

BUNCO MEN DO BUSINESS IN RENOV.
 —On Saturday, at Renovo, George Burgers was besaced of $700 in the following manner: Two men, who said their names were Dr. Randall and James Cameron, came to him and stated that one of them wanted to buy his brewery, located at St. Mary's. They maneuvered around until they got him into a tent at the circus, which was exhibiting there, and soon became interested in a game of three card monte. Soon Mr. Burgers was the happy winner of $1,000, but before the other parties would hand over the amount Mr. B. was required to demonstrate to them that he could pay $1,000 if he had lost. He did not have the money but soon found a friend who loaned him $700. The party that desired to buy the brewery here stepped forward and loaned him the other $300. As soon as they were satisfied the money was all there the others sharper grabbed it and escaped under the canvas. The brewery buyer was horrified at the action of his partner and promised Mr. Burgers that he would send him a check for the $2,000 as soon as he returned to Warren, where he claimed to reside. Burgers did not altogether believe him and came to Lock Haven and swore out a warrant for their arrest. Next morning Constable Martin and Policemen Strunk arrested them and took them before Alderman Harris, where they gave as their names W. H. Harris and George Giltz. They were sent to jail to await a hearing.

COMMON SENSE JUSTICE.—The confession of David Nicely serves one good purpose in showing that innocent men are rarely convicted under our much-maligned jury system, and conversely, that guilty ones rarely escape. The persistence of the effort, and the ingenuity of it, to secure the acquittal of him and his brother were exceptional, yet all the facts on which the effort was based were passed upon by men of merely plain common sense. The sticking to a common sense view of the testimony reached the truth, while attorneys, who might be expected to take a more correct because more critical view of it, went far wide of the truth, as they are quoted as having declared since the execution that it was judicial murder. The greatest affairs of the world are conducted by men who lay no claim to genius, whose triumphs when studied are seen to be due to common sense, and there is no reason to doubt that it secures positive justice in the courts far more frequently than is supposed. Whenever a man is said to be unjustly convicted, it will be well to remember the loud declarations of the Nicelys when face to face with death, the equally loud declarations of their advocates after the execution, and then the confession which brings shame to both. If it be within reasonable possibility that a jury, and after fit the Pardon Board, would err in regard to the guilt of a capital crime, the error would have occurred under the extraordinary effort made to save these red-handed brothers.

A FIRST CLASS SHOW.—Tuesday was show day and Bellefonte put on her holiday attire. At two o'clock a. m., the train bearing Wallace & Co.'s Great modern shows steamed into town and work was immediately begun on the preparation for the day's entertainment. A small army of attaches came tumbling out of the sleeping cars and before long everything was bustle, but extremely orderly and quiet. Every man seemed to know his place and that was where he was found. The wagons and paraphernalia were soon transferred to the grounds, and the tents, one after another, raised, until the whole lot was under canvas.

At ten o'clock the parade was formed and a neater, better looking street pageant we have never seen with any circus. The wagons, cages, tableaux and horses were in excellent condition and the uniforms looked bright and attractive. Three bands, a steam piano and a Highlander with his bag pipe enlivened the line of march with good music. Large crowds thronged the streets and every one seemed delighted.

The performance in the afternoon was greeted by a fair sized audience which showed its approval by its enthusiasm. The actors and actresses were all stars in their lines, and some of the specialty features introduced were really wonderful. The feats of the contortionist and of the man who, while lying on his back, juggles his boy with his feet, are simply marvelous, and we have never seen anything that compares with it. The general cleanliness and harmonious colorings of the costumes were the subjects of universal admiration, and we can say without fear of contradiction that the general tenor of the performance and everything connected with this aggregation was the equal, and superior in many respects, to either the Barnum or Forepaugh shows on their last visits to Bellefonte.

To Willis Cobb, the gentlemanly and courteous representative, we are indebted for much kindness. His solicitude for the comfort of the press has made him a most welcome visitor to the fraternity wherever he goes. The management need have no fear of the proper representation of their business when it is in the hands of a man like Mr. Cobb.

 NOTHING BUT FACTS.
 If you are told that you can buy, in Centre county, a more reliable or better article in foot wear of any description for less money than you can at Power's Store, you will find it a mistake by calling and examining their prices and stock.

TWENTY-ONE years experience in the business, in Bellefonte, has enabled them to select goods suitable to the wants of the people, both in price and quality. Their stock is as large, if not the largest, as any in the county and the shoe business gets all their attention, and they are familiar with all the leading manufacturers and jobbers in the country.

Owing to these facts it is absurd to think that any one can buy goods for less money and consequently sell for less.

Limiting Population Is Bad.
President Tanier Will Give Prizes to Wives.

LONDON, May 17.—Great interest has been created in the deliberations of the French Academy of Medicine, which has been discussing the question of population. France has long posed as the chief country in Europe in which the various methods are employed for the limiting of the number of her children, therefore the action of Dr. Tanier, the president of the Academy of Medicine, has created a good deal of talk.

President Tanier is of opinion that the limiting of population is not an un-mixed blessing, and that it can be carried too far. Where others have put a premium on sterility he proposes one on fructiculture, for he has published a promise that to the wife of every poor man in his native town of Burgundy he will give a present of 100 francs—say $20— to each child born to her during the course of the year 1892.

Fish are attracted by the electric light, the same as insects and birds, and it has been found that the placing of an electric lamp of high power in the sea, even at a part not frequented by fish, causes members of the finny tribe to flock in great numbers.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—George W. Wiley, of Clearfield, Pa., and Marjorie E. Woomer, of Blair county; Julius F. Files and Mattie Hamer, both of Philipsburg; George M. Batdorf and Annie M. Deobler, both of Rebersburg.

Pine Grove Mentions.
 J. S. McCormick, one of the old democratic wheel horses of this township, accompanied by his little grandson, were among the sight seers at the State capitol grounds last week.

Robert Meek, of Altoona, spent several days viewing his broad acres here.

All lovers of music will have an opportunity to attend a first class musical concert in the academy hall next Saturday evening, the class consisting of one hundred fingers.

The memorial sermon will be preached in the Lutheran church by Rev. C. T. Allen. All soldiers are invited, with their members of G. A. or not.

The usual decoration ceremonies will be observed at Pine Grove, Meek's and Pine Hill cemeteries. Prominent speakers have been invited and will be in attendance.

The venerable Reed Barr died at his home, Sunday night, of that fatal disease consumption, after months of lingering illness, aged 76 years. Deceased was a painter by trade and well known in this and adjoining counties.

He was a native of Mifflin county, but has been a resident of our township for 50 years as one of our useful citizens. Two sons and two daughters mourn the loss of a most kind and indulgent parent. His remains were lowered beneath the sod by the side of his wife in the Pine Grove cemetery, followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends, on the 19th inst., Rev. George Elliott, of the Presbyterian church, officiating, of which church the deceased was a life long consistent member.

Pennsylvania State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry.
 CENTRE HALL, PA. MAY 12, 1891.
 To the Patrons of Husbandry of Pennsylvania

Pursuant to resolution adopted by the National Grange, the Worthy Master of that body has, by proclamation, set apart the 6th day of June, 1891, as Children's Day, and in conformity with the desire that all Granges of the land may observe the same day, I hereby select the 6th day of June as Children's Day in Pennsylvania, and trust that all good Patrons will so observe it as to make it also a feast day for the Court of Flora. Let this day be made memorable by gathering flowers and decorating our Grange halls, so as to make them enchanted gardens. Hold meetings for the young people, and let the hours be occupied in recitations, songs and instrumental music, and a banquet for the children. I trust Patrons will lay aside all work on that day, and strive to make it memorable in our Grange history. Fraternally,
 LEONARD RHONE,
 Master State Grange Pennsylvania.

Attest:
 R. H. THOMAS,
 Secretary State Grange of Pennsylvania.

TO THE PUBLIC.—We take pleasure in informing our many customers and public in general that we have located our office next door to Schofield's saddlery on Spring street, in charge of J. H. YOU HAVE TREATED US LOYALLY

The four years we have been in business. We consider ourselves under many obligations to you for the manner in which you have stood by us. But you deserve more than thanks, and you shall have it. We intend to merit, your patronage now more than ever.

Money is scarce—we know it; but clothing is plenty and we intend to put it within reach of the very poorest. If you want a suit for yourself, we have everything that is in the market. We can give you those cheap shoddy goods that you see advertised for $3 and $4 per suit. But that is not the class of goods we want to sell you. We want to sell you strictly honest goods, goods that will give you service, that you will be satisfied with, and make you customers of ours for ever.

Now, then, we will sell you a suit for yourself that is all wool for $7. And when we say all wool we mean it. For your boy, if he is within the age of 14 to 18, $5.50 will get him the same kind of a suit. If he is within the age of 4 and 14, and wears short pants, $3.50 is all that is needed.

These goods are all worth a great deal more money than we ask for them, but we have got more than we need. Some are single suits, odds and ends, a few of them from last season—but they are all the greatest values for the money that you have ever seen, and you must see them to get an idea how cheap they are.

Thanking you again for past favors, and hoping that for your interests, as well as ours, you will give us a call and satisfy yourself that there is no place in Central Pennsylvania where you can buy clothing cheaper than from us.

Remain, Respectfully,
 M. FAUBLE, Prop'r

SHAFFER'S GALLERY
 BELLEFONTE, PA.

This is a big cut—only half the former price—but it is genuine. Of late some of those first class (?) leading (?) photographers of this section have been putting the prices way down to catch trade.

Now I propose to put down the bars for a short time to give a little amusement to the people and make it interesting for my professional friends.

This week I engaged several good workmen to assist me upon the great rush that will follow for good photos at low prices. "While the band is playing" don't miss the opportunity to stop said my gallery. While the prices are down, I will continue to do the best of work, promptly and satisfactorily.

This is no Fake, like others advertised. No deception, no fraud, and above all no poor work will be turned out. Call at
