

The members of Bellefonte Assembly No. 2333, Knights of Labor, will hold their annual Fall E'en Ball, Friday evening, October 31st.

Joseph Davis, a young man of about 21 years of age, and who was employed in loading lime at Morris' lime kilns, in this place, dropped over dead, from heart disease, on Wednesday morning.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.—George Chambers was arrested at Snow Shoe last Friday on a charge of having stolen a sum of money amounting to $150 from a trunk belonging to a son of Mrs. Nolan, proprietress of the hotel at that place. He is now in jail awaiting trial.

At a meeting of Encampment 59, Union Veteran Legion, on Wednesday evening, Comrade W. H. Musser was unanimously elected delegate to the annual encampment of the Legion at Fort Wayne, Ind., on October 8th and 9th. Comrade S. B. Wyland was elected an alternate.

The Union Sunday school picnic, composed largely of the United Brethren, which was held at Chestnut Grove, on the 12th inst., was a complete success. Although the day was damp the people gathered with their children, bringing baskets well filled with good things. The dinner was served between 1 and 2 o'clock. The afternoon was spent in having a general good time. Among the interesting features of the occasion was the exhibition of some curiously grown wood, twisted into singular forms and shapes. Among other interesting articles exhibited was a barlow knife bearing the date of 1760, making it 130 years old. It had the letters N. T. & S. stamped on the handle. These relics are in the possession of Valentine Reese, an old resident of the neighborhood.

Unionville Items.

Father Fisher's apple crop is a complete failure.

We have an infant paper-wood industry; send up a little more protection.

Nearly all of the summer visitors have returned to their city homes.

The fever which at one time threatened to become epidemic has almost disappeared.

Supervisor Jaron has a force of men engaged in making improvements on the streets.

A number of Unionville people were employed away from home during the summer.

George Towell has returned from Baltimore where he was under treatment for a chronic ailment.

Travelers on the mountain road experience delights which cannot be equaled on General Wahner's rattle-dazzle.

Since the death of his wife, J. W. Hoover has discontinued his business in this place, having moved all the merchandise to his store at Scotia.

The children are solemnly sharpening pencils with a view of drawing portraits of the teachers who will open school here next Monday.

John W. Storer has placed a small dark room in front of his jewelry store to enable him to photograph views and groups for amusement. Mr. Storer is an old photographer, and a good one, but his age prevents him from resuming business operations.

The attempt of the Gazette to create the impression that A. J. Griest would, out of petty spite, use his influence against a Democratic candidate, shows a low propensity to misrepresent, or evince an entire ignorance of this gentleman's character. The editor ought to know the folly of publishing such rot. If the many distortions of the Gazette were original, we might possibly have respect for its genius; but as it apparently only copies the methods of others, we can have for it nothing but contempt.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Our friend, W. E. McWilliams, is confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Dr. L. C. Thomas and family of Westmoreland county, are visiting relatives in this and Huntingdon county, all looking well.

Our Nimrods are doing a good deal of game killing, or a good deal of make believe, as we have heard of few being bagged.

Our mutual friend, Dr. A. J. Orndorff, of Greensburg, Pa., accompanied by his wife, tarried awhile in our town greeting hosts of old acquaintances. They were on their way to pay, probably, the last visit to his aged mother, near Spring Mills, as she was reported as being at death's door.

Two of our sprightly young farmers, Newt Hess and Simon Musser, while at Williams Grove picnic inspecting the different varieties of machinery, was so well pleased with a new traction engine and Giesler thresher that they had it shipped immediately ready for service to whoever may give them a call.

Our Pine Grove club to the front. While the cheers of last Saturday were still ringing in their ears and the vision of a large crowd of spectators before their eyes, the Greenwood club again attempted to trip into the harness and carry off the laurels. But from a base ball standpoint this was a failure. Although the past record shows that both clubs played about equally well as regards fielding and batting, heretofore the Greenwood club managed their game and bunched their hits unconscious of their opponent's errors, so that at the finish of the several previous games they had the better of the game by one run. But in the game played on our home field on Saturday last, our home team regained its former reputation and came out best, seven to nineteen. This ends the playing for this season here.

In a recent issue of your paper you mentioned the injury Mr. Albert Ingot received while in the act of undermining a fall of several tons of clay by which he was caught and internally hurt. Death relieved his sufferings on the 15th inst. He was immediately taken to the hospitable home of his father-in-law, C. H. Struble, where his wants were attended to and all that kind hands and loving hearts could do was done for him by his young wife and family. With the deceased we had but a slight acquaintance, he having come from Kansas recently and married Miss Sallie Struble. He was engaged as an engineer, known by his fellow workmen as a good, industrious, trustworthy gentleman. His untimely death is a sad blow to his young widow who can but look to him who does all things for his own glory. His remains were laid to rest in the Pine Grove cemetery on the 17th inst., where many had gathered to view the last of one just in the prime of life, and drop a sorrowing tear over his tomb.

D. N. Young, Esq., and wife, both old timers, of our town, were seen on our streets greeting their old associates. They were summoned here by a message to attend the funeral of Mr. Young's uncle, the venerable Henry Bloom, one of our old land marks, who died on the 13th inst., at the residence of his son-in-law, Albert Hoy, at State College, from disease incident to old age. Mr. Bloom was born in Buffalo Valley, Union county, May 1st, 1826. When he was 12 years old his father moved to this county, to near Earleystown, and from there moved on to the farm now occupied by Mr. James Foreman. But for the last half a century he lived and reared his family a mile and a half north of this town, on the White Hall road, where health and honest toil enabled him to acquire a good farm which he kept in most fertile condition. Mr. B. was noted for his affable, plain, courteous manner. He was honorable in his business from principle, and a firm advocate of justice and right. Politically he was a Jeffersonian Democrat. Religiously, a German Reformer, to which church he consecrated himself in early life, and when health permitted, was ever in his place in the sanctuary. His wife preceded him to the grave some 15 years ago, he remaining a widower to the close of his life. Mrs. Albert Hoy and Mrs. Wm. Garner administered to his wants in his declining years. The remains of the aged father were laid out of sight in the Pine Grove cemetery on Sunday afternoon, 14th inst., attended by a large number of people. Rev. A. B. Boyer, assisted by Rev. C. T. Aikens, performed the funeral ceremonies. Rev. Hisek took for his text "If a man die can he live again?" The Rev. gentleman, in eloquent and forcible language, portrayed the blessings in store for God's people who live and work in the Master's vineyard to enjoy the blessing in the kingdom above. The deceased's two daughters, Mrs. Hoy and Mrs. Garner; two sisters, Mrs. Dennis, aged 91 years, and Mrs. Moore, near 80 years, survive one whose work was well done in the family, in the church and in the community. To all he was loyal and true.

The following letters remain in the Bellefonte Post Office unclaimed, September 22nd, 1890.

Jennie Bird, John B. Clark, Sallie Conrad, Jennie Davis, Mrs. Willie Foreman, Esther Holt, Jacob Baymer, Sarah Joslin, Charles W. Lee, Maud Porter, Richard E. Paeker, Andrew Rough, Adam Shugar, Jimmial Tressler, Louis Ward, Mary Wilson, Capt. A. Wishart. When called for please see advertiser.

Howard Happenings.

The large double house which Mrs. Hewes is having built is nearing completion and will soon be ready for tenants.

Some of the people of this place were asked what they would rather be, the answer would invariably be "a second class school teacher."

Several of our young men and ladies hid themselves to Bellefonte on Thursday night Sept. 11th, to see Frank Mayo play "Nordeck" in Garmans's new opera house.

Mr. Wm. Jenkins, superintendent of the Iron Works of this place, who now lives at the works, intends moving to town in the near future, in B. Weber's new house.

A very quiet wedding took place in town on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 10th, in the marriage of Mr. Wm. Custard, of near Clintonville, and Miss Minnie Smetzer, of this place. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride on Main St., Rev. Geo. King officiating. The couple took the 4.48 train the same evening and started on their tour.

An effort is being made to secure more stock in the 5th wheel manufacturing business for the purpose of enlarging the building and getting more machinery here, instead of moving it to Lynchburg, Va., where they had intended locating. Should they be unable to get people to take the required amount of stock they will direct their efforts to do so in another locality.

One more safe—the race is run, Bright and brighter was the sun Till the shining noonday glow ed O'er the pilgrim's heavenward road. Winter's cold and sun's bright rays, Yet a few more flowers to dress Earth's politic wilderness.

Then sound the bell-towers tomb Light from heaven shall cheer the gloom, When the prison home shall shake First the dead in Christ shall wake.

SHOPE.—Onesie, daughter of Daniel and Madeline Shope, died of diphtheria, Res. 15th, 1890, aged 5 years, 1 month and 25 days. We lay them in thy silent tomb, Sweet blossom of a day, We but began to view thy bloom When thou wast called away.

This lovely child thou turn From our fond home away, With silent grief is gently borne To its lone bed of clay.

But thou shalt yet in beauty bloom And plant in Paradise, And gladden with a sweet perfume Our mansion in the skies.
