

ANOTHER GUILLESS GRANGER SWINDLED.—Nicholas Lewis, one of Sinking Valley's prosperous farmers, had an expensive experience with a slick lighting rod agent yesterday. On Wednesday two smooth-tongued travelers stopped at Mr. Lewis' house and entered with him into a contract by which they as representatives of the "National Copper Tube Co.," were to furnish lightning rods for his dwelling house. They agreed to furnish 75 feet free of charge and estimated the total cost of the work to be $6, but the contract was slyly worked "65 cents per foot for as much as it takes."

Yesterday another oily individual appeared, and astounded Mr. Lewis by demanding advance payment by note of $200, which he said would be the total cost of putting up the rods. Mr. Lewis naturally demurred and the persistent agent then suggested a compromise by which Mr. Lewis should give him $75 and get no rods at all. By dint of smooth talking he finally succeeded in obtaining from the bewildered farmer $25 in cash and a note for $45. Satisfied with his work, the agent then departed.

Mr. Lewis came to town to-day and notified the Tyrone and Altoona banks not to accept the note. With the publicity gained by publication of the fraud in the Blair county newspapers, it is hoped that no trouble will be occasioned by the making of the note.—Tyrone Herald.

A BRUTE WHO SHOULD BE HUNTED UP AND PUNISHED.—The Clearfield Raftsmen publishes the following case of cruel treatment of a horse:

Some persons coming toward Clearfield from Clearfield creek on Monday morning, discovered a horse and buggy some few rods from the public road in the woods, on this side of Robert Wrigley's, in Lawrence township. The horse was dead, but his lifeless form was still hitched to the buggy, which was a fine new covered rig with all equipments. After considerable inquiry it was learned that the rig belonged to Alex. Dougan, liverman at Woodland, who it seemed had hired it on Sunday evening to one George Wisor, with the distinct understanding that it was only to be driven one mile and a half, as the horse was tired, and Mr. Dougan was very reluctant about his going even the short distance mentioned. It is supposed that he was driven until he could not go farther, when he was pulled off the road and allowed to die. Wisor is among the missing at this writing. Here is a case for Comstock's agent in Clearfield that should be punished, if the offender can be captured.

DEATH OF GODFREY BAISOR.—The people of Godfrey township, this county, are somewhat shocked over the very sudden death of Mr. Godfrey Baisor, which occurred there Monday evening about 8.30 o'clock. The aged gentleman was standing on the porch watching to see the cows come home when he suddenly fell over and in less than fifteen minutes was dead.

Mr. Baisor was 79 years, 6 months and 8 days old. He leaves an invalid wife and four children, George, Catherine, Elizabeth and Leah, to mourn their loss. He has for many years been a consistent member of the Lutheran church. The remains were interred at the Lutheran church at Centre line on Wednesday morning.

—Simon P. Wolf, for some years residing near Greenburr, Clinton county, as a farmer, died at the residence of his brother John, near Rebersburg, on the 25th ult., aged about 47 years. Since the death of his wife about a year ago his health failed rapidly, in consequence of which he abandoned farming and went to live with his brother.

—Rev. Miles O. Noll, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church, was married on Thursday of last week to Miss Catherine Folmer, of Milton, Rev. J. Irvin Hendricks, of the latter place, performing the ceremony. Mr. Noll brought his bride to this place on Monday, and was given a handsome reception on the evening of that day at the residence of C. M. Bower, Esq.

Pine Grove Mentions.
Haymaking is well on the way with the lightest crop in many years.

With the ending of this week most of our farmers will have commenced grain cutting and some will have finished. The crop is a good one and of excellent quality.

Judge Krebs of Clearfield county, with his family are visiting the home of his boyhood here, greeting his old associates and looking well. The Judge, although one of the youngest in the state, has achieved a high reputation as a most able and impartial jurist, of all of which we are proud, for his honor is a Ferguson township boy and laid the foundation of his education at our academy.

Rab, for the Fourth. The glorious Fourth is to be celebrated in our town all day. Base ball game by the fat and the lean clubs, pig race and tub race, balloon ascension, and fireworks in the evening. The committee are sparing no pains and means to make it a success. The fellow who was so enthusiastic last Saturday evening was just a week previous.

The barn raising of J. H. Nideigh was completed last Friday on what is known as part of the Brett estate. Men were plenty and every mortice and tenon was exact. This is another plum on the hats of Messrs. Krebs and Dunlap as barn carpenters. J. Shannon McCormick lent a helping hand as the veteran barn raiser of this section of the county, swelling his list to one hundred and six barns to which he gave his assistance.

Some of the boys who attended and had some fun at the expense of the Bellefonte festival last Saturday evening, were later on taken charge of by high constable Meyers. The law was meted out to them very sparingly by Justice Miller, by imposing a fine and costs. From this some of our town boys might learn a lesson. Boys, beware, and don't just for fun annoy people by swearing, boxing, quarreling and using the vilest slang on the streets.

This week we sadly note the death of Mrs. Felix Dale, at her home, on the 26th inst., from a paralytic shock received some ten days previous. The deceased lady had been working in the yard, but had sat down, partly to rest and do some needle work, when it was noticed that her head was leaning. She was asked what was the matter, and replied, "not anything," but suddenly her head fell forward. Medical aid was hastily summoned. She recovered sufficiently to recognize her friends and converse with them until the last, when death ended the sad scene, which was doubly so as her husband was confined to his bed by her infirmity. The deceased was a most amiable lady, loved and respected by all. She had a kind word and a smile for every one, and none more than the writer knew the depth of her kind benevolent nature. Her old friend, Dr. Hammill, who knew her from infancy, paid a high tribute at her burial on Sunday p. m., to one who had lived and died a Christian. The remains were interred at the Branch cemetery. Her nephews, Mr. David and Elmer Campbell, Calvin, Andrew and Clayton Struble and Jack Dale, Esq., acted as pall bearers. The deceased was the youngest sister of ex-Treasurer, J. B. Mitchell, Jas. H. Mitchell and Mrs. C. H. Struble, and was born on the old Mitchell homestead near this town in 1834.

—It is with much pleasure that we acknowledge our indebtedness to H. J. Smith & Co., of Philadelphia, for a copy their new song folio entitled "Our Hearts Delights." It presents a very attractive exterior, bound as it is in light cloth beautifully illuminated with tints suggestive to every lover of music, of the treats to be found in the inside, which is filled with sweet melodies of the past and present culled from the productions of our greatest composers, including portraits of Beethoven, Mozart, Mendelssohn and many more equally celebrated artists, and comprising their most brilliant symphonies, sonatas and operas, as well as a number of the most popular songs and waltzes gathered in delightful variety from every source.

LITTLE THINGS THAT TELL.—It is the little things that tell—little brothers, for instance, who hide away in the parlor while sister entertains her beau, etc. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are little things that tell. They tell on the liver and tone up the system. So small and yet so effectual, they are rapidly supplanting the old-style pill. An infallible remedy for sick and bilious headaches, biliousness and constipation. Put up in vials, convenient to carry. Their use attended with no discomfort.

FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSIONS ON THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—In pursuance of the usual custom of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets for the Fourth of July holiday between all stations on its system east of Pittsburgh and Erie, at a rate of two cents per mile.

The tickets will be sold on July 3d and 4th, and will be valid for return until July 7th, 1891, inclusive.

WUN LUNG.—This is the queer name of a Chinese bandyman in Hartford, but he has probably two lungs, like most of us. Some crying babies seem to have a dozen. Lungs should be sound, or the voice will have a weakly sound. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes strong lungs, drives the cough away, generates good blood, tones the nerves, builds up the human wreck and makes "another man" of him. Night sweats, blood spitting, short cough, bronchitis, asthma, and all alarming fore-runners of Consumption, are positively cured by this unapproachable remedy. If taken in time Consumption itself can be baffled.

HENRY GARBRICK, GEORGE GARBRICK, Administrators. 36 22 3t.

TO FARMERS.—I have purchased a NEW PEERLESS THRESHER, and am now ready to contract for threshing. This machine drops the grain at the cylinder, in a way that prevents it mingling with the straw again. It cleans it without a riddle better than any other machine. IT WASTES NO GRAIN and in all respects is superior to the old fashioned Threshers. MILTON FEES, Fleming, Pa. 36 26 3t.

NEW MUSIC BOOK.
On the first day of July we shall place on the market Professor CARLES F. ESCHER'S new book, entitled

OUR HEART'S DELIGHT;
or Sweet Melodies of the Past and Present, being a compilation of vocal and instrumental music, adapted to piano or organ. YOU HAVE TREATED US LOYALLY

The four years we have been in business. We consider ourselves under many obligations to you for the manner in which you have stood by us. But you deserve more than thanks, and you shall have it. We intend to merit, your patronage now more than ever.

Money is scarce—we know it; but clothing is plenty and we intend to put it within reach of the very poorest. If you want a suit for yourself, we have everything that is in the market. We can give you those cheap shoddy goods that you see advertised for $3 and $4 per suit. But that is not the class of goods we want to sell you. We want to sell you strictly honest goods, goods that will give you service, that you will be satisfied with, and make you customers of ours for ever.

Now, then, we will sell you a suit for yourself that is all wool for $7. And when we say all wool we mean it. For your boy, if he is within the age of 14 to 18, $5.50 will get him the same kind of a suit. If he is within the age of 4 and 14, and wears short pants, $3.50 is all that is needed.

These goods are all worth a great deal more money than we ask for them, but we have got more than we need. Some are single suits, odds and ends, a few of them from last season—but they are all the greatest values for the money that you have ever seen, and you must see them to get an idea how cheap they are.

Thanking you again for past favors, and hoping that for your interests, as well as ours, you will give us a call and satisfy yourself that there is no place in Central Pennsylvania where you can buy clothing cheaper than from us.

Remain, Respectfully,
M. FAUBLE, Prop'r
