

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Court opened on Monday morning with an unusually large attendance. Upon its opening the counsel for John Wilson, the man held for the murder of Harry Waterhouse, petitioned for a change of venue where the case could be tried in some other county. The reason offered was that the newspapers had so biased the minds of the people of the county that it would be impossible to give the man an impartial trial. The court refused to grant the petition, there being no law covering the case, and it was given to the grand jury.

In the case of the commonwealth vs Charles Hollingsworth, charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons, District Attorney Meyer moved for the discharge of the prisoner through the "habeas corpus" rule, there being insufficient evidence to hold him. The prisoner was discharged.

On Tuesday morning an application was made to the Court for the continuance of the Wilson homicide trial for the reason that W. F. Reader, one of the counsel for the prisoner, was ill and unfit to take an active part in the proceedings. Upon consideration the court granted the request, and ordered the trial to be postponed until January term, 1891.

Jasper Steel was sentenced to pay the cost of prosecution and a fine of one hundred dollars, and stand committed until the sentence be complied with, for an assault upon Anos straw last May.

The grand jury found a true bill against John Wilson for the murder of Harry Waterhouse. The bill will stand over for trial at the January term.

Com. vs. Wm. Hoover, f and b. Pleading guilty and the usual sentence imposed.

Com. vs. Charles Garis, f and b. Guilty, with the same sentence as in the Hoover case.

Com. vs. Luther Kline. Rape and fornication. Verdict, not guilty of rape, but guilty of fornication. Sentenced to pay $100 fine, cost of prosecution, and imprisonment until sentence is complied with.

Com. vs. Albert Hoffman. Larceny. Pleading not guilty and the court appointed Wm. E. Gray, esq., to defend him.

Com. vs. Gertrude Quick. Larceny. True bill found, but the verdict rendered was not guilty.

Com. vs. Albert Hoffman. Larceny as bailor. After hearing of evidence prisoner pleaded guilty.

Com. vs. John S. Zimmerman and John M. Parker charged with violating the fish laws. Grand jury ignored the bill and put the costs on the county.

Com. vs. Daniel Keefe. Larceny. Bill ignored and county for costs. The prisoner however was retained to answer charges for an attempt the break jail, and for assault and battery, both offenses having been committed while an inmate of the Bellefonte jail.

On Tuesday the Court issued an order for the drawing of 52 petit jurors to serve the first week of the January court; also an order that the Jury Commissioners of Centre county meet and put the names of "650 sober and intelligent and judicious persons" in the jury wheel to serve as jurors during the year 1891.

The court proceedings were not closed when we went to press.

TEACHERS' COUNTY INSTITUTE.—County Superintendent of public schools, Prof. D. O. Eiters, has completed his arrangements for the holding of the Teachers' Institute of Centre county, which will convene in the court house, Bellefonte, on Monday, December 15th, and continue in session five days. Superintendent Eiters has shown good judgment in the selection of the corps of instructors for the occasion. The day instructors are as follows:

Dr. E. E. White, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. E. O. Lyte, of Millersville Normal; Mrs. M. C. Eastman, of the Courtland (N. Y.) Normal; Prof. W. A. Buckhout, State College; Dr. G. G. Grand, Bucknell University; Prof. Langford L. Thompson, of Jersey City, N. J., and Prof. G. G. Pond, State College.

The following are the evening instructors:

Monday evening—Lecture—"Formation of Character," Dr. E. E. White, of Cincinnati, O.

Tuesday evening—Entertainment—Ariel-Thomson Concert Company, of Boston.

Wednesday evening—Lecture—"Old Times and New," Col. James P. Sanford, Marshalltown, Iowa.

Thursday evening—Lecture—"Realistic Scenes from Paris to Pompeii," Prof. A. M. Hammers, Indiana, Pa.

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT.—Among the changes that have been made in this end of town lately none have been better or more attractive looking than the addition of plate glass fronts has been to the large grocery store of Sechler & Co. The change gives Mr. Sechler's store an entirely different appearance and now it looks both handsome and inviting. There could have been nothing which would have made a greater improvement. The new front gives much more light and affords better opportunity for the display of his large and choice stock.

Books, Magazines, etc.

The Christmas edition of the Cosmopolitan Magazine is one hundred thousand copies. The order, as originally given to the printers, was for 85,000 copies, but while on the press it was thought advisable to increase the number to 100,000.

It contains a feature never before attempted by any magazine, consisting of 123 cartoons from the brush of Dan Beard, the now famous artist, who did such wonderful illustrations in Mark Twain's book, "The Yankee at the Court of King Arthur."

These cartoons are placed at the bottom of each page of the magazine, and take for their subject, "Christmas during the eighteen Centuries of the Christian Era," with variations, showing the way in which we modern Christians carry out some of the chief texts of the Christian Gospel.

Above, and at each side of the page, is a quaint border, the whole effect being novel and extremely pleasing, and with the unusually varied table of contents, will make such a Christmas number as is worthy to go into 100,000 households.

The frontispieces of the Cosmopolitan have of late become noted for their beauty, some of them having as much as four printings. That for Christmas, while in but two printings, is not behind anything that has preceded it in artistic merit.

An excellently illustrated article is one on teapots, by Eliza Rahamah Saldano. Literary Boston is treated with numerous portraits and an article, which comes with the nineteenth birthday of Van Mook, sketches the life of the great Field Marshal in an interesting way and is by Gen. James Grant Wilson. Elizabeth Bistand has one of her charming articles.

The Christmas issue contains 228 illustrations nearly double the number that have ever appeared in any illustrated magazine.

ON THE TIDAL WAVE.
 The Great Weekly Newspaper of the Family, the Merchant, the Farmer and the Mechanic.
 1891—THE PITTSBURGH POST—1891

All the News, Literary Department, Great Serial Novels, Political Comments, Social Happenings, Racy Correspondence, With the Most Thorough and Reliable Market Reports Printed.

The year 1891 promises to be one of great interest at home and abroad to newspaper readers. The Pittsburgh Weekly Post is the largest, as is admitted by one of the best Democratic weekly papers in the Union. Each issue contains twelve pages, or four more than the usual size of city weeklies. With increasing facilities in gathering and printing the news, it will meet the demands of the coming year and entertain and interest its readers as never before.

POLITICAL.—The closing year has been crowned by unparalleled Democratic victories in the State and nation. With the new year Governor Pattison will enter on his duties. The ground work of the great Presidential battle of 1892 will be laid this year. Congress and the State Legislature will be in session. The Weekly Post will gather all the political news so important to every well informed Democrat, and will discuss it with fairness and candor from the standpoint of Democratic Principles.

LITERARY.—During the year this department of the Weekly Post will be of unsurpassed value and interest to the family circle. Several romances by the foremost authors of the day will succeed each other in the form of any one of them will cost a year's subscription. Valuable miscellaneous, choice poetry, humorous sketches will add their attractive complete record of the world's history we give each week. Correspondence from the nation and State capitals, New York and other American cities, as well as from Europe, by able writers, will add great interest to this department by life-like descriptions of men and events.

THE MARKETS.—The Weekly Post for years has had a reputation with country and city merchants and dealers for its full and reliable market reports, bringing telegraphic quotations down to the day of publication. Its careful and accurate market are especially commended.

TO SUM UP.—It is the aim to make the Weekly Post a net-work for every farmer, an honest and faithful guide in politics, and in all respects a readable, bright and new journal of which subscribers as well as publishers may take an honest pride.

PREMIUMS.—It is impossible to include in this announcement our premium list for subscribers. Send by postal card for a copy. The list includes valuable books, as well as cash premiums.

THE DAILY POST.
 No one who desires to be well informed and abreast of the times can do without this daily or weekly paper, bringing him in close touch with the whole world of business, industry, finance, legislation and politics.
 The Pittsburgh Daily Post prints all the news. Terms for The Daily Post:
 By mail, one year, $4; postage prepaid; six months, $4; three months, $2; one month, 70c. Send for sample copy.

THE WEEKLY POST.

 In clubs of five or over, postage prepaid, one year, $1.
 An extra copy or its cash equivalent, for every club of ten subscribers. Send for free sample copy. Address THE POST PUBLISHING CO., Pittsburg, Pa.

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE.—For the coming year will be noteworthy for a number of special features which the Publishers believe are of very unusual interest, and among them the following may be mentioned:—

 contributes to the December number the first of a series of four Articles upon Japan, its people, its ways, and its thoughts. Mr. Robert Blinn, who was commissioned to go to Japan for Scribner's Magazine, has prepared a very remarkable series of drawings to illustrate Sir Edwin's papers. Articles upon the recent Japanese Festival will follow, illustrated by Mr. Blinn.

HENRY M. STANLEY
 has prepared for the January number an important article upon "The Pinnacles of the Great African Forest." Another contribution in this field will be Mr. J. Scott Keltie's account of the recent African Exhibition held in London. Both papers will be amply illustrated.

THE WRECKER.
 A Serial Novel by Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Osbourne, will run through a large part of the year. Illustrated by Hole. A two-part story by Frank R. Stockton will also appear.

PROF. JAMES BRYCE, M. P.
 author of "The American Commonwealth," will write a series of Four Articles upon India, embodying the results of his recent journey and studies on this land of never-ending interest.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS
 will be the subject of an important series somewhat upon the lines of the successful Railroad Articles, "Passenger Travel," "The Life of Officers and Men," "Ship and Safety Lessons," and "Management," are some of the subjects touched upon and illustrated.

GREAT STREETS OF THE WORLD. is the title of a novel collection of articles on which the author and artist will collaborate to give the characteristics of famous thoroughfares. The first, on Broadway, will be written by Richard Harding Davis, and illustrated by Arthur B. Frost. Others will follow on Piccadilly, London; Boulevard, Paris; The Corso, Rome.

The price of Scribner's Magazine admits of adding a subscription to one's other reading at very small cost. Orders should be sent at once.
