

LET THE BANDS PLAY.—The Band Tournament at Renovo Thursday of last week did not pan out as extensively as was expected, there being but eight bands in attendance, but it was considered encouraging enough for a starter. After the parade and the other exercises there was a business meeting resulting in the election of officers as follows:

President—M. Doyle Marks, of Renovo; Vice President—E. G. Wittmann, of St. Marys; Secretary—Coryell Ross, of Renovo; Treasurer—J. Waldron, St. Marys; Musical Director—Joel Miller, Ridgway.

The name of the association was changed by dropping the word Central and making it the Pennsylvania Band Tournament Association.

It was unanimously agreed to hold the next meeting in Ridgway on June 16 and 17, 1922. The meeting then adjourned to convene in Ridgway at the President's call to arrange for the next annual tournament.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Rev. C. T. Alkens and wife are spending their summer vacation with relatives at Hanover and Gettysburg.

Mr. W. Mills Shiffer, one of Sunbury's prominent citizens and a former town boy, paid a hasty visit to his aged mother, Mrs. Shiffer, of this place.

Our village blacksmith, Sam Irvin, is boasting of a baby girl at their house. It is already noticed that his dinner hours are longer, the extra time being devoted to rocking the cradle.

Mr. Samuel Sharer, with his bride, took his departure for their home in Illinois, followed by a host of well wishes from the many friends of the bride, Miss Sophia Young, for their future happiness and comfort.

County Superintendent Eiters gave the class at this place quite a vigorous examination. Those holding professional certificates were required to be examined. The class consisted of twenty-one, and of that number three failed.

The Pine Hall festival held by Washington Grange was largely attended and was one of the most pleasant gatherings of the season socially. The evening air was inflated with splendid music by the Pine Hall, State College and Pine Grove Bands.

Last Sunday was children's day in the M. E. church. The church was tastefully decorated with festoons and flowers, a cross towering to the ceiling trimmed with evergreens, above which was a lighted pyramid adding to the brilliancy of the occasion. The exercises were well performed and were interspersed with excellent music furnished by a well trained choir for the occasion. The address of the pastor, Rev. A. L. Miller, was listened to by a crowded house—which should have responded with a more liberal collection for the aid of needy young men fitting the meselves for the ministry.

At his home on the 11th inst., Mr. V. B. Hurst died of consumption, aged 54 years, 7 months and six days. An honored citizen, a kind neighbor and husband has been taken from among his people. As a model hotel man he gained hosts of friends all over central Pennsylvania, where none was more favorably known than he. He leaves a wife, and the sympathy of the community goes out to her in her bereavement. His remains were interred with the honors of his Lodge, No. 176, I. O. O. F., followed to the tomb on the 13th inst. by a large concourse of people to drop a tear at his grave.

On the 13th, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Grieb, Mr. John C. Krumrine died of a complication of diseases in the 77th year of his age. Mr. Krumrine was well known as one of our most successful farmers who by industry became owner of several fine farms. In his manner he was modest and for him can be said he had no enemies. Politically he was a Democrat, religiously a German Reformed, and was the oldest member of the Pine Hall congregation, in which cemetery his remains were laid to rest on the 15th inst. A wife, five daughters and four sons survive the death of an indulgent father and husband.

And still another headlight is gone in the person of Mrs. Clara Miller, died at her home, aged 78 years, on the morning of the 19th inst., after an illness of but a few hours. Although she had been complaining of heart trouble for years, not one of her family thought her end so near, she having retired in her usual health and not until 3 o'clock in the morning did she become suddenly ill and in a few hours her spirit took its flight to the realms of bliss, to her husband who preceded her almost a quarter of a century ago. All these years she lived in the state of widowhood, in her pleasant home surrounded by several of her family who kindly attended to the wants of one of the kindest of mothers who in years gone by ministered to the many wants of four sons and four daughters of whom but one daughter survives her. She was a member of the Lutheran church and her remains were interred at the Bousburg cemetery. Rev. Trostle officiating.

At this writing Mrs. Rachel Dale is lying at death's door from an attack of paralysis. She formerly was Miss Rachel Mitchell, of this place.

Friday the 19th inst. Elizabeth Archey died at the old Archey homestead, half a mile east of town, in the 73d year of her life. This estimable old lady's death was a relief to her, as her body had grown to a great size caused by valvular trouble of the heart, coupled with dropsy. She was often visited with severe attacks which threatened a fatal termination. Still she would bear up under the great affliction with patience and christian fortitude. She learned to know her Saviour in her youthful days and came to her end in full hope of an endless life above. As a counselor and a mother, her memory will live in the hearts of her daughters, Mrs. H. M. Snyder, Mrs. Wm. Marz and Jennie and A. G. Archey. The last two named cared for and administered to her wants in her declining years. She was of Irish descent, born in Ireland, and the age of about 22 years, then the mother of two little girls, with her husband she set sail for America. Since that time, or most of it, she lived within sight of the place of her death. The old arm chair at home and her pew in the sanctuary are forever vacated by one who as a shock of corn ripe in years, was gathered home. The funeral service was conducted on Sunday a. m. by her pastor, Rev. Geo. Elliott, of the Presbyterian church, who paid the last tribute to the deceased.

William Myers' Crime.

MCKEESPORT, Pa., June 21.—The families of William Myers and Harding, both mill men, have been living within a stone's throw of each other for years, and became very friendly. Last night about nine o'clock Harding called Myers over for a friendly chat. Myers responded, but Harding was obliged to leave the room for a few minutes. When he returned his wife lay astride the door dangerously wounded, while Myers was stretched inside with a bullet through his brain.

Mrs. Harding, who is shot in three places, but not fatally, says that Myers avowed his love for her and asked her to elope with him to Germany. She refused, with the above result. Both parties were married, respectable, and have children.

Powers Shoe Store.

READ AND REFLECT.

NOTHING BUT FACTS.

If you are told that you can buy, in Centre county, a more reliable or better article in foot wear of any description for less money than you can at Power's Store, you will find it a mistake by calling and examining their prices and stock.

TWENTY-ONE years experience in the business, in Bellefonte, has enabled them to select goods suitable to the wants of the people, both in price and quality. Their stock is as large, if not the largest, as any in the county and the shoe business gets all their attention, and they are familiar with all the leading manufacturers and jobbers in the country.

Owing to these facts it is absurd to think that any one can buy goods for less money and consequently sell for less.

Look for the sign of the Big Shoe.

YOU HAVE TREATED US LOYALLY

The four years we have been in business. We consider ourselves under many obligations to you for the manner in which you have stood by us. But you deserve more than thanks, and you shall have it. We intend to merit, your patronage now more than ever.

Money is scarce—we know it; but clothing is plenty and we intend to put it within reach of the very poorest. If you want a suit for yourself, we have everything that is in the market. We can give you those cheap shoddy goods that you see advertised for $3 and $4 per suit. But that is not the class of goods we want to sell you. We want to sell you strictly honest goods, goods that will give you service, that you will be satisfied with, and make you customers of ours for ever.

Now, then, we will sell you a suit for yourself that is all wool for $7. And when we say all wool we mean it. For your boy, if he is within the age of 14 to 18, $5.50 will get him the same kind of a suit. If he is within the age of 4 and 14, and wears short pants, $3.50 is all that is needed.

These goods are all worth a great deal more money than we ask for them, but we have got more than we need. Some are single suits, odds and ends, a few of them from last season—but they are all the greatest values for the money that you have ever seen, and you must see them to get an idea how cheap they are.

Thanking you again for past favors, and hoping that for your interests, as well as ours, you will give us a call and satisfy yourself that there is no place in Central Pennsylvania where you can buy clothing cheaper than from us.

Remain, Respectfully,
M. FAUBLE, Prop'r
