TERY IMPORTANT. The importance of taking a good Spring Medicine cannot be overestimated. The changing weather affects the human system in such a ally suceptible to the benefit to be derived from a reliable preparation like Hood's Sarsaparilla. To make your blood pure, give you a good appetite, and make you strong, this spring you should take Hood's Sarsaparilla have some."

SPRING MEDICINE.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is invaluable as a spring medicine; it invigorates the whole system and tones up the stomach, and since I became acquainted with Hood's Sarsaparilla I always take several bottles in the spring, and as occasion requires, the rest of the year." L. U. GILMAN, Aurelia, Iowa.

GOOD HEALTH AND ENERGY.

"We have been using Hood's Sarsaparilla in every family had it in the house, as it would make times better, i. e., every one would have more confidence and energy after taking a few bottles. Good health and energy improve business, poor health the reverse; if all took not. Hood's Sarsaparilla there would be no dull times. I will always use it and advise others Rondout, New York

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Belvernon, Pa., Nov, 27, 1890. Beluerron, Pa., Nov, 27, 1890.

Dr. B. J. Kendell Co.:

Gents—I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to use Kendall's Spavin Cure the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment. I have used it on a Blood Spavin. The horse went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten bottles on the horse and have worked him for three years since and has not been lame.

Gents—In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say, that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and swollen. The horsemen about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Thoroughpin, they all told me there was no cure for it, he became about useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a bottle, and I could see very plainly great improvetile, and I could see very plainly great improve-

"Why, are you a burglar or a

"No, indeed, I guess not; but I love raisins, and she knows it."
"So do I, and my mamma knows it. She'll give you all you want; but I don't meddle with her things, for she trusts ma" There was the key-note-one boy was brought up to be trusted, the other was For once he had all the raisins he wanted, was advised to eat them slowly, and chew them fine before swallow-Being an inquisitive boy, he asked the why of this, as well as why the mother dared to leave her sweets exposed, adding that his mother hid all her nice

"Well, my boy," answered the woman, "that is your fault. She finds she cannot trust you We lock our doors against thieves, but it's pretty hard if we can't trust our boys. Show your mother that you are worthy of confidence, and your goodies will not be hidden. Ask for them, she will not refuse you; or if for any special reason she can not spare them, you should be the last one to wish for them. Do

"Don't you ever hide your money or anything?" "Not from my children. My boys and girls are honest and obedient. I thought you were so." "So did I, but I guess mamma don't.

I wish she did," he added with a pathetic, perplexed look on his face.

"Let me tell you what to do. You have probably troubled mamma without thinking that you were doing wrong and she has taken this way of keeping on you from temptation and herself from annoyance. Now try my boy's way. Have a good, and faithful talk with mamma; tell her just how you feelthat you'd like so be worthy of trust and would certainly ask her for all you want. Then be careful not to tease her

I bought a second bottle and before it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the season since last April showing no more signs of it. I consider your kendall's Spavin Cure a yaluable medicine, and it should be in every stable in the land.

things and not want them, and better still, perhaps want them, but be strong and upright enough to not think of them as possibly yours. You will be a true man; every one who deals with you will trust you. It will be worth more to you than raisins now or any amount of money in the years to come. Try it, and stick to it. Why, it I couldn't trust my boy to look at a raisin and hetter francs. Special messengers were sent to Egypt and returned with a couple of luxuriant wigs and a choice assortment of cosmetics, which were presented to the delighted and grateful empress with great pomp and ceremony. That agent thereby walked straight into the imperial affections and his influence in Abyssinia has since been paramount. Such is the strong and upright enough to not think of upright enough upright eno years to come. Try it, and stick to it. Why, if I couldn't trust my boy to to touch it, I should think he was made of poor stuff." That boy went home with some new notions of duty and manliness in his head, it may be supposed, which blossomed into practical flower, if his own mother had discretion enough to put into exercise such hints as he gave her of her duty in the premises

To KILL CARPET MOTHS .- Saturate a large cloth with water strongly impregnated with ammonia. After wringing it as dry as possible spread upon the carpet and iron until thoroughly dry. It is not advisable to press hard, as that flattens the nap of the carpet. Go over the entire carpet in this manner. The hot steam not only kills the little pests and destroys their eggs, but with the addition of the ammonia freshens and brightens the carpet also. To avoid carpet moths: If you find no appearance of moths in your carpets, use an "ounce of prevention." In other words, after your carpet has been laid sponge thoroughly in a strong solution of salt and water. It is well, also, to sprinkle salt underneath the carpet, in dark corners, under bookcases, couches, etc., where the carpet is least used. Above all, keep your rooms sufficiently light, remembering that moths should be numbered among those wicked creatures who "prefer darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil.'

GINGER BEER .- Buy the best ginger root at the druggist's and allow pound of granulated sugar and gallon of cold water to every four ounces of the ginger, which must be well pounded.
Boil from half an hour to one hour, according to quantity. To clear it add at the last the white and shell of an egg to every two quarts. The juice and grated rind of a lemon should be allowed for every quart, but should be boiled in only five minutes before the beer is removed from the stove. Yeast must be stirred in before the liquid is quite cold. It is well to make the yeast of hops, but a cake of hop yeast to every gallon will answer. If a large quantity is made, it should be put into a cask at first and bottled in two or three weeks. If the quantity is small, let it work in a stone jar over night, and bottle in the morning.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The July St. Nicholas has a rich abundance of the short and bright articles which children are so fond of reading, there being thirty items in the table of contents. In addition to an un nsually interesting list of stories, it is chuck full of beautiful illustrations, the whole making one of the most entertaining hot weather publication it is possible to get. It is so good that you will forget the heat while enjoying it. The Century Co., N. Y., publisher.

--- The Century for July has for its frontis piece a very excellent portrait of Horace Greely, and throughout the entire number its pages are beautified with interesting and ex cellent illustrations. Its articles on the gold hunters of '49: are deeply interesting this month, the principal one being an account by "Yes, and the cake and jam; locks Mrs. Virginia Reed Murphy of her experience as a girl in making the trip "Across the Plains in the Donner Party" in 1849, Mrs. Murphy's account being, it is believed, the only narrative published by a survivor of the ill-fated rence is told with simplicity and delizacy, and with an attractive touch of pathes. Then there are scores of other articles, fiction, poems, editorials and everything going to make up a good, solid, entertaining monthly that is not excelled by any publication of the kind in the world.

A Sure Thing.

There is a charming young wdow in South Minneapolis who retains a fiveyear-old girl as the only pledge of her dear departed. The little one has just begun to learn her alphabet. A gentle-man called upon the widow the other evening. Of course the fond mother wanted to show off her child. Taking up a newspaper and pointing to the big letters in an advertisement the mother

"What letter is that ?" "A," responded the child. "What comes after A?"

"And what comes next?" "C," lisped the little one.

The inquiry was pursued still farther, but along toward the end of the alphabet the little girl lost her bearings and never answered a question. Finally the gentleman thought he would put a few questions. He began with this

"What comes after T?"
The child looked him straight in the eyes as she answered, "A man to see —The Italian newspapers have discovered a new reason for the slow progress made by them in the affections of the Emperor of Abyssina. It seems that the Emperor's favorite young wife lost her beautiful hair during a severe illness and in her distress appealed to Count Antonelli and Dr. Traversi, then on a special mission in the country, for some cosmetic which would save her from baldness. The envoys promised freely enough and then forgot all about the matter. But there was a bold, artful French agent at the Abyssinia court who wept bitterly over the Empress' sad disfigurement and swore that France would remedy it if it should cost a million francs. Special messengers were sent to Egypt and returned with a couple of look at a raisin and be true enough not ed Italians, and it may be taken with or without salt.

Is entirely cured.

I was in the war during 1863-64, and took a heavy cold at Gettysburg, from which I never fully recovered. In 1875 I broke out in sores all over my chest and shoulder, which seemed impossible to care. I tried all the famed doctors I could find, and to no avail. I expended some five thousand dollars trying to find a cure, but could not, and finally giving myself up to die, my good wife suggested to me, one day, to try the Cuticura Remedies, which were so extensiv advertised and used. I followed her suggestion, and am happy to say by diligent application of your Cuticura Remedies for seven months I was entirely cured, after spending five years of time and money without avail, and am a sound and well man to-day. You may refer to me if you wish, as I will tell any one who may call on me my experience.
