

The Labor Ticket a Fraud. A Labor Leader's View of the Ticket Gotten Up by Rynder in the Interest of Delanater.

LATROBE, September 23. Collis Lovely has just returned from Philadelphia, where he was called by T. P. Rynder to assist in naming a State Labor ticket. Mr. Lovely is a member of the Knights of Labor, and is a recognized labor advocate in Westmoreland county. He says T. P. Rynder, the self-constituted chairman of the defunct Union Labor party, is a fraud, and the ticket named at the Philadelphia meeting last week is a false pretense.

In speaking of the convention, Mr. Lovely said to day: "The alleged convention was composed of seven or eight men. Each particular man of those present had been summoned just as I had been. We were all anxious to know why the convention was not called in the regular way, and we were all told by Mr. Rynder it was not expedient. Mr. Rynder expected me early in September by appointment. He then told me of his scheme to nominate a labor ticket. He assured me he would put into the light out of his own pocket $600. He also said he had an uncle who would help him and put more money into the campaign.

"He told me that he had been in every county in the State and had arranged for a delegate from each county. Mr. Rynder did not offer me money direct but I inferred from what he said and from his peculiar movements that there would be money if I went to Philadelphia last week on an excursion ticket sent me by Mr. Rynder. It was furnished from the State Republican headquarters. When we assembled at the Girard House in Philadelphia, Mr. Rynder made a glowing speech. He said he had written the last begging letter to those who ought to be in sympathy with us and with striking employes. He announced: 'I will personally stand responsible for expense of campaign and will put up the money for the fight.'

"I know Rynder to be as poor as Job's turkey and I know he intends to get what money he uses from the Republican State committee. Mr. Rynder wanted me to visit State Chairman Andrews, but I refused. 'Do you know of any money being offered any of the delegates?' was asked Mr. Lovely. 'Yes, I know that Mr. McGarvey, of Carbon county, was offered two hundred dollars if he would allow the use of his name for Lieutenant Governor. I also know that Colonel Luce was offered five dollars a day and expenses to stump the State.'

The Hoodie Fund. Just think of it. The Republican campaign fund is to be $400,000, and Cameron has already given $100,000. It has become a mere question of hoodie with the Republican leaders. They know they cannot win in any other way.—Lock Haven Democrat.

What would Grover Cleveland have said had he been asked to sign a tariff bill that increases the expenses of every poor man? He would have said, 'Away with it; never let me see it again!' But Mr. Harrison, our Republican President, signed it, and 'his hand didn't tremble a bit.'

The Canada Thistle Pest.

EDITOR OF WATCHMAN. Sir: The continued spread of the Canada thistle over this county is a matter greatly to be deplored, and should excite more interest in our farmers, since this pest is comparatively recent introduction, and is not yet acquired so strong a hold but that it can be eradicated by a small expenditure of time and labor. All that is necessary is a little united effort at stated periods and for a few years. The date of the introduction of the Canada thistle in the region is probably unknown, but in the neighborhood of the State College they were first seen by the writer about twenty years ago. At the present time, while they are widely scattered they are generally in this neighborhood at least in patches covering only a few square rods. While these patches may have been started from wild swards seeds it is much more probable that they have come from grain and clover seed imported from districts where the thistle is a common plant. These facts are of value as showing how slowly the plant spreads in the early stages of its occupation of new territory, and consequently how important it is to nip its progress in the bud. It has sometimes been assumed that the Canada thistle will not grow in our heavy limestone land, but it seems much more probable that the only effect of the heavy soil is to somewhat retard its spread, and that it is slow to increase until it occupies every available field, unless some more vigorous measures are taken to prevent it. Our 'thistle' law is very good indeed, so far as it goes, but it seems to assume that the plant is an injury only through the seeds which it disseminates. Any one who will take the trouble to examine the plant will find that the underground parts are quite fleshy, extend nearly through the ground, and the young individuals are propagated from these even after they have been broken up into small pieces. It is by this means that a single plant increases even though the top is not allowed to mature seeds. Many farmers who are quite careful to mow off the tops to prevent seeding give no after thought to the plants. The patches slowly increase in size, and are occasionally by harrows and other means small pieces are removed to near points where they root and serve as centres of new growth. Canada thistle should not be only cut down but also dug out. If this had been done when they first appeared there would be none in the county today. It is not too late to do it yet. Small patches should be dug over with a spade the larger ones plowed out, and every part of the plant, no matter how small, picked up and burned. Do the work as thoroughly as possible, and with a few repetitions they will be either entirely destroyed or rendered so weak as to be of little injury.

The main purpose of this letter is to suggest some remedial action of this kind. Is it too much trouble and will it cost too much? It is no more trouble than many other things which have to be done on a farm, and will cost no more. If this neglect goes on ten years more it will be to attempt a remedy. Now it is not too late. Land owners should require tenants to destroy this pest just as they require them to keep up the fences, and every one who is interested in farming should turn out before the season has closed and thoroughly destroy all thistle on his property and the roads adjacent to it. Let me suggest that on the coming Arbor day (October 24) all who can do so will not only plant some trees which shall grow to be ornamental and useful, but will also dig or plough out and burn all Canada thistle. Let it be done again in the spring, and as often thereafter as may be necessary. It is perfectly feasible now, and will pay.

It is gratifying to see that our farmers have a wholesome fear of this pernicious weed. It is well founded. But do not stop with cutting the tops to prevent their seeding. That is a good measure, but only a half one. Destroy both root and branch.

Rep. Yours, B. Agricultural Ex. Station, State College Pa.

Pine Grove Mentions. The Patten ranks are still increasing and a good report from Ferguson will be heard on November 4th.

Hon. Leonard Rhoads and wife spent several days very pleasantly and socially in this section last week.

The members of 270, L. O. of O. F. of this place, were in attendance at the Magnolia Dedication services this week at Phillipsburg.

J. M. Keichline, one of Bellefonte's legal lights, accompanied by his wife and interesting little family, spent Sunday in this place with his venerable parents.

Notwithstanding the sobriety of some of our boys who attended the late political meeting at Bellefonte, some of them were left to return by the a. m. train next morning.

Our young friend, Ira C. Ward, recently bid adieu to his friends and best girl prior to taking his departure for Chicago, where he will continue his course in a dental college.

Major J. I. Ross, of Lemont, is spending some of his business time in our town, superintending the repairing of the old Sample corner, which, when finished, will present rather a neat appearance.

Road men Fye and Gates are and have been putting the roads in good repair before the bottom falls out. There are still some stone piles left unbroken for barriers in case of snow drifts.

The late mails have brought a number of wedding cards for the marriage of Miss Ida Hezlep, who has many friends and admirers here. The nuptials will be performed in the St. John's church, Williamsport, on the 15th inst.

Our agricultural friend, D. G. Meek, accompanied by his wife and several of her lady friends, recently visited the Canadian shores, viewing the sights around and about the great falls we think likely D. G. was looking for free wool, which he found to be as scarce there as here.

Mr. John Bloom is now acting as molasses slugging in Ely's store in this place. John has spent some nine years west, mostly in Kansas. But in the last year he was engaged in the bot. ting of mineral water at the Amiteo springs, Colorado. From his tenor he intends remaining in the old Keystone State, at least during the coming winter. His family will also soon put in their appearance.

We deeply regret to note the death of little Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormick. The death of this bright little girl is the first break in the family circle, and is a crushing blow to her fond parents. Her life though short, bright and beautiful, at the age of five years was transferred from earth to the realms of bliss, for of such is the kingdom of heaven. In this hour of bereavement the afflicted family have our deepest sympathy. The interment took place on Monday p. m., at Pine Hill cemetery.

Death of J. G. Tobin. Snow Snow, Oct. 13, 1890. J. G. Tobin, of this place, died on Sunday evening, Oct. 5th, of typhoid fever. It was a great shock to his many friends when the word went forth that Jim, as he was familiarly called, was no more. Hard was it to realize that Jim was dead, he who had walked among us so shortly before in health, joyful, full of hope with prospects of a long life before him. In a short two weeks cut down by that fell destroyer, death, at the age of thirty-two years. Everything to live for. A loving wife and little daughter, venerable parents, brothers and sisters, and a host of friends mourn his loss.

Jim was a good citizen, kind to all, both old and young, always ready to perform a kind act, of a genial disposition, courteous and gentlemanly, full of energy, as his life testified. Little did we think when Jim complained of being unwell that it would result in his death. With a good constitution we consoled ourselves that the battle for life was in his favor, but something arose in the struggle for supremacy and death came off victor. His funeral took place Wednesday, Oct. 8th, at 9 a. m. from his late residence. His remains were followed by a large number of sympathizing friends to the Catholic church where services were held, and then borne tenderly to the tomb. Peace to his ashes. A FRIEND.

Died. RICE.—George Blair Rice was born, March 17, 1870, died, September 15th, 1890, aged 20 years, 6 months and 9 days. Blessed are the dead who sleep in the Lord. At the regular meeting of Camp No. 447, P. O. S. of A., September 24th, 1890, the following resolutions were passed.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our ranks our esteemed and well beloved brother, George Blair Rice, an upright and honest member; Therefore, in view of the loss sustained by our camp and those nearest and dearest to him, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to His supreme will we nevertheless deplore and keenly feel the loss of a true brother.

Resolved, That his death our camp has sustained a severe loss; a name has been stricken from the rolls which can never be replaced; a vacancy has been caused in our ranks and a gloom pervades the camp room, but that which has been our loss we hope and trust, be his eternal gain, and that the true brother and earnest member of our camp has only left the camp here below to join the great camp above.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters in their sore distress, and in faith commend them to the God of all comfort and consolation.

Resolved, That as a token of regard and in memory of our beloved brother, the charter of our camp be draped for a period of thirty days and a copy of these resolutions be placed on the minutes, and a copy be presented to the family.
