

THE RESTORATION OF THE BELLEFONTE ACADEMY.

—In speaking of the meeting of the Medical Society of Centre county in Phillipsburg last week the Ledger of that place says that from some cause the attendance of Physicians from the other side of the mountain was quite slim; the only visitors being Dr. T. Tobin, of Stormstown; Dr. J. F. Wood, of Boalsburg; Dr. J. Y. Dale, of Lemont; Dr. C. S. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and Dr. Jno. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall. The Bellefonte physicians were conspicuous by their absence. Dr. Tobin, president of the society, presided, and Dr. Musser was the efficient secretary. The banquet was held at 11 o'clock, at the Potter House. There sat down to the table the visitors, Drs. Dale, Tobin, Wood Alexander and musser, their Phillipsburg brethren Drs. Potter, McGirk, Dunwiddie, Allport, Harman, Lytle and Andrews. The supper was an excellent one, reflecting credit upon the proprietor of the Potter House.

GIVES SATISFACTION.—The result of the prosecution for assault and battery with intent to kiss, tried in our court last week, the parties being from Phillipsburg, is commented upon by the Journal of that place as follows: 'The verdict of not guilty in the Gorton case has been received by our citizens with the greatest satisfaction. It would not be the first time that a public officer who has been faithful in the discharge of his duty has been the victim of conspiracy, or sought to be made the subject of blackmail. Whether this was a case of that kind we are not prepared to say, but it certainly was the most trivial case that could have occupied the attention of the Court.'

THE NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH.—It has been regretted that work on the new Lutheran church in this place has not been prosecuted this summer, but for some reason there was a suspension of operations. On the 4th of August the contract for brick work was allotted to William Wolf, the slating to the Union Roofing Company, and the lumber, doors and window frames and sash to P. B. Crider & Son. Mr. Wolf, however, having declined to accept the contract awarded to him, the brick work was awarded to Thomas Zeigler, of Lebersburg. This has caused such delay that it was deemed advisable to postpone the work until next Spring when everything will be ready to push it rapidly forward.

MARRIAGE LICENCES.—Following is the list of marriage licences issued during the past week from the Register's office: Elmer Sunday and Sarah C. Kuste, both of Phillipsburg, Pa. Geo. P. Ritch and Susanna Baube, both of Phillipsburg, Pa. Wm. H. Gebret and Maggie Wain, both of Bellefonte, Pa. William Weaver, of Farmers Mills, and Jane Lingle, of Booneville, Pa. Charles M. Wilson and Sophia V. Sanderson, both of Julian, Pa. John T. Fowler and Elizabeth J. Beck, of Warriorsmark, Pa. Allen O. Hosterman and Ora A. Zerby, both of Haines township, Pa.

SHOULD FIETTA WEAVER BE PARDONED?—The Centre Hall Reporter thinks that Fietta Weaver, who is now in the penitentiary for killing her father-in-law, Andrew Weaver, should be pardoned. We think her case should receive some attention. Every one who heard the evidence, when the trial was held, saw it was a clear case of self defense, but, unfortunately for the woman, that plea was not set up, and she was found guilty under the indictment, declaring upon oath that she did not stab the old man Weaver. The verdict of guilty was found upon questionable evidence against her. But the woman was poor and ignorant, and her natural thought was that a denial of having done the stabbing was her only plan to escape conviction, when a plea of self defense would have resulted in her acquittal.

FAMILY REUNION PICNIC.—The children, grand children and great grand children of John Smith, deceased, of Boggs twp, this county, held a reunion picnic, at the school house, on Decker road, in the Seven Mountains on Monday. The families J. A. Hazel, A. Mann, F. V. Jordan, Nittany Valley, Samuel Garrett, Bellefonte, Harry Garrett, Pleasant Gap, Henry, Daniel and John Smith Jr., Reedsville and Samuel Meyers of Yeagertown, Mifflin county were represented. In all matting about forty people and one of the jolliest crowds that has ever assembled on a picnic ground. Old Mrs. Smith the mother, grand and great grandmother was one of the party and, though she is seventy years of age, joined in the merry-making with as much interest as any of the rest.

—Mr. John Anderson has purchased the Turner property on the corner of Bishop and Ridge streets. With some slight repairs this will make one of the most desirable homes in that locality.

Books, Magazines, &c.

The September number of the New England Magazine will be strong in Agricultural articles. James Knapp Revee tells us of the wonderful advance of agricultural schools and traces back to its remotest period the history of agricultural education. Another paper in this series gives a highly interesting treatment of the present condition of the farmer, while an exceedingly bright article with the unique title "Moses in Massachusetts" cannot fail to stir up a good deal of interest especially among the readers of Henry George.

One of the most important features of the coming volume of The Century Magazine will be a series of papers on "Tibet," written by a well-qualified and adventurous American traveler, Mr. W. Woodville Rockhill, formerly of the American Diplomatic Service, who has recently returned from a long and perilous journey through the unknown heart of Asia. For seven hundred miles he passed through a country where no white man had ever set foot, journeying, of course, in disguise. It is only within the last few years that the Chinese have been able to plant themselves in the country, he traveled through, so hostile have the natives always shown themselves.

In the September Number of Harper's Magazine Theodore Child describes a Journey "Across the Andes" along the line of the great Transandine Railway which is soon to connect Buenos Ayres with the Pacific coast. In the Number of the Magazine, Russell Sturgis describes certain "Recent Discoveries of Painted Greek Sculpture." Lieutenant J. D. Jerrold Kelly, of the United States Navy, contributes an article on the "Social Side of Yachting." The superiority of our common wild-flower over the cultured varieties of the conservatory is illustrated with pen and pencil by William Hamilton Gibson. Among the other contents are "The Metric System," by H. W. Richardson, "The Mountain Passes of the Cumberland" by James Lane Allen, and a timely paper by Charles Eliot Norton on "Harvard College in 1890." Daudet's inimitable story of "Fort Tarascon" still holds the first place in the fiction of the Magazine, while among the short stories are contributions by Barnet Phillips, Mary E. Wilkins, Paul Carson, and the author of "Cape Cod Folks." Alfred Parsons continues his illustrations of Wordsworth's poems, by Charles McClure, and a timely paper by Kate W. Hamilton, describes the rescue of an Alaskan child from superstitious members of her own tribe who were about to put her to death as a witch. Boys will enjoy the story of a sharp bit of baseball strategy, "My Triple Play," by Thomas Worthington King.

Other amusing or bright contributions are: "A Little Contraband," by Charles McClure, which is both humorous and pathetic; "Wooden Shoes," an article beautifully illustrated by the author, Anna Page Scott; "Two Surprise Parties," by John Clover, and a great number of clever bits of verse and artist's pictures.

Another September number is packed full of little romances, like the one from a good home to a much-loved boy at boarding school.

Remember how our Saviour saith:— He saith our little boy God's face should see; our child that layeth in the cold, cold earth, our Roy!

—The following letters remain in the Bellefonte post office unclaimed, Sept. 1st, 1890. Antonio Diadiso, Mr. J. Benner, Mr. M. M. Comally, Moristen Diruela, Miss Della Emory, Zeno Ren, Charles McLeanthan, Mr. K. N. Noll, Miss Eva F. Smith, J. Stukof, Mr. David Nise. When called for please say advertised. J. A. FIEDLER P. M.

Why then this sudden flight away!

"Despise not one of these!" In such He spake as if it were crime; Told how soon, in their infancy, Far older were than time.

Too, hath he not most fitly told Where innocents may dwell, Who see God's face in Heaven's fold? To Him the truth may tell.

Why then this sudden flight away!— Shall Roy not care, there The burden of my faith and say, "Father hear my prayer!"

Little Carrie Keturah, daughter of Geo. M. and Fieta Hartner, of Jacksonville, Pa., died on Wednesday, the 20th inst., age one year eleven months and two days. Carrie was a bright little girl, talking when but little over a year old, and attracting attention from visitors however frequent their calls. The little one died of a common complaint and her suffering though brief, lasting less than twenty-four hours, was severe, but she bore it so patiently that a tear was unnoticed, and a murmur unheeded.

The grim minister Death seems fond of those bright little ones who are the joy of the home. With this strange statement ringing in our ears, "In the midst of life we are in death," should we not look to our spiritual welfare and have our lamps trimmed and burning?

Appropriate services were held at the house and in the Lutheran cemetery. The parents have our heartfelt sympathy, and may it be infinitely better to theirs,—consolation in Christ.—"F. A. S."

AWFUL SKIN DISEASE. A LITTLE MASS OF RAW BLEEDING SORES. MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES. A face, from the hair to the neck on both sides, a raw mass of bleeding sores; two little hands and arms in the same condition; a bloody bleeding eruption, and from the hips to the tips of her toes the skin was so raw as to be absolutely insensate to the sight. Such was the frightful condition of the little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stout, of Danville, N. Y., when I first saw her, about two months ago. At that time I was clerking in the drug store of C. W. Woolver, and resolved to try them on her. I could not bear to see the little one suffer as I knew she did. "My little daughter, who has been so afflicted from birth," said Mrs. Stout, "I have had three doctors experiment on her, but she seemed to get no better every day. I was almost distracted. Every night I had to bandage her hands and feet, and the nurses on her hands to prevent her from digging with her fingers. Frequently little 'Rae' would lie on the floor all night sobbing and moaning with pain, which I feared could never be relieved until death ended her suffering. One day Mr. Faulkner stopped in, said he had often noticed my little daughter, and believed that CUTICURA REMEDIES would cure her. He offered to bear the expense, and I resolved to try them, but without much hope, for at that time she was worse than I had ever seen her, and I knew no prospects of recovery. He brought the CUTICURA, CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and CUTICURA SOAP, and I tried them. To-day her skin is smooth and fair, and she is entirely recovered. I wish to express my most grateful thanks to you, Mr. Faulkner, and I refer to Mr. C. W. Woolver, druggist, and to any business man in good standing in Danville.

THE SCHOOLS OF THE BELLEFONTE ACADEMY will open their Fall session on Wednesday, Sept. 10th, in the rooms over the Centre County Bank.

REV. JAMES P. HUGHES, the principal, will have under his care the young men and the primary boys.

MISS JULIA L. REED is expected to assume charge of the young ladies and the primary girls.

MR. J. R. HUGHES, Will continue to teach the classical and modern languages. All the primary classes will be taught by the different teachers of the school. Pupils in town wishing to pursue special studies in the Academy can make convenient and satisfactory arrangements with the principal.
