Medicinal.

VERY IMPORTANT.

The importance of taking a good Spring Medicine cannot be overestimated. The changing weather affects the human system in such a way that it is now in great need of and especially susceptible to the benefit to be derived from a reliable preparation like Hood's Sarsaparilla. To make your blood pure, give you a good appetite, and make you strong, this spring you should take Hood's Sarsaparilla the best.

SPRING MEDICINE.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is invaluable as a spring medicine; it invigorates the whole system and tones up the stomach, and since I became acquainted with Hood's Sarsaparilla I always take several bottles in the spring, and as occasion requires, the rest of the year." L. U. GILMAN, Aurelia, Iowa.

GOOD HEALTH AND ENERGY.

"We have been using Hood's Sarsaparilla in the family for several years. I do wish that every family had it in the house, as it would make times better. I, every one would have more confidence and energy after taking a few bottles. Good health and energy improve business, poor health the reverse; if all took Hood's Sarsaparilla there would be no dull times. I will always use it and advise others to."

Mrs. H. D. FERRELL, Rondout, New York.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

DELMATER'S Want a Change of Venue—To Be Argued in Harrisburg.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—The Supreme Court to-day granted a rule on the District Attorney of Crawford county to show cause why a change of venue should not be granted in the case of G. W. Delmater & Co., the Meadville bankers, charged with embezzlement. In their petition the accused bankers state that owing to the public feeling against them they do not think they could get an impartial trial in Crawford county. The writ is returnable at Harrisburg on the first Monday in June, when argument will be heard.

Various Hues.

Every once in a while the African mind will evolve an expression that has a wealth of grotesque poetry in it. An elderly man who is employed about one of the public buildings in this city was heard to remark:

"I dunno what I see gwine ter do fer close for all ob my family?"

"Have you a large family, uncle?" said one of the clerks in a quizzical tone.

"Are they all the same color as you?" "No, sah; day varies, rangin' all de way from dusk to midnight."

"I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the Use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

BOSTON STYLE.—Arabella—"During your visit to Boston did you encounter Cupid's darts?"

Bertha—"Boston cupids do not use darts?"

Arabella—"What then, do they use?"

Bertha—"Bean shooters."

A VERY OLD SPIDER.—French scientists are puzzling over a spider which was discovered in a cavity in a stone. It is estimated that the stone must be at least 4,000 years old; this notwithstanding, however, the spider is quite lively and youthful in its antics. It is blind and has no mouth.

CRUSHED BY A MENDICANT.—Well dressed Party—"No, I've got nothing for you. Ain't you ashamed to be begging?"

Begeat—"You are the one to be ashamed—dressed up like a gentleman and never a nickel in your clothes."

AN ETHICAL POINT.—La Fiance—"I am sorry to hear papa is speculating so heavily."

Le Fiance—"By Jove! it is almost criminal for a man to speculate with money that ought to be saved for his son-in-law's Life."

SATISFIED.—Johnny (sobbing)—"Does it really h-h hurt you to whip me, Mama?"

Mama—"No, my son; very much more than it hurts you."

Johnny (drying his eyes)—"I'm so glad!"

THE PRODIGAL FAMILY.—Prodigal Son—"I come to you with a heavy heart."

Prodigal Father—"And a light pocket-book. I know all about that. How much do you need now?—Tecos Sifting."

PERFIDAGE IN THE MENAGERIE.—"I wish you monkeys would quit your everlasting chattering!" exclaimed the lion.

"What do you want to put in your roar for?" asked a giddy young simian.

A TRAITOR.—Mr. Giltman—"What have you done with my wife's pet poodle that I paid you $20 to steal?"

Snake Thief Bill—"I returned it this morning and got the $50 reward the offered for it."

Ages and Opinions of Birds.

A German ornithologist has been looking into the subject of bird's ages recently. The swan, he concludes, is the longest lived of all birds. The oldest swan of which there is a record lived 300 years. Many falcons are known to have lived 162 years. The vulture and eagle are also very long lived.

In 1819 an osprey died which had been caught in 1716, at which time it was full grown and probably five or six years old. A white-headed vulture caught in 1706 died in the bird house of the imperial palace at Schonbrunn, near Vienna, in 1824.

Parrots often live a century after they have been captured and tamed. Sea and swamp birds usually live several generations. Geese, if left to themselves, and cuckoos also reach a very old age. Ravens rarely die under 100 years of age. Magpies seldom pass more than twenty or twenty-five years in confinement. When free they live forty or fifty years.

The barnyard rooster in good luck is generally healthy and strong till he has passed his fifteenth year. Pigeons are good for ten years; singing birds for eight to eighteen years. Nightingales live about fifteen years; canaries, in captivity, twelve to fifteen years, although on the islands where they originated they often live twenty-five and thirty years.

Just why birds get so much more of life than is men something that nobody knows. One reason often given is that they eat so much. A bird's appetite is tremendous. A thrush puts down with one swallow the biggest snail. To perform a corresponding feat a man would have to take a whole leg of beef at one bite. A robin red breast is also a terrible eater. It has been calculated that a worm four-foot long is required daily to keep a robin in good condition.

ITCHING SCALP SCALP

WITH THREATENED LOSS OF LUXURANT HAIR, 50 INCHES LONG, CURED BY CUTICURA FOR $1.25.

Warm weather caused my head to perspire very much, causing an irritation developing into a rash, which was further irritated by my finger-nails, causing a scale to cover the lower back part of my head. My doctor recommended more easily apply treatment, as he felt assured it would otherwise spread all over my head and probably kill the roots. As I have a very abundant head of hair, fifty inches long, I do not mind much. What was prescribed in the meantime gave no help. The itching sensation was so intense, it was simply impossible to keep my nails away. I washed it each day with a silk sponge and Cuticure Soap. Then after drying well and rubbing briskly, I applied Cuticure Salve. I did not use a whole piece of soap and but one half of the Cuticure Ointment. My scalp has been thoroughly healthy for one year, and I feel free to give your remedies a warm recommendation.
