Hotels.

TO THE PUBLIC. In consequence of the similarity of the names of the Parker and Potter Hotels, the proprietor of the Parker House has changed the name of his hotel to COAL EXCHANGE HOTEL. He has also repapered, repainted and otherwise improved it, and has fitted up a large and airy parlor and reception room on the first floor. WM. PARKER, 33 17 Philipsburg, Pa.

CENTRAL HOTEL.

MILLSBURG, PA. A. A. KOLBESKE, Proprietor. This new and commodious hotel, located opposite the depot, Millsburg, Centre county, has been entirely refitted, refurnished and repapered throughout, and is now second to none in the county in the character of accommodations offered the public. Its table is supplied with the best the market affords, its bar contains the purest and choicest liquors, its stable has attentive hostlers, and every convenience and comfort is extended its guests.

Through travelers on the railroad will find this an excellent place to lunch or procure a meal, as all trains stop there about 25 minutes. 24 24

THE CUMMINGS HOUSE.

BELLEFONTE, PA. Having assumed the proprietorship of this finely located and well known hotel, I desire to inform the public that while it will have no bar, and be run strictly as a temperance hotel, it will furnish to its patrons all the comforts, conveniences and hospitalities offered by others. Its table will not be surpassed by any. Its rooms are large and comfortable. Its stabling is the best in town, and its prices to transient guests and regular boarders will be very reasonable. I earnestly solicit a share of the public patronage. 55 15 GOTLEIB HAAG.

Medical.

RHEUMATISM

It is believed to be caused by excess of lactic acid in the blood, owing to the failure of the kidneys and liver to properly remove it. The acid attacks the fibrous tissues, particularly in the joints, and causes the local manifestations of the disease, pains and aches in the back and shoulders, and in the joints of the knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying and vitalizing action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

WONDERFUL PROPERTIES.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it excellent for rheumatism and dyspepsia. I suffered for many long years, but my complete recovery is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I recommend it to every one because of its wonderful properties as a blood medicine." J. J. KILNE, 35 Chatham Street, Cleveland, Ohio.

"I hereby certify that I have been afflicted with chronic rheumatism, accompanied by serious disorder of the liver and stomach FOR MORE THAN TEN YEARS past, during which time I have been treated by various physicians and have used almost every medicine that has been recommended me for such disease, without finding any relief whatever, until I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla. This has done me more good than any thing else that I have ever taken, and I take pleasure in recommending it in the highest terms. It has been worth its weight in gold to me." FREDERICK MILLER, Limerick Centre, Pa.

Watchmaking--Jewelry.

F. C. RICHARD, JEWELER and OPTICIAN, And dealer in CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY and SILVERWARE. Special attention given to the Making and Repairing of Watches. IMPORTANT!—If you cannot read this print distinctly by lamp or gaslight in the evening, at a distance of ten inches, your eyesight is failing, no matter what your age, and your eyes need help. Your sight can be improved and preserved if properly corrected. It is a wrong idea that spectacles should be dispensed with as long as possible. If they assist the vision, use them. There is no danger of seeing too well, so long as the print is not magnified; it should look natural size, but plain and distinct. Don't fail to call and have your eyes tested by King's New System, and fitted with Combination Spectacles. They will correct and preserve the sight. For sale by F. C. A Swimming Squirrel.

He Boldly Starts Out to Swim a Mile Wide Lake.

One morning I was rowing down through the lake on my way to the road where the stage driver catches our mail, packages of vegetables, etc., when he passes to and from Placerville to Lake Tahoe. The stage makes two weekly trips each way, and after each up trip we visit our cache for such things as may be left, and also to take out an occasional box of trout for some of our friends at home. After entering the lower lake, there being no wind stirring, my attention was arrested by a peculiar ripple on the water away down the lake. The ripple was triangular in shape, with a very sharp angle, and I once suspected it was made by some creature swimming across the lake. Whatever it was was headed for the south shore, was half way across the lake, or more, and was making good time. I put on a greater spread of my ashen sail—so to speak—and after a sharp chase overtook the object of my curiosity. My surprise was great when I found it to be a Douglas pine squirrel which was crossing the lake and making excellent time, too. He had chosen the widest point of the lake at which to cross, and must have deliberately started in for a mile swim. It took some moments to overtake him, rowing a boat laden with only myself and a box of fish, and I caught him only when within a few yards of the shore. He fairly forced himself upon top of the water, and almost ran on it, so great were his efforts. When I got alongside he was pretty well exhausted and turned to the boat and tried to climb its sides. This he could not do until I thrust down an oar, up which he ran in a tired way and jumped from it to my shoulder. From there he clambered to the top of my head, and there he could go no higher, he sprang into the water again and resumed his journey. I headed him off and a second time took him on board. This time he ran rapidly around the gunwales of the boat two or three times, sprang upon my head as before, and back into the boat and hid underneath the seat in the bow. I stopped rowing and lay upon my oars until the other boat containing B. arrived, when I told him to come and see what I had picked up. The instant the two boats touched the little fellow shot from his hiding place, leaped into the other boat, then upon B's head, from there to the boatman's, then back to mine, and again took to the water. This time I let him go, and in a moment or two he reached the shore.

Read's Board and Lodging.

Many years ago, before Mr. Opie P. Read had earned fame as the editor of The Arkansas Traveler and as the author of several successful novels, he and another impecunious printer were engaged in the publication of a weakly weekly at a little town in Arkansas. They managed to live through the summer by sleeping in their office and by swapping yearly subscriptions and elaborate puff for farm produce and patent medicines. But when winter came and they could not afford the extravagance of all night fire, the question of lodgings became a seriously important one. For a time it looked as if the paper would have to be discontinued, while the editors tramped to a more congenial clime. But at last the genius of Read came to the rescue.

There was a freight train going down the road, passing through the town at 9:07 p. m., and there was a passenger train going up the road, passing at 8:15 a. m. In those days, long before Senator Cullom conceived the idea of the interstate commerce law, with its clause cutting off free transportation, editors could get railroad passes to their heart's content. So Mr. Read and his partner, equipped with annual passes, stood between all stations, slept in the warm carboose of the freight train until they met the passenger train, and then came back home. This they did every night during the entire winter, "and," says Mr. Read significantly, "the trainmen often had more in their dinner pails than they could eat."

A Fatal Case.

It is well known that in Spain the methods of "courting" are often exceedingly singular. Generally the lover signifies his choice for one successive evening with a guitar and singing a serenade under the fair one's window, and if he is regarded by the young woman's parents as an eligible candidate he is invited into the house.

In Andalusia, a Spanish province, a still more singular custom has lately been observed. When a young man there aspires to the hand of a young lady he calls for three successive days at her parent's house at the same hour. The third day he always brings a cane, and goes away leaving it behind him, apparently forgetting it.

If his suit is regarded the young girl keeps the cane, and gives it back to him when he calls the next day. This makes him her affianced husband.

But if, on the contrary, the young man's suit is not pleasing to the family his cane is thrown out of the window into the street. This is regarded as a delicate way of telling him that he need not come again, and the young man, who has lingered near meanwhile, reads his own fate in the indignity put upon his walking stick.—Youth's Companion.

Financial Barometer.

There is no better Barometer of the financial situation than a business house which deals only in the luxuries of life. Notwithstanding the cry of the stringency of the money market, and the recent announcement of the failure of some well known firms and financial institutions, Baily, Banks & Biddle, the widely known jewelry house of Philadelphia, state that the past Christmas season has been the greatest of their years of prosperity. It was, they say, the largest business in their sixty years' experience. There were more persons in the store in December, and more goods were sold than in any December in the history of the store.

Salaries of Metropolitan Clergymen.

The following information regarding the salaries of some of the clergymen of New York and Brooklyn is believed to be authentic: Dr. Morgan Dix, of old Trinity, has $15,000 a year and his assistant $6,000; Dr. Huntington, rector of Grace Church has $15,000 and a house the rental of which is worth $5,000 more; Dr. Greer, of St. Bartholomew's, receives $19,000, and being wealthy retains nothing of it for himself; Dr. Brown, of St. Thomas's, has $15,000; Dr. Rainsford, of St. George's, has $10,000, and like Greer gives it all away. A dozen Episcopal parishes pay from $15,000. Among the Presbyterians, Dr. Hall draws $13,500; Dr. Paxton, $12,500; Dr. Parkhurst, $8,000; Dr. Taylor, $15,000. R. V. Robert Collyer, Unitarian, has $10,000. Talmage receives $12,000 from his congregation and doubles his income in literature and the lecture field. Dr. Abbott is paid $8,000. The pastor of the largest Methodist church has $5,000 and of an elegant parsonage, and the Methodist bishop receives $5,000.

A little 4-year-old girl in England writes with her left hand and writes her words backward, as they are reflected in a mirror from ordinary writing. Her friends have to read them by the aid of a looking-glass.

Timber for Railroad Purposes.

According to the New York Shipping List a government report on the consumption of forest supplies by railroads states that about 75,000,000 ties are annually needed for new construction and renewals by the roads of the United States, which is equivalent to about 365,000,000 cubic feet of raw material. The various woods are estimated to be used in the following proportions; Oak, 45,000,000; chestnut, 3,500,000; pine, 12,500,000; red, white and California cedars, 5,000,000; hemlock and tamarack, 2,500,000; cypress, 1,500,000; red wood, 2,500,000; other kinds, 500,000. Thus oak furnishes about 60 per cent of the supply, and not only from choice trees mainly, but from the young growth which may make one tie to the cut. For bridge and trestle work 60,000,000 cubic feet of saved may be added to the requirement, so that a total of 500,000,000 cubic feet of wood in the shape of round timber for railroad purposes seems to be a reasonable estimate of the annual consumption. This requires the cutting of the best timber from probably more than 1,000,000 acres of natural forest lands, and it is calculated that not less than from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 acres of well-managed forest would be required, or with the present absence of management the area to be reserved for the purpose would have to exceed 50,000,000 acres, or more than ten per cent of the present forest area of the country.

Lemon Rice Pudding.

To two thirds of a cup of rice, boiled and cooled, add the well-beaten yolks of three eggs, salt, a teaspoonful of butter, three teaspoonfuls of sugar and the grated rind of two lemons, with milk enough to make very moist. Bake forty-five minutes. Use whites of eggs and juice of lemons for frosting, and brown.

CREAM BISCUIT.

One pint of sour cream, one teaspoonful of soda, dissolved in a little warm water; stir into the cream the white of one egg, well beaten; a little salt; when the cream forms a jelly, stir into it as quickly as possible enough sifted flour to make soft dough; roll out, cut and bake in a quick oven.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

BROOKLYN, CONN., May 5, '90. Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO.: Sirs—Last summer I cured a Carb upon my knee with your celebrated Kendall's Spavin Cure and it was the best job I ever saw done. I have a dozen empty bottles, having used it with perfect success, curing every thing I tried it on. My neighbor had a horse with a very bad Spavin that made him lame. He asked me how to cure it. I recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure. He cured the Spavin in just three weeks. Yours respectfully, WOLCOTT WITTER.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 4, '90. Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO.: Dear Sirs—I have been selling more of Kendall's Spavin Cure and Flint's Condition Powders than ever before. One man said to me, it was the best Powder I ever kept and the best he ever used. Respectfully, OTTO L. HOFFMAN.

CHITTENANGO, N. Y., May 10, '90. Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO.: Dear Sirs—I have used several bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with perfect success, on a valuable and blooded mare that was quite lame with Bone Spavin. The mare is now entirely free from lameness! It shows no bunch on the joint. Respectfully, F. H. HUTCHISS.

MONROE, La., May 8, '90. Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO.: Gentls—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for your famed Kendall's Spavin Cure. I had a four year old filly which I prize as much as I own. She had a very severe swelling leg. I tried about eight different kinds of medicines which did no good. I purchased a bottle of your Kendall's Spavin Cure which cured her in four days. I remain yours, MARION DOWDEN.

Prices $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. 35-40 19

GIVE AWAY

To every reader of this paper who suffers from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliaryness, Liver Complaint, Sick Headache, Nervous Debility or Consumption, a bottle of that most wonderful medicine, —FLORAPLEXION— which is the only absolute and permanent cure for the above named diseases. I can afford to do this because I know that nine out of every ten persons who try it will be so well satisfied with the results they will take pleasure in speaking about its marvelous curative virtues to all their friends and acquaintances. The value of this sort of advertising to me is worth many times the cost of the medicine given away, so I am well compensated for the seeming large expense. I have over 20,000 letters on file from people who have been cured of one or more of the complaints above named. Write to-day stating your disease and receive a free bottle by return mail, or ask your druggist for it and get well. Address, "DR. FLOREXION," 35 14 19 n. r. 88 Warren Street, N. Y.

BARGAINS! — BARGAINS!

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, SPRING WAGONS, at the old Carriage stand of McQUISTON & CO., NO. 10 SMITH STREET adjoining the freight depo.

We have on hand and for sale the best assortment of Carriages, Buggies, and Spring Wagons we have ever had. We have Dexter, Brewster, Elipic, and Thomas Coil Springs, with extra air and Whitechapel bodies, and can give you a choice of the different patterns of wheels. Our work is the best made in this section, made by good workmen and of good material. We claim to be the only party manufacturing in town who ever served an apprenticeship to the business. Along with that we have had forty years' experience in the business, which certainly should give us the advantage over inexperienced parties.

In price we defy competition, as we have no Pedlers, Clerks or Rents to pay. We pay cash for all our goods, thereby securing them at the lowest figures and discounts. We are determined not to be undersold, either in our own make or manufactured work from other places; so give us a call for Surrus, Phaetons, Buggies, Spring Wagons, Buckboards, or anything else in our line, and we will accommodate you.

We are prepared to do all kinds of —REPAIRING— on short notice. Painting, Trimming, Woodwork and Smithing. We guarantee all work to be just as represented, or give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't miss the place alongside of the freight depot. 34 15 S. A. McQUISTON & CO.
