

Democratic Watchman

Friday Morning, May 23, 1890.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. GIBBS, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg township.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

The brick works of the Garman opera house is completed.

To-day (Friday) will be the second day of the W. C. T. U. convention in this place.

Ex-Governor Curtin recently attended a Pennsylvania Reserve reunion at Columbia.

Bellefonte's lively groceryman, J. D. Sourbeck, is doing a wholesale business in bananas.

D. H. Hastings last Saturday carried the York county delegates to the Republican State convention.

The new residences of Dr. Seibert, and Mr. Wilkinson on Allegheny street are making rapid progress.

You can save from 20 to 30 per cent by buying your clothing at the new store, Union Clothing store.

You are invited to come and see the special reduction of prices at the new store, Union Clothing store.

See advertisement of Cash Bazar this week. It is of interest to all who expect to be in town to-morrow.

The Democrats of Blair county have instructed their delegates for Wallace, and those of Lackawanna for Pattison.

A public meeting has been called to make arrangements for a brilliant celebration of the 4th of July in Phillipsburg.

In some parts of Union county many horses are troubled with a lung disease, which has carried off a number of valuable animals.

Last Sunday evening, Rev. M. L. Dietzler, Lutheran minister at Millheim, preached his farewell sermon to his congregation.

The Pomona Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry will meet in the G. A. R. hall in Milesburg, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of June.

The old Judge Hoy residence on High street has been greatly remodeled and improved previous to its being occupied by Dr. Hoy.

The Lock Haven base ball team has engaged for the season the service of Frank J. Musser, the recent short stop of the State College team.

C. G. McMillen, recently of the Brockerhoff House, of this place, has been elected Adjutant of the Thirtieth regiment of the Ohio National Guard.

Ex-Senator Peale recently returned from a trip through the South and laid the Louisiana State Lottery out in great shape in a letter to the Clinton Democrat.

D. Hoy & Son, proprietors of the creamery at Millheim, intend to make improvements to their plant that will enable them to turn out two thousand pounds of butter a day.

Two Phillipsburg lads, Harry Caster and Ben Hancock, some days ago caught two trout in Cold stream—one each—which measured respectively 11 1/2 inches and 14 inches.

Mrs. Martha Eckert died at her residence at the Snow Shoe Intercession last Saturday at the age of 72 years. She was buried in the cemetery near Unionville on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. T. J. Moore, sister of the late J. Leun Smith who was recently killed on the railroad, and of A. V. Smith, of Bellefonte, died at Howard last Sunday night, at the age of about 45 years.

The McClellan circus met with an accident at Lock Haven on Saturday afternoon in having its tents blown down by a passing storm. There was something of a panic, but nobody was hurt, and the canvas was put up again for the evening performance.

Ward Leathers, the little Williamsport orator, made a great hit last Thursday night at Clearfield. He is advertising for H. C. & J. A. Olmstead, of Williamsport, for Dr. Meeker's medicine. They will have a fine wagon and team in our town to-morrow.

The fire that consumed the stable of A. G. Morris, at Tyrone Forge, last week, also destroyed six horses and four mules. The animals were quite valuable and some of them had just been purchased. The loss was a total one, as there was no insurance on either building or stock.

Tuesday evening next, the 27th inst., the Hope Hose Company, of Lock Haven, will give their 9th Annual Ball at Scotts Bazar. It promises to be a very pleasant affair, and will no doubt be liberally patronized. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation, and are sorry that circumstances with prevent our attendance.

CLEARY TO HAVE A NEW TRIAL.

Last Monday the Supreme Court at Philadelphia reversed the action of the Clinton county Court and rendered a decision granting a new trial to Charles Cleary, who was convicted of murder in the first degree in the Oyer and Terminer of Clinton county, for the killing of a police officer in the town of Renovo, at the close of an evening of hard drinking. Chief Justice Paxson said that there was no doubt that Cleary was the man who killed the officer, and his defence consisted almost wholly of evidence of intoxication at the time and of previous good character. In charging the jury the judge told them that "good character is always of importance, and is evidence to be duly considered by the jury, and may turn the scale where there is a reasonable doubt as to the degree or grade of the crime." The jury found the defendant guilty in the first degree, and the Supreme Court reverses the judgement and orders a new trial on the ground that this instruction gave the jury no right to infer that the evidence of good character might create the reasonable doubt which entitles a prisoner to a safe deliverance.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—At a meeting of borough council on Monday evening the water committee reported all the pipe laid on Howard street and the water works and spring put in good and presentable condition, and that the water examiner had completed the performance of his duties. The old water tax assessors were reappointed as follows: Ex-Sheriff Kline, W. F. Roeder and Isaac Mitchell.

The nuisance committee reported that the McCafferty property recently complained of, was a nuisance, and recommended that it be abated; and also recommended the abatement of the nuisance caused by the sewer running from Allegheny street through the Munson and Sands property.

The street committee reported a general cleaning up of the streets and recommended the repairing of pavements on various streets, and also several new sidewalks. It was voted that parties who are required to repair and build said pavements and walks be notified to have it done by the 15th of June. It was ordered that two lights be put up for the benefit of residents on the east end of Beaver street.

The 1st of June was fixed as the day for the reopening of the public market. The Finance Committee was ordered to have the outside of the Hose house painted. Mr. Cooney, of East High street, appeared before Council and asked that the street leading from Bishop to East High be put in better condition. It was referred to the street committee. An ordinance handed in, all ready made by a citizen, forbidding the erection of steps, porches, buildings, &c., on the pavements, was unanimously laid on the table.

THE WILLIAMSPORT INFANTICIDE.—The mother of the infant whose dead body was found along the river shore at Williamsport some weeks ago, and upon which two rival inquests were held, has been discovered, and she has confessed that she killed it. The Republican of that city, speaking of the discovery says: The self-confessed murderess is Mrs. Emma Beck, aged about twenty-four years. Her home is near Warrensville, but of late years she has resided in Fulton county, Ohio, and for the past nine months lived here in Williamsport. Shortly after the finding of the body of the infant on the river bank Chief Russell secured a number of clues, which being ferreted out, pointed conclusively to this woman Beck as the mother of the child, and for it she must account. For some time the Chief was unable to learn of her whereabouts, but a few days ago found that she was living with a family on East Jefferson street. Going before Alderman Stead information was made against her by the Chief, and a warrant for her arrest was issued. Saturday morning, after procuring a horse and buggy, the officer went to the house designated and arrested the woman. A preliminary hearing was given her before Alderman Stead, after which she was committed to the county prison.

She tells the following pitiful tale of her wrong, her troubles and her disgrace: "Two years ago she went to live with relatives at Fulton, Ohio, where her troubles began. She claims to have been married to a young man named Beck. Finding herself in an unpleasant condition she had Beck arrested. The matter was compromised by an agreement to pay $300, of which sum she received $100 and left Ohio for her Pennsylvania home. Her father turned her off, and she returned to Ohio, and finally came back to Williamsport, seeking refuge in the hospital. On the evening of April 12th she was walking down Front street, in a condition of mind bordering on distraction. The child was a burden for which she could find no refuge. With it she could not hope for anything. A momentary impulse seized her, and before realizing the enormity of her crime, she rushed up the railroad embankment, stripped the infant and tossed it to its watery grave. Remorse seized her instantly, and she endeavored to rescue the child but it was too late, it was dead and beyond the unhappy mother's reach."

—One night last week a distressing accident happened to a party of Williamsport trout fishers in Clearfield county. The party was composed of Walter Shooter, Frank Warfield and Frank Sherwood, of Williamsport; Arthur Pierson, of Lock Haven; Charles R. Hubbard, of Lyons, N. Y.; James Akers, Jr., Frank Kennedy and Fred Baker, of Philadelphia. About 10 o'clock at night Pierson, Akers and Kennedy went out of the tent while the others were asleep, taking with them a revolver, and in lowering the weapon it was accidentally discharged, the ball striking Akers in the neck and passing between the jugular vein and the wind-pipe, after which it lodged in the left shoulder. Akers was taken to Clearfield where the ball was extracted, and the doctors say that the accident will not be fatal.

—The Journal publishes the following item of interest to the water drinkers of Phillipsburg: The report is in circulation to-day that a dead calf was taken out of the reservoir yesterday after having remained there for eight or ten days. As might be expected this rumor lacks foundation. It had its origin from the fact that a calf belonging to D. W. Holt was chased by a mule yesterday into the reservoir and drowned before assistance could be rendered. Charley Bentley, who works for Mr. Holt and lives near the reservoir, says that it could not possibly have been in the water more than twenty minutes, as he had seen it in the field shortly before the mishap occurred. No contamination of the water, therefore, need be feared.

—At a meeting of the Juniata Valley Editorial association, held at Altoona on Friday last, H. C. Dern was re-elected president; Dr. A. B. Brumbaugh, vice president; E. Conrad, secretary and treasurer, and George Shrom, G. B. Goodlander and W. M. Allison, executive committee.

Winchester, Va., was selected as the objective point for the next annual summer excursion, and from August 25 to 30th as the date.

All arrangements were left in the hands of the executive committee. There being no other business the association adjourned.

—At the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Jane Leathers, wife of Mr. R. C. Leathers, of Mount Eagle, this county, remarks appropriate to the solemn occasion were made by Revs. G. W. Headley, W. L. Heyden, M. S. Blair and G. E. King. The deceased, who was a member of the Church of Christ, had been a great sufferer for more than two years from cancer and had been treated at the best hospitals in Philadelphia and Joliet, Illinois. An excellent wife and mother, and a good Christian woman, she died at the age of 45 years, leaving a husband and seven children to mourn their irreparable loss.

—The enterprise of manufacturing chains is now in operation at the iron works of Linn and McCoy between this place and Milesburg, the alterations and additions to the machinery for that purpose having in a large measure been completed. Fourteen welding forges are being worked, but it is intended to operate twenty-five. Chains of the smaller size will be made at the rate of about two tons a day. When work is commenced on the larger size a greater amount will be manufactured. About 20 men are employed, with Mr. George Walker, recently of Pittsburg, as superintendent.

—By the recent fire at Jones' mill on Ford Run 200,000 feet of lumber and a large section of tramway were consumed. The Phillipsburg Ledger says that the fire originated from the slab burner. Jones' mill is about 12 miles from Phillipsburg and the Beech Creek railroad placed an engine and flat cars at the service of the fire department, the run being made in 13 minutes. The lumber yard was well protected against fire by a system of iron water pipes distributed through the yard, but they had become rusty from disuse, and gave way under the water pressure.

—For the accommodation of visitors to Bellefonte on the 24th inst the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. will run a special return train from Bellefonte to Coburn, leaving Bellefonte after the evening performance, 10.30 P. M., stopping at intermediate stations. Excursion tickets will be sold to Bellefonte and return, including admission coupon to the show, at the following rates: Coburn $1.75, Rising Spring $1.46, Centre Hall $1.23, Linden Hall $1.01, Oak Hall 93 cents, Lemont 86 cents.

—Young Fred Hines has confessed that he and an accomplice robbed the safe in the Kelley hotel at Williamsport. The name of the accomplice is George Meredith, who had been for a short time in charge of the pool room of the hotel. The two had been arranging for the robbery for several weeks. A telegram was sent to Philadelphia for the arrest of Meredith, on the information furnished by Hines, who was locked up on Saturday in default of $1000 bail.

MINERS' STRIKE.—In regard to the contemplated strike in the Clearfield and Centre bituminous coal regions, the Phillipsburg Wag-Earner's Journal, of Saturday, said: The latest information we have from adjoining regions ordered out on strike since the first of May, is as follows:

At DuBois several meetings have been held, the men finally agreeing not to quit work, and all are now at work.

At Reynoldsville, and other points, where the men struck for the Columbus scale, work has been resumed, the men resolving to continue work until all the bituminous coal regions were called out, and until they were better organized.

Of all the places on strike, work has been resumed except in Tioga county.

What effect the refusal of the DuBois men to come out, and the return to work of the Reynoldsville men, will have on Tioga county men, we are not advised, but we will say to the miners of Clearfield and Centre counties, be not rash. Take no decided step until those who are recognized as leaders have taken counsel together, and have reliable information of what is going on elsewhere. It is easy to make a mistake just now—much easier than to correct it after it is made. Where it may be thought necessary to suspend operations at a bank for any cause, consult the officers of the Executive Board before throwing the bank idle. All kinds of reports are flying—many of them downright lies. Be not hasty, temperate, unwise. Just at this time coolness is most required of the miners.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A MIFFLIN COUNTY FARMER.—A terrible accident recently occurred at the grade crossing on the line of the Pennsylvania railroad at McVeytown station Wednesday. Its victim was G. S. Ruble, of Oliver township, Mifflin county. Mr. Ruble was in the act of driving a four horse team across the tracks with a load of wheat, preparatory to taking the grain to the warehouse on the south side of the tracks, when a fast freight, east bound, came along. Before he could get out of the way the engine struck the wagon and the two horses next to it.

The force was terrific. The two horses were killed outright and the wagon was reduced to fragments. Mr. Ruble was hurled a long distance and received injuries of such a character as to render his recovery impossible and he died shortly afterward. The accident is the first of its kind to occur at the crossing named. Its unfortunate victim was a well to do farmer who owned a farm in the township about three miles from where the accident occurred. He was about 45 years of age, a member of the Dunkard church and a Christian gentleman.

A GREAT CHICKEN STORY.—The Phillipsburg Ledger is responsible for the following: Mr. Frank Flegal owns a hen, which, six weeks ago, hatched eight chicks. Six of them died. When the survivors were four weeks old the hen began laying again, and for the past five days she has been laying two eggs a day, and they are honest, fair, genuine eggs. There is no deception about it, for there are no other chickens in the pen besides the hen and her husband and the two chicks. In fact Mr. Flegal has no other chickens. That hen is a free trader. She can compete with the pauper hens of Europe and knock 'em gallery west. This is a pretty stiff egg story, but you all know Mr. Flegal. "An honest man—my neighbor—there he stands," and he won't tell a lie under any consideration.

William V. Boyer was killed on the railroad at Roney, Clearfield county, last Monday morning. The rear wheels of the baggage car attached to the passenger train passed over him, killing him instantly. His neck was broken, his chest and abdomen crushed, his right leg and left arm broken and his left hand mashed. The deceased was 28 years of age and was a young man of excellent character. He leaves a wife and two small children.

The parties who are interested in boring for oil at Phillipsburg are J. Clark, Esq., of Plainfield, N. Y.; L. D. Collier, of Hudson, N. Y., owners of what is known as the New York Land and Coal Co., and L. T. Munson, Esq., of Bellefonte, one of the proprietors of the Glass Co., of this place, who has had the management, sale and leasing of the property which lies in close proximity to the Munson Coal Co.'s mines at Coal Stream and consists of about 3,800 acres. The well will be sunk to the depth of 2,200 feet, which will cost about $5,000.

The Farmers' Alliance of Porter township, Blair county, at a recent meeting declared that in view of the fact that legislative bodies have made unjust discrimination against the farmers by several acts of legislation in favor of corporations, they deem it necessary to take steps to assist each other. For the purpose of establishing confidence in each other, they will meet at the Loops school house, on Saturday, June 7, and will be addressed by the Rev. A. H. Jolly. They agree that when the farmers put a candidate in the field for either a legislative, senatorial or presidential position they will support the candidate.

The date for the commencement of the Bellefonte High School has been fixed for the 29th of May. Dr. D. J. Waller, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has been secured to deliver the lecture in the graduating exercises, in place of Governor Beaver who will not be able to attend.

Last Friday Mr. Henry Barnes, while driving in a wagon near Phillipsburg, was thrown over the splash-board and the wheels passing over him inflicted such injury to his stomach and chest that death resulted soon after. He was a native of England, about 50 years of age, and much esteemed in the community in which he lived.

The use of spray pumps is now one of the necessities to protect the fruit from destruction by insects. It is a very easy matter to spray the trees with insect poison, which will kill the insects if attended to in time, that is before the insects shall have destroyed the germs or pollen of the blossoms, &c. These pumps are for sale by McCalmont & Co., Machinery Hall, Hale building.

Mr. A. Walker, of this place, has returned from Indiana county, where he has discovered an eight foot vein of iron ore, of excellent quality; a six and a half foot vein of first class coal, and a seven foot vein of fire clay; also a quarry of good building stone. Parties wishing to form a company for the working of these mines would do well to call on him. He has received a lease of one thousand acres of land.

The class that will graduate at the Bellefonte High School on the 20th inst. will be unusually large, 16 in number, consisting of the following young gentlemen and ladies: Bridge A. Curry, Boyd A. Musser, Anna J. Stott, Lillie M. Smith, Carrie R. Shirk, Mabel Woodring, Myra Holliday, Laura K. Hafer, Milly F. Smith, Geo. M. Potter, Carrie M. Gross, Chas. A. Rowan, Emma Yerger, Florence R. Longacre, John M. Morgan and Harry G. DeSilvia.

While Jonathan Gramley, of Loganton, was serving on a jury at Lock Haven last week, he received intelligence of the death of his sister, Mrs. Hannah Royer, wife of Jefferson Royer, at Rebersburg, Centre county. He informed the court of the circumstance and asked if there was any way in which he could be excused, but Judge Mayer seemed to think that it would not be his absence at that time. So Mr. Gramley remained. Mrs. Royer was a little over 75 years old.

The funeral of the late Robert Richey Bridgens, of Lock Haven, took place last Saturday, the remains of the deceased having been viewed by many previous to the interment. The coffin, which was solid cedar, was covered with many beautiful floral designs, the principal one being a handsome combination of cross and anchor from Mrs. W. P. Harper, of New York, who when a child had been a member of Mr. B's family. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Dr. Nesbitt, of the Presbyterian church. The funeral procession was large, and the pall bearers were Thomas B. Loveland, Charles Corse, J. W. Harris, G. Kintzing, Jacob Brown and J. A. Wilson.

Speaking of coal improvements in the Phillipsburg region, the Journal of that place says: The branch line from Munson's coal mine to the Morrisdale branch of the P. R. R. is nearing completion. The difficulty that arose with respect to passing through the field owned by Doyle has been at last overcome, by paying the $240 which was deemed by the appraisers at Court equivalent to the damage done to it. The log track is nearly completed and during the week the ties will be down and shortly we shall hear the puffing of the iron horse at Cold Stream. The prospects of Munson Coal Co. are exceedingly encouraging; it is now booming under the able management of Messrs. Ed and James Munson, and the future success of the output anticipated with these added facilities gives hope of a busy time.

The busy little town of Farrandsville, says the Lock Haven Express, was last week the scene of a successful strike which began with the moulders, pressers and other men employed in the fire brick works, and extended until upwards of one hundred and fifty men in the employ of Messrs. Fredericks, Munro & Co. were involved and the business of manufacturing and shipping fire brick was paralyzed. About sixty men are employed in the brick yard as moulders, pressers and general laborers, and the demand made by the men was for eight hours instead of ten for a day's labor. The demand was not acceded to by the firm and as a result all the men employed in the manufacture of fire brick at that place quit their work and refused to labor until the strikers' troubles were satisfactorily adjusted. The matter was finally arranged by the firm giving the strikers an increase in wages of from 8 to 10 per cent. and all hands resumed their work.

ALL THE RAGE—Misses' back hats, only 50 and 75c, and the splendid assortment of fine goods, at Mrs. D. P. McKinnis's, Howard, Pa.

MEMORIAL DAY.—The request for flowers this year is general and urgent. All friends who have flowers please send them to Gregg Post Room in the Harris Block near the High St. bridge, as early as convenient, May 30th. Children will ask you for flowers, give them some, their mission is to get them. Designs in flowers save trouble and waste, and beautify much the offering to the dead, and if they are kindly prepared for the occasion, will be carefully placed on a soldier's grave. All favors thankfully received.
