Personal.

Mr. Thomas Collins spent Easter at his home in Bellefonte.

Walter Crosthwaite, a compositor in the Gazette office has accepted a position in an office in Harrisburg. We wish him success.

Mr. Ed. Irvin, one of the young merchants of Julian, was in town on Monday. He brought his sister down to see about entering the Academy for the spring term.

Mr. Edward Kitzell, one of the bookkeepers for the Bellefonte Furnace Company, has gone to Havana, N. Y., where he will be in the service of Mr. Thomas Collins who is grading a railroad in that country.

Ex-County Recorder W. A. Tobias one of the wheel horses of Democracy and leading citizens of the lower end, was in town on business on Thursday. He came up to hear the Franklin and Marshall Glee Club sing.

A. J. Wigham, a very gentlemanly fellow and for some time a compositor on the Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette, passed through town, on Thursday, on his way to State College where he will visit his wife and her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Myerly.

Thos. A. Shoemaker, esq., the general manager of the Bellefonte Furnace Company and Sup't. of the B. & R. Railroad, returned from a trip to Florida on Tuesday night. It was a journey for pleasure, and we haven't a doubt but that he had it.

Miss Fannie Twitmyer returned to her duties at the M'Nersville Seminary, on Monday morning. She sang a solo in the Methodist church during the Sunday evening service and every one seemed delighted with the range and expression of her voice.

Mr. Baker, formerly of Howard, this county, but at present City Auditor of Des Moines, Iowa, writes us that he is "never contented without the news from Centre county" and shows that he knows how to get it by subscribing for the WATCHMAN.

Mr. A. J. McKibben, one of the reliable Democrats of Abdera, Clinton county was in town on Wednesday and dropped in to see us. If we were without a calendar we would still know when the 1st of April comes by the pleasant calls of Mr. McKibben. He is always here with the first and usually a copy of our subscription list.

Rev. Chas. Garner, one of Bellefonte's highly respected colored citizens, has accepted a call to administer to the spiritual welfare of the Tyrono A. M. E. congregation and departed for his station on Tuesday evening. Rev. Garner was recognized as one of the leading colored men of our town. He was given quite an ovation on the afternoon of his departure.

Mr. W. Cann, who for a number of years has been the leading writer on that newsy little daily the Phillipsburg Journal has given up his reportorial position on it and accepted a similar one on a religious paper of New York City. Mr. Cann was in Bellefonte on Monday saying "Good Bye" to his many friends here and to-day, Friday, he leaves for his new field of labor.

According to the Democrat, of Cathage, Md., quite a warm reception was given Mr. Ed. McIntyre, one of Centre county's boys, upon his return to that place. Ed. had started in the practice of law there, but was called home on account of sickness and we suppose the Cathagenians then had time to realize his value in their midst for the reception given him reached the proportions of an ovation.

Among the arrivals on the 10:35 train on Monday morning was Mrs. J. A. Woodcock. She came up from Williamsport and was met by her husband, Rev. J. A. Woodcock. They are moving back to Bellefonte and one is to judge from the expression, "my! but I am glad to get back home," which Mrs. W. uttered as she stepped from the train, we would think that they will never try the experiment of moving away again.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mr. Blanch Matern will succeed Miss Branch Mack as Postmaster at Fairbrook, this county.

Master Samuel Hess, not yet 2 years old commemorated the resurrection by eating thirteen eggs on Easter Sunday.

Mr. E. C. Orndorf recently graduated with first honors, at the Baltimore dental college. The Doctor spent several days with friends in our town and in viewing the improvements of our streets where he used to stamp his toes while laying the foundation of his education. He left on the a. m. train on Monday for Greensburg, where his dental shingle will be judged to the breeze by A. J. Orndorf & Son.

Services commemorative of the crucifixion of the Savior was held in the Lutheran church on Easter evening. Rev. C. T. Aikens conducted the services.

Miss Elsie Housman presided at the organ while the choir was in charge of H. M. Stover. The pupit was tastefully decorated with flowers. Appropriate addresses were made by A. J. Tate and W. C. Dunlap. Several hours were given up to responsive exercises by the various Sunday school classes. The services were solemn and impressive with songs of gladness and rejoicing for the resurrection of the Savior of humanity. Services closed with the repetition of the Lord's prayer by the congregation.

SADDLERY.

GRAND HARNESS OPENING.

—APRIL 11TH 1891.—

We extend a most cordial invitation to our patrons and the public, in general, to witness one of the ever put on the Bellefonte market, which will be made in the large room, formerly occupied by Harper Bros., on Spring street. It has been added to my factory and will be used exclusively for the sale of harness, being the first exclusive sale of harness ever held in this town, as heretofore the custom has been to sell goods in the room in which they were made. This elegant room has been refitted and furnished with glass cases in which the harness can be nicely displayed and still kept away from heat and dust, the enemies of long wear in leather. Our factory now occupies a room 16x74 feet and the store 2x30 added makes it the largest establishment of its kind outside of Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

We are prepared to offer better bargains in the future than we have done in the past and we want everyone to see our goods and get prices for when you do this, out of self defense you will buy. Our profits are not large, but by selling lots of goods we can afford to live in Bellefonte. We are not indulging in idle philanthropy. It is purely business. We are not making much, but trade is growing and that is what we are interested in now. Profits will take care of themselves.

When other houses discharged their workmen during the winter they were all put to work in my factory, nevertheless the big (O) houses of this city and county would smile if we compared ourselves to them, but we do not mean to be so odious, except to venture the assertion that none of them can say, as we can say, "NO ONE OWES US A CENT THAT WE CAN'T GET." This is the whole story.

The following are kept constantly on hand. 50 SETS OF LIGHT HARNESS, prices from $8.00 to $15.00 and upwards. LARGE STOCK OF HEAVY HARNESS, per set $20.00 and upwards. HORSE COLLARS from $1.50 to $3.00 each, over $10.00 worth of HARNESS OILS and AXLE GREASE.

$400 worth of Fly Nets sold cheap from 15c to $1.00 each. Horse Brushes, Curry Combs, Sponges, Chambray, RING SADDLES, LADY SIDESADDLES, Harness Soap, Knee Dusters, at low prices. Saddlery hardware always on hand for sale. Harness Leather as low as 25c per pound. We keep everything to be found in a FIRST CLASS HARNESS STORE—no changing, over 20 years in the same room. No two shops in the same town to catch trade—NO JELLYING OUT for the cent of price. Four harness-makers at steady work this winter. This is our idea of protection to labor, when other houses discharged their hands, they soon found work with us.
