Pine Grove Mentions.

Dr. G. H. Woods is looking forward to an increased practice, especially on sprained limbs, after our base ball club gets under headway. Connty Treasurer Cyrus Goss spent a day or two among his former associates upon his return from Huntingdon county, where he was looking up the Hastings gubernatorial boom.

Peter Ripka died near this place on the 3rd inst., of dropsy, after a lingering illness of some months. He leaves a wife and a number of children to mourn the loss of a kind parent and a good citizen.

A glance into the extensive carriage shops ofiour popular townsman, Wm. Meyers, only reminds the passerby of the extra number of elegant rigstuatare being built under the special supervision of Mr. Meyers. He has in his employ in all of the different departments experienced mechanics who take special interest and pains in the erection and finishing of all jobs entrusted to their honored dead in Centre Hall; the seccare

The Pine Grove Cornet Band made their first appearance on Decoration Day clad in their new suits of navy blue, with red trimmings. The caps with red plumes extending Spring Mills where they performed the entirely over them add much to the splendor and glitter of the entire suit.

We have the pleasure this week of noting the marriage of our young friend, William H. Hammer, of this place, and Miss Mollie Turn baugh, of Altoona. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. D. H. Barron at Hol lidaysburg, on the 27th ult. When the happy couple arrived in our town on the following evening a reception awaited them at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Hammer.

As usual they were the victims of the Band demonstration, which, however, they bore good-naturedly and obeyed the injunction of the good book and took them in to share with them a part of the good things prepared by Mrs Hammer who is an adapt in the culinary department, besides receiving every one cordial ly by the hand, making all feel welcome The young couple took their departure for Altoona where the groom is an employe in the Penna. R. R. shops, with showers of blessing following them.

Memorial day has come and gone and the annual floral tribute to the memory of the men who fell in the great cause of human rights and the union of their country.

In every God's acre throughout this section the people assembled to do honor to the dead terian church. He was about 75 years heroes and bedeck their graves with flowers of age and leaves a widow and two and wreaths. Flags were floated to the still breezes of that beautiful May day, to the soul inspiring music of the different bands in all directions. The active part taken by the old soldiers in the ceremony reverted back to the time of carnage and warfare. Early in the morning people began to gather from the surrounding country, wending their way to services at Meek's cemetery were also well attended. Miss Mame Campbell officiated at the organ, assited by an elegant choir. The Pine Grove Cornet Band also rendered some appropriate selections of music. Rev. Alfred L. Miller, of Penn. State College, delivered the oration, which was full of thought and eloquence, and we believe the first orator or such occasions who urged the U. S. Treasury surplus or at least a part of it to be distributed amongst the scar-worn veterans .

Centre county's old and much respected citizens has been called away. This time it is Mr. Jos. M. Wilson, of Benner township, who passed quietly away at his residence on Buffalo Run on Wednesday evening last. The immediate cause of Mr. Wilson's death we have not learned. He was a man of the highest character and of the strictest integrity ; a citizen who any community might be proud of and a neighbor who will be missed by those who associated with him. He was a consceientious christian, who would have suffered anything rather than do a wrong thing, and a most consistent and exemplary member of the Presby- DRY GOODS EDPARTMEMT.
