DESERVED PRAISE.—The Lock Haven Democrat of Saturday, pays the following merited compliment to a well known Centre county musical organization and an efficient fire company:

The Pleasant Gap, Centre county band, which had accompanied the Undine Fire Company of Bellefonte to the Williamsport celebration yesterday, gave the Democrat office the honor of a serenade this morning, a delegation of the Undine boys being with them. The P. G. band is led by William H. Noll, and plays extremely well, and we feel much complimented by their call. There are few country bands, if any, that excel the Pleasant Gap. The boys are devoted musicians and take a deep interest in their delightful art. The Undine Fire Company has been in existence many years and was always highly effective at conflagrations. The members are full of spirit and not afraid of work.

SILVER WEDDING.—Perry E. Gates and wife, who was Miss Annie E. Heberly, both of this county, were married on the 4th of July, 1865, by Rev. Wm. H. Groh, then of Boalsburg. On the 4th inst. they celebrated their silver wedding at their residence on the Shoemaker farm, near Birmingham, Huntingdon county. A bountiful table was spread under the trees near their residence in regular 4th of July style and the guests had a royal time. Many handsome presents of silverware were received and the following guests were in attendance: Mrs. Joseph Heberling, Thos. Heberling, Mrs. Cyrus Cronister, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mattern, Rev. H. M. Oberholzer, Mr. and Mrs. John Burket, Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mattern, Mr. Oliver Rumberger, Mr. and Mrs. John Mingle, Mr. and Mrs. George Drazier, Mr. and Mrs. William Wolf, Dr. and Mrs. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. John Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Beck, Mr. and Mrs. David Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Diller Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Keatley.

THE FREE DELIVERY IN OPERATION.—On account of delay in getting all the equipments, the free mail delivery in this place did not go into operation on the 1st inst., as had been announced. But on Monday the free service commenced, the carriers starting out for the performance of their duty in their suits of gray. There will be three collections of mail matter from the mail boxes each day, as follows, from 7:30 to 8:30 a. m., 1 to 2 p. m. and 4 to 5 p. m. The deliveries are made immediately after the morning and evening mails are changed, which allows the carriers to leave the post-office at about 10:15 a. m. and 5:45 p. m. In connection with the change that is brought about by the free delivery, Postmaster Fiedler gives notice that all who intend to discontinue holding their boxes at the postoffice, as well as those who desire to retain them, will greatly help to facilitate matters by paying their box rents promptly. All keys of abandoned boxes can be retained until July 5, without extra charge.

HYMEN'S DOINGS AT PORT MATILDA.—A large number of guests assembled at the residence of H. H. Osman, Esq., of Port Matilda, Pa., on Wednesday evening, July 2, 1890, to witness the marriage of his daughter Abbie with Mr. James Bair, of Glen Hope, Clearfield Co., Pa. To the strains of the wedding march excellently rendered by Mr. Howard Miles, the bride and groom, attended by Miss Zora Osman, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Philip Young, groomsmen, proceeded to the parlor where Rev. J. C. Young, of the M. E. Church, performed the ceremony which made the twin as one. After congratulations the party sat down to a sumptuous supper prepared under the personal supervision of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Osman, who knows well how to cater to the tastes of her guests.

After doing full honor to the occasion the guests passed the evening until after 2 a. m., in plays and amusements, all hugely enjoying themselves. The calathumpians appeared on the scene and after doing their best in their musical way were rewarded by a sight of the bride and groom and a treat.

Among the guests we noticed Rev. A. J. Jackson and lady, Mr. Bion Williams and lady, Mr. A. T. Williams and daughter Abbie, Mrs. Susan Stevens, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Miles, Mrs. Late Stine and Mrs. Richard Shay, Misses Keziah Denning, Ella Crain, Annie Crain, Gertie Reese, Lizzie Reese and Nora Way, and Messrs. John Stephens, Calvin Jones, William Vaughn, Harry Woodring, Howard Miles and W. G. Morrison. The presents were many and valuable and were very much appreciated by the bride and groom. The next morning they started on a short wedding tour. They intend to locate soon in Glen Hope, we are told. May happiness ever attend them.

—The Fourth at Port Matilda was ushered in by the firing of guns and anvils, and at about 9 a. m. a number of citizens assembled at corner of Plank Road and Pike street and erected a very fine flag pole to replace the one cut down recently by Mr. Geo. T. Jones. By this time the "Big Six," or Gilling's band of Philipsburg, had arrived, and after a few selections of music a speech of dedication was made by Mr. W. G. Morrison. The citizens deserve credit for so promptly taking hold of this matter, especially Mr. S. R. Pringle for his pains in painting and preparing the pole, and Mr. Jas. T. Marks and G. A. R. comrades Adam Cowher, John Daughenbaugh, George Soner and others for their assistance. The picnic under the management of Castle, No. 219, Knights of the Golden Eagle, was a splendid success. They assembled at their hall where they were joined by the Sunday schools and headed by the "Big Six" the procession marched to the picnic grounds near town. The first speech was made by Mr. W. G. Morrison, who in behalf of the Castle, welcomed all to the picnic and spoke of the objects, early history and foundation of the order. He was followed by Rev. J. C. Young, who delivered an eloquent oration. Rev. A. J. Jackson came next with a forcible but appropriate speech, and in the afternoon Aaron Williams, Esq., fairly broke his record as speaker in an enthusiastic speech. He was near the place of his birth, amongst many of his early friends, and rejoiced to meet them. Field Marshal H. H. Osman was busy as a bee, all were pleased and the day was very pleasantly and profitably spent. During the evening a festival was held which netted the K. G. E. a neat sum.

—The Fourth of July, 1890, was a quiet and uneventful day in Bellefonte. There was no public demonstration and almost a sabbath calm pervaded the town. Most of our demonstrative characters went to other places to celebrate. Quite a number went to Tyrone and Williamsport. The Undine Hose company, accompanied by the Pleasant Gap band, and Company B, of the P. N. G. participated in the Williamsport parade. Business of course was suspended here the stores and other public places being closed. The rattling explosion of firecrackers served to mark the distinction between the glorious Fourth and ordinary days.

—Mr. Margaret Wallis, while in Gray's grocery store yesterday, had her purse lifted from the counter while she was waiting for change, by one of the gang of boys who evidently had entered for the purpose of peculation. It contained two silver dollars and a marked ten cent piece. It is evident that all the thieves are not caught by the capture of the two boys who were taken to Altoona yesterday for robbing boxes at the post office, for depredations have been made at several stores during the past few days.—Philipsburg Journal of July 1st.

—The Philadelphia Press' Most Popular Teacher Contest closed on the 1st inst., showing the following vote for the three teachers who received the first, second and third highest votes: Miss Jennie M. Davis, of Philadelphia, 299,025; Miss Marie H. Bishop, of Williamsport, 222,831 votes; Miss Elizabeth D. Grant, of Sunbury, 207,252. The prize of the one having the highest vote was to be a free trip to Europe, but the three did so well that the Press has generously determined to give all three a European tour. The whole number of votes received was over a million.

—The Philipsburg Journal says that Mike Mukey, a Hungarian of Allport, was missed on Sunday. On search being made for him, he was found in a pool of water, with his feet upward. His clothing was lying on the ground by the side of the pool, and it is supposed that he was in the act of bathing and could not extricate himself from the position in which he was found.

—C. G. McMillen, Esq., formerly of the Brockerhoff House, this place, was chief marshal of the Jefferson and Jackson clubs, of Dayton, Ohio, at the recent unveiling of the Hendricks monument at Indianapolis. Mr. McMillen is now running the Dicky House, Dayton, the hotel of that city, and is still true to the old colors. May he "live long and prosper."

—Mr. J. J. Yokey, who some four or five years ago was the miller for Garbrick, Hale & Co., of Bellefonte, died some days ago at Valley Falls, Kansas, to which locality he migrated from Bellefonte.

—Forepaugh's elephant Columbia, seventy years old and over 12 feet tall, is dying at Albany, N. Y., from injuries received at South Fork over a month ago, by falling out of a car and being run into by a freight train, while the show was on its way from Johnstown to this place.

—Woodland Coal delivered to any part of the town. Hoover & Miller adjoining Bush House. 25-3t

SLOVENLY CENSUS WORK IN CLINTON COUNTY.—The residents of Drury's Hill, a little hamlet in the mountains, complain that they have not been counted in the census. There are five or six families there and their enumeration would add just that much more to the population of Clinton county.—Lock Haven Democrat.

$200 FOR A COLT.—Quig White, of Esby, Columbia county, recently purchased a two-year-old colt from a man named Randall, at Pine Creek, that was sired by R. D. Peck's blooded stallion. Mr. White paid $200 for the animal, which is certainly a liberal price for a two-year-old and showed that the breed is considered a valuable one.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following parties were licensed to get married by Register Rupp during the past week:

Allen G. Keller, of Renovo, and Maggie L. Fye, of Moshannon.
William Snyder, of Elk county, and Ellen Turner, of Mt. Eagle.
James A. Bair, of Glenn Hope, and Abbie C. Osman, of Port Matilda.
Lem Mitchell and Lillie E. Sensel, both of Unionville.
Edwin M. Straub and Sarah J. Kern, both of Bellefonte.

WEDDING BELLS IN BOGGS TOWNSHIP.—A large company assembled on the 21st of June, at the residence of Col. P. W. Barnhart, of Boggs township, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Alice L. Barnhart, to Mr. Howard G. Hurd, of Farrisville, Pa. Rev. George King, of the M. E. church, performed the ceremony. Mr. William Fredericks, of Lock Haven, cousin of the groom, and Mr. James K. Barnhart, brother of the bride, acted as ushers. The dress of the bride was a handsome slate colored silk, and she wore a bouquet of natural flowers of choice selection. When the happy bride and groom departed on the evening train to visit eastern cities they were followed by the good wishes of the large company and the usual fusillade of old shoes and rice. The bride is one of Bald Eagle's best types of womanhood, and of the groom, who is manager of extensive lumber works at Farrisville, we can speak in the highest terms.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT HOWARD.—Children's Day services held in the Evangelical church at Howard last Sunday evening were pronounced by almost all as the best that they had witnessed this season. The children under the instruction of Mrs. S. E. Hensyl, did excellently, and the ability of Z. T. Weirick as a vocal instructor made the choir's part of the exercise very fine.

The opening was a voluntary by the choir and the anthem "Magnify His Name," which were followed by a solo by Essie Hannon with the "Song of Welcome;" after which they were led in prayer by Rev. Jarrett; responsive reading, and a song by the choir; recitation, "The Telegram" by Maud Hopkins, was a very pretty piece and well spoken; "Wee workers for Jesus" was recited very nicely by Lizzie Mann and Maudie Schenck; "Singing for the Lord," by a band of children; "Only a Boy," was well spoken by Frankie Holter; "Three Little Chairs," by Emma Mann, after which Miss Lula Hensyl sang a solo, "Elsie Leigh," and a quartette in chorus by Will Weber, bass, Will Long, tenor, and Sallie Lucas, alto, was pronounced very good. Recitation by Mattie Lucas, "What is Public Worship;" "We'll Take the World for Jesus," by 6 small boys; song by the choir, "Nellie's Faith" by Alice Wistar was very well spoken. "What Wonderful Things are Words," by Lizzie Mann. Duet, "Mother's Song," by Z. T. Weirick and Sallie Lucas, with full chorus. "Hark the Voices o'er the Sea" was spoken by Essie Hannon; "What We Love Best," by five little girls. Miss Elsie Long then sang a very pretty anthem solo, with quartette chorus, "Say Not I Journey Alone," Will Long, bass, Z. T. Weirick, tenor, and Sallie Lucas, alto; recitation by Jennie Wyble; Mrs. Nora Thompson then sang a solo "The Door Step," with quartette chorus; "The girl who Helps her Mother," by Willie Ertle; duet "Little Ones," by Anna Weber and Addie Confer; song exercise, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," by 12 little girls. "The Path of the Cyclone" was then very well spoken by Miss Lula Hensyl; duet "Sing the Song of the Old Folks Loved," by Annie Hensyl, and Sallie Lucas. Then there was a short address by Rev. Jarrett, after which the choir sang, "Close of Children's Day." After taking up a collection which amounted to $11, the assemblage was dismissed with the benediction.

The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and spruce, and banners distributed among the flowers added to its appearance. Notwithstanding the warm weather and the crowded church there was enough variety in the programme to hold the audience's undivided attention for about 1 1/2 hours. Miss Blanche E. Hensyl presided at the organ, assisted by Miss Elsie Long, both doing excellent work.

THE FOURTH AT TYRONE.—The celebration of the Fourth of July at Tyrone was a very fine one indeed and reflected credit both on the people of that place and the organization of Patriotic Sons of America under whose auspices it was held. There were 4000 or 5000 visitors in the town, which was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and arches. The parade numbered between 1100 and 1200 men and seven bands of music and a number of excellent drum corps, which made a fine display. This celebration was held under the auspices of the Central Pennsylvania Association of the Patriotic Sons of America and was inaugurated by Camp No. 327, the local organization of Tyrone. This Association comprises camps in Clinton, Lycoming, Centre, Elk, Clearfield, Jefferson, Cameron, Huntingdon and Blair, and on account of its central position Tyrone was chosen as the point for the first general gathering. In the parade nine counties were represented by camps. It was the liveliest waking up that Tyrone has had for a long time. The parade took place in the morning and the convention in the afternoon. It was decided to hold the convention and parade next year at Lock Haven, the convention to come off on the 3d and the parade on the 4th of July.

A MILESBERG YOUNG MAN KILLED.—The Renovo News gives the following account of a fatal accident that happened to Miles Draucher, formerly of Milesburg, this county, which happened in the railroad yard at that place on the 2nd inst:

A train was being made in the lumber yard, and Mr. Draucher was engaged in coupling cars when he was caught between two bumpers and terribly crushed. He was unconscious when picked up. A stretcher was procured, and the injured man was taken to the residence of his brother, John Draucher, on Seventh Street. Dr. Fuller was summoned to attend him, but the physician on his arrival found that his services would be unavailing to stay the progress of death, and half an hour later, at 11:30 o'clock, the unfortunate man passed away without recovering consciousness.

Mr. Draucher was about 24 years of age and was unmarried. He came to Renovo about six months ago, and obtained employment in the P. & E. blacksmith shop. About a month ago he was given a position as brakeman in the yard. He was a good, faithful employee and was respected and esteemed by all. The remains were taken to Milesburg for interment.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO AN EX-COUNTY OFFICIAL.—We learn from the Lock Haven Democrat that Martin W. Herr, of Salona, ex-county treasurer of Clinton county, met with an accident last Friday, which may cost him his life. He and his boys had gone out to his farm about two miles from Salona to pick cherries, and Mr. Herr, whose crippled condition is well known, climbed one of the trees to a height of 21 or 22 feet, from whence he had a fall, alighting on the ground on his head and shoulders, which resulted in paralysis, and rendered him for the time being unconscious. Dr. Drum was sent for and when he arrived he sent for Dr. Armstrong, of Lock Haven, both gentlemen after consultation agreeing that it was a very serious case, and that the patient was in a critical condition. At last accounts he was reported to be completely paralyzed from the breast down and was insensible to all feeling. A pin can be stuck into him anywhere and he does not know it. The Doctor says the outcome of the accident cannot be told, the patient being in a very critical condition.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Since our last publication an accident happened to Elmer Lutz, son of Mr. John Lutz, of Benner township, while he was assisting in taking in hay on his father's farm, which resulted in his death. The young man was on the wagon handling the fork which was a double harpoon. He had fastened a load of hay and it was being pulled up when the rope broke and the fork fell, striking him. The one prong ran into his leg, severing the main artery. Aid was at once summoned, but before it arrived the young man was dead, having only lived ten minutes after the fall of the fork. He was about twenty years of age and was an excellent young man. His parents have the sympathy of their friends and the community in this sad visitation.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.—Ben Fulton, of Bellefonte, was before Alderman Stead this afternoon for a hearing. He was charged upon the oath of Andrew Doney, son of the proprietor of the Doney house, with stealing a gold watch and chain from his clothes, which were hanging in his, Doney's, bedroom. The act was committed early yesterday morning, and when Fulton was arrested a few minutes after committing the act, the watch, chain and necktie belonging to Doney were found upon his person. In default of $200 bail Fulton was remanded to jail.—Williamsport Sun of Saturday.
