

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

The flower beds at the railroad depot were planted with flowers during the past week by florist Ziegler, but as it was done at a late period in the season the gorgeous display of last summer can't be expected.

The Logan iron works, which have long been one of the industrial establishments of this place, have been moved from their old location in the rear of the McClain block, to the old carworks where there is more room for operation and in every respect a more advantageous location.

During the hot weather of the past few weeks the draft of water on the Bellefonte reservoir has been so great that the pumps are taxed to their utmost capacity to keep up the supply. Water Superintendent Rine says that never before was there such a drain on the resources of the water works. Under the circumstances the Water Committee of the town council asks the people to abstain from the unnecessary use of the water supplied by the works.

The first picnic this season will be that of the Reformed congregation and Sunday School next Wednesday, July 16th, at a point a short distance east of Linden Hall. The fare for the round trip will be 30 cents for adults and 10 cents for children under 12 years. The train will leave between 9.30 and 10 o'clock, a. m. The public generally are invited to attend this excursion and avail themselves of the extremely low price of a ride through the finest part of Centre county. The grove selected is extremely fine, with a delightful spring of cold water on the edge of it. All who go will provide their own lunch.

DEATH OF MR. MONTGOMERY.—Mrs. Catharine Montgomery died at her residence on Allegheny street, at 11 o'clock on the evening of the 2nd inst. She had been declining for some years under the effect of age and her peaceful passing away was not unexpected to her friends. She was the widow of John Montgomery who came to this place from Columbia, Pa., in 1838. Her age was 78 years, she having been born in Philadelphia in 1812. She was the mother of six children, four of whom, Messrs. Win, Henry, Moses and Frank Montgomery, of this place, survive her. An only daughter, Mrs. Cecilia Bullock, died some years ago, and a son, William, was killed during the war. Her funeral took place at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the 4th inst., Rev. J. O. Davis, of the Episcopal church, performing the ceremony.

WEDDING BELL CHIMES.—The wedding bells chimed off merrily on the still air on Thursday evening, June 25, as the guests began to gather at the house of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frederick, of Unionville, to witness the marriage of their daughter Mollie to John F. Holt of same place. At exactly twelve o'clock the bridal party appeared accompanied by Miss Emily Hall as maid of honor, and Mr. Harry Brown, of Moshannon, as best man. They took their places in the center of the parlor and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. George Bouse of Milesburg. The bride was handsomely attired in white satin and the bridesmaid looked lovely in a Bismarck moiré. The groom and groomsmen appeared in black suits. After being congratulated by all present they repaired to the dining room where a perfect feast awaited them and all partook accordingly.

We noticed among the one hundred guests present Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Koller; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gates, of Philipsburg; Mrs. D. E. Woodring, of Madera, Clearfield county; Mrs. Shirr and daughter, of Tyrone; Miss Clara Mulholland of Pine Glenn; Miss Lizzie Hamilton, Miss Katura Barr and Mr. Milton Johnson, of Bellefonte; Messrs. Frank and Harry Brown, of Moshannon; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bodle and daughter, of Fillmore; Miss Lottie Yarger, of Millinburg; Mr. Jasper Holt, of Austin, Potter Co., and Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, of Clearfield.

The groom presented the bride with a handsome gold watch, and the other presents were as follows: Mrs. Holt, large cake stand; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, linen table cloth; Miss Mulholland, fruit dish and dozen napkins; Miss Minnie Holt, pair of towels and velvet pin cushion; Mr. and Mrs. Gates, large rug and dozen napkins; Jasper Holt, glass water set; Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, table cloth; Allie Cadwallader, set cooking utensils; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frederick, pair of towels; Messrs. Frank and Harry Brown, set silver knives and forks; Miss Lizzie Hamilton, fruit dish and syrup jug; James Holt, set silver spoons; Sheba Hoover, dozen napkins; Patsy Loughery, pair of china vases; Walter and Meta Lucas, silver butter dish with bride's name on; Mr. Austin Hoover, lamp; D. A. E. Russel and wife, pair of fruit dishes; Miss Lizzie Shipley, half a dozen goblets; Eddie and Maudie Hoover, individual salt and pepper; Mr. and Mrs. John Stover, set silver spoons; Mr. and Mrs. Shirr, table cloth; Nora Miller, fruit dish; Della Fink, pair towels; Theodore Williams and Mamie Bush, two glass dishes; Mr. J. Stevens, dozen goblets; Mr. and Mrs. Bodle, fruit dish; Mrs. Sallie McGarvey, set silver spoons; W. B. Frederick, two meat plates; Ed and Charles Griest, handsome clock; J. W. Frederick, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. Iddings, cake stand and pair of towels; Misses Mary and Bessie Shirr, pretty tily; Miss Minnie Bullock, fruit dish; Misses Bertha and Southa Basford, pair china vases; Estella Stover, cake stand; Mrs. Dora Fisher, fancy pitcher; Mrs. Nancy Stover, meat plate; Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, fruit dish; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hoover, parlor lamp; Mr. L. D. Parker, carving knife and fork; Mrs. A. Griest, large mirror; Milton Johnson and Katura Barr, decorated china fruit dish and half dozen bread and butter plates; Geo. Hosband, pair towels; Irvin, May and Stella, Hoover table cloth and dozen napkins; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dimeling, pair braided pillow shams; Mr. and Mrs. E. Roller, embroidered lambrkin; Annie Hosband, pair of towels; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fredericks, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Barton, bed spread; Mrs. Austin Hoover, pair of pillows; Mrs. D. E. Woodring, dozen napkins; Mr. and Mrs. Wm Miller, pair of towels; Paul Shipley, handsome mirror; Samuel Holt, fruit dish; George Reinheart, set silver spoons; Mr. and Mrs. L. Miller, fruit dish and a handsome lamp stand made of laurel by Christie Hoover, a gentleman 70 years old.

Mollie is a worthy and accomplished young lady and will make a good helpmate, and John is a bright and promising young man and will be a true and noble husband. We sincerely wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—At meeting of town council on Monday evening Mr. Woomer, manager of the telephone exchange, made a proposition to supply a telephone service for the police, which was tabled. The Street committee reported that they had contracted for 40 wooden street signs at 10 cents a piece, which were accepted by council. The Water committee reported that it took pumping every hour of the day to keep up the water supply, and notified that the pumping facilities would have to be increased, but probably not within a year. The 22nd of July, at 7 p. m., was fixed as the time for holding the water tax appeals. In regard to the market the committee reported that a number of market men are willing to pay one year's fees in advance if the curb be numbered and they are allowed to retain their positions the year through. The Borough was reported to be indebted to the Treasurer in the sum of $5,671.22. Council refused to exonerate D. W. Woodring from taxes. Mr. Potter offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted by council: Since the taxpayers of Bellefonte have gone to some expense in surveying the borough with the view of numbering the houses and lots, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that each and every house should forthwith be numbered according to the surveyor's report, in order to facilitate free mail delivery which is now in operation.

THE CLARA PRICE MONUMENT.—The contract for the construction and erection of the monument to Clara Price has been awarded to J. R. Batchelder, proprietor of the Lock Haven Granite and Marble Works, and the design for the monument has been agreed upon. When completed the monument will be erected over the grave of Clara at Keevyden, and a day will be set apart for unveiling it to the gaze of the public. The committee to receive the bids was composed of W. B. Potter, Jos. A. Heckendorn and E. I. Gilliland, and the design of Mr. Batchelder was selected from among those of nine competitors. The monument will be of the best quality of dark Quincy granite, of spire form, and will be 14 feet 6 inches in height. There will be three bases, the bottom one 3 feet 6 inches square and 1 foot thick, the second base 2 feet 7 inches square, 8 inches thick; third base 2 feet 2 inches square and 1 foot thick. The die, or inscription block, will be 2 feet high and 20 inches square, with plinth 17 inches square and 8 inches high. The spire or shaft, will be 9 feet high and 1 foot 1 inch square. On the inscription block will be the following inscription:

CLARA IDA PRICE. Born, June 16th, 1871. Died, November 27th, 1889. Aged 17 years, 5 months and 11 days. Murdered near Karthaus, Pa., November 27th, 1889, by Alfred Andrews. Virtue hath its reward in life as well as after death. My life for my honor. In the bottom base a hole will be cut 10 inches long, 5 inches wide and 4 inches deep, in which will be placed a tin box containing a list of the names of subscribers to the monument fund, copies of the county papers, and such other articles as are usually placed in a corner stone. The cost of the monument will be between $300 and $400.

BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.—The people of Bellefonte are offered an opportunity of seeing an interesting and graphic illustration of the famous battle of Gettysburg as represented by a mammoth cycloramic picture exhibited in a large pavilion on the grounds of the stone school house on Allegheny street. The picture, giving all the scenes of the battle, is 300 feet in diameter and 18 feet high. It was sketched and painted by an eminent French artist and presents all the scenes of the great fight from a position on Cemetery Ridge. A descriptive lecture will be given so that all the features of the great fight may be understood. The pavilion will open this (Friday) evening.

The annual catch of fish on the European and North American coasts is computed by a German statistician to amount to 150,000 tons. A ton of fish corresponds with twenty-five sheep in weight and with twenty sheep in nourishing power. Therefore the total European and North American catch equals in number 42,000,000 sheep and in nourishing power 30,000,000.

Dieu. LUTZ.—June 28, 1890, near Houersville, Pa., Elmer E. Lutz, aged 23 years, 10 months and 1 day.

BROWN.—June 10, Willis L. Brown, son of Kate and Frank Brown, aged 2 years and 27 days. Wherefore should I make my moan, Now the darling child is dead, He to earthy rest is gone, He to Paradise is fled, I shall go to him, but he Never shall return to me, God forbid his longer stay, God recalls the precious loan, God hath taken him away, And my poor bosom is grown Surely what he wills is best, Happy in His will I rest.

WAGNER.—At Wintgate, Centre county, Pa., on the 4th inst., John M. infant son of William and Ella Wagner, aged 4 months and 15 days.

We miss our little darling, At morning, noon and night; We look upward and behold him, A bright and shining light.

He was such a little treasure, How we give him up, How can we still live and drink From such a bitter cup?

The sweetest flower that scents the morn, A just wither in a day, This flower was the darling's dawn That fled his life away.

Now let us pray for comfort, That our last days may be As pure as little Johnnie's, When our father's face we see.

RHOADS.—In Milesburg, June 8th, 1890, Mrs. Rebecca Rhoads, wife of George Rhoads, aged 83 years, 3 months and 23 days.

Farewell, dear mother, sweet thy rest, Weary with years and worn with pain, We shall behold thee face again, We shall behold thee face again, 'Tis ours to miss thee all our years, And tender memories of thee keep; Shine in the Lord for so He giveth his beloved sleep.

Married. SOWERS—JACOBS.—June 29, '90, at the Reformed parsonage, Boalsburg, Pa., by Rev. A. A. W. Miller, M. D., Wm. W. Jacobs, of Philadelphia, and Nora Jacobs, of Shingletown, Pa.

KLINÉ—MILLER.—At the parsonage in Boalsburg, Pa., July 3, 1890, Mr. Henry Kline and Miss Bertha Miller, both of Spring township, Centre Co., Pa.

Tribute of Respect. OAK HALL, JULY 5, 1890. Victor Grange, No. 159, P. of H., is again called to mourn the loss of a member, sister Irae Stover, who died July 2nd, 1890. While we bow to the will of our divine master who doth all things well, we subscribe the following:

Resolved, In the death of sister Irene Stover Victor Grange, No. 159, has lost a faithful member, the husband a devoted wife, the children an affectionate and loving mother, who in life proved herself a good neighbor and a true friend, and whose words of kindness and deeds of charity will long be remembered by their thankful, but now sorrowing hearts.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to our bereaved brother and family in the time of their great sorrow and affliction, but direct them to the one whom consolation may be found. When the cross seems too heavy to bear we are assured He will make it light to those who will lean upon Him.

Resolved, That we as patrons deplore the loss of our beloved Sister. We shall ever cherish her memory and loving mother, who in life proved herself a good neighbor and a true friend, and whose words of kindness and deeds of charity will long be remembered by their thankful, but now sorrowing hearts.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to our bereaved brother and family in the time of their great sorrow and affliction, but direct them to the one whom consolation may be found. When the cross seems too heavy to bear we are assured He will make it light to those who will lean upon Him.

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our hall Which never will be filled.

Resolved, As a token of respect for our departed Sister we draw our charter in mourning for sixty days and have a copy sent to the family of the deceased Sister, one each to Democratic WORKMAN, Gazette, and Farmer's Friend for publication.

Sister LUCY FELTE, P. B. DALE, Committee. ANNA DALE.

Books, Magazines, &c. St. Paul is the educational Mecca this year. The teachers from all over the land will gather there in annual convention. Those that can't go and those that can go will for different good reasons be anxious to read and see the illustrated article on St. Paul in the New England Magazine for July.

Haverhill is to have a grand celebration the 2nd of July on the occasion of her 250th anniversary and the New England Magazine joins hands with her by publishing in its July number a finely illustrated historical article on Haverhill.
