

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., February 18, 1891.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—As I contemplate a change in my business, by the 1st of March, I now offer my entire stock of clothing and gents furnishing goods regardless of cost. This is no humbug, but a straight offer.

SIMON LOEB,

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTRY.

DEMOCRATIC BOROUGH AND WARD NOMINATIONS.—The Democrats of Bellefonte will meet on Saturday evening, 14th inst., at the usual hour, to nominate candidates for the borough and ward officers at the following places:

West Ward, at WATCHMAN office; North Ward, at office of D. C. Fortney, Esq.; South ward, at office of W. C. Heine, Esq.

—Mrs. McCuley, a very old widow of this place, died last Saturday morning from the effects of old age.

—It is said that it costs $1000 freight to ship nineteen cars of timber from Centre Hall to the coal regions.

—Phillipsburg seems to be afflicted with the same trouble that has already been a bane to Bellefonte's growth—high rents.

—A spirited and fruitful revival meeting has been going on at the Weaver church, about four miles east of Bellefonte.

—Mr. S. H. Williams declines being a candidate for Chief Burgess, which some of the Republicans of the borough wished to make him.

—John Cain, switchman at the Tyrone yards, was run over by an engine about noon on Wednesday and died a few hours later.

—Capt. W. F. Reber, appointed stenographer in the Executive office at Harrisburg, will move his family to that city in April.

—Miss Seely Armor of this place has returned home from an extended visit to friends in Philadelphia, Mechanicsburg and Tyrone.

—Some cases of grippe are making their appearance, but it can hardly be expected that the disease will assume the violence of last year.

—J. Dallas Hall, esq., of Philadelphia proprietor of the Retort, Centre county, Fire Brick Works, died at his home in that city on Saturday last.

—Among the improvements on Curtin street during the coming season will be a new residence by Samuel Schaeffer who now lives near Morris' lime kilns.

—The musical convention at Boalsburg and Coburn, which wound up the campaign of song in this region for this year, was big and successful affairs. This is truly a musical county.

—The Bellefonte Electric Light Company has increased the capacity of their plant by adding another machine, for the production of the necessary electricity. The new arc lights required the addition.

—Our distinguished fellow citizen, James Milliken, esq., was before the House Coinage Committee as an expert on the subject of making more silver dollars, and he spoke strongly in favor of the free coinage bill.

—A Phillipsburg paper states that an Ohio party are contemplating the establishment of pottery works at that place, they being impressed that it would be an excellent location for business of that kind.

—Ex-Governor Beaver last Friday evening presided at the banquet given at Washington to Justice Harlan by the Beta Theta Phi fraternity. It was attended by distinguished gentlemen from all parts of the Union.

—There are 400 empty houses in Williamsport, owing to the high rents demanded. We have high rents in Bellefonte, but they have not yet had the effect of making the houses tenantless. That may come in time.

—On Friday last while James Gallagher, an employe of Morris' lime kilns below town, was quarrying out a large stone, it slipped and rolled on his left leg, crushing it in a painful manner. The unfortunate man was taken to his home at Howard.

—Mrs. Jane Everhart, many years ago a resident of Centre county, and who may be remembered by some of our older inhabitants, died recently at Fort Madison, Iowa, in the 95th year of her age. As Jane Huey she married James Everhart and migrated with him to Iowa in 1840, at that time a territory.

—Among the cattle shipped from Centre Hall to the Philadelphia market last week by Messrs. Keller and Durst was a short horn bull that weighed 2,452 pounds. He measured 14 feet 6 inches from the end of the nose to the tip of the tail and over 9 feet around the body. He was in all respects a mammoth specimen of animated beef.

ATTEND THE LECTURE.—On Saturday evening, Feb. 21st, the members of Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., of this place will have Gen. B. F. Fisher to entertain our people. General Fisher will lecture on that evening under the auspices of the Grand Army, but for the benefit of the Women's Relief Corps and Women's Aid Society of Bellefonte, each will receive half the proceeds. The subject will be "Reminiscences of Prison Life during the War" and as the General is one of the most distinguished attorneys of Philadelphia, as well as a pleasing and eloquent talker, the lecture will undoubtedly be an entertainment of much merit.

It has been customary for the Post at this place to have dinner on Washington's birthday, but it has been given up for this year, owing to the stringency of trade in this vicinity and the lecture substituted. As it is for two charitable organizations everyone should turn out to hear General Fisher. He is a brother of Dr. Fisher, of Zion and also of Rev. Nevin Fisher the noted priest of the Quaker City. We are confident that you will be more than pleased if you hear him.

Through the courtesy of the commissioners the Court House has been procured for the lecture, they having kindly decided that as the lecture is to be for charitable purposes only, their recent resolution does not forbid its use.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.—Abel Reese, one of the old pioneer settlers of Worth township, died at his residence, 2nd inst., of bronchitis. He was born at Phillipsburg, Feb. 12th, 1812, and was married in 1834 to Kate Frantz. He had fifteen children. Four son and three daughters, together with his aged widow, still survive him. He had ninety grand-children and thirteen great-grand-children. He was a man of sterling integrity and a life long Democrat. He was well known and had friends wherever he was known, and was always hailed by young and old as Uncle Abel. His father, Christian Reese, was originally from Hesse Cassel, having been sent to the British army, then stationed at Trenton, N. J., where he, along with the greater part of the royal army, was captured by the Americans on that ever memorable night of Dec. 25th, 1776, after which he joined Washington's army and fought with it until the close of the war, when he joined Phillips' band of twelve pioneers who first settled at Phillipsburg.

LENTEN SERVICES.—Last Wednesday was the beginning of Lent, it being Ash Wednesday, and it was observed in the Episcopal church, Rev. J. O. Davis, rector, with the Holy Communion at 8:30 a. m.; morning prayer, litany and sermon at 10:30 a. m., and evening prayer at 5 p. m.

The daily services during Lent will be morning prayer at 10:30, and evening prayer at 5, except Friday at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Davis will preach the following course of sermons on Sundays during the lenten period: 1st, God; 2nd, the Ever Blessed Trinity; 3rd, the Incarnation; 4th, the Church; 5th, the Bible; 6th, Organic Unity. Strangers are always welcome at these services.

DR. RHONE SERIOUSLY HURT.—During the storm of Saturday night, when the pavements were in an almost impassable condition, Dr. J. H. Rhone found it necessary to transact some business in the Gazette office, which is just three doors from his home on Allegheny street. He reached the office and was returning when, in crossing Cherry alley, he slipped and fell, dislocating his hip and sustaining other injuries. He was carried into the house where he suffered great pain for some time. It is to be hoped that the fall will not have a serious result, as the doctor is too old a man to survive much strain on his system.

G. A. R. ENTERTAINMENT.—The Dr. George L. Potter Post, of Milesburg, will present realistic scenes and incidents of a soldier's life, in Bogg's Hall, this Friday, and Saturday evening. The entertainment will be for the benefit of the relief fund and should meet the hearty response of all Milesburg citizens. It will represent the real, the pathetic and the humorous side of soldier life, and the different scenes will be enlivened by instrumental and vocal selections. The price of admittance will be very reasonable and you will miss a nice entertainment if you don't go. Help along the good cause.

SUICIDE BY A FARMER.—Jonathan Spotts, a farmer residing in Hepburn township, Lycoming county, committed suicide last Monday by shooting himself. Spotts loaded the gun, an old musket, heavily, tied a string to the trigger, placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and a pull at the trigger did the job. The whole top of his head was blown off and blood and brains were spattered on all sides of the room. No reason is known why Spotts should have committed the deed.

—It is said that Abraham S. Speck and his wife, of Mill Creek, Huntingdon county, who had been married over 50 years, have separated in consequence of a disagreement over their daughter's choice of a husband.

—Liquors will be served over seven o'clock in Bedford county for the next year.

—If you have printing or engraving to be done bring it to the WATCHMAN office and get the nicest work.

—A good sized and appreciating audience listened to Mr. Chamberlain's lecture in the Presbyterian chapel on Tuesday evening.

—The Unionville debating society this evening will discuss the morality of the opera house. It will no doubt be lively and interesting.

—At noon on Wednesday Dr. Smith, of Freeburg, was married to Miss Heckman, of Centre Hall, at the residence of the bride's father.

—The Blair county Republican convention will be held in Tyrone on June 15th. Tyrone is quite elated over the fact that its getting it.

—The report that General Hastings intends to leave Bellefonte and locate in Philadelphia is no doubt a canard as his law partner knows nothing of the proposed removal.

—The Friends will hold their quarterly meeting in Unionville on Sunday next, the 15th. Delegates from Bedford, Clearfield and all over Centre county will be in attendance, and a minister from Canada is also expected.

—A grand musical convention will be held in the Lutheran church at Boalsburg, commencing on Monday evening, February 9th, and closing with a concert on Friday night, the 13th. All lovers of music are cordially invited.

—The Rev. T. B. Cross will preach a patriotic sermon in the Baptist church in Milesburg on Washington's birthday, the 22nd, at 3 o'clock p. m. The Patriotic Sons of America, American Mechanics and Grand Army of the Republic, will be in attendance, several hundred in all.

—At the meeting of the Court house last Tuesday Chairman Patton made a statement of the work done throughout the State and outlined what was intended to be done. Mr. Beyer made an address which was considered quite encouraging by those who heard it.

—The P. O. S. of A., of Lock Haven, are making arrangements to celebrate the Fourth of July in that place. The celebration will be held under the auspices of the P. O. S. of A. Anniversary Association of the counties of Clinton, Centre, Clearfield, Cameron, Lycoming, Elk, Jefferson and Blair.

—It is learned on good authority that Mr. T. A. Lucas, formerly of Howard, this county, but now holding a responsible position in Chicago as head stenographer and assistant manager of the Gilbert & Bennet Mfg Co., is about to be married to the only daughter of a wealthy real estate broker in Chicago.

—David Barr, an aged and highly respected citizen of Youngstown, Mifflin county, died recently at the age of 74 years, 1 month and 29 days. The cause of his death was catarrh of the stomach, and he suffered severely for some time. He was quite well known throughout Centre county. He leaves seven children, as follows: Mrs. John Metz, Mrs. Thomas Gates, Mrs. F. D. Gowland, and Clayton, Mitchell, Samuel and Benjamin Barr. Eighteen grand-children also survive him.

—One afternoon of each week has been set aside for literary training by the principal of the High school and the work has been meeting with remarkable success. On Monday afternoon the exercises were especially interesting, all the young ladies and gentlemen acquitting themselves creditably. We are glad to see such work being encouraged in our public schools for if there is one thing more than another that this country needs, it is men and women who, when they have something to say, can say it in a way that will demand attention.

—The body of Robert Merryweather, the unfortunate man who while intoxicated fell through the P. R. R. bridge over the Moshannon, at Phillipsburg, on Monday the 2nd inst., has been found. On Monday Sam Johnston, J. B. Runk, Sam Bennett, Noah Parker and Jas. Whitton procured a boat and commenced a thorough search with long hooks. It was not long until a hook caught in the trousers of the drowned man and he was hauled to the surface. His brothers undertakers dressed the body and the funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon.

—Last Friday the horses attached to Barlett's transfer wagon, while standing at Crider's planing mill, took it into their heads to run away. In their flight along the mill race, past Jenkins & Lingle's machine shop, the wagon collided with a telephone pole and separated from the tongue with which the animals continued their flight up High street where they were stopped. The horses were not hurt, but the wagon was so much damaged that it had to be taken to a shop for repairs. There is always more excitement than profit in a runaway.

WHAT A FATHER'S LOVE WILL DO.—On the 30th of last July, while the little son of Mr. William Musser, together with some playmates, was playing about a fire which they had built over near their home on Reynold's Ave., his mother called to him to put it out lest he might be burned. The little boy not heeding Mrs. Musser sent her pretty, ten year old daughter to extinguish it. Mary went down where the children were playing and attempted to take her brother home, but while she was pulling him away the back of her dress caught fire and in an instant the poor little things clothing was all ablaze, the flames even leaping up to her wavy golden hair. Her frightened screams soon brought the mother to her child and the clothes were quickly torn off, but alas Mary's back and limbs were literally burned to a crisp. Everything known to medical science was done to relieve her sufferings, but she continued growing worse until her life was despaired of. Despite all efforts the skin and flesh began to drop off and the little one being compelled to lie on her stomach all the time, was sinking rapidly. When a different treatment was given, however, she slowly began to rally and has been lying in bed ever since. Apparently she seems quite well and is an exceedingly bright and pleasant little entertainer to her many visitors. Her physician has been doing everything to get the skin to grow over the burned places, but without avail; so the only recourse was to try skin grafting. Accordingly the father's arm was bared and carefully washed with acidulated water and a trial made. The grafts grew rapidly and a second, a third and even a fourth operation being performed very successfully. The grafted skin is growing nicely and the doctor hopes ere long that Mary's burns may be completely healed. Mr. Musser endured the pain of the cutting without a semblance of hurt, being inspired by the love for his pretty blue-eyed daughter.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS MARRIED.—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Shively celebrated the 35th year of their marriage on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst. Their home on north Allegheny street was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of friends and relatives who came to pay homage to the ones who had spent so many years of happy married life. Mr. Shively is an excellent type of that highly successful class of people, the retired farmer, which is exercising such an influence over the country to-day. He having made his snug bank account by hard labor, on the fine farm, he owns just a few miles above town, and now having reached the time when work is no longer necessary, he has settled himself for a life of comfort and ease.

Mrs. Shively also celebrated her 63rd birthday on Tuesday and among the ones who were there to join the festivities and wish them a long and happy life were:

H. L. Harvey and his daughter Bella, of near Milesburg, Miss Mamie Fisher, of Buffalo Run, Miss Ida Hyland, of near Bellefonte, Miss Jennie Fisher, Mrs. G. W. Gray, of Buffalo Run; Mrs. Mattern, of Matternville; J. W. Marshall and wife, of Buffalo Run; W. P. Fisher, of Unionville and D. H. Shively and family, of Buffalo Run.

AN ENJOYABLE GATHERING.—On Saturday evening, Feb. 7th, a large party of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McDowell near Howard, for a night's pleasure and to pay their respects to those estimable people. Notwithstanding the stormy weather many persons from Howard, Walker, Mackeyville and Snow Shoe were present to mingle with the joyous party. A supper was served in the dining room and everything that one's appetite would crave was on the tables. The excellence with which the many courses were served proves beyond a doubt that Mrs. McDowell is an adept in the culinary art.

After the supper the evening was spent in music, games and dancing the music for which was furnished by Miss Clara Kline, of Cedar Run, who is gaining quite a reputation for her dance music as well as for her fortune telling. I have had the pleasure of attending a great many dances, but the one of Saturday exceeds by far any previous one I have been to. The company was honored by the presence of Mrs. Blair and Mr. D. M. Allison, of Ohio. ED.

—On Thursday night the 19th of this month, the Y. W. C. T. U. of this place will give a unique entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The proceeds will be to help the different aids in the order and they should be exceptionally large, for the young ladies have arranged a very pleasing program for the night. A society play will be given by some of our well known amateurs, glee will be sung and banjo and guitar selections will be among the many features of the entertainment. Don't forget to go—a nice reception will follow and maybe you will get something to eat. The admission will be very low.

—Thomas Ray accidentally shot his sister at Johnstown, on Saturday, the ball entering her left breast. The wound was fatal.

—Mr. James Harvey, Sr., was recently surprised at his residence in Milesburg by a gathering of his friends and acquaintances, who were entertained by a relishable supper.

—If you would read a pure, clean paper, one that will give you information on all the latest general and local news and one that will entertain as well as instruct the children; then you should subscribe at once for the WATCHMAN.

—The members of the Episcopal church held quite an enjoyable sociable at the cosy little home of Col. W. H. Wilkinson, on Tuesday evening last. It was the last one of these delightful events in social church life before the lenten season and every effort was put forth to make it specially entertaining. Many people enjoyed the Mother Goose dance and the tableaux, but the real success of the evening was attributed to the charming hospitality of the Col. and Mrs. Wilkinson.

—Among the measures introduced in the State Senate by Senator Meek of this district are bills providing for the submission and publication of a biennial report by the Secretary of the Commonwealth; for granting liquor licenses on the basis of population; for school boards to pay out of the funds of the respective districts the actual expense of school directors in attending the annual and triennial conventions required of them, and for the levying of poor tax on unnaturalized foreigners.

—Prof. James Eldon, of Lock Haven State Normal School, is in Harrisburg this week, looking for an additional appropriation from the State Legislature for the liquidation of the debt of the building recently erected. The cost of the building, including the four acres additional land purchased by the Association, together with the heating and lighting apparatus, furniture, etc., amounted to $144,544.02, for the payment of which an appropriation is now asked at the hands of the present Legislature.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.—We have made a contract for a steam baler, which will be delivered in early summer. We will then be prepared to make contracts for the baling of hay and straw in Centre county. The price will be from 30 to 40 per cent. lower than is now being charged.

We will also be connected with a New York commission house, and be prepared to pay the highest prices for hay, straw and heavy grains.

—The social circles of the lower end of the Bald Eagle valley were set astir on Tuesday, over the prettiest wedding that has ever occurred in that district. It was the celebration of the marriage of Miss Carrie M. Quigley, daughter of Capt. Jas. A. Quigley, the leading merchant of that place, to Mr. W. D. Home, of New Brunswick, N. Y. The bride is a young woman of singular beauty and her husband a very promising young business man. Many guests from a distance were present to witness the ceremony and the presents were numerous and elegant. A bridal tour through the south is being taken, after which they will enter a snug little home in New Brunswick, which the groom has prepared.

—About the meanest trick that was ever played on a confiding woman by a low-down cuss of the masculine gender, was that played by a fellow named Charles Gordon on Miss Mary Kephart near Huntingdon. Upon short acquaintance he became engaged to be married to the young woman. The presents were arriving and the honeymoon trip was projected. The groom secured $250 from the bride-elect and her mother, to make additional purchases, and taking the first train west left for parts unknown. Gordon, who is 22 years old, has been on a three months' leave of absence from the regular army and it is thought that he is now on his way to join his command. Officers are on his track.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR SOME ONE.—In another part of this paper will be found an advertisement of the sale of the handsome residence and store property, of Mr. Cameron Boak, in Snow Shoe, this county. Mr. Boak's beautiful home, as well as his store, is offered at a great sacrifice. It is his desire to get entirely out of the mercantile business and make a new home for himself. His store is most admirably adapted to a general merchandise business and enjoys an established trade which has run over $40,000 a year, for some time. Everything is for sale. House, store and goods at a great sacrifice. If you want an investment and a home in one of the prettiest spots in Pennsylvania here is your chance to get it.

The people of Snow Shoe and vicinity will see by the extraordinary figures, at which Mr. Boak is closing out his stock, by the posters he has sent out. Business stands like this one aren't often offered so when you have this opportunity to buy a business, already established, and at an exceedingly low figures we would advise you to consider the matter.

—The Potter House, of Phillipsburg, was considerably damaged by fire which broke out in the cellar of that hostelry on Sunday morning last at about 6 o'clock. Alarms were quickly sounded and the flames were soon extinguished, but not before the house was flooded with water. The explosion of a lamp, which was kept burning in the cellar, is supposed to have been the cause of the conflagration.

—The finest and largest line of Foreign and Domestic woollens for suitings and overcoats ever shown by us. Full assortment of Ready Made clothing Hats, Caps, and Furnishing Goods. MONTGOMERY & Co. Tailors.

FIRE AT LEWISBURG.—At an early hour Monday morning the buildings of the Lewisburg Furniture Company were totally destroyed by fire, involving a loss of $8,000. Insurance $8,000. The fire was caused by watchman Jonas Fry's lantern, which exploded, the unfortunate man himself being probably fatally burned. Through the efforts of the firemen the flames were prevented from spreading to adjoining buildings.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.—We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO., ENOSBURGH FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity to obtaining a valuable book.

It is necessary to mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time. 25 49 10

—A gentleman residing near Woodland has had misfortune heaped upon him of late, according to a story related to us on Saturday evening. He lost $4,000 by the recent bank failure at Clearfield; the mind of his wife then became affected, and having $3,000 in government bonds in the house which he feared she might destroy, he took them out to the corn-crib and secured them in what he supposed to be a safe "hook." Imagine his deep chagrin the other day when he went out to take a look at the bonds and found that the rats had totally demolished them.—Phillipsburg Journal.

Sale Register.

For the benefit of those who contemplate making public sale during the coming season, we will keep a register of all sales within the county as fully as possible, examination of which will be free to all.
