

Bellefonte, Pa. April 17, 1891.

FAME WEALTH, LIFE, DEATH.

BY WALTER W. SKEAT.

What is fame? 'Tis the sun-gleam on the mountain...

What is wealth? 'Tis a rainbow, still receding...

What is life? 'Tis the earthly hour of trial...

What is death? Past its dark, mysterious portal...

JARED HARPWICK'S TASK.

The task was brought upon Jared Harpwick by a letter which came to him one September afternoon...

well the character of this father and son. Since Joe had been old enough to assert himself there had been antagonism between them...

compensate him for this? A shade passed over Harpwick's face and he did not reply...

The Peasant's Reply. A gentleman who had recently returned from Russia relates an incident which, although trifling in itself, is yet most pathetically suggestive...

Hard, Common Sense. You hear and read a great deal about the tyranny of parents who refuse to sanction marriages, but that which is called tyranny is in many cases hard, honest common sense and good judgment...

Snakes That Eat Eggs. The funniest snake I know anything about is one found in Africa, which lives upon eggs...

France's Executive. The President of France is chosen by a majority vote of both branches of parliament sitting together as a joint assembly...