Bellefonte, Pa., January 9, 1891.

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—As I contemplate a change in my business, by the 1st of March, I now offer my entire stock of clothing and gents furnishing goods regardless of cost. This is no humbug, but a straight offer.

SIMON LOEB,

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

Gorman's celebrated Minstrels on Tuesday night, Jan 20th. Hear them sing.

Easter will be unusually early this year, coming on the 29th of March. By some it is believed that an early Easter brings an early Spring.

Mr. W. I. Fleming, of this place, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master for the Masonic District composed of the counties of Centre and Clearfield.

You can get almost anything you want in the Photograph line of J. A. Finkbinder, the Photographer, on Water st., Bellefonte, Pa. Call on him and be convinced.

W. F. Reber, esq. of this place, has been appointed Assistant Executive clerk, which will make him Governor Pattison's stenographer, at a salary of $1800 a year.

Last week Postmaster Feidler became the exclusive owner and editor of the Keystone Gazette, he having bought out the Cassidy interest in the establishment.

Mr. Elmer E. Beck, of Loveville, and Miss Alice M. Whippo, of Port Matilda, both of this county, were married on the 8th inst, at Lock Haven, by Rev. J. A. Wood.

As a recognition of the necessities of the season and the merits of their pastor, the Centre Hall Reformed Church has presented Rev. S. H. Eisenburg with a handsome new sleigh.

Sheriff Ishler had an annoying attack of illness immediately after taking possession of his office, which interfered somewhat with the discharge of his new duties, but fortunately was not serious.

Ed Powers is offering unprecedented bargains in boots and shoes, for the next three weeks. He intends to decrease his stock before he returns to his remodeled room and he is bound to do it at the prices he gives.

The person who was detained at Mansfield, Tioga county, on suspicion that he was Wilson, the criminal who escaped from our jail, turned out to be somebody else. There is but little prospect of capturing the fugitive.

The editor of the Curwensville Review, in referring to the present mining difficulty, says that "the baleful influence of men who have no interest in the miner's welfare beyond pocketing their salaries as district organizers, is what keeps the miners poor and discontented." Is this charge correct?

Last Friday evening P. B. Swartz, who served a thirty days' sentence in the Bellefonte jail, and whose time was up on Friday, was taken to Williamsport on a warrant from the Lycoming county authorities charging him with forgery. He will be held there to await his trial at the next session of court in that place.

President Atherton, of the State College, will ask of the present Legislature an appropriation of $200,000 for the perfecting of that institution. Such progress has been made in the improvements of the College that it will be good policy for the State to make a further appropriation that will place it in the front ranks of the State Colleges.

The people of Bellefonte, from the three year old to the white haired individual, having no other pastime that affords them so much amusement, indulge in coasting to their hearts content. They have the hills, plenty of snow and the necessary sleds, and they propose to extract all the fun possible out of the sport.—Philipsburg Journal.

A farmer named Joseph Smith, of Jerseytown, Columbia county, came to Williamsport the first of the year in answer to letters received from a swindling concern in that city. Smith had $250 in his possession when he arrived in the city at seven o'clock in the evening. The next morning he woke up in a corn field and with only $2 in his pocket. He went home a sadder and, let us hope, a wiser man.

The Farmers' Institute to be held in the Academy Hall, at Pine Grove Mills, on Monday and Tuesday of next week, will in every way repay every tiler of the soil, whether farmer or gardener, for the time spent in attending it. At these meetings the agriculturists will compare notes and discuss many subjects on various methods of producing the best and most prolific crops as well as the raising of profitable stock.

A DISTURBANCE IN THE FAMILY.

A story comes from Clearfield county of the way the rich settle their little differences out in that hilly region. It was along about Christmas when one evening a certain rich man came home a little late and, as it sometimes the case, he had imbibed a little too freely of 'fire water.' Now the said man, when in that condition, was none of the most amiable, and on this special occasion it suited his purpose to pick a quarrel with his better half. He did so; but, as subsequent events proved, to his sorrow. His wife was in no mood to stand the racket and when the battle opened she started in with full force. She beat her liege lord severely, smashed his $250 gold watch, broke up $1,300 worth of furniture, took $2,000 in cash that happened to be in the house, dragged her husband outside and then set fire to the house, bundled herself together and journeyed six or eight miles to her own home. Later accounts say the man is making arrangements to build a new house.

SUDDEN DEATH AT PHILIPSBURG.—The Philipsburg Journal gives an account of the sudden death of Mrs. Margaret E. Boyle, which happened in that place on Thursday of last week, giving the circumstances as follows:

The husband, Hugh Boyle, returned to his home at the usual hour for supper and found that quiet reigned supreme. Not finding his wife at home he lighted the fire in the basement, as is his habit. Thinking that his wife was down town shopping he patiently waited in expectation of her return. Having occasion to go up stairs he found her on the bed. On trying to awaken her—as he thought she was asleep—and she not making any movement in response, he was alarmed and soon learned that she was sleeping the sleep of death. He sent at once for medical aid, and the doctors declared that death had seized the poor woman as his prey fully three hours previously. The family came from Scotland many years since, and are well known in this city, and particularly in the immediate neighborhood of their residence.

WILSON NOT CAUGHT YET.—Ex-Sheriff Cooke has returned from Mansfield, Tioga county, where it was reported that Wilson, the escaped murderer, had been detected and held for identification. But it turned out that the man arrested was not the one wanted. Cooke, however, claims that he has learned the route which Wilson took in making his flight. He says that on the night the fugitive escaped from jail he went to Milesburg and there jumped a freight going to Lock Haven. From there he rode on another freight to Jersey Shore where he jumped off. He then went to the junction of the Pine Creek road, jumped another freight and traveled north as far as Lawrenceville, New York. Here the Sheriff says he lost trace of him.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.—On Sunday morning, December 28th, 1890, Mrs. Catherine Meyer, wife of John Meyer, of Potter township, passed peacefully to rest, aged 57 years, nine months and twelve days. As a neighbor she was kind and obliging; as a wife and mother she was gentle and affectionate; as a Christian she was quiet and consistent. On New Year's day her body was laid in the grave, Rev. Eisenberg, her pastor, officiating. A large concourse of friends attested the esteem in which she was held in the community and thus paid a last tribute to her memory.—Centre Hall Reporter.

REWARDED FOR HIS MUSICAL SERVICES.—Prof. W. T. Meyer, of Bellefonte, sojourned in this part of the county last week, combining business with pleasure. He visited his friends in Aaronsburg, tuned several pianos for our music dealer, M. C. Gephart, and attended the musical convention at Rebersburg several days. He is the proud and grateful recipient of a $50 gold piece, given him as a Christmas gift by the Reformed Sunday school of Bellefonte for his valuable services as musical conductor.—Milheim Journal.

ANOTHER DOWN-TOWN ENTERPRISE.—For some time the business of Bellefonte has been taking a turn, many traders having been seeking down-town locations, among the number being Wm. E. Gheen, who will move his cash grocery store into the room adjoining the WATCHMAN office on or about Feb. 1st. Mr. Gheen has purchased the store of R. L. Erhard and will run it on the cash basis hereafter. We bespeak for him a good share of the public patronage and welcome him down among the good (?) people of the town.

TROUT FRY SOON READY.—Brook trout fry will soon be ready for distribution from the Pennsylvania State hatcheries at Allentown and Corry. Two thousand fry will be sent free of expense to the nearest railroad station of each applicant, applications to be made to the following Commissioners: H. C. Ford, 1823 Vine street, Philadelphia; James V. Long, 75 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg; H. C. Demuth, Lancaster; S. B. Stillwell, Scranton; L. Struber, Erie, or W. I. Powell, Harrisburg.

It will be to your interest to call at Power's shoe store, early. Such bargains as he is offering can't last long.

Give your children 15 cts and let them see Humpty Dumpty to-morrow, Saturday, afternoon, and then see it yourself in the evening.

Last Sunday Mr. William Morris, brother of Squire J. Irvin Morris, died at Milesburg from a complication of diseases, aged about 35 years.

Sheriff Ishler will sell his farm property and stock at his recent residence in Benner township on the 12th of March. Among the property to be sold are some excellent horses.

For fine Crayon Portraits go to J. A. Finkbinder, the Photographer on Water st., Bellefonte, Pa. They are a No 1 picture and you can get them for less price than others charge for inferior quality. Give him a call.

District Attorney Meyer returned from Shamokin on Monday evening where he had gone to look after a man arrested in that place who was reported to look like Wilson, the escaped prisoner. It turned out, however, that he was not the man wanted.

The funeral of Hon. Andrew H. Dill took place at Lewisburg on Wednesday at 2 p.m. His remains were brought from Philadelphia the day before and lay in state in the Beaver Memorial church until the time of the funeral which was attended by a large concourse of people.

James R. Adams has the reputation of being the finest pantomime clown in the United States. His company, "A Crazy Lot," will play in the Opera House on Saturday evening, Jan 17th. A children's Matinee will be played in the afternoon when 15 cts admission will be charged.

On Christmas day, Annie, daughter of Mr. John C. Stover, was married at the residence of her parents in Aaronsburg, to Mr. F. P. Guiswite, of Woodward, by Rev. Geo. E. Adams. Mr. George Weaver, of Woodward, was groomsmen, and Miss Hosterman, of Centre Hall, bridesmaid.

At a meeting of the Hospital Trustees, at Philipsburg, Miss Fisher, a graduate of the Pennsylvania University Hospital Training School, and for several years past a successful nurse, was elected Supt. of the Cottage Hospital. Miss Fisher is highly recommended by the Faculty of the University, and will, no doubt, fill the position admirably.

We are requested by Mr. A. A. Pletcher, of Nittany, to say that the statement published in the Gazette of a couple of weeks since, to the effect that he was a candidate for Commissioners' clerk, was without truth or any foundation whatever. Mr. P. was not an aspirant for the position, never asked for it, nor had anyone else done so, and as a consequence, neither expected or looked for it. It will take more than the insinuations of a newspaper, notorious only for its want of truth and the desperate efforts it makes to create dissatisfaction among the Democrats of the county, to get Mr. Pletcher in a position that it can brand him as a sorehead or encourage him as a kicker. He is not built that way, Mr. Feidler.

Those who believe in the license system cannot complain of its not having full swing in Renovo. The population of the town is in the neighborhood of 4,500. Sixteen licensed saloons, one brewery, one wholesale liquor dealer and one bottler, will take care of the people during the present year. This is an increase of one saloon over last year's supply. The town also has in running order four first-class soda water fountains. If the Legislature takes account of Governor Beaver's suggestion to amend the license law so that the entire amount realized from the granting of license will be paid in the treasury of the municipality in which the license is granted, Renovo will make a mint of money out of her saloons.

Last Monday morning Mr. Frank Pyle, son of Col. Eyrn Pyle, an estimable young man of this place, died at the residence of his father on Allegheny street, of consumption, at the age of about 30. He was well known as a clerk in the store of S. & A. Loeb and while there made many friends who will be grieved to learn of his death. Frank had just recovered from an attack of typhoid fever when the consumptive germs began to show themselves and was not long until he was beyond the aid of all medical science. His death was but the sweet and peaceful sleep in which the soul is wafled, on the wings of faith, into the glorious morn of life eternal. How joyous the thought that He who closed the eyes of a loved one in death will comfort the mourning hearts that are left to course life's fitful stream. The funeral services were solemnized in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Lauric officiating. Twelve young gentlemen from the Centre Club, of which the deceased was a member, acted as pallbearers. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

THE NEW ILLUMINATION.—On Saturday night, Jan. 10th, the new arc light was turned on for street illumination in Bellefonte. All day Saturday Supt. Kitson and his gang of linemen were busy putting on the finishing touches and the Superintendent's cheery voice sang out, "have patience," to the numberless inquirers who were all anxious to know just when the light would transform our dark streets into handsomely illuminated thoroughfares. Just a little while before seven in the evening the dynamo was started and after a sufficient current had been generated the switch was thrown open and the beautiful rays of candescent light were reflected over the snowy hills of our town, transforming, as it were, darkness into daylight. Little knots of citizens were grouped on the different squares in town, admiring the new light and commenting on the push and energy which secured it for us. The streets were thronged, notwithstanding the rainy night, with people who stopped to gaze into the blue glare and then pass on thanking the light for its friendly assistance. At present there are seventeen lights in the town, which with the Edison lamps still in use, make Bellefonte one of the best lighted places in the country. The dynamo has capacity for three more lamps, but where they will be put is not yet known. High and Allegheny streets certainly present a brilliant appearance after night as they are about the best illuminated, though High street needs a light at the depot badly. The old Edison light, which was in use on the crossing, is now turned off and it leaves the railroad and the vicinity of the depot in comparative darkness. The R. R. authorities should secure an arc light for that place and we would advise them to negotiate with the light Co. at once, as the supply is limited and will soon be exhausted. Supt. Kitson deserves the congratulation of every Bellefonte citizen for the perseverance he has manifested in securing the new light for us.

NOT DISPOSED TO STRIKE.—Appearances indicate that the disposition among the miners of the Clearfield region to strike will not materialize. The miners at Robertsdate, on Shoup's Run, Six Mile Run, Sandy Run, and Long's Run are all at work. The miners of these districts in response to the demands of the Clearfield and Beech Creek miners, came out on Friday evening, but returned to work on Monday morning. The threatened prolonged strike was avoided by the miners being convinced of the stringency in the financial condition of the country, and that the operators were unable to pay the advance.

Another account says: The coal miners are working quietly and steadily and the possibility of a strike is decreasing every day. The agitators have, without doubt, been badly toiled in their efforts to arouse the miners to a strike. An evidence of the defeat of the agitators is shown in the manner in which they are hedging and each one endeavoring to show how earnestly he worked to prevent a strike, and claiming credit for suppressing it. There is not a bit of doubt but that these fellows were paid by some one to bring the men out, in this region. Some think the agitators were the tools of the operators at Cumberland and Pocohontas, while others think that some heavy Clearfield operators had a hand in the business with the purpose of reducing the price of mining. At all events the miners have showed their good sense by refusing to strike.

NEARLY FROZEN TO DEATH.—Joseph Hall, living at Beaver Mills, was in Philipsburg on last Wednesday, and started home in the evening pretty well intoxicated. Mr. James Ardell, who also lives at Beaver, saw Hall leave town. Later in the evening Mr. Ardell drove home and stopped at Hall's to see whether the old man had got home all safe. He found he had not arrived, and Mr. Ardell, with some other men, went back to look for him. They found by the tracks in the snow that the sled had left the road at McCord's and the track led down the Forge Run railway. They followed the track until they came to where the horse and sled and man had upset and tumbled off the railway down the mountain. The horse was dead, and old man Hall was almost dead. He was taken home, and by rubbing and bathing and other means of resuscitation was restored to consciousness, and will come around all right with the exception of some frost bites. He had gone to sleep in his sled and the horse had wandered down the railroad and stumbled over the cliff. Hall was too much intoxicated to know anything about it. He would have frozen to death in a little while if he had not been rescued.—Philipsburg Ledger.

DROPPED DEAD.—Last Sunday morning death came suddenly upon Daniel Lutz, a middle-aged farmer living near Zion, who dropped dead from a heart attack while in the act of shutting a stair door. He was well known in Bellefonte and neighborhood and respected by all who knew him.

Don't miss the opportunity at Musser's shoe store.

FUNERAL OF HON. A. H. DILL.—Marshal Dill was buried at Lewisburg on Wednesday last at 2 p. m. The numerous trains that came in on the Reading and Pennsylvania roads during the day brought in many of the late Marshal's personal friends, among them his former fellow members of the Senate, Mr. Edwin Albright, President Judge of Lehigh county; Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, of Clearfield, and Hon. Richard Pale, of Lock Haven. The Bar of Lycoming county sent a large delegation headed by President Judge, Hon. John J. Metzgar. The Columbia county Bar was represented by Hon. E. R. Ikeler, President Judge; Hon. M. A. Jackson, Associate Judge, and others; Montour Bar by Joshua W. Comly, esq.; James Scarlet, esq.; and others; Northumberland Bar by Hon. J. B. Packer and many others; Snyder county Bar, Thomas Smith, esq., and others.

A bar meeting was held at 1 p. m., Judge Bucher presiding, with Hon. John J. Metzgar and Hon. E. R. Ikeler on the bench with him. It was opened by a very able and heart-touching speech by George Jacobs, esq., of the Juniata Bar; he was followed by J. Merrill Linn, esq., (formerly a law partner of Mr. Dill). John G. Freeze, esq., of the Columbia Bar paid an eloquent tribute to Marshal Dill, and he was followed by Henry W. Watson, esq., of the Lycoming Bar, and ex-Senators Peale and Wallace. Mr. Oram, who was delegated to speak for the Northumberland Bar, was prevented by the hour of the funeral.

The pall-bearers were ex-Speaker Hon. John E. Faunces, Wm. Jones, D. W. Cox, Hon. Alfred Hayes, J. Merrill Linn and Hon. C. S. Wolfe, on the part of the Bar, and Hon. J. C. Bucher, Hon. S. D. Bates, Jos. W. Shriner, Hon. E. A. Bigler and George Jacobs, esq., on the part of the Masonic fraternity.

The services were held in the Beaver Memorial M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Shields conducted the service and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Austin, of Lewisburg. Rev. James Curns, of Huntingdon; Rev. Thompson Mitchell, of Williamsport; Rev. Richard Hinkle, of Milton and other ministers occupied the platform of the pulpit. The church was crowded with the friends of the deceased. The sermon preached by the pastor, Mr. Shields, was eloquent and comforting, and a deep solemnity rested over all the sad rites. It was the largest funeral ever held in Lewisburg. Union county and the neighboring counties of Snyder and Northumberland were represented by their prominent citizens. Centre county was represented by Mr. Thomas Collins, Hon. P. Gray Meek, Hon. John B. Linn, and others.

VIOLATION OF GAME LAWS.—The Harrisburg Patriot and other State papers are clamoring for an enforcement of the game laws of the State. This is interesting news for genuine sportsmen and every one of them is in favor of the suggestion. The trouble is that no one seems to consider it a business to enforce the laws and they are violated every day. The law regulating the killing of deer in Pennsylvania is the one that has for years been most abused. Deer are pursued in and out of season with dogs and so persistently has this style of hunting been indulged in that Pennsylvania has few deer left in her forests. But it is really intended to protect deer and restore them to their former plentiful condition, what is most needed in the shape of a game law from the present Legislature is an act making it unlawful to kill deer in this State for at least five years, and after that a law that will make it possible to punish those who hunt deer out of season or in a manner other than that prescribed by the present law.

THE CLEARFIELD MINERS' TROUBLE.—The troubled condition of the miners of the Clearfield region has not yet been settled and a disturbed feeling continues to prevail among them, although a strike has not yet been determined upon. A conference between the mine operators and the miners has been arranged for, and will probably take place at Clearfield on the 22d inst. Most of the miners have voted on the question of "strike or no strike," and it is said that matters are looking more favorable, some of the waverers and not a few of those who favored a strike are now satisfied that arbitration will result in more beneficial and permanent conclusions.

Greatest bargain sale at Musser's shoe store.

The Collins Furnace at this place, which has been so successfully operated since its establishment, will go out of blast for a few weeks for the purpose of making repairs. These works were started about three years ago and with the exception of one stoppage for repairs have had continuous and most successful run. This good showing is largely due to the able management of Mr. Thomas A. Shoemaker, Superintendent.

Exceptional bargains at Musser's, Brockerhoff House block. Get some of them.

YOUR ATTENTION.—We desire to call the attention of the purchasing public, to the extraordinary condition of affairs which exists at Power's shoe store. Mr. Powers has moved his stock into the room two doors below his old stand, but he will only remain there three weeks. During that time his old room will be remodeled for his return and while it is being done he proposes reducing his stock of boots and shoes. To do this he will sell off about two thousand dollars worth of goods at an unheard of sacrifice. It will be done merely to decrease stock and for no other reason, for it will involve a great loss to him as the goods he will offer at this REDUCING SALE are all guaranteed products and bear the maker's stamp. Remember these goods were not bought for this sale, but they include some of the best foot-wear that Mr. Powers has in his store. The bargains will surprise you and they can't last long.

Bellefonters will remember the sensation Jas. R. Adams created when he appeared here with Frazier's Humpty Dumpty Co. He has now surrounded himself with a star company of his own and only desires a good audience that he may show it that he has not lost his old cunning as a fun maker. At the Opera House Saturday night, Jan. 17th.

The finest and largest line of Foreign and Domestic woolsens for suitings and overcoats ever shown by us.

Full assortment of Ready Made clothing Hats, Caps, and Furnishing Goods. MONTGOMERY & CO. Tailors.

All the latest musical novelties will be given by Gorman's Minstrels on Tuesday night. Among their songs will be "Down on the Farm" one of the sweetest melodies that is now being sung. It is a neat Minstrel of high order and this is what the Youngtown Telegram says of it: The company is numerically and artistically strong, and the entertainment of a character that does not stoop to vulgarity to secure applause, the entire program being of a refined character. The Gormans have achieved success because they deserve it.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO., ENOSBORO FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity to obtaining a valuable book. It is necessary to mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time. $5 49 Ct.

Look up the Cash Bazaar advertisement of this week.

Still lower prices at Musser's closing-out sale.

Scale Register.
For the benefit of those who contemplate making public sale during the coming season, we will keep a register of all sales within the county as fully as possible, examination of which will be free to all. Persons having their bills printed at the WATCHMAN office will secure notice of sale in this column free of charge.
