A Human Bloodhound.

Instinct Guides the Indian on His Deer Vision.

"Ugh!"

A single Indian has been following right hand bank of the Blue Peas...

It rained three days before. The ashes are dry. The black sticks preserve their gloss.

ON THE TRAIL.

Everything is clear to the Indian in a minute, and he picks up the trail. It is forty-six hours since that fire was lighted.

Half an hour for rest and a bite to eat and the Indian moves forward again. Here and there as he lies along he sees a broken branch—the moss torn from a rock—the leaves disturbed—plenty of signs that some one has passed that way.

It was not thoroughly done, however. Fire rings to several sticks, and the earth under the ashes is warm. The fire was built Tuesday night. The white man left it about 8 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning.

Has he traveled fast or leisurely? Is he a dozen miles away or only three or four? The question is answered before the Indian has pursued the trail half a mile.

It was twilight in the forest—night in the canyons and gorges. The Indian has no trail to follow, but there is an instinct which leads him on. He knows he is close on a quarry. He moves swiftly but stealthily.

It was twilight in the forest—night in the canyons and gorges. The Indian has no trail to follow, but there is an instinct which leads him on. He knows he is close on a quarry.

Too late! The Indian is not thirty feet away, but before he can lay a hand on the body life has departed. When a bullet strikes the human heart life is measured by seconds and fractions of seconds.

A citizen of Americus, Ga., owns a dog that "lives on English sparrows which he catches by slyly creeping upon them."

A Deaf and Dumb Rooster.

A gentleman living on the outskirts of Buffalo, near Black Rock, owns a curiosity the like of which Barnum never dreamed of.

He has not always been thus. Up to the time he was eight months old he was as noisy as any young need be. Then he had his head caught in a barbed wire fence in such a way as to mangle his neck and probably tear out his vocal chords.

There is nothing he does not see. When the first glow of sunrise appears he begins the duties of the day by arousing all the rest of the fowls in the henery in his original way.

A course of instruction in a deaf and dumb institute is all the rooster needs to learn to talk with his spurs.

Speaker Reed No Longer a Despot.

It is observed on all hands that Speaker Reed is no longer the Czar who lorded it so arrogantly over the House during the last session.

There is no old piece of zinc is the best thing that there is with which to mark trees in an orchard. Make this six or eight inches long, tapering at the end, and write on it with a common lead pencil.

LIFE IS MISERY.—To thousands of people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. The agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond description.

DISADVANTAGE OF TALLNESS. Tall men, as a rule, have bodies out of proportion to their lower limbs, that is, smaller than they ought to be, with the natural result that they are unable to bear fatigue or to compete in the struggles of life with lesser men more harmoniously proportioned.

GIRLS WHO ACT AS MODELS.—Girls and ladies in general who aim to be considered models of all that constitutes true womanhood, should value health above beauty.

INAPPROPRIATE—Hicks.—How do you like your neighbors, the Woolseys? Mrs. Hicks—She seem a kindly soul; but she has no taste about her dress.

Every day in the week Hasson's Syrup Tar cures Colds; Hasson's Syrup Tar cures Coughs; Hasson's Syrup Tar cures Croup; Hasson's Syrup Tar cures Whooping Cough; Hasson's Syrup Tar cures every disease.

The greatest distance ever recorded at which the sound of cannon has been heard was on the 4th of December, 1832 when the cannon of Antwerp were heard in the Erzgebirge Mountains.

Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup is a staple article in the market. The demand for it was never greater than now. The people find it indispensable, and will not be without it at any price.

There are nearly 12,000 colored people in Chicago, the wealthiest of whom has a fortune of about $100,000. Two others have property amounting to $50,000 each.

Sechler's Grocery.

To the HUNGRY PUBLIC.

It is only those who eat—the many who require the necessities of life, to prolong their existence, that we address.

Mingie's Boots & Shoes.

FACTS IN RHYME.

Just look this way a minute or two, I will try my best to interest you. It's a settled fact we all wear shoes. And that is the subject I shall choose.

It's a settled fact you can't erase That "Mingie's" store is the only place To get Boots and Shoes in all kinds of leather Suited exactly for any weather.

We have men's boots in calf and split; And Brogans, pegged and sewed you see; And long legged boots that cover the knee.

Men's calf congress, button and lace, In different styles to suit the taste; Carpet slippers, grain and goat; From twenty-five cents to a dollar note.

Boots and shoes that will stand the water; Ladies' kid button for 2 dollar and a quarter; French kid for ladies, I have on hand Glove kid, pebble goat, also French tanned.

Ladies' serge congress for eighty-five cents; Goat and calf boots for a little expense; Common sense and opera toe I've got, In kid and doggola and gipsy cut.

Ladies' button shoes with patent tip, Children's "School Shoes" that never rip, Doggola and goat, spring heel and opera toe, Is something that's selling not very slow.

On men's congress we've had some fun; On our "Nox Em All" line we've had a big run; And another shoe that will fill your eyes, Is a three dollar and a-half shoe called the "Enterprise."

Long-legged boots we are selling most; There's nothing better to keep out the frost; We always try to do our best, And that is the cause of our success.

Now to all our customers, we wish to thank you For the kindness you have shown us, and patronage too. Please call this way when at your leisure, We will show you goods with greatest pleasure.

In closing this I wish to tell— This fall we have goods that will sell, We will show you goods that cannot be beat; Some of the best you ever had on your feet.

Now to all we wish to say, To those who have not called this way, Don't buy boots and shoes any more Until you have visited MINGIE'S GREAT STORE, Brockerhoff Block, Bellefonte, Pa. 35-38 1m

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Illustrated.

Harper's Weekly has never failed to justify its title as a "Journal of Civilization," and it has done so with a constant regard to enlarged possibilities of usefulness and a higher standard of artistic and literary excellence.

It leaves untouched no important phase of the world's progress, and presents a record, equally trustworthy and interesting, of the notable events, persons, and achievements of our time. Special Supplements will be continued in 1891. They will be literary, scientific, artistic, historical, critical, topographical, or descriptive, as occasion may demand, and will continue to deserve the hearty commendation which has been bestowed on past issues by the press and the public.

As a family journal, Harper's Weekly will, as heretofore, be edited with a strict regard for the qualities that make it a safe and welcome visitor to every home.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

Illustrated.

Harper's Bazar is a Journal for the home. Giving the latest information with regard to the fashions, its numerous illustrations, fashion plates, and pattern-sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional milliner. No expense is spared in making its artistic attractions of the highest order. Its clever short stories, parlor plays, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its light page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. Being well known as "The House Comforter," Juliet Corson will treat of "Sanitary Living," and an interesting succession of papers on "Woman in Art and History" will be illustrated, will be furnished by Theodore Child, and a series of stories will be by Walter Besant, and Thomas Hardy.
