CREATES AN APPETITE.

There is nothing for which we recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla with greater confidence than for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache and other troubles of dyspeptic nature.

DYSPEPSIA.

"I suffered a great while with dyspepsia and tried a good many remedies. A friend urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have now taken two bottles. It has entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and a scrofulous affection has also entirely disappeared.

BROKEN DOWN IN HEALTH.

"For three years I suffered with dyspepsia, growing so bad that I was at one time completely broken down in health. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla on trial, and seeing that it was doing me good, continued with it.

Recognition of Courtesies.

Before leaving Yellowstone Park, those members of the National Editorial Association who had made the tour of the Park, assembled at Mammoth Hot Springs Hotel and were called to order by Vice President Hunter.

WHEREAS, The countless beauties and wondrous grandeur of this magnificent National Park have never yet been told by tongue or pen, and no artist's brush has ever given adequate expression to the countless charms, the bewondering influences, or the profound impressions of this grandest museum of God's wonders in nature's forms and shapes, in our native land, upon American soil, therefore

Resolved, That we heartily endorse and approve of all that has been done by our national government to preserve intact these wonders of nature, animate and inanimate, and we urge upon our senators and representatives from every section of this great Union, to further augment pecuniary national aid, with a more generous hand, that Americans and mankind at large, may enjoy with comfort and satisfaction the pleasures, beauties and benefits of this Art Gallery of the world.

Resolved further, That we recognize in the Yellowstone Park Association a commendable spirit of zeal and enterprise, such as gives to tourists who visit the park every comfort, privilege and facility in the way of hotel accommodations, water, electric lights, etc., within the range of reasonable possibility, and in the Yellowstone Park Transportation Line, of which Mr. Geo. W. Wakefield is Superintendent, a stage service far superior to our anticipations, and one which we do not think excelled anywhere, more especially in view of the numerous difficulties and obstacles that are to be encountered and overcome, the Park stages being especially adapted to the business, the employes careful, courteous and attentive.

Resolved further, That our thanks are renewed, to our Secretary, J. M. Page, and we hereby tender our special thanks to the Northern Pacific Railroad and to Mr. B. N. Austin, A. G. P. A. of the same, who personally accompanied us on our tour and performed many acts of kindness and courtesy; to W. G. Johnson, Gen. Manager, and C. V. Delvey, Asst. Supt. of Hotels; to J. W. Wakefield, Supt., and P. C. McKensie, Asst. Supt. of passenger Transportation, for numerous attentions and courtesies extended during our visit to the National Yellowstone Park, and to the troops stationed in the Park for their gentlemanly deportment and courteous treatment of visitors.

His Great Sorrow.

"Poor man!" exclaimed the impulsive, warm hearted lady, "you look as if you had known some sorrow."

"You are right, mum," answered the battered tramp, gratefully accepting the doughnuts and bowl of fresh milk, "I have."

"May I ask what it is?" "Yes, mum," he said, with his mouth full. "I lost both parents when I was nothing but a small boy."

"Had you no friends?" "Yes, mum. I had an uncle. I lived with him until I was a good sized chunk of a boy, and then he died."

"And had you no other friends?" "Only an aunt, mum. I went to live with her next. I was very happy at my aunt's, till—"

"Don't speak of it, my poor man, if it awakens painful memories." "It breaks me all up, mum; but there's worse to come. My aunt—she—"

"Died?" "No. She was a widow, my aunt was, you know, and she set up and married again. Married a mean, stingy, ornery cuss of a man. He drove me out of the house before he had been there three weeks."

Model Motive Power.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has recently placed in service on its fast trains between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, three new engines which are doubtless the finest and fastest ever built in this country.

Another recent addition to the motive power of the company is a consignment of eight powerful ten wheel passenger engines, designed for service on the mountain divisions. These are the heaviest ten wheel engines ever constructed, weighing sixty-seven and one-half tons.

The Mt. Clare shops of the company have recently completed an order for ten switch engines of the highest type, and sufficiently powerful to make up a train equal to the full drawing power of a consolidation freight engine.

In addition to the foregoing the Company has now under construction at its Mt. Clare shops ten powerful ten wheel engines designed for fast freight service and for heavy passenger trains on occasions, also twelve consolidation freight engines of great power.

These additions to its motive power are in line with the other great improvements constantly being made in the general betterment of the B. & O. property by its present management, which have been noted by the press from time to time, and the rapid augmentation of the passenger traffic of the Company indicates that the public is quick to recognize the present and constantly increasing efficiency of its train service.

A Colonel by Marriage.

A traveler in Texas says that he was riding along a cattle trail near the New Mexico line when he met a rather pompous looking native of the region, who introduced himself as Colonel Higgings of Devil's River.

"Where you a colonel in the Confederate army?" I asked. "No, sah," he said, "but I was."

"On the Union side, then?" "No, sah; nevah was in no wah." "Belong to the Texas Rangers?" "No, sah, I do not."

"Ah, I see. You command one of the State Militia regiments?" "No, sah, I don't. I don't know nothing about soldiering."

"Where, then, did you get the rank of colonel?" "By marriage? How's that?" "I married the widow of a kunnel, sah; Kunnel Thompson of Waco."

Harvest Excursions.

In connection with Chicago and other eastern lines the Great Northern railway will sell round trip tickets from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, and West Superior to Northern Minnesota, the Dakota and Montana at reduced rates, August 25th, and September 15th and 29th.

INSANITY IN THE FAMILY.—Doctor—Your husband appears to be run down, anxious, and overworked; but I see no signs of insanity. Mrs. DeFashion—I'm sure he is in danger of it. Insanity runs in his family, you know.

"Does it?" "Yes, indeed. Two of his sisters had chances to marry rich men, and then married poor ones."

—Mrs. Singleton—How is business down at the factory, John? Mr. Singleton—Just booming, my dear. We put in a new engine last week, twenty horse power.

—Mrs. Singleton—Twenty horse power! Oh, John, I must come down and see the lovely creatures. You know I am so very fond of horses.

—Are you still taking painting lessons, Mamie? "No; I quit yesterday; I don't like my teacher." "Why not?" "He has such a disagreeable way of talking. He told me that if I kept on for some time longer I might be able to whitewash a fence."

AN APPEAL.—"Ye editor was married yesterday to Miss Mary Sellect, one of the most charming ladies we ever met. Those owing us on subscriptions or job work will greatly facilitate the purchase of things absolutely necessary to our future comfort by settling at once."

—Mrs. Murphy—"An sure, Mrs. O'Brien, did your poor man die aisy, rest his soul!" Mrs. O'Brien—"Indade not, Mrs. Murphy, It nearly kilt Pat to die."
