A COMPLIMENT TO A CENTRE COUN-TY BOY .- Mr. T. A. Lucas, son of Reuben Lucas, of Howard, has been offered an excellent position as stenographer on the World's Fair Committee in Chicago, where he has been located for the past two years and where he holds a responsible position with a large manufacturing concern. The fact of his having been tendered a position on so important committee is highly complimentary, a none are accepted but those proving themselves thoroughly competent after having undergone a most rigid test as to rapidity and accuracy.

-Last Monday afternoon fire broke | emblamatic trees. You rarely find the decorout in the large sawmill of Kintzing & ations of a table selling for very much at auc-Bickford at Lock Haven which resulted in its total destruction. The flames grand tight rope walking as ever was extended to the lumber piles which con- witnessed, was done by Oliver Yarnall, of tained between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 Hecla, just before sunset. The rope was about fifteen feet from the ground, and he feet, about a third of which was destroyed. The loss in lumber was between $20,000 and $30,000 on which there was ty for their liberal patronage and generous an insurance of nearly $6,000. The mill for which Kintzing & Bickford paid $13,000, was insured for $10,000. It is said that it will not be rebuilt. Several fire companies came up from Williamsport and helped to check the fire in the lumber piles.

DEATH OF AN OLD CLERGYMAN .--Rev. Elias Shambach, formerly an active minister of the Lutheran church, died at his residence in Aaronsburg, this county, on Thursday of last week, of heart trouble, having lived to be 69 years and 24 days old. He was born in New Berlin, Union county, and in June 1846 was married to Anna Maria Bower. This union was blest with nine children, three sons and six daughters, and he was the grandfather of fifteen children, fourteen of whom were in attendance at the funeral. He was buried in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg, Rev. Jacob Young, of Williamsport, preaching the funeral sermon.

Hecla Items. The hog cholera is beginning to play havoc mong the swine about Hecla. Mr. L. S. Zimmerman has within the past two weeks lost eighteen pigs. The farmers feel greatly consoled over the fact that in harvesting their wheat they have successfully garnered their golden treasure, although it is not filled so heavily as it appear ed before cutting. Graham's men have been killing some enor nous snakes lately. One of the black snakes measured over six feet long, and a Rocky Mountain rattle snake over three and one half feet. Their skins can be seen at any time.

On the evening of the 19th inst., the stable of John Johnsonbaugh was maliciously entered by some scoundrels who took all the celluloid rings from two sets of harness. It would be advisable for them to return the same, as they are known to the owner.

Hecla needs a boom in the building line as we know of some parties moving to the bove named place, with a full outfit, and, after camping under a large walnut tree nearly all day and finding they could not oust the occu pants from a house, were compelled to return to their former home.

Those who did not attend the Hecla festival on the 19th inst., missed a rare treat. The beautifully arranged tables were trimmed in a very artistic manner and ladened with delicious cakes. Some of the cakes sold as high as $1.50. Many thanks to the ladies for their skill in baking cakes. We found on each of the three tables a lyre handsomely encased with a fadeless and imperishable article;

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT LOCK HAVEN. | each lyre being surrounded by bouquets, and with all other articles in proportion. As walked both torward and backward. The committee is very thankful to the communiassistance. By their aid the committee cleared about $75.

At the time of General Fremont's death he vas engaged upon the manuscript of a paper for The Century's forthcoming series on the California Gold Hunters. It was to be entitled 'Finding Paths to California," and was not only to deal with the several exploring expeditions, but to narrate the writer's intimate onnection with the events which led to the nquest and occupation of the territory. The work will be promptly continued by Mrs. Fremont. A first graft of the article had been made, and the subject had been so recently and closely discussed by General and Mrs Fromont that she will have no trouble in completing the manuscript, for which she had already written an introduction, as well as a supplement describing her life at Monterey in 849. A fine portrait of General Fremont from a daguerreotype of '49 or '50 will appear in the September number of The Century, along with portraits of Commodore Sloat and Stockton, 'Duke" Gwin, and Governor Burnett, in an article giving an account of "How California Came into the Union." The Century for August has an exceedingly interesting table of ontents, and is so delightful in its out-door articles and engravings, that it makes even this scorching hot weather seem agreeable

An Indefensible Proposition.

Washingtoo Post (Rep.) The Republican majority will have a pretty hard time in justifying itself before the county in an attempt to change the rules of the Senate in order to rush through a purely partisan measure. The bold assertion that the rules under which the Senate has acted for nearly one hundred years, including the war and the reconstruction periods, are to be changed in order to force through a purely partisan measure, which is oppos-ed by a large and united minority as well as by many of the strongest men of the majority, will not strike thinking people as the proper or right thing to do.
