Pine Grove Mentions.

Ex-county Treasurer Goss pleasantly spent several days here where he was greeted by his old time friends after closing up Centr county's finances as Treasurer with marked credit and ability.

Our special friend, W. E. McWilliams, is about disposing of his implement and coal es- coming in upon the fund. tablishment with a view of accepting the business management of a hardware store at Reedsville, Pa. We wish him unbounded success in his new position.

Hon. J. T. McCormick has evidently not lost his former zeal in party work, as he took the usual interest in attending the primary and endeavoring to have placed in nomination a good ticket. John I. expressed himself as very emphatically opposed to the proposed road law which every voter should be, more especially on account of the horde of red tape road engineers at a large salary which would absorb the appropriation very soon and the roads be but little benefited. We venture to say that this end of the county is unanimously opposed to the bill in its present reading and are kicking like double barreled mules.

The death of Miss Ada Bell occurred at the home of her widowed mother on the evening of the 14th inst., aged 37 years, of lung and heart disease. Miss Ada had been in feeble health for months. Sne was a true Christian lady, a member of the Presbyterian church, and long since realized that her stay in this world was but short. She and her older sister lived with their aged mother all their lives. HASTINGS & REEDER, caring for and loving each other. Rev. George Elliott paid the last tribute to one noted for tion, and for her kindness to the poor, sick and afflicted. May the resumment afflicted. May the resurrection flower ever bloom on her grave.

John L. Rumberger died at his home in this township on last Thursday, the 12th inst., after a long illness. For some years he was in delicate health, and for some months confined to his bed, awaiting patiently and calmly his end, expressing the fullest confidence in Go I's promise to his people, and as the supreme hour approached he felt prepared for the great conflict that ended the work of an honest man, a good citizen and kind husband. He married Matilda Gates and lived over half a century. Religiously he was a Lutheran, politically a Democrat, and 'filled many offices of trust in the township. The deceased was born in 1808 near Warrior's Mark, and is the last brother of the numerous Rumberger family who are noted as long livers, his mother having died but a few years since nearly a hundred years old. Three sisters and his wife survive him. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Aikens on the 14th inst, when the remains were interred in Gatesburg ceme-tery followed by a large procession.

TO THE HUNGRY PUBLIC.

It is only thos who eat-the many wh relife, to prolong their existence, that we address.

Those who use nothing,-who think they need nothing,-who live on expectation, hope or some intangible nothing, will save time by passing this column by. It is not intended for them but the other fellows. We write what is here put down for the people who are mortal enough to get hungry, and in consequence of getting hungry are sensible enough to try to get what is good, pure, wholesome and necessary, at prices that do t require them to lay out al. that they earn, to appease their appetites. We have peen in the hunger appeasing business for many, many years. We know what men want, we know what women and children desire, and we know how much better and how much more pleasant it is to reside in a community where people enjoy good health, than among dyspeptic com plainers, growlers and sufferers. To have healthy people pure food must be used. We understand this. and understanding it, keep nothing but the purest of everything that can be found in the market. To satisfy the demands of the many different stomachs that we try to gratify, requires a vast variety of dainties, condiments and relishes, as well as the substantials; and knowing this there is nothing that is eatable, relishable or appetiz-

It is for you who want, or use anything eatable, either as meats, fish, groceries, fruits, nuts, relishes, or in fact anything from a piece of chewing gum to a first class beef steak, that we write and pay the printer to print this invitation for you to come and see us. If you live in town drop in and see what all we have and what quality of goods we carry.

If you live in the country come in the first time you come to town and learn how easy it is to get good, pure, fresh groceries, as low if not lower than many have been in the habit of paying for old, impure and strengthless articles of diet. If you have any good fresh farm produce bring it along. Under any and all circumstances
