

Henry C. Lee Talks to Delamater Again.

He Wants Him to Explain or Resign.

The following letter has been sent to Senator Delamater, the Republican candidate for Governor, by Henry C. Lee, of Phila., who, though a strong Republican and one of the most vigorous of Harrison's supporters in the last Presidential election, refuses now to support his party's State ticket.

Hon. George Wallace Delamater—Sir: As candidate before the people of Pennsylvania for the highest office within their gift, your personal character has unfortunately a matter of grave concern to the community.

Last Friday a week, in a public address at Bradford, Mr. Emery repeated his charges in greater detail, and produced a portion of the evidence on which they are based.

"Having proved Mr. Delamater a briber by direct and circumstantial evidence, and his own course being a matter of record, it follows that he is a perjurer."

"If Mr. Delamater will bring me into the Courts I will assume to supply the evidence to thoroughly convict him in the public mind, or suffer the consequences. I take this defiant attitude because I know many men of high character whose lips will willingly unseal when brought before a bar of justice, who now refrain from public utterance because of a mistaken delicacy."

The first impulse of an honest man thus arraigned before his fellow-citizens for crimes unfiting him for association with honest men would be to bring his defamer to justice.

Mr. Emery is amply responsible, and if he should seek to delay the trial of the issue you will at least have shown that you do not fear to face the evidence in his hands or to trust yourself to a jury of your countrymen.

Nor is this all, for it seems that by violating the Constitution which you had sworn to uphold you have rendered yourself ineligible for the office to which you aspire.

The making of profit out of the public moneys or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer of the State or member or officer of the General Assembly, shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided by law, but part of such punishment shall be disqualification to hold office for a period of not less than five years."

Your thirty exertion of influence, in your capacity of a member of the General Assembly, to secure large deposits of the public moneys in your capacity of a banker, in order that you might make a profit out of them, as is customary with bankers, would seem to bring unquestionably within the disqualifying clause of the Constitution.

The courts may yet have to decide whether you can fill the gubernatorial chair in case of your election, but whether they are appealed to or not for a decision, the mere spectacle of a candidate for the Governorship of Pennsylvania forced to resort to such subterfuges shows the depths of humiliation to which the Quay domination has brought the great Republic.

Already General Hastings has announced himself as a candidate for Governor four years hence.

That Mr. HARRISON isn't going to do anything to help Speaker REED in his Presidential ambition is evidenced by his turning down REED's man for collector at Portland.
