

In the death of P. T. BARNUM on Tuesday the country lost one of its most remarkable characters and the world its greatest showman.

HORSE STOLEN.—A horse and dog cart were stolen on Thursday night last week in Lewistown and Sheriff Ishler received notice on Friday that the thief or thieves were heading this way. The following is the description given: "Black mare with white star on forehead. Two white pastern joints on hind legs. Height, 17 hands; weight, about 1000. Dog cart with red wheels and box; also harness."

ONE YEAR OLD.—Castle 357, Knights of the Golden Eagle, of this place, celebrated the first anniversary of its inception on Tuesday evening last. The occasion was made memorable by the final drawing, in the contest for four prizes, which the Knights have been carrying on for the last two months. George Schaff, Jerome Spiglenyer, Sigmund Joseph and Alfred Hassinger were the successful drawers and carried off the prizes, which were a beautiful lamp, a luxurious chair, some handsome knives and forks and a barrel of flour. The evening was very enjoyably spent by all. The Knights are unusually strong in Bellefonte considering the length of time they have been organized, and the fact that in a year their number should reach one hundred is sufficient augury of future prosperity.

"MY FATHER KNOWETH."
In response to Mrs. Mattie Weaver Givens' poem, "The Shadow of Death."

Dear Sister, bowed low in the shadow
Of the sable-winged angel of death,
All of soul chilled and frozen within thee
By the touch of his fierce icy breath,
Hear you not the glad anthem of Easter?
Our Lord, He is risen to-day,
And adown from the glory eternal
Marks a radiant love-lighted way.
See you not Nature's glad resurrection,
In leaflet, and streamlet, and song
Think you not that the Father? whose mercy
Has strewn all our pathway along,
Will keep for our glad spring awaking,
In a world full of glorified bliss,
All the loves of our lives which have hallowed
The sunshine and shadow of this?
Bow not down; the bruised reed, unbroken,
He will lift to the sunshine again,
And the voice now attuned to sad cadence,
Shall join the triumphant Amen.
Mrs. T. P. RYDNER,
Houtzdale, March 29th, 1891.

Books, Magazines, etc.

The New England Magazine for April contains the following interesting articles written by some of the oldest authors of the time. United States Patent System, James Shepard; Success, Zittella Cooke; Canadian Art and Artists, W. Blackburn Harte; The University of France, W. L. Montague; Morning and Evening, Sheila Parker; Personal Recollections of Schlemann, Hon. Charles K. Tuckerman; Later History of Electricity, George Herbert Stockbridge; Winter Birds in New England, Granville B. Putnam; Hopedale and its Founder, Lewis G. Wilson; A Stepmother's Eldest, Mary L. Adams; The Fates and the Winds, Edward Payson Jackson; A Fair Exchange, H. Dorothy Prescott; A Song of Two Angels, Laura E. Richards; Reminiscences of an Epigot; The History of Historical Writing in America, J. F. Jameson, Ph. D.; Where are Vinland and Norumbega? Alice L. Clark. Editor's Table, Omnibus, Illustrated.

"The New Philadelphia" is the title of a deeply interesting article which will appear in the May Cosmopolitan, and is from the pen of Mr. Henry C. Walsh. To those who are not entirely familiar with "the city of brotherly love" of to-day, and who taking the joke-maker at his word, entertain the erroneous idea that the third largest city in the Union is at best but a sleepy and unenterprising town, the Cosmopolitan's article will prove a veritable revelation. The great change that has been wrought during the past decade in the external appearance of Philadelphia is ably set forth and greatly augmented by the splendid illustrations drawn by Mr. Harry Fenn. A glance at these masterly drawings shows that in beauty of construction and design in her houses, clubs and commercial buildings, Philadelphia stands at the very head of flourishing American cities. The business, social and intellectual advancement of this, perhaps, the most habitable of cities, is no less marked than is its mere outward progression. Doubtless too much attention has been paid to other more ostentatiously progressive cities—especially of the West—in the exclusion of the Quaker City and its marvelous growth. The article in the May Cosmopolitan, however, places Philadelphia before the public in its true light as one of the best governed, most enterprising, and socially, commercially and politically progressive city of the United States.

An eccentric old gentleman living in a London suburb lately caused his neighbors much amusement by the bulletins of his health displayed during his illness, conspicuously posted on his door. These, dictated by himself, were touched somewhat in the style of the late Emperor William's pious telegrams from the seat of war, and ran as follows: "By the Grace of God I have been enabled to Eat a little Chicken," or "Thank the Lord! I have slept well." Every one who passed naturally stopped to read the odd inscriptions, and the old gentleman was firmly and happily convinced that the interest excited by his illness was universal.

A most unusual surgical operation was successfully performed the other day at the Cincinnati (Ohio) hospital, the object being to remove a child from idioy. The preliminary examination revealed the fact that the child's skull was abnormally compressed and prematurely ossified. The physicians decided to remove a portion of the bony dome so as to allow the brain to develop. The operation was successfully performed, a strip half an inch wide and five inches in length being removed and the scalp neatly joined over the space. The child rallied and seems to be doing well.

School Report.

FILMORE, April 2nd, 1891.

Report of Armstrong school, Benner township: The number of male pupils were 17, females 15, total number 32. Average attendance during the whole term, 27. Total during term until date 96 per cent.

An exhibition given at the close of the school was a grand success. The following were some of the pieces: Bellesque lecture on Sound by John Shadle; Hints on Courtship by Harry Reeser; Lecture on Bulging Negro, by Charley Taylor; Pity the Poor Man's Sorrows, by Frank Hunsinger, and a Yankee in Love by J. W. Clark. Dialogues, Inforcing a Moral, by Bessie Reeser, Lula Knox, Mary Bill, Anna Bell, Damaris Knox, Sarah Armagast, Harry Reeser, Charley Taylor, Henry Knox and Harry Masser. How She Managed Him, by Bessie Reeser, Harry Reeser, Eddie Taylor and John Shadle; An Enforced Cure, by Bessie Reeser, Lula Knox, Mattie Bodie, J. W. Clark, Thomas Tressler, John Shadle, John Bell, Eddie Taylor, Edward Lowery.

Misses Minnie Reeser and Nannie Hunter, Messers. Andrew Reeser and Oscar Hunter furnished the staging; Miss Reeser played the organ. The following were a few of the songs: "Around the Corner Waiting"; "Girls Wait for a Temperance Man"; "A Drunken Father"; "My little Brother Joe"; "You will miss me when I am gone." The valedictory address was given by Mattie Bodie. The proceeds of the exhibition were to buy a dictionary for the school. J. W. Clark, Teacher.

WHERE SHALL I BUY MY CLOTHING?

The changing seasons once again bring back this same old question to every man—YOURSELF INCLUDED. Of course you are going to spruce up a little this Spring as every one else does! Nothing extravagant, a new suit which will be more comfortable and appropriate for the warm days that are coming and a few articles from our furnishing goods department will perhaps be all that is required to put you right before the world. Still there will be no dodging that OLD, OLD QUESTION.

Where shall I buy my clothing? It is bound to come up and must be decided before you make your purchases. Now what say you? Let us answer the question for you this time. We will pay well for the privilege and you shall be more than satisfied. This is our offer to those who will let us name the place where they shall buy their Clothes:

FIRST a square deal—SECOND, a saving of several dollars, more or less, according to the amount of your purchase. THIRD, that good quality, material and make which is only found in clothing that will stay by you. 4th, the newest, best of styles, in fabric, cut and fit and a generous assortment in every grade that a first class clothing establishment could be expected to carry in stock.

Now these shall be yours if you leave to us the decision as to where you shall buy your clothes this season. There is no disputing that our new line of spring and summer goods is a marvel of fine qualities and good values at fair prices. In fact it is the largest and most complete assortment of clothing and Gents furnishing goods ever brought to Center county.

If you favor us with your patronage we promise you the best values which your money can obtain for you. Give us a call. You shall have the most careful attention,

Unlimited opportunity for a satisfactory selection, a perfect fit and the fairest prices you have ever received.
