Bellefonte, Pa., December 5, 1890

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—As I contemplate a change in my business, by the 1st of March, I now offer my entire stock of clothing and gents furnishing goods regardless of cost. This is no humbug, but a straight offer.

SIMON LOEB,

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

Bellefonters who have been away from home for some time are beginning to gather in for Christmas.

Lock Haven is going to have an electric light plant. It is a little late, but not too late to turn on the light.

It seems too bad that a plant employing as many men as the Centre Iron Co. did, should be forced to lie idle at this season of the year.

A freight wreck at Martha Furnace delayed trains on the B. E. V. on Wednesday. About twelve cars were in the smash up.

A number of the smaller orchards throughout the county have shut down for the winter. The cold weather makes it impossible to work them.

We are glad to announce that the Eureka Grocery Co., of Bellefonte, has reopened its doors for business, after a forced suspension of about one week.

The banking house of Johnston, Bush & Co., at Ebensburg, was closed on Saturday, and the bank of the same company at Hastings has also closed.

Quite a lively run away occurred in front of the Brockerhoff House on Monday night last. The horse was caught, however, before any serious damage was done.

Mr. William S. Harter, recently Deputy Recorder, having discontinued his connection with the Recorder's office, has gone to Chicago and entered a dental college.

Miss Jennie Fauble was unfortunately enough to fall on the pavement in front of Haggs Hotel on Tuesday evening last and sustained a severe sprain of the ankle.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson, wife of George Wilson, of Unionville, this county, and mother-in-law of Mr. Oscar S. Cadwallader, died last week, aged 59 years, 8 months and 23 days.

If a lady visits you and asks for a chance on a watch for the benefit of a poor Mrs. Robinson, don't give it her. For she is not a her, she is a woman's clothing and is a regular "faker."

Mr. L. L. Brown, we understand, will pass the winter in Philadelphia, where he will be joined by his family who for some time have been in Atlantic City. Probably he will make Philadelphia his future home.

The first arrest for violating Mayor Keller's order against profanity, drunkenness and vulgarity on the streets, was made in Williamsport some days ago, and cost the fellow a night in the lock-up and several dollars.

On Thanksgiving evening a delightful Thanksgiving party came off at the home of Prof. Ira N. McClosky, at Eagleville, this county. About 30 couples were present including persons from Beech Creek, Howard, Milesburg and Eagleville.

An orchestra has been formed to furnish music for the Reformed Sunday School of this place. It is composed of Messrs. Meyer, Breon, Noll, Royer and Destine, and Misses Moore and Luckenbach. Two of the ladies play the first and second violins.

Aiden Benedict's Fabio Romani, which will be produced in Garman's New Opera House on Wednesday evening, Dec. 10th, is a dramatization of Marie Corilli's novel "The Vendetta." The stage settings are said to be very fine indeed, the company carrying most all of its own scenery.

The axe factory at Mill Hall shut down last Saturday for a brief period. The shut down is for the purpose of taking an account of stock, and work will likely be resumed about the first of January. About one hundred and twenty men will be out of employment when the works are not in operation.

The invitations will soon be out for the 22nd annual masquerade Ball of the Logan Hose Co., of this place. It will be given in Bush's new arcade hall and everything will be done to make those who attend have an enjoyable time. Every one should purchase a ticket as it is for the benefit of the new Steam Fire Engine.

During the month of November ninety-five arrests were made by the police of Williamsport. The crimes charged and the number arrested for each were as follows: Plain drunk, 40; drunk and disorderly, 12; fighting, 6; larceny, 8; corner loading, 5; false pretense, 4; miscellaneous, 16. Total 95. Six of the number of persons arrested were females.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—In the case of Githens, Rexsams & Co., vs. Sechler & Co., the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The register offered his accounts for confirmation on the assembling of court at 1.30 p. m., on Wednesday of last week.

Dr. J. L. Seibert was called to testify as to the sanity of Albert Hoffman. Witness stated that, so far as he knew, the person in question was all right mentally.

In the case of Commonwealth vs. Joseph DeHass, for fornication, the case was tried before a jury which returned a verdict of "Not Guilty."

At 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon the minute which was passed by the Centre county bar in memory of ex-Judge Linn was read, adopted and ordered spread upon the records of the court. His Honor then adjourned court until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

The case of the Condale Coal Co. vs. the Empire Coal Co., which has occupied the attention of the court for the most of the week was closed on Thursday morning. The jury did not leave the room. A verdict for the plaintiff was given.

The case of the Bellefonte Furnace Co. vs. the Centre Iron Co., was then taken up. It was for the payment of ore delivered by the plaintiffs to the defendants. A nonsuit was entered.

Before adjourning the court, the report of the grand jury was received and read and was as follows:

GRAND JURY REPORT.
To the Honorable the Judges of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the county of Centre, November Sessions, 1890:

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, inquiring for the county of Centre, in all matters relating to the same do respectfully report:

That they have acted upon eighteen bills of indictment of which thirteen were found true bills and five ignored.

We beg leave further to report: That we have visited and inspected the county buildings and find first, the entire interior of the jail and jail yard in an excellent condition with the following exceptions:

That 1st.—The removal of the gallows be made to a more central part of the yard as it now affords a more rapid exit and easier access for escape; and that 2nd: The opening on the floor of cell No. 6, be repaired.

We further report, after having visited the court room and the several county offices, that we find all but the prothonotary's and commissioners' in satisfactory condition, and they, too, except that more room be provided for the filing away of records and important documents pertaining thereto.

Also, that the large bulletin and bill boards immediately in front of the court house be removed and no tolerance of such advertising within the court house enclosure be permitted.

And we do further recommend that the cess pool be disinfected at rear end of court house, or else removed.

We respectfully tender our thanks to the Honorable Judges and District Attorney for their courtesy and assistance rendered us during our deliberations.

S. H. BENNSON, Foreman.
Bellefonte, Nov. 26, 1890.

The court especially approved of the recommendation of the Grand Jury concerning the removal of the cess pool and the removal of the bill boards from the court house yard.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—The Grand Musical Convention which will be held in Pine Grove Mills from Dec. 15th to 20th inclusive, will be made specially interesting by the presence of Prof. D. F. Deitrich, the celebrated violinist, who will take part in the convention. All persons going by rail will be met at the College and Penna. Furnace stations on Monday evening and will be conveyed to and from said stations, free of charge, on Monday evening and Saturday morning. It is the earnest desire of the instructor that all persons try and be present the first session.

LECTURE.—A lecture will be delivered in the M. E. Church, Port Matilda, Pa., Wednesday, Dec. 10, by Rev. B. B. Hamlin, D. D. on the subject, "Learning to Read."

This lecture is full of wit and humor. If you wish to be happier, wealthier and wiser, go and hear Dr. Hamlin deliver his famous address. Remember, Wednesday evening, Dec. 10th, is the time.

Doors open at 7 p. m. Lecture commences at 8 o'clock p. m. Proceeds for church purposes.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT JERSEY SHORE.—George Reess was killed at Jersey Shore Saturday by being thrown from a wagon loaded with lumber and striking on the ground with his head. He died almost instantly. The deceased is said to have been living in the town only a short time and has no relatives there, although it is stated that he has two brothers on Larry's creek. The sad affair occurred on Allegheny street.

The best quality of hard and soft coal is furnished by McCalmont & Co., for popular low prices.

—It is rumored that Mann's Axe Works will shut down tomorrow, Saturday, for an indefinite period.

—The Elmira Portrait House of Williamsport has established a branch office in Bellefonte at No. 226 West High St., 2nd floor. The managers propose giving a life size crayon portrait to all who will call for one, free of charge.

—On Thanksgiving a spirited game of football came off between the Pennsylvania State College and a Bellefonte club improvised for the occasion. The latter played with spirit and courage, but they were no match for the superior discipline and experience of the College players.

—George Bartley, of Hubbersburg, was in the city to-day looking after the bounty which the law grants him for killing a wild cat. He earned the skin of the animal with him and received a bounty of $2.25. It was shot on Big Run, a tributary of Beech Creek.—Lock Haven Express of Saturday.

—One of the neatest little advertising schemes we have seen for some time is that of the Logan Machine Works of this place. It is a small vest pocket memorandum slate with pencil, and makes a valuable little book in which to keep one's notes for the day. Mr. Buck is always up to the times in such things.

—The following have been elected officers of the Miners' hospital at Phillipsburg: Robert Loyd, president; E. A. Irvin, vice-president; W. P. Duncan, treasurer; John A. Mull, secretary. In addition to these the Board of Trustees, as appointed by Gov. Beaver, are Chester Munson, John Strachan, W. A. Crist, R. R. Fleming, and Senator Betts. Dr. H. Allport has been elected Surgeon in Chief.

—The Cottage Planing Mill at Huntingdon, owned by Judge Munson, Alton Steiner and Mr. J. O. Lorraine, of Phillipsburg, and J. C. Dinkle, of Huntingdon, with the latter as Superintendent, was destroyed by fire the day before Thanksgiving, involving a loss of $25,000, on which there was only $9,000 insurance. It is said that there is but little likelihood of its being rebuilt.

—The following marriage Licenses have been granted and are recorded at the Court House: Samuel Ray of Pottersburg, and Cora E. Dubbs, of Potter township; Robert Smith, of Johnstown, and Emma C. Heckman, of Penn Hall, Pa.; Franklin P. Hendricks, of Winterburne, and Sadie C. Hoy, of Madisonburg; Charles E. Berner, of Hubbersburg, and Elsie I. Boal, of Tusseyville; Edward Page, of Curtin township, and Lizzie Coble, of Harris township; A. J. Harter, of Coburn, and Sallie B. Shirk, of Potters Mills, Pa.

—The editor of the Sugar Valley Journal has been informed that the projectors of the Wilkesbarre & Western Railway have over one hundred men at work on the Eastern extension of the road to Rohrsburg. There remains about ten miles of the road to build yet. This line of railway and the proposed Bellefonte & Eastern Railway are identical, and it is stated that as soon as this Eastern extension is completed to Shick-shire the gentlemen at the head of the project will turn their attention to this end of the line and push the work through to completion as soon as possible. By this it will be seen that the project has not been abandoned, and there are still hopes for a railroad through Sugar Valley.

—Quite a funny thing occurred at Larmer Bro's livery stables at the rear of the Bush House the other morning. A young man named Chaney from up about Port Matilda came down to the stable with a handsome black horse. The animal was put away but the Larmer boys who had purchased a new horse that same morning and it looked so much like Mr. Chaney's that when they came to hitch it up for trial the two animals got mixed and they couldn't tell which one was theirs. Mr. Chaney was sent for, and he told his from the fact that his left front foot was white while the one owned by the stable had a white right front foot. Those who saw the two horses say that it was the truest mated team that they had ever seen.

—In Tuesday's Renova News we noticed quite an extended article on the inconsistency of the merchants of that place, manifested by their crying for "home patronage" when a large percentage of them have all their printing done by city firms. The News takes a very fair stand on the question and one which should open the eyes of the grumbling dealers to their own interest.

How many such business men have we in Bellefonte? How many are there who give their orders for letter and bill heads and envelopes and miscellaneous printing to the solicitors of city firms, simply because they can get them a few cents cheaper, when their home offices are ready and prepared to give them just as good if not better work? And yet these merchants who give all their patronage to city printers are the very ones who complain the most if trade is dull.

A THOUGHTFUL MINISTER.—Rev. W. W. Anstadt, Lutheran minister in Huntingdon, has adopted the plan of requesting his members at the Wednesday evening prayer meetings to notify him of any persons that are sick in his congregation. In this way he learns of those who are sick that he otherwise might not hear of, and the congregation are encouraged in the fact that their physical as well as spiritual welfare is considered by their fellow members. It would be a plan that might be pursued by other ministers.

ONE MORE HAPPY SOUL.—On Thursday morning it was currently reported that there had been a very disastrous run on the "Bank of Affections" in which the handsome young passenger conductor on the B. R. B. & C. O. R. R. is a heavy stock holder. A singular thing about the run is that it was all by one lone maiden, but her calls were so heavy that, rather than suspend, a consolidation was proposed and soon the young conductor and the solitary maiden will have simultaneously beating palpitations. Congratulations.

AN OLD PHYSICIAN VINDICATED BY A JURY.—Joseph Downs, Sr., of Allport, met with an accident in a mine at that place about November 1st, 1887. He was prying a car on to the track in the mine and while thus engaged the car slipped, and its entire weight came onto the pry which with a spring caught him under the arm and flung him to the roof and pinned him against it, producing an intracapsular fracture of the shoulder joint. Dr. Henderson skillfully treated the case under the directions of Dr. Allport.

A charge of maltreatment was made against Dr. Allport, and a suit was entered May last for $5,000 damages. The suit came up before the Clearfield Court on Monday at noon and was concluded Tuesday evening, when the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant and mulcted the plaintiff in all the costs of the suit.

At the request of the court Dr. Birchfield, of Clearfield, made a thorough examination of the plaintiff and absolutely confirmed the diagnosis as made by Drs. Henderson and Allport. The evidence of all the physicians called on behalf of the plaintiff sanctioned and confirmed the treatment pursued in the case.

In commenting upon this case the Phillipsburg Journal says that "the consensus of opinion of those who heard the case was that it was an act of sheer injustice to enter a suit, which instead of bringing any discredit upon the professional ability of the gentleman in question has redounded to his honor, and that by the medical gentlemen who were called by the plaintiff to substantiate his plea. "Chicken generally; come home to roost."

FATAL RESULTS OF RECKLESS CAR JUMPING.—Edward Kettler, the 17-year-old son of Henry Kettler, of the National Hotel, East Third street, Williamsport, had an arm and a leg cut off by a train on the Reading railroad at the lower end of the city on Wednesday. He was subject to falling fits, but had a habit of jumping on and off trains notwithstanding. The accident proved fatal, although the poor fellow lived several hours after its occurrence. The limbs were found about fifty feet from the mangled body.

A TEAM AND WAGON FALL OVER A PRECIPICE.—A team of horses attached to a farm wagon and driven by a son of Adam Heckman of Nittany Valley, were passing through the narrows near the axe factory at Mill Hall Monday, when the team frightened at a boy who was sliding down hill on a sled. The horses turned suddenly and jumped down the steep bank. Horses, wagon and driver landed together at the bottom of the precipice having fallen a distance of thirty feet. Strange to say neither horse nor driver were injured in the least, and the wagon was but slightly damaged. The team was owned by Adam Heckman.

SUCCESSFUL MEETINGS.—The temperance meetings which are just now being carried on by the W. C. T. U. in the Court House are meeting with unprecedented success. The principal speaker of the week, Mr. Geo. Woodford, of Ill., seems to be just the man to touch the chord in the hearts of Bellefonte's intemperate men. A record of three hundred signers, many of whom have been slaves to the damning drug, is certainly a cause for rejoicing. The women are in it heart and soul and they are fast gathering the men into the pale of righteousness and temperance. Let the good work go on.

A CURIOUS RABBIT TRAP.—G. W. Clark, of Nippenose Valley, began to dig a well on one of his farms last summer, and after going about five or six feet he left it until this fall by covering it with boards. It appears the rabbits have taken a fancy to it, because William Laubach gets from three to five rabbits from it every week. They go under the boards for a hiding place, and not seeing the well fall in and cannot get out. The Ledger published at Oval, vouches for the above, and thinks the well is valuable for rabbits if not for water.

Several sleighs were seen on our streets on Tuesday.

—Institutes will be in order soon. We have received a handsome invitation to the Clearfield county Teachers' which will convene on Monday, Dec. 15th.

—The most attractive display of sleighs and sleds is at the store of Messrs. McCalmont & Co., Hale building.

—The Port Royal Times has a subscriber aged 94 years, who never fails to promptly renew yearly his subscription. His is an example well worthy of imitation by every subscriber for a newspaper. No wonder his days are long in the land.

—From the flattering press notices which the Fabio Romani Co., which plays here on Wednesday night, Dec. 10th, receives, it is evident that it must be a first class show. Go and see it.

—The lecture on Monday evening next, Dec. 8th, by Dr. James Hedley will be worth hearing. The York, Pa., Daily says of it, the following: "Dr. Hedley's lecture was one of the grandest treats York has had for years. The entire audience was charmed."

—Two hunters named Lamb and Roach went from Phillipsburg out to Six mile Run on Tuesday last and while following a panther's tracks came upon those of a bear. The spoils of the latter was followed and bruin killed. It weighed three hundred and fifty pounds.

—Mr. I. M. Bush, veterinary surgeon and graduate of the Chicago Veterinary college, will be at Garman's Hotel all of next week, when he will be prepared to consult with any one having horses or domestic animals of any kind needing attention.

—The Star Course of Bellefonte will have Dr. Hedley, who is termed the "greatest Platform Orator of the West," here on Monday night, Dec. 8th, to lecture on the "Sunny Side of Life." Dr. Hedley's lectures are highly spoken of by the Press of the country and if you don't go to the Court House to hear him you will miss a treat.

We notice in the Williamsport papers an order from the chief of police of that city for the arrest of all persons, irrespective of position or color, who use any profanity whatever on the streets. This is an exceedingly commendable order and Bellefonte officers would do well to institute something of the kind to break up the obscenity which prevails on our streets.

—David S. Goodman was instantly killed on Wednesday morning near Altoona. His little son was crossing the railroad just in front of the second section of "day express" and the father fearing that his child would be injured rushed to his assistance. The boy escaped unhurt only to see his father instantly killed.

—Some two weeks ago Mr. Joshua Folk, who sported the uniform and drew the salary of a borough policeman, was bounced from the force by the town council for getting drunk and abusing his wife. Mr. Win. Long, a tax payer and reputable citizen of the town, who had been thrown out of employment by the stoppage of the Centre Iron Co's rolling mill, was given the place temporarily. Mr. Long filled the place to the satisfaction of all, but was surprised the early part of the week on being informed that Mr. David Haines, who had a situation at Tyrone, paying him from $2.50 to $3.00 per day, had been appointed in his place. Now there is no question but that Mr. Haines will make a good policeman; so did Mr. Long, and our people wonder why the latter was put off the force while out of a position, and the former given the place when he had a good paying job?

—The finest and largest line of Foreign and Domestic woolsens for suits and overcoats ever shown by us. Full assortment of Ready Made clothing Hats, Caps, and Furnishing Goods. MONTGOMERY & Co. Tailors.

IN THE FAR WEST.—In the issue of the Madsonian, of Virginia City, Montana, of Saturday, Nov. 29th, there is an extended account of a great smelting and mining industry which has just been incorporated in that city. The capital stock of the company is $1,750,000, placed in 350,000 shares at $5 per share. We were pleased to see that our former townsman, Mr. Jos. R. Muffy, had been elected president of the vast concern. Mr. Muffy is now in Virginia City conducting the business of the company. We wish him unbounded success in the new enterprise.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—One Wednesday last, the friends of Mrs. Thos. Hartsock, who lives up Buffalo Run, concluded to pay her a visit. It was Mrs. Hartsock's thirty-sixth birthday and when the merry party entered her house they found her churning and baking in the kitchen, so complete was her surprise. In all thirty-seven friends assembled to spend the day and wish her many more happy years.

NOTES CONCERNING THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The County Superintendent, D. O. Ethers, of Bellefonte, announces that up till Friday, December 12, he will send excursion orders to applicants enclosing return postage. In sending for orders please state full name, post office address, and station at which train is taken. Through the courtesy of Supt. Thos. A. Shoemaker, all persons coming over the Buffalo Run railroad will be given excursion rates on the train. Orders not used please return to Superintendent.

The enrollment of teachers will begin at 10 a. m., Monday, December 15th, in the Court House. Teachers are requested to report promptly to the roll clerk, on their arrival. An enrollment fee of $1.00 will be charged for which a membership ticket will be given, admitting the holder to all evening entertainments.

The School Directors' Association of Centre county has sent out the following announcement: The annual meeting of the School Directors' Association of Centre county will be held in Bellefonte, on Thursday, the 18th day of December, 1890, beginning promptly at 10 o'clock, a. m.

An excellent programme of exercises has been prepared for the Convention. County Supt. D. O. Ethers has secured Prof. G. Groff, M. D., President of the State Board of Health, to deliver an address on the proper construction, lighting and heating of school buildings. Prof. Buckhout, of the State College, will address the meeting on "Tree Planting and the Beautifying of School Grounds."

By resolution adopted at the last annual meeting, each district was to annually contribute one dollar for the purpose of enabling the Association to carry on its work. It is greatly desired and earnestly requested that the directors of each district will come prepared to pay this small annual fee. It comes out of the school funds and should be promptly paid.

The executive committee have sent to the secretary of each board a petition to be signed by all the members thereof, asking the Legislature to pass a bill authorizing school boards to pay the Directors (at least) their actual expenses for attending the annual and triennial conventions. This question will also be discussed at the meeting in December. Your interest in it, as well as in the schools, and your desire to advance the great work of education in our county, should impel you to be present.

The following letters remain in the Bellefonte P. O. unclaimed, Dec. 1st, 90: Mrs. Bennett, M. F. Gime, Mr. Robert Foster, Anna M. Grove, E. J. Harris, Mr. John Hamilton, Miss Hattie Knell, Mr. Blanche Korman, Williams Lucas, Mrs. M. K. Morrison, S. McCament, Mr. C. B. McComb, A. W. Noinn, Mr. Harry F. North, Mr. Reuben A. Shower, Rick D. Thompson, Mr. M. M. Wilson, Mr. J. M. Zellers. When called for please say advertised.

Married.
JOHNSONBAUGH—SHOWALTERS.—Married Nov. 27th at the residence of the bride's parents in Bengner township, by Rev. G. F. Saris, Charles N. Showalters and Sallie H. Johnsonbaugh, all of Centre county.

CONFERENCE.—November 30th, at the residence of Saul Confer, Potter Township, Mr. David Confer and Lizzie Page, by W. J. Thompson.

FINDLAY, O., Nov. 24.—The final meeting of the $3,000,000 Window Glass Trust embracing forty-one factories west of and including Pittsburg, will be held in Chicago to-morrow, at which time all the establishments in the combine will formally transfer their plants to the Trust. The price of window glass will be advanced at once 5 per cent, the established price of the Trust being discounts of 80 and 75, 10 and 5 per cent. for cash railroads, and 75, 10 and 5 per cent. for less quantities. This Trust controls nearly 1200 window-glass plants.
