Delamater's Style of House Cleaning. Indiana Messenger.

The recent Delamater sale, for particulars of which numerous newspapers telegraphed in vain to Meadville, has only just been described in part by the Meadville Messenger. It says that many would be bidders came to the mansion expecting a chance to buy something, but they found bare rooms and an almost empty house. Little remained of value-scarcely enough to furnish two rooms, and the whole sale at the house amounted to about $250, and about the same amount at the barn. The horses had been sold previously. Indignant depositors declared that the house was gutted like the bank, and that the way things are panning out the property of the bankrupts will not more than pay the pre-ferred judgments of $115,000 held by the relatives, leaving nothing to apply on their debts of about $1,000,000. The assignee says that what was taken from the house previously was under the $300 allowance, of which Mr. Delamater availed himself, and also articles claimed as personal property by

The State's Money.

Governor Pattison Says That Every Effort Will Be Made to Recover It.

HARRISBURG, July 19. - Governor Pattison was asked yesterday if any action had been decided upon by the Administration in connection with the recent developments in the Bardsley case, and also if he had received any communication from Auditor General McCamant in reference to his alleged connection with the rebate division.

"I have not seen or heard from the Auditor General," said the Governor, "and the whole matter is in the hands of the Attorney General. I can assure you this," continued the Governor, "that civil action for the recovery of the State's money will be instituted and pushed until the resources of the law are exhausted, and, further, that every person who is criminally connected with the affair will be criminally prosecuted.

Hill Not Anxious for It.

SAN ANTONIA, Texas, July 16.—Congressman M: F. Elliott, of northern Pennsylvania and an intimate friend of Governor D. B. Hill, is here and talked quite freely. He announced that therewas no feeling of enmity between Cleveland and Hill, "The latter," he said, "was quite satisfied with the Senatorial honors of his state, and had lit-tle idea of opposing Mr. Cleveland for the Presidential nomination.

"There are two factions in the New Cleveland and one for Hill. Long before the Democratic Convention of next year they will harmonize, and Mr. Cleveland will receive the solid support Mr. Hill is not at all anxious for the nomination, and will do all in his power to help Cleveland. This I know of my own personal knowledge.'

Pine Grove Mentions.

Joseph Gates, esq., has purchased of W. J. Meyers the new down town property which he and family will occupy next spring.

J. B. Piper has purchased the vacant Orndorf lot on which ground will be broken this season for a new house to be ready for occupancy next spring.

Mr. O, M. Sheets and wife, of Bellefonte, have been sojourning with P. F. Bottorf and other relatives and friends in this section of which they were former residents.

Our fellow townsman, W. H. Roush, and wife, are regretting the destruction of their garden vegetables, caused by some heartless person opening their garden gate during their absence from home.

We heretofore failed to correct an error which appeared in the Gazette as to the award ing and building of Potter's tally-ho coach. The contract was given by Mr. Potter, of Bellefonte, to W. J. Meyers, of this place, in whose shop it was built.

We recently noticed in passing by the Pine Hall cemetery a very elegant monument erected to the memory of Jacob Behrers. The is the finest in this section, and a credit to the maker, Mr. Wasson, of Lemont.

The sociable held by our rifle team last Satarday evening on account of the weather was quite a tame affair. We trust, however, they may be favored with good weather next attempt. The glass ball shooting match was quite well attended. Mr. N. Titus Krebs carried off the belt, missing but four balls of twenty-one balls thrown.

Children's Day exercises were observed in the Lutheran church last Sunday evening, Rev. Aikens conducting the services. The pulpit was most tastefully decorated with flowers. Prof. Geo. W. Weaver, of Curwensville, in his usual pleasant manner, addressed the scholars. The history of the Lloydsville school was deliveded by A. J. Tate, and an essay by W. C. Dunlap. All are to be commen ded who took part in the exercises.

Reaper death has again entered our com munity and removed from our midst one of our oldest citizens who for fifty years has been known to all in this neighborhood. Mr. Benjamin Cool died at his residence on Friday, the 17th inst., at the advanced age of 86 years, 6 months and 3 days. The interment took place on the 20th inst., at the Pine Hall cemetery, where his body was lowered in its earth ly home by the side of his wife who preceded him 17 years ago. He was the father of five sons and three daughters, who, with fifty-five grand children, and thirty-six great grand children, mourn their loss. Mr. Cool was of German descent, born in Chester county, and raised in Union county, and was by trade a blacksmith. Fifty years ago he located on the farm, then a barren tract. By his perseverance and industry, good habits and honorable dealings,he gained the respect and confidence of the entire community, and accumulated a handsome estate which he leaves unencumbered. His word was as good as his bond. If his promise was given that was sufficient-Early in life he joined the Reformed church in which he held various official positions. The Black Republic Goes Back on the United States.

NEW YORK, July 13 .- The steamer Athos from Port Lisbon arrived here this afternoon. Late in June the Athos touched at Haiti and according to her officers it was learned that Fred Douglass, United States minister to Haiti, had left his post at Port au Prince because the Haitien government did not care to recognize the representative of the United States, and that it was rather the desire of the black republic to break off all intercourse with this country. avoid intercourse of any kind with this government would sacrifice official intercourse with it.

A Communication.

Mr. EDITOR: May I ask you for a little of your time and space, not for myself but for the benefit of others, some of whom may consider themselves slighted by not being noticed in public, while others anxious to hear from their friends might think they were kept in ignorance by my not writing. Allow me to say first, that on the 20th of December, 1890, I resigned the pastorate of the Centre county Circuit of Messiah's Church of which I took charge October 1st, 1871, having served its in terests interim with unswerving fidelity, and what I have done in a clerical capacity since my resignation, in which the public might be interested, may be briefly stated as follows, viz: That on the 9th of January, 1891, I conduct ed the funeral services of George E., infant son of Elmer and Lucy Reside, of Boggs township; on the 25th of the same month I preach ed a deferred funeral sermon in behalf of the late John G. Curtin from the same township and that, on the 30th of the same month I con ducted the funeral of Mrs. Lettie Myers, from the same place; while following in close cession I conducted the funerals of Leah Barshaft is of Quincy marble, twelve feet high. 1t bara, infant daughter of Carlton Lucas and wife, on lower Marsh Creek, and that of Elmer Elsworth, infant son of Jacob and Eva Lucas, of Union township. And also that added to the above I united in matrimony the following named persons, on the respective dates mentioned:

On Dec. 30th, 1890: F. J. Watson, of Snow Shoe, and Laura A. Burd, of Boggs township. On February 18th, 1891: James Gummo, of Boggs township, and Emma Lose, of Pine

On March 22d, 1891; Charles S. Hinton, and Lona Lucas, both of Union township, On April 9th, 1891: Miles P. Heaton, of Boggs township, and Arvilla Stine, of Spring township. On July 4th, 1891: Theo. H. Hoffman, of. Milesburg, and Effa Quick, of Boggs township. On July 16th, 1891: Martin R. Brower, of Union township, and Anna M. Lucas, of Boggs township.

I might add that while the friends of the former share our heartfelt sympathles in their bereavement, the latter have our hearty congratulations in their new relations in life. Very truly yours, J. Zeigler.
