

Democratic Watchman

Friday Morning, August 29, 1890.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Mr. M. H. Geiss, of Penn Hall, is the duly authorized agent of the WATCHMAN for Gregg's ownership.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

The Philipsburg Ledger talks about moving the court house over to that place.

The Centre County Medical Society will meet in Philipsburg on Tuesday, September 26th.

The brick work on the new Unitarian Brethren church in this place, is making rapid progress.

If a Milesburg M. D. (Church) wishes to gain and retain favor he will stop insulting Democrats.

It is reported that T. P. Rynder, of Milesburg, is going to be an independent candidate for State Senate.

Al Garman will be the manager of the Opera House and it will be his ambition to get the best companies.

The schools of the Bellefonte Academy will open on Wednesday, September 10th, in the rooms over the Centre county bank.

Mr. Murphy, a puddler at the Centre Iron Works, broke his leg last Friday by falling through the railroad bridge at Milesburg.

The order of United American Mechanics, of this place, deserved the patronage they received at their festival last Saturday evening.

All the public schools of this place except the High school will open on Tuesday, September 2d, 1890. The High School will open on Wednesday, September 10th.

A. Wilson Norris, jr., entertained a number of his young friends in this place and from a distance with a hop in the Bush arcade last Friday evening. It was a pleasant affair.

Company B, is making an effort to organize a drum corps in this place for the fifth regiment, to take the place of the drum corps of Altoona, which has been disbanded.

Hiram Ray, brother of S. R. Ray, Esq., of this place, died of typhoid fever at Altoona last Saturday morning, and his remains were brought to this place and interred on Monday.

The new Normal School building at Lock Haven has been completed. Rooms have already been engaged by about 150 boarding students and the future prospects of the institution are bright.

The seats have been placed in the new Garman opera house, and many of them have already been engaged for the opening play by the Frank Mayo Company on the evening of 11th., of September.

At the Democratic convention of Blair county, held last Tuesday at Hollidaysburg, Thomas H. Greevy, of Altoona, was nominated for Congress, and O. H. McAlister, of Springfield Furnace, for the Legislature.

Miss Millie F. Smith, daughter of ex-Treasurer Smith, of this place, is about taking a course in the West Chester Normal School to complete the studies which she commenced in the Bellefonte High School.

The temperature of the weather made an extraordinary tumble last Saturday. The mercury got down to about forty in this section of the country, and there was actually a slight fall of snow at Milton.

We regret to learn that Miss Nellie Furey, youngest daughter of the editor of the Lock Haven Democrat, fell from a ladder on Saturday evening and received severe bruises, being insensible when picked up.

Rev. Daniel Hartman, one of the patriarchs of the Methodist church, and who is now on the list of retired clergymen, reached his 80th birthday day on the 8th inst. He resides at Mill Hall in the full enjoyment of excellent health.

Wayne Station on the P. & E. road is to be rebranded and hereafter will be called McElhattan, to correspond with the name of the post office. There is a Wayne Station on the main line, near Philadelphia, and things get mixed occasionally.

The work on the new Lutheran church building, corner of Allegheny and Linn streets, which last year progressed as far as the completion of the foundation, has made no progress this summer. There seems to be a hitch on the money question.

Mr. John Henry Gripp, employed at the Tyrone Iron Company's works, died on Wednesday last week, of typhoid fever, which ended in congestion of the brain. He was married last February to Miss Esther Ewing, daughter of Mr. Hezekiah Ewing, of Fairbrook, this county, and his remains were interred at the Graysville church last Monday.

A PROFITABLE PEACH CROP.—The Milltown Sentinel and Republican says: Joe James, of Fermanagh, sold his peach crop last Saturday for $4 a box to be delivered at the station. It is estimated his orchard will yield 250 to 350 boxes.

MONEY IN POTATOES.—J. L. Metzger, a farmer in the lower end of Centre county, who attends the market here, left a big potato at this office this morning which measured eight inches in length and six in circumference. It was of the Dunmore variety and Mr. M. says he has already brought 40 bushels of them to market, selling them at a dollar a bushel.—Lock Haven Democrat.

WHEN GAME MAY BE LAWFULLY KILLED.—As fall approaches it is well to republish the legal regulations for the killing of game: Birds—Turkeys, from October 15th to Jan. 1st; ducks and geese, from September 1st to May 15th; plover, from July 4th to Jan. 1st; quail, from Nov. 1st to Dec. 15th; pheasants, from Oct. 1st to Jan. 1st; Animals—deer and elk, from Oct 1st to Dec. 15th; squirrels, from September 1st to Jan. 1st; rabbits, Nov. 1st to Jan. 1st; Fish—Brook or speckled trout, from April 15th to July 15th; lake trout, from Oct. 1st to Jan. 1st; black bass, pike, pickerel and salmon, from June 1st to Jan. 1st; German carp from September 1st to May 1st.

DEATH FROM ICE CREAM.—Sunday morning Al Landis and Miss Mattie Leonard, of this place, drove to the Newton Hamilton camp in a buggy. After arriving there the young lady complained of headache, which continued to grow worse and she asked to be taken home. On the way home her suffering became intense, the pain extending to her heart. Upon reaching McVeytown she could go no further and was carried into Dr. Rothrock's office, where she worked in convulsions until Monday evening when death relieved her. The trouble is said to have been caused by her leaving home without breakfast and eating ice cream at camp on an empty stomach.—Lewisston Gazette.

ELECTROCUTION IN TYRONE.—Councilman Study of Tyrone had big worthless black dog that he wanted to get rid of. He went to the electric light plant and had Superintendent Smith subject him to electrocution. Wet sponges were placed on the head and at the base of the spine of the victim and the connection of the death-dealing wire was made at these points, the operation thus being precisely similar to that in Kemmler's case, except that the human victim was strapped to a chair while the canine had to stand up and receive his medicine. The current was turned on, and the dog was given about five hundred volts. He dropped and died without the slightest knowledge of what hit him. It was a decided success.

JUDGE FURST DECIDES A WILL CONTEST.—The Huntingdon Monitor of last week says.—Judge Furst on Monday rendered a decision in the matter of the will of Isaac Hawn, of Huntingdon county, which will be considered by those contesting the same as the final legal action, and a prompt settlement of the estate of the deceased by the executor will follow.

For two years past the nephews and nieces of Isaac Hawn have been contesting the validity of the will made by the deceased in 1850, and every process of law was resorted to effect a change.

The recent decision of Judge Furst was rendered in answer to the petition of nephews and nieces to set the will aside and grant an issue ordering the case to be tried before a jury. The court refused to grant the issue and ordered that the costs be paid by the petitioners.

JUBILANT PHILIPSBURGERS.—The Republicans of Philipsburg were greatly tickled with the result of the management by which the best of the county convention were given to candidates from that town. The Journal, of that place, published on the day after the nominator's, gives the following account of the ovation with which the successful Philipsburgers were received upon their return home from the convention: "On the return of the successful candidates last night a large crowd was at the station to give them a hearty welcome, notwithstanding the heavy rain that was falling. On the train coming in sight the amateur band made things lively, added to which the lusty cheering of the crowd rendered the scene a very animated one. A procession was formed, headed by Capt. Steel Crissman, the indomitable leader, and the candidates, delegates and a large crowd of admirers, followed to the lively strains of the band. Colored lights were burnt en route. From the steps of the Lloyd House Capt. Fryberger and Major Wolfe in felicitous language, expressed their surprise at the reception that had been accorded them.

The typhoid fever, with which Tusseyville was so grievously afflicted is disappearing. The two patients who are still down with it are on a fair way to recovery.

Clearfield county has greatly increased in population within the last decade, which in 1850 was 43,406, and now amounts to 68,158, an increase of 24,752, or 56 per cent. There are few counties in the State that will make a better showing than this. Of its towns Dubois has increased from 2718 to 6307; Houtzdale from 2070 to 2215; Osceola from 1253 to 1737; Clearfield from 1809 to 2256; Curwensville from 706 to 1651; Bribbin borough erected since 1880, has a population of 1502, and the new borough of Irvona has 1622. The most populous township is Woodward, with 5579 inhabitants.

The 80th anniversary of the birth of E. C. Humes, President of the First National Bank of Bellefonte, occurred last Saturday, he having been born on the 23d of August, 1810. He started his business career in the mercantile business, but for a number of years he has been a leader in the financial movements in this section of the country. Mr. Humes, who is the possessor of large wealth, is not merely a money maker, but is a gentleman of education, he having been graduated at Dickinson college in 1829. He is still quite active and vigorous for a man of his age.

Says the Huntingdon News: "The young man Laporte, who escaped from the Reformatory about six months ago, was arrested in Chicago last week, and brought back on Saturday. Laporte was from Erie, where he was employed on the wharf. After his escape he went to Chicago, and while coming out of a theatre he was recognized by Wilson McClaghry, son of the superintendent, who tried to arrest him, but his comrades rescued him. The police and Mr. Worthy, a former reformatory employe, got on his track and succeeded in capturing him.

The Centre Baptist Association comprising delegates from the Baptist congregations of Centre, Blair, Cambria, Huntingdon and Mifflin counties, will convene in sixtieth annual session at Tyrone, Tuesday morning of next week, September 2, at nine o'clock, and the convention will continue for three days, the day sessions being held in the Baptist church and night sessions in the First Methodist church. There will be about 175 delegates in attendance, who with other visitors will make the number present for the occasion over two hundred persons.

The Democratic convention of Clinton county last Tuesday made the following nominations: Mortimer F. Elliot, of Toza county, for Congress; T. C. Hipple for State Senator; J. C. Zungler for Assembly; John F. Brown for Prothonotary; W. M. Everhart for Sheriff; S. W. Caldwell for County Treasurer; James W. Clark for Associate Judge; H. B. Kleckner and J. F. Brosius for County Commissioners, and W. F. Moyer and H. A. L. Bridgens for Auditors.

Our venerable friend, Mr. Geo. L. Peters, of Unionville, who has been visiting members of his family in Iowa, has returned home with the expectation of spending the remainder of his days here in Centre county. Mr. Peters is firmly convinced that Iowa will be permanently Democratic, and hopes to live long enough to help wrest Pennsylvania from the grasp of the "bosses" who have controlled its policy in the interest of the monopolists and political bosses.

The only surprise that will be expressed at the announcement that T. P. Rynder, the Greenback leader, of Centre county, will be a candidate for state senator, will be caused by the slowness in which Mr. Rynder has progressed with his announcement. There are no off years with Mr. Rynder's candidacy. It is perennial.—Williamsport Sun and Banner.

The Philadelphia Times in a strong article recommends General D. H. Hastings for Director General of the World's Fair at Chicago. It says: "He is in no sense a candidate for the position, and we are not advised of his willingness to accept it; but if Chicago wants to have the most useful Director General within reach, General Hastings will be invited to the task."

Mr. Daniel Garman, proprietor of the Garman opera house, sports a $250 silver mounted set of harness made by Mr. James Schofield, the renowned harness maker of this place. Several years ago he made a $325 set for Mr. H. Brockerhoff. Jim knows how to do this kind of work in addition to doing some fine political work when occasion requires it.

The Republican County convention refused to nominate Col. D. S. Dunham for Commissioner, and to make amends for this slight Judge Furst made him a tipstaff last Monday. No doubt the Colonel feels like stirring up the Republican bosses with the long pole with which he is now armed.

The child of a Hungarian, who is employed below the Forgs, died Saturday morning and while waiting on the undertaker the dead body was laid out on one end of the table while the grandfather of the child and several companions were playing cards on the other end.—Tyrone Herald.

BELLEFONTE DROPS A GAME TO THE P. R. R's.—The long looked for ball game between the Penna. Railroad club of Philadelphia and the Bellefonte's was played on the ball park on Monday afternoon last. By three o'clock, the time at which the game was called, fully two thousand people had gone through the gate—and over the fence—and when the teams appeared on the field they sent up cheer after cheer. The visitors were dressed in natty suits of gray and maroon colors, while the home club wore the combinations for which all our nines are noted. The P. R. R. team is the pennant winner in the suburban League of Philadelphia, which is made up of the best amateur ball talent in the country, and though we succeeded in downing them last year by the score of 21 to 7, the conservative base ball men of our town were not so sanguine of the result this time, as the team pitted as our representatives, the best that could be gotten up, was not as well practiced as the one that won us laurels last season.

Miller, a young catcher, was put in to support Ellenberger for the home team, but it was found necessary to substitute Fahnestock after the second inning, as Miller was unable to hold Ellenberger's swift drops and shoots. Had this change been made at the beginning the result would have been much different.

In the first inning a missed third strike, after two men had been retired, gave a left on which Schurr, Clymer, Winters and Hilderbilde scored. In their half of the first Bellefonte tallied three times on hits by Linn and Atherton and overthrow to first by Clymer.

In the second the visitors added five more runs to their number on Dickie's single and Winters' home run. Bellefonte succeeded in sending Mattern around the bags, but this was their last score, though an opportune hit at several different times during the game would have netted several runs. After the second Ellenberger went to work and our boys played a good up hill game, but the lead was too great to overcome. Philadelphia again scored in third, seventh and eighth inning their score up to thirteen.

The battery work of Denny and Heller, the second base play of Linn, Harvard's crack right fielder and captain, and the brilliant triple of Atherton and Woodcock, after the former had caught a hot line ball, were the features of the game. Fahnestock, the mule catcher, played one of the finest games ever seen on the home grounds, after he was put behind the bat.

The following is the summary:

DEATH OF MRS. MOSES THOMPSON.—Mrs. Mary Thompson, wife of Mr. Moses Thompson, whose death was erroneously announced several weeks ago, died at Centre Furnace, last Friday morning, in her 79 years. She was the daughter of John Irvin, who migrated from Ireland and, after a short residence in Lewisston, settled in Centre county in the latter part of last century and became one of the largest landowners in the county. She was married to Moses Thompson in 1838, and eight children were the result of this union, six of whom survive: Mrs. Dr. T. S. Crist, of Lemont; Mrs. John Hamilton, of State College; John, William and James and Miss Anna Irvin, the last two being unmarried. The deceased was the sister of General James Irvin. She was a lady whose christian virtues and personal qualities secured for her a large circle of loving friends.

LICENSED TO BE MARRIED.—The following marriage licenses were granted by Register Rupp during the past week: Charles Wagoner, of Harrisburg, Pa., and Annie B. Sones, of Harris township; C. S. Whitmer and Sallie Lutz, both of Bennert township; Ira N. From and Annie Dunkle, both of Bellefonte; Speer G. Burrell, of Penn Hall, and Susan R. Horner, of Spring Mills, Pa.; Frank Downing and Carrie Rote, both of Bellefonte; Valentine Koskurko, of Vicker Mines, and Amelia Forberger, of Philipsburg.

G. A. R. ESCAMPMENT.—A G. A. R. encampment will be held at Osceola Mills, Clearfield county, September 9, 10 and 11, 1890. All G. A. R. Posts, Sons of Veterans and old soldiers of the county are invited to be present. Tents provided with straw will be furnished to all comrades, who are requested to bring their blankets and knapsacks.

MUST BE A BORN FOOL.—We don't know exactly who "Dr." Church of Milesburg is, but we understand that he is a young fellow trying to make a living off the people of that vicinity by peddling pills. We are told, however, on what we have every reason to believe to be the best of authority, that while discussing politics a few days ago, on the streets of Milesburg, this pill peddler asserted in the presence of four or five citizens of that place, that the "Democratic party was made up of Catholics and rebels." If this is correct, and it is told us as a fact by one of the best men of that town, we would advise everybody in that neighborhood to steer clear of Dr. Church. A man who is fool enough to make such an assertion has too little brains to doctor a sick dog, and it is not to be wondered at that that community has been having an extra number of deaths of late. "Dr." Church had better pin up his mouth or emigrate.

A FINE SET OF HARNESS.—James Schofield says that, as a general thing, it is only once in a lifetime that lightning strikes in the same place; but fortune seems to strike him every little while—politically and in a business way. Did you see that $250 set of harness that Mr. Daniel Garman sported on Thursday evening? They are the finest set of silver mounted harness this side of Philadelphia, and as fine as any in the city.

Any person desiring a similar set of harness will have to leave their order with Schofield, if they want them home-made, as he is the only man in Central Pennsylvania that can make them. This is the third set of such fine harness that Mr. Schofield has made within 20 years, and they were the only really fine harness ever manufactured in Bellefonte. The first set he made was for Mr. H. Brockerhoff, and which cost $325; the next set was for Mr. T. R. Reynolds—cost $250, and now this set for Mr. Garman—which are really the finest harness of the three sets, but, owing to a decrease in "raw material" Mr. Schofield was able to get them out for $250.

Can any other harness-makers show up a like work? If so, Mr. S. would like to hear from him. In all cases he wants it understood that there was no high tariff on his goods. Mr. Garman had examined harness in the cities, but preferring to encourage home industry, and especially when he could do better at home than abroad by placing his orders with a man in whom he had all confidence, he gave his order to Schofield and now sports the finest set of harness in Centre county.—Daily News.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The August term of Court convened on Monday with more than the usual number of people in attendance. In the criminal business there was a larger number of assault and battery cases than had come before the court at any term in many years. They numbered almost a dozen and should have been settled before they reached court, or, what would have been better, they should never have occurred. The following is a synopsis of the criminal business that engaged the attention of the Court and jury.

Commonwealth vs. Frank Randall and Joseph Burd; malicious mischief. Settled.

Com. vs. Annie Hockenbury, for larceny. Pleading "not guilty" to indictment, but when the case came to trial changed her plea to "guilty." Not yet sentenced.

Com. vs. Joel Barner; assault and battery on Henry Yocum, who is quite an old man. Verdict guilty and defendant sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and cost, and stand committed until sentence is complied with.

Com. vs. Wm. Warner; assault and battery. Settled.

Com. vs. George Weld; assault and battery. The defendant, at Port Matilda, committed the offense on W. S. Port when the latter went to his farm, on which Weld is a tenant, to take some lumber. Fined $20 and costs.

Com. vs. Martin Rusan; assault and battery. Defendant found not guilty and the costs equally divided between him and the prosecutor, Abe Robinson, the prosecutor.

Com. vs. Daniel Robb, for assault and threats. Bill ignored by the grand jury and the costs put on the prosecutor, William Singer.

Com. vs. B. P. Swartz; assault and battery. The prosecutor was C. C. Nestlerode who complained that he had received a blow on the head from a whipstock in the hands of the defendant. Found guilty, but sentence not yet passed.

Com. vs. D. C. Lingle, assault and battery. The offense was alleged to have been committed on Green Decker at the Penns Valley camp meeting some Sundays ago. The defendant pleaded guilty and was held in the sum of $200 to keep the peace towards the prosecutor.

Com. vs. Wm. Reed; charged with selling liquor to minors and to intoxicated persons. The defendant was the young man who was detected in peddling whisky in Bellefonte. The policemen of the town appeared against him. The plea of not guilty was changed to guilty. Not yet sentenced.

Com. vs. M. G. Ardrey, for desertion. Held in bond of $300 recognizance for his appearance at court on the first Tuesday in October.

Com. vs. Charles Watson, f. and b.; Eva E. McKinley, prosecutrix. Defendant acknowledged his guilt and the court imposed the usual sentence.

Com. vs. Wm. H. Cronover; larceny. True bill found by grand jury. Not yet tried at the time of this publication.

Com. vs. A. B. Lucas; larceny as bailie. The action was brought by a Mr. Parsons who averred that after Mr. Lucas left the employment of Mrs. Parsons at the latter's grocery (Mr. Parsons not knowing of his separation from her store) he, Parsons, gave Mr. Lucas $10 to apply on a debt, which money, it is stated, had never reached Mrs. Dornworth. Upon hearing the testimony the court held that it was not a case of larceny as bailie as charged in the indictment.

Com. vs. A. J. Gorton; assault and battery. The defendant, who is an ex-constable of Philipsburg, was charged with having forcibly attempted to kiss Mrs. Elsie Chambers, of that place. The prosecution alleged that the defendant entered the house of Mr. Chambers on the 4th of August; that he knocked and was admitted, remaining about a quarter of an hour; that the street door was closed while he was in the house. The defendant said that he was called in by Mrs. Chambers, and that the door was open while he was inside, and that he remained only about five minutes. In regard to nearly all of the conversation both prosecution and defense agreed. Prosecution stated that the defendant being a one armed man, Mrs. C. opened the door for him to depart, and while she was so doing he grasped her hand, squeezing it so that the ring pressed into the flesh, and solicited a kiss, which was indignantly spurned by the lady. Then he asked her not to be angry and say nothing about it, but she replied that she was very angry and then he made his exit. Defendant denied all this and said that no thought of kissing was in his mind. Several Philipsburg citizens testified to his good character.

The person who took a buggy in mistake from the premises of the Cummings House, in Bellefonte, at the time of the Democratic County convention, on the 12th inst., leaving his own buggy in the place of it, is requested to bring it back as soon as possible, as the owner wants it. G. HAAG.
