Farm Notes.

A township where the farmers have no creamery and don't want one is a good township to avoid when one wants a farm for a home, says the Massachusetts Plowman.

No other element is so inimical to the success of American wool growing as the large use of the lime and sulphur dip. It injures the fibre and lowers the quality of our American-grown

Dr. Abbott, of the Massachusetts State Board of health, says he has evidence that children have died from the use of diseased milk, and yet officers have no power to destroy the cows that are producing it.

Men have spent their whole lives to reach perfection in breeding their animals. We must take advantage of this lifework and turn it to our own account. This can be done now at a small expense, compared to what it use to be.

A moist rich soil is the best for cauliflowers, and in dry weather they should be watered. There is no vegetable grown that can surpass the cauliflower in tenderness, and it is the most highly prized of any of the cabbage family.

It is well to test your cows-know exactly which are paying, both in quality and quantity. Keep a record of your profits and expenses, and you will thus be enabled to know just what your standing is at the end of the sea-

The farmer takes not only the cost but his living out of his receipts before he begins to count the profit. The merchant counts as profit the difference between the buying and selling price, less the cost of transaction, and then lives on his profit.

A. X. Hyatt at the Wisconsin Dairymen's State Convention said: A young man when milking a heifer for the first time, should be as much on his good behavior as he would be if his "best girl" and the minister were standing by to see him do the job.

A Michigan man who keeps accurate and careful accounts, finds that silage can be packed for 75 cents a ton—which includes cost of raising the fodder—and that a steer can be carried through the winter in better order on five tons costing $3.75 than with two ton or $20 worth of hay. The dairy calf should be handled, led by the halter and familiarized with stable usage from the time it is four or five months old. At this age it conforms very readily to desired methods in training and the plan avoids a deal of trouble, a year or two later, when the animal's working age begins.

I sometimes use unleached wood ashes, but never directly in the drill, as it makes the tubers scabby, though I find that muriate of potash will not have this effect, even 600 pounds to the acre in the drill; it makes flattish kinds of potatoes thicker. Ashes do better if applied in the fall. When fall plowing is done in preparation of a crop, or only for its mechanical action on the soil, it should cover up and incorporate all the surface vegetation that will be of benefit to it when decomposed. Many of our best cultivators prefer spreading barnyard manure on the plowed ground to turning it under deeply at time of plowing. Green hickory is preferable to all other woods for smoking meat. Next to this comes corncobs. Only a smoldering fire should be used, as a blaze causes too much heat. A cloudy day should be choosen for this important work. It is only desired to give the meat a pleasant smoke flavor, not a smoke taste that destroys the meat

The milk of sheep is quite largely used in some of the old countries for cheese-making, says the National Stock. man. Sardinia makes over 1,000,000 pounds of this cheese annually. In some of the Italian factories the milk of cows, sheep and goats is mixed in making cheese. There is a small sheep cheese factory in Tennessee. The article is reputed to be "rich and deli cious.' Running a dairy of cows so as to have them dry in the winter, and have nothing to sell from them when butter and cheese are highest, is just about as smart, financially, for a dairy farmer, as it would be for a manufacturer of

Colonel Curtis, of Saratoga county, N. Y., says: Gapes are caused by worm. A remedy is to make the chicken inhale lime dust. Sometimes it kills the worm and sometimes the chicken. Cholera is caused by diarrhœa, which runs into an infection. Do not keep chickens on the same ground; remove all the well ones from the flock. If a man can realize $1.62 Arch St., Phila., Pa. net profit on each hen in a flock of thirty-two, is it not more profitable to keep hens than cows at the present average price for cheese and butter. cost of keep and care of each consid-

There is a difference between kerosene and kerosene emulsion in their Phila., Pa. effects on plants. The emulsion is an excellent insecticide, and also harmless to animals and plants. To make emulsion cut up half a pound of hard soap and let it boil in one gallon of water. When boiling add two gallons of kerosene, but first remove the vessel from the fire to guard against danger. Churn the mixture, and a jelly will result, which will dissolve in water without the kerosene rising to the top of the water. The emulsion as recommended will answer for twenty-five gallons of water.

Hannes Golden Spacific.

It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, wheter the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcholic wreek. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 35-32 ly 185 Race Street, Cincinati, O. and let it boil in one gallon of water.

SHE WANTED TO EXCHANGE.-A solid, sensible-looking woman, who was bound east, entered the baggage rooms of the Third-street depot leading a dog

"Can this dog go in the car with "Nó, ma'am." "Has he got to go in the baggage-car ?' "Yes'm. "Is it extra?" "Fifty cents."

"Well, it's a shame !"
"Yes'm, but it's the rule !"

She walked about for five minutes, the dog at her heels, and then returned to say:

"There are three of us-myself, the dog, and my Lusband.' "If my husband went in the baggage-car couldn't the dog ride in the seat with She managed to choke down her indignation when told that no such change could be effected, but later on, in the waiting-room, she was giving her husband fits, and it was probably because he was satisfied with the rule of the road.—Detroit Free Press.

A SATISFACTORY EXPLANATION.—
"What did Miss Leftover do when she awoke and found the burglar in her room—scream?"

"Not much. She transfixed him with her cold, gray eye, pointed to the door and hissed: 'Leave me!'" "What did the burglar do?"

"He explained that he had no notion of taking her."

PROOF POSITIVE .- "You claim that ou were insane when you proposed to

"Yes, sir." "Can you prove it?" "Yes, sir. "How?"

"By producing the plaintiff in court and letting the jury look at her."

THE COMING METHOD.—Hopeless Lover -- That's your final answer, is it, Marie?

Unresponsive Maiden-It is, Harold. I cannot be your wife. "Then there is nothing left for me but death?" (At restaurant half an hour afterward, to waiter)—"Bring me some oysters on the half shell and a plate of corn beef and cabbage.'

-Burns or wounds should be attended to carefully, especially in cold weather. We would recommend Salvation Oil for such cases. All dealers sell it for only 25 cents a bottle.

A SAVING DISPOSITION .- "My wife has a saving disposition," said Hicks. "When we got our upright piano she made a red plush cover for it, so that the rosewood wouldn't get scratched. Then she covered that with a sort of linen duster arrangement, so as to save the plush. I tell you women have great minds.

-Ely's Cream Balm is worth its weight in gold as a cure for catarrh One bottle cured me.-S. A. Lovell, Franklin Pa.

BUFFER'S DIAMOND.—"That's a fine big diamond of yours, Buffer."

"It is a dandy-isn't it?" "Yes. I wish my friend Bronson could see it. He's an importer."

"Of gems?" "No. Of plate-glass."

-Dyspepsia's victims are numbered by thousands. So are the people who have been restored to health by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HE BEGAN IT .-- Horrified Parent--And you dare to tell me you kissed that young Hankinson last evening! Weeping Daughter-The-the mean thing k-kissed me first.

TO THE HUNGRY PUBLIC.

It is only those who eat-the many who require the necessities of life, to prolong their exstence, that we address.

Those who use nothing,-who think they need nothing,-who live on expectation, hope or some intangible nothing, will save time by passing this column by. It is not intended for them but the other fellows. We write what is here put down for the people who are morta enough to get hungry, and in consequence of getting hungry are sensible enough to try to get what is good, pure, wholesome and necessary, at prices that don't require them to lay out al. that they earn, to appease their appetites. We have peen in the hunger appeasing business for many, many years. We know what men want, we know what women and children desire, and we know how much better and how much more pleasant it is to reside in a community where people enjoy good health, than among dyspeptic complainers, growlers and sufferers. To have healthy people pure food must be used. We understand this. and understanding it, keep nothing but the purest of everything that can be satisfy the demands of the many different stomachs that we try to gratify, requires a vast variety of dainties, condiments and relishes, as well as the substantials; and knowing this there is nothing that is eat-

It is for you who want, or use anything eatable, either as meats, fish, groceries, fruits, nuts, relishes, or in fact anything from a piece of chewing gum to a first class beef steak, that we write and pay the printer to print this invitation for you to come and see us. IMPORTANT—If you cannot read this print distinctly by lamp or gaslight in the evening, at a distance of ten inches, your eyesight is failing, no matter what your age, and your eyes need help. Your sight can be improved and preserved if properly corrected. It is a wrong idea that spectacles should be dispensed with as long as possible. If they assist the vision, use them. There is no danger of seeing too well, so long as the print is not magnified; it should look natural size, but plain and distinct.
