

Wanamaker Reversed Him.
The Bellefonte Postmaster Was Too Zealous in Quay's Behalf.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—Postmaster Fiedler, of Bellefonte, Pa., who refused to send through that office copies of the Centre County Democrat, because it contained a supplement to the New York World's charges against Senator Quay, was to day turned down by the Postmaster General. Mr. Wanamaker decided that, as this matter was used in the shape of a supplement to the local paper at Bellefonte, it was, under the laws, entitled to be sent through the mails.

The general opinion among the Republicans here is that Postmaster Fiedler made a very serious political blunder in attempting to prevent the distribution of the local paper. It is thought that Fiedler was certain that the Post Office Department would sustain him, but he got badly left. Although this is something of a local matter to Pennsylvania, it has caused a great deal of comment in Washington, owing to the fact that attention is forcibly drawn to the method by which the serious charges against Senator Quay are being distributed broadcast through the State in which such an animated gubernatorial campaign is now progressing.

Since the above was put in type, Mr. WANAMAKER has reversed Mr. WANAMAKER, and by this reversal sustains Postmaster FIEDLER. The truth is, the whole matter was a "tempest in a teapot." Mr. KUZZ had no idea of violating any of the postal regulations, and Postmaster FIEDLER did not decide as he did, for the purpose of stopping the circulation of a Democratic paper. It was simply a misunderstanding as to what constituted a legal "supplement," and Mr. FIEDLER having been sustained, the Democrat, knowing now what the law is, will comply with it to the letter by printing the words "Supplement to Democrat" across the head, and making the date of its publication correspond with this week's issue, and will circulate as it intended to do last week.

A Word From a Republican to Democrats.

ED. WATCHMAN:
Being satisfied that if the voters of Centre county were properly informed as to a few facts in Galer Morrison's history his success at the coming election would be assured, I therefore ask the use of a little space in the columns of your paper that the voters of the County may know that there is not a nomination on the Ticket of either of the parties more worthy of their support than he is. The facts are as follows:

Galer Morrison was born, Jan 15th, 1868. He met with an accident which brought on hip joint disease, the result being that he walked on crutches for several years but finally recovered so far as to be able to walk with assistance of a staff, which is his present condition. His father, James Morrison, from hard work and exposure lost his health about the year 1872, so far as to be unable to earn wages at manual labor. The alternative is now apparent. Galer, young and crippled as he was, must support the family which consisted of father, mother and one sister, otherwise they would have to be charges on other people. To this work Galer then applied himself, and right manfully and heroically did he struggle, and I am happy to say successfully, too, for the family was not only supported, but furnished with all the necessary substantial and comforts of life. All this he has done and is still doing so far as necessary. The mother having died some years ago, and the sister having married more recently, relieves him of much of the burden.

I will add further that he is capable and honest, and fully equipped for the proper discharge of the duties belonging to the office to which he aspires. His educational advantages, it is true, were very limited, but by his industry and close application to his studies, with the aid of one term at the county Normal, he qualified himself for teaching and has carried for several years a permanent certificate.

I will add further that I am what Democrats used to call a Black Republican, having never voted anything but the Republican ticket, and never intend to whenever principles are involved; but had you seen, as I have seen, Gaylor Morrison, in 1876, plodding along some four miles through all kinds of weather and the worst kind of roads, crippled and disabled, to reach his school that he might earn something for himself and parents, you could understand why even a Black Republican can vote for him. A REPUBLICAN.
