OST 6 CHILDREN BUT SAVED THE SEVENTH. By the Aid of Hood's Sarsaparilla-Read What

Mr. Hilbert of Lawrence, Says. "Ten years ago our child was born. Having lost six children we were naturally anxious as to the health of this one. What was our dismay and sorrow to find that she was apparently doomed to the same fate as the others. She seemed to have little strength as a baby, and did not improve as she grew older. When about 21/2 years old she began to have

FAINTING FITS, dropped wherever she happened to be. At these times she would turn black and appeared at the point of death. Doctors told us she was in a very bad way from heart trouble. Nothing that we gave her did any good until in utter desperation, we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She gradually began to improve, the fainting fits became less and less frequent, and finally ceased entirely. Her general health improved, until at the end of a year, having taken seven bottles, we stopped giving it to her. At this time she was 4 years old, and although anxious lest the troubles might return, we ceased to worry, she seemed so well. She is now 10 years old and is as HEALTHY AND RUGGED a child as you will find anywhere and has never shown any indication of a return of the heart difficulty. During the past 6 years perhaps she has taken 3 bottles in all, we only give ing it to her irregularly at times when she has complained of feeling tired in the spring and early summer. We feel that we owe a great deal to Hood's Sarsaparilla and cannot say too much in favor of it. It has also done me great good for dyspepsia and has cured my wife of sick headache." KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Belvernen, Pa., Nov, 27, 1890.

Dr. B. J. Kenbell Co.:
Gents—I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to use Kendall's Spavin Cure the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment. I have used it on a Blood Spavin. The horse went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten bottles on the horse and have werked him for three years since and has not been lame.

Yours truly,

WM. A. CURL.

Gentantown, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1889.

Dr. E. J. Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say, that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and swellen. The horsemen about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Thoroughpin, they all told me there was no cure for it, he became about useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a bottle, and I could see very plainly great improvements immediately from 'ts use, and before the bottle was used up I was satisfied that it was doing him a great deal of good. I bought a second bottle and before it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the season since last April showing no more signs of it. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a veluable medicine, and it should be in every stable in the land.

Respectfully yours.

EUGENE DEWITT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 23.—
The officers of the National Farmer's Alliance are indignant at the charge made against Senator Peffer that he is misrepresenting the people of Kansas as respects wheir indebtedness. They have gone to the trouble to get statistics from the Census Office to sustain Mr. Peffer's statements as to the real estate mort-gages.

These statistics show, they say, that the rest estate mortgages of Kansas, independent of all other form of obligation for debt, amounted during the past the years to $482,700,000,0f which $225-000,000 still remain. The per capital debt in such mortgages is $160. Seventy-one per cent. of mertgages are on farms, 28 per cent. are subject to 10 per cent. interest, and some, they say, to 40 per cent. interest, and some, they say, to 40 per cent.

Prices $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors.

How He Received a Gentle Hint From Her Papa,

It was on Cass street only last night. The strains of music had died away in the parlor and the old gentleman on the floor above stuck his head over the banisters and called plaintively to his daugh-"Oh, Mary!"
"What is it, papa?" she asked tenderly, coming to the hall door.

"What was that?" he inquired. "What was what, papa?" "That noise." "There wasn't any noise, papa, exept my singing."

"Was that all, Mary?" "Yes, papa, all except that Mr. Man-let was accompanying me on the piano."
"Is that what it was," he complained querulously. "I thought he was accompanying you on a wagon load of empty barrels."

A large wad of silence fell into the hall, and lay there as much as minute, when the old gentleman complainingly called out again:

"Mary, oh, Mary."
"Yes, papa," she responded dutifully. "Are you going to sing again, Mary? he asked.

"No, papa; but Mr. Manlet is."
The old gentleman was quiet for about half a minute, then he called again:

"Mary, oh, Mary."
"Yes, papa."
"Are you going to accompany Mr.
Manlet?" "No, papa.

"Is he going to accompany himself, Mary?" "Yes, papa. "On the piano, Mary?"

"Yes, papa." Another pause. "Oh, Mary," called the old gentleman

"Yes, papa," but a little fretfully "Won't you please ask Mr. Manlet to accompany himself on a street car down town this time and give the piano a

To Our Subscribers

The SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J. KENDALL Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enable to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address to B. J. KENDALL Co., (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the Horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise."

A CURE FOR RED ANTS .-- A sure cute for red ants is powdered cinnamon strewn in cracks of closets, or wherever the ant congregate. No one was ever more burdened by these pests than I have been; the large black ants being as offensive in number and persistency in following us from house to house as the little red ants to which there seemed to be no end. In one season the misery of years was however, ended, and none have visited us since. I also strew powdered cloves about; but the cinnamon seems to work the most expeditiously. Tomato leaves will keep them aloof, but they have to be often replenished and are disagreeable in odor.

MAKING THE MOST OF IT.—There is a lady on Walnut Hills who went to Europe two years ago and married a Count. She mortgaged all her property here to enable the Count to live, and came back to America with only a baby to show for her investment. Now when people call on business she says: "Wait till I have finished this letter to the Count," and when her intimate lady friends call she says: "Oh, pray, do excuse me, I am so busy writing a letter to my dear Count" To outsiders it looks as if she had counted herself out .- Cincinnati Inquirer.

WHAT TO AVOID.

A loud, weak, effected, whining, harsh or shrill tone of voice. Extravagance in conversation-such phrases as "awfully this," "beastly that," "loads of time," "don't you know," "hate" for "dislike," etc.

Sudden exclamations of annoyance surprise and joy, such as "bother!" "gracious!" "how jolly!" Yawning when listening to anyone.

Attempting any vocal or instrumental piece of music you cannot execute with ease.

Crossing your letters. Making a short, sharp nod with the nead, intended to do duty as a bow. WHAT TO CULTURE.

An unaffected, low, distinct, silvertoned voice. The charm of making little sacrifices quite naturally, as if of no account to yourself. The habit of making allowances for the opinions, feelings or prejudices of others.

An erect carriage, a sound body A good memory for faces, and facts connected with them, thus avoiding giving offense though not recognizing nor bowing to people, nor saying to them what had best be left unsaid.

MARVELLOUS AND COMPLETE CURE BY CUTICURA. SIX YEARS HAVE ELAPSED AND NO RETURN.

ELAPSED AND NO RETURN.

A lady customer of ours (Miss Fanny Atwood of Caroline Depot, N.Y.) has been cured of a stubborn case of skin disease by the use of Cuticura Remedies. She remarked that her case bad baffled the skill of many well-knnwn physians. They unanimously pronounce it Eczema, with Rheumatism lurking in the blood. Some predicted that any treatment strong enough to cure the Eczema would surely increase the Rheumatism. She used two sets of the Cuticura Remedies. The effect was marvellous. Her case of Eczema was not only completely cured, but her Rheumatism was greatly relieved during the treatment. Six years have elapsed since the cure was performed, her Rheumatism has since never increased by the treatment, but rather diminished, and she sees no symptoms of the return of the Eczema which once so completely took possession of her face and body. Miss Atwood delights in telling of the good effects that the Cuticura treatment had upon her, and recommends unsolicited the Cuticura Remedies for Eczema and all kindred allments. Your preparations find ready sale; indeed Cuticura Soap is on the list to buy almost continuously. HASKIN & TODD, Druggist, Itchaca, N. Y.
