SPLING o- M E D I C I N E -o

Seems more than ever a necessity this season, after the mild, unhealthful winter, and the unexpected prevalence of influenza, pneumonia, typhiod fever, etc., leaving nearly everybody weak, exhausted and tired. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to overcome that tired feeling, to build up your whole system, purify your blood, impart a good appetite and promote healthy digestion. Try it this spring. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for much benefited by it." Mrs. E. C. Erickson, 22 Union Avenue, Worcester, Mass.

-HEALTH IMPROVED-

"For a long time I suffered with palpitation of the heart and chills. I have now taken three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and am almost entirely cured. My general health and appetite are better than they have been for years. I have given Hood's Sarsaparilla to my children for cartarrh and scrofula, and the help they have derived from it is wonderful." Mrs. Edward Mase, Strousburg, Pa.

The Captain's Widow Took the Helm.

How many romances there are in private life! I never see William M. his mother had years ago. His father was a Maine man, who commanded one of the finest clipper ships that ever sailed the s eas. He had made a handsome competence, and intended to retire after four or five years as a spring medicine, and feel perfectly satisfied with its effects. My sister, too, has taken it for rheumatism, and has been can port and set sail for New York. On can port and set sail for New York. On board were his wife and two children. The second day of the voyage yellow fever broke out, and within a week had killed him, the officers and half the crew. Those who survived were illiterate seaman, who had no knowledge of navigation. They proposed to drift until they met some ship and then ob-tain relief. To their surprise, Mrs. Dunlevy took command, laid the vote of thanks, and the underwriters gave her a handsome amount as a kind 000. of salvage. The event is forgotton; but to my mind it is hard to match the young widow's standing at the wheel, through sunlight and storm, with her ed only by C. I. dent which happened during the winter I was with them. Towards evening, on a very cold winter day when it was Fresh Hops, Hemlock, Pine Balsam, and Ex-good deal, an Indian came to the log house with a jug half full of whiskey and with his rifle. I imagine that the jug had been entirely full of whiskey when he started and by the time he powerful medicinal properties of the Hop got to the house he was in rather a jolly condition. The jug and the rifle were taken away from him and he was or-dered to get to his wigwam as quick as talized and restored to health and vigor.

Then the search for the lost Indian began. He was found in one of the sheds near the barn, under a heap of drifted snow, and the chances are that the snow that was above him had helped to save his life. The searchers for the Indian had gone in different directions, and it was his own squaw who with the Indian instingt, had tracked him out, and she was alone when she found him. ## Indian Humor.

The Indian has a keen appreciation of humor, and is like a child in his mirthfulness. No orator can see the weak points in his adversary's armor or silence a foolish speaker more quick-

Old Sha-bah-skong, the head chief of Mille Lac, brought all his warriors to defend Fort Ripley in 1862. The Secretary of the Interior and the Governor and Legislature of Minnesota promised these Indians that for this act of bravery they should have the special care of the Government and never be removed. A few years later a special agent was sent from Washington ask the Ojibways to cede their lands and to remove to a country north of Leech Lake. The agent ask-After myself and wife had used your Microbe Killer with great benefit, although I have not a farthing's pecuniary interest in your remedy, unsolicited and on my own responsibility, I wrote to nearly forty of those whose certificates you publish, embracing nearly all diseases. "Please give your present impressions of Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer." I am happy to state the replies were not only favorable but enthusiastic. Brothers, looked at me! The winds of fifty-five years have blown over my head and silvered it over with gray, and in all that time I have never done wrong to any man. As your friend, I ask you to sign this Old Shah-bah-skong sprung to his feet and said: "My friend, look at me! The winds of more than fifty winters have blown over my head and silvered it with gray; but they have not blown my brains away."

The council was ended. - North Am erican Review.

-A CHILEAN audience will not endure any nonsense, and its vengeance is as warm as it is effective. An unwise theatrical manager at Santiago recently changed the play without warning and cut certain parts. The result was disastrous, for the enraged play-goers rose as one man, burled their benches on the stage, demolished the drop curtain, made kindling wood of piano, and would probably have torn the manager limb from limb if he had not prudently escaped with the actors. Such methods as these are not to be commended, but they probably save Chilean audiences from the indiction of bad plays. Not even a veteran "barn stormer" could withstand such heroic measures as these.

-Pain and dread attend the use of most catarrh remedies. Liquids and snuffs are unpleasant as well as dangerous. Ely's Cream Balm is safe, pleasant
