm near Bellefonte. Dr. Hoy, with his mother, will occupy the High street residence.

The scholars of the Normal School at Lock Haven, to the number of about 200, moved into the new building last Tuesday afternoon. The old building was burned on the 9th of December, 1888.

James Wolfenden, of Lock Haven, still continues to urge in the papers the removal of the State capitol. It is Mr. Wolfenden's idea that Lock Haven, Bellefonte or Hubblesburg would be the proper location.

Jersey Shore having reached the venerable age of 64 years and considerably increased her population within the past few years, is going to divide herself into wards, and has presented a petition to court for that purpose.

Joseph Highams, of Cuba Mines, was brought home from near Pansutawney on the 8.40 train on Saturday night on a stretcher. He was prospecting for coal and while so engaged a bank fell upon him, breaking his hip.—Phillipsburg Journal.

W. R. Linn, the gentleman from Beech Creek who was appointed Chief of Police at Renovo on Monday of last week, and who was sworn in on Thursday, resigned on Saturday and left for his home on the banks of his own romantic stream. Low salary is assigned as the reason for his resignation.

The ladies of the Coleville M. E. Chapel will hold a roast beef dinner and a chicken and waffle supper, on Decoration Day, May 30th, the proceeds to be used in purchasing furniture for the M. E. Chapel now in course of erection in that place. Remember the date, May 30th, in a vacant room in the Bush Arcade.

Captain Bricker, the supervisor of the census for this district, has trouble with his enumerators, through the declination of so many of them, frightened at the amount and "intricacy" of the work. However, the Captain has his list about completed, composed, he thinks, of fellows who, he hopes, like all Republican officials, will neither die nor resign.—Lock Haven Democrat.

The number of Knights Templar to be in line here in the great parade on the 27th instant, it is thought will not be less than 1500, and may reach 2,000. Twenty-one Commanderies have secured quarters, and more are coming. The city will be jam full of visitors on that particular day and the parade will be a splendid sight. Each Commandery will have a band with them and the city will be alive with music. It is to be hoped that the weather will be gracious on that occasion.—Lock Haven Democrat.

DEATH OF H. D. VAN PELT.—Last Saturday morning Mr. H. D. Van Pelt died at his residence in Centre Hall, after a painful illness from Bright's disease, with which he was troubled for some years, suffering from its acute form for several weeks. He was about forty-nine years old. He was born in Tompkins county, New York, and came to Centre county about 1870, settling at Centre Hall where he engaged in the manufacture of agricultural implements, being connected with the firm of Van Pelt, Shoop & Co., which as long as it was in existence did a successful business.

Later he was engaged with Governor Beaver, General Hastings and Col. Spangler in founding and laying out the town of Hastings, in Cambria county, being thus connected with the large coal interests in that neighborhood. About twelve years ago he was married at Centre Hall to a sister of Col. Spangler, the only daughter of ex-Sheriff Spangler, whom, with two children, a boy and a girl, he leaves in comfortable circumstances.

He was a man of excellent business qualifications, which were improved by an academic course at Ithaca and Groton, N. Y., and a commercial course at Cleveland. He had also the advantage of a connection with a corps of government engineers on the Mississippi. In politics he was in active sympathy with the Democratic party. His many acquaintances throughout the county held him in high estimation.

His funeral took place at Centre Hall on Wednesday afternoon, the large concourse that attended it being composed of relations and friends from Bellefonte, Centre Hall and other parts of the county. The interment took place in the Centre Hall cemetery and the grave in which the body was consigned to its long rest was one of the most handsomely prepared that was ever seen in the cemetery. After the burial Rev. W. E. Fisher preached an impressive sermon in the Lutheran church. The pall-bearers were W. C. Hoyle, esq., and Stewart Brouse, of Bellefonte, and John H. Odenkirk, Wm. P. Shoop, Whitmer Wolf, Dr. Wm. Jacobs, Dr. John Alexander, and H. Catherman, of Centre Hall.

DIED AT THE CURTIN IRON WORKS.—Mr. James B. Curtin who had been in ill health for several years, died at the Curtin Works on Monday morning, at the age of about 50 years. Some three years ago, on account of ill health, he discontinued his connection with the firm that conducted the iron works, and since then his health gradually declined. He had many friends to mourn his death.

The deceased was the son of John and Julia A. Curtin, and nephew of ex-Governor Andrew G. Curtin. He was born at the Eagle Iron Works on August 20th, 1840. He entered Dickinson Seminary in 1856 or '57, and subsequently was graduated at the Pennsylvania State College, which institution he was one of the first to enter as a scholar. Upon the breaking out of the Rebellion he enlisted in the three months service in Company H, 4th Reg., P. V. In November, 1861, he joined the "Anderson Body Guards," which afterwards became merged in the 160th Reg. P. V., or 15th cavalry, in which he was elected First Lieutenant of Company H, but resigned in 1863 on account of ill health. He was afterwards made a clerk in the quartermaster's department of the 8th Army Corps, and near the end of the war was appointed First Lieutenant of Company I, 20th P. V. cavalry. After the war he became connected with the store at Curtin's, and in 1874 was made a partner in the firm of Curtin & Co., iron manufacturers. In 1876 he was married to Virginia Holter, daughter of the late John Holter, whom he leaves with several children to mourn the loss they sustain in the death of an excellent husband and father.

SCALDED TO DEATH IN A COAL MINE.—The Phillipsburg Journal of Monday gives the following: A fatal accident occurred during Saturday night at Coaldale No. 3 mine, to Jerry Madden, the pump engineer. It appears from the surroundings that there must have been something wrong with the pump and that he went into the mine some 1,200 feet to ascertain the cause of the trouble. While thus engaged the steam pipe burst and scalded the poor fellow to death. Alone in the mine, his death must have been an awful one, there being no one present to render any assistance in response to his distressing cries.

Yesterday morning on going into the mine the miners came to the fatal spot and found the corpse. Help being secured the body was taken out of the mine and ultimately to his home which he left the previous night cheerful and bright, and full of anticipation of the restful morrow.

The deceased was night pump man and was consequently alone through the night. He was a reliable young man, always trustworthy, and the operators had every confidence in his competency for the duties devolving upon him. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

The Howard postoffice contest has been settled by the appointment of H. L. Lucas.

There is a report that editor Fiedler has purchased the H. K. Hicks property on East Linn street.

The family of James McKee now occupy the late residence of Mr. J. A. Woodcock on East Linn street.

Prof. John A. Robb last Tuesday evening was re-elected Superintendent of the public schools of Lock Haven.

Rev. J. O. Davis, of this place, will officiate on the evening of Ascension Day, 15th inst., in the Episcopal church, Lock Haven.

Our stock is complete and all goods fresh from the manufacturers. Latest styles, no shelf worn goods, and lowest prices at the Union clothing store.

Gray Love, son of W. S. Love, of State College, and nephew of John G. Love, Esq., of Bellefonte, died at the home of his father last Monday night, and was buried at Tyrone on Wednesday.

Prof. Samuel G. Rudy, who was elected Superintendent of Public Schools in Huntingdon county last Tuesday, is a native of Centre county, having been born at Pine Grove Mills some 35 years ago.

Mr. W. Galer Morrison has returned to Port Matilda after closing his term of school at South Phillipsburg and his P. O. is the former place instead of Phillipsburg, as stated in last week's WATCHMAN.

The first camp meeting of the year is already announced. It will be a Seventh Day Adventist enterprise, and will be held at Castanea, opposite Lock Haven, beginning on June 3rd and closing on June 10th.

The annual re-union of the 5th Pennsylvania regiment will be held at Columbia on the 14th inst. We understand that a number of the old soldiers from this county, who were members, expect to attend.

Geo. N. Colburn, in the early days of Clearfield county a lumberman, and for many years a well-known landlord in the town of Clearfield, died recently at the Danville asylum, where he had been for some months. Some years ago he gave evidence of an unsettled mind, and at last it was found necessary to confine him. He was 75 years old at the time of his death.

Constans Commandery, Knights Templar, of this place, have received a new banner, which is spoken of as being a very handsome affair of the kind. The old banner of the Commandery was destroyed when the old Bush Arcade was burned. The new one will make its first appearance in public at the coming parade of Knights Templar at Lock Haven.

One of our exchanges says that farmers find plowing very hard work this spring. Three and four horses are required to do the work ordinarily done by two. The reason undoubtedly is, that the ground has not been frozen as deeply as in other winters, and thawing failed to disintegrate the soil to the depth of the furrow. Instead of being pulverized, the soil has been packed.

The summer schedule on the Buffalo Run railroad will go into effect on Monday next. The only change made in the running of trains is in the afternoon train, which will leave Bellefonte at 3 p. m. in place of 3.15 as heretofore. Returning to town all trains will run at the usual time. The station at Scotia crossing has been discontinued and the junction to Matters made the regular stopping place.

The G. and B. states that William McCalmont, the Beech Creek young man who leaped from a train near Loyalsock tower Friday evening, was removed to the asylum for the insane at Danville on Saturday. His mind had become so overbalanced that it was deemed for the best to have him undergo a course of treatment. He seemed to have a mania for jumping from trains, and it was feared that he would yet successfully accomplish his rash designs.

Last Friday evening Rev. C. W. Emehizer, of Coalville, pastor of the United Brethren congregation, was surprised by a visit from a number of friends with donations to the value of about $50. Among the presents was a handsome suit of clothes. The donations consisted of sugar, coffee, tea, flour and a general line of articles that are needed in a clergyman's or any other family. The suit was presented to the pastor by Rev. J. L. Rote, the local preacher at Coalville, who accompanied the presentation with appropriate remarks. Refreshments were served, consisting of cakes, pies and other dainties. Innocent amusements made the evening pass pleasantly, the entertainment being interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. The company dispersed about 10.30, fully satisfied that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

UNFORTUNATE LOVERS.—The Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin of Tuesday tells the following sad tale of two lovers the course of whose true love did not run smooth:

Last Friday afternoon Merritt Burlingame, of McHenry township, Lycoming county, and Cora Callahan, of Gallagher township, Clinton county, left the home of the young lady in quest of a clergyman, Justice of the Peace, Alderman or Mayor, to pronounce them husband and wife. The young man is about twenty-four years old, and the young lady is in her eighteenth year.

They "footed" it to Jersey Mills, but got there too late to board the train. They then walked to Campbelltown, where they staid over night. The next morning they were made aware of the fact that a very mad father was in pursuit of them, and away they went afoot again, over the mountain and into Tioga county. By this time a warrant for their arrest had been placed in the hands of Constable H. H. Bonnell, of Cummings township. The constable deputized David Ostrander to pursue the runaways and make the arrest. Ostrander, accompanied by the young lady's father, then started by the overland route for Morris, Tioga county, where the elopers were overtaken yesterday morning and without allowing the want-to-be-married party an opportunity to strengthen their nerves with some breakfast, hurried them off to the office of Justice of the Peace by the name of Raymond.

The constable and the father found the "Squire" very accommodating and in possession of an excellent knowledge of what constitutes law, as he furnished them with a document committing the young man to Clinton county prison at Lock Haven! Just where this Justice of the Peace acquired his authority for committing a prisoner to any other jail than that of Tioga county, is somewhat of a puzzle. However, the disappointed bridegroom expected was not aware of the error on the part of the Tioga county Justice of the Peace, and off he went with the officer destined for Clinton county's jail. Arriving at Waterville, the young lady and her father left the train for their home, which is near Haneyville. Constable Bonnell, who had received from Deputy Ostrander, the prisoner, Merritt Burlingame, continued on to Jersey Shore, where they took the Beech Creek train for Lock Haven. The sheriff of Clinton county must have smiled when he read that commitment.

BELLEFONTE'S NEW OPERA HOUSE.—The editor of the Jersey Shore Herald, who recently visited Bellefonte, gives the following account of the Garman opera house, which is in process of construction:

This building will be 90 by 52 feet, with four entrance ways and fire proof, heated with steam, and lighted by electric light or gas. The seating capacity will be 1,000 opera chairs, folding seats. The stage will be large and convenient, under which will be eight large dressing rooms. Full set of handsome scenery; proscenium opening 21 feet high and 58 feet wide; curtain line to wall, 30 feet, 50 feet wide, clear; 38 feet rigging left; 15 feet grooves and 18 feet to the floor. The auditorium will be on the ground floor, with a large gallery in the form of a horse shoe, and the roof will be of steel. The interior will be handsomely frescoed and decorated, and when completed will have but few if any equals in this part of the State. This structure will be a fair specimen of Mr. Garman's push and enterprise.

BLOODY WORK IN MIFFLIN COUNTY.—Last Tuesday morning James Davis, engineer on the supply train on the narrow gauge railroad running to Lucy Furnace, near Mt. Union, Mifflin county, was shot by William Say, freeman on the same train. The latter charged Davis with criminal intimacy with his wife. In the altercation Davis drew a knife and attacked Say, whereupon the latter drew a pistol and shot the former in the neck, the bullet entering between the windpipe and the main artery. At last accounts it had not been extracted, owing to Davis' critical condition. Say was arrested and lodged in the Lewisport jail.

A BLOODY SUICIDE.—George F. Williams, a Williamsport pretzel baker, about 44 years of age, committed suicide in an outhouse on Tuesday between 10 and 11 o'clock, by cutting his throat with a pocket knife. Williams was a hard drinker and was on the verge of delirium tremens, if he did not already have an attack of it. He lived apart from his wife and children, his habits having caused the separation. It is stated that the place where he committed the act looked like a slaughter house. Williams had been in business in Williamsport for about twenty years.

HASTINGS CARRIES CLINTON COUNTY.—The Republican delegate elections in Clinton county were held last Saturday, and as was expected, General Hastings carried the county and got the delegates to the State Convention. There was scarcely any opposition, which was just as it should have been, for Clinton is his native county.

SUICIDE IN BRUSH VALLEY.—Last Friday morning Jacob R. Sholl, of Brush Valley, committed suicide by blowing his brains out with a rifle. His mind had been effected for some time, and he had recently been brought from the Danville asylum.

THE RIGHT WAY TO OBTAIN AN INCREASE.—Not long since the workmen employed by the Pennsylvania State College in grading the campus decided to ask for a raise of fifteen cents per day in wages. Instead of quitting work and demanding the desired advance at the expense of industry, as is usually done, these men simply drew up a petition in which they stated their wishes and presented it to the managers of the institution. The result was that an advance of ten cents was cheerfully given and the men accepted it unconditionally. This was one of the nicest moves of its kind we have heard of for some time, it having been made in a way that neither wasted time nor embittered the feeling of an employer towards employed.

If other bodies of men under similar circumstances would conduct themselves in the same way and not go on strike upon every little pretext, we feel certain that the relations between capital and labor would be benefited and the condition of both improved.

The efforts of Mr. W. C. Patterson in behalf of his men under foreman John Carrigan were greatly appreciated. Always interested in the welfare of his force, and ever ready to champion its cause when the occasion appears justifiable, Mr. Patterson yet preserves his proper relation to the college. In this way he works at the same time for the interest of both the institution and its employers. Never since he has taken control of this line of work at the college has he employed contract or foreign labor, and by his keen foresight and good management he has saved the college many thousand dollars. He is held in the highest esteem by all who are under his charge and is looked upon not only as a man of rare business capacity, but also one whose strong mind and sound logic would do honor to his district in the Legislature.

ELECTION OF COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—Last Tuesday the County Directors of Centre county met in the Court House in this place to elect a County Superintendent of Public Schools in place of Prof. D. M. Wolf, who has so long and ably filled that responsible position.

On motion of D. F. Fortney, esq., Dr. E. A. Russell, of Unionville, was elected President of the Convention, Hon. W. K. Alexander, reading clerk, and W. B. Rankin and W. E. Irvin tally clerks.

Out of 188 directors 163 answered to their names. On motion of H. D. Lee the convention proceeded to the nomination of candidates, as follows:

Mr. J. C. P. Jones nominated Prof. D. O. Ethers, of Bellefonte; Dr. E. A. Russell nominated R. E. Cambridge, of Unionville; W. O. Hosterman nominated C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg; W. E. Landon nominated Prof. J. M. Wilson, of Phillipsburg.

There was but one ballot which resulted as follows: Ethers, 100; Gramley, 40; Wilson, 11; Cambridge, 12. Upon the motion of W. E. Landon, Prof. Ethers election was made unanimous.

With the election of Prof. Ethers Centre county has had seven Superintendents of Common Schools, who occupied that important office in the following order:

Rev. Dr. Gibson, of Jacksonville, elected in 1854; J. I. Burrell, of Aaronsburg, 1857; Thomas Hollahan, of Boalsburg, 1860; B. M. McGee, of Rebersburg, 1866; Henry Meyer, Rebersburg, 1875; D. M. Wolf, Spring Mills, 1881; D. O. Ethers, Bellefonte, 1890.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—Quite a large party of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mrs. Louisa A. Crust, in Potter township, last Saturday, 3rd inst., to pay there respects to that excellent lady, and also to leave many packages and bundles which completely surprised her. Mrs. Crust was left, almost five years ago, a widow with four children to support, but she nobly went to work and is raising them in a creditable manner. The neighbors did well to show their appreciation of her effort, and a little charity in cases of kind is well applied. Among the ladies present were Mrs. L. McEntire, Mrs. E. Reese, Mrs. K. Marshall, and many others. Mrs. Crust is an excellent carpet weaver, and should be employed by her neighbors.

The sociable held at the residence of Mrs. Joe Holders in Coleville, last Tuesday evening, by the ladies of the M. E. chapel in that place, proved to be a great success. The proceeds are to be used in the purchase of a carpet for the chapel. There will be another sociable next Tuesday evening at Mrs. George Rider's. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Next Sunday there will be services in the Reformed Church, morning and evening, Rev. M. O. Noll officiating. He will take up his residence here the latter part of this week to remain permanently.

The cheapest place to buy your clothing is at the new Union clothing store.

The following students from Centre county have attended the West Chester Normal school during the present session: Annie and Maggie Bates, of Pine Glen, and Julia C. Hoy and Anna M. McBride, of Bellefonte.

The 7th annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Centre county, will be held in Bellefonte, Thursday and Friday, May 22nd and 23. The State President Mrs. Mary H. Jones, and State Superintendent, will be present.

Mr. J. N. Whelen and family, who have changed their residence from Philadelphia to Bellefonte, have comfortably settled down in the handsome and roomy Dart residence on Allegheny street, adjoining the Episcopal church. They are a desirable acquisition to our town.

The Independent Base Ball Club of Lewisport will open this season with the College boys on the College grounds to-morrow afternoon, at 2-30 o'clock. The game will be an interesting one, as the visitors are very strong this season, and the College team has been greatly improved by the addition of several new men.
