

—It seems funny that when the Lock Haven papers are making so much fuss over the presents which their people so lavishly (?) bestowed on the visiting firemen last week, they don't mention the significant floral tribute Mitch Cunningham, the dandy Logan, received.

A STYLISH COLORED WEDDING.—A very "high up" colored wedding came off in Phillipsburg last week, of which the Ledger of that place gives the following account:

Probably there was more excitement over Thursday's wedding than over any that has occurred in Phillipsburg for some time. It was a colored wedding in the Episcopal church and has been on the tapis for months. It was rumored that our colored friends intended to lay on the style and do the thing up according to Hoyle, and they did. The church was packed with people and the side walk was crowded. The bride, Miss Alice Brown, was dressed in a handsome lavender silk gown, and the bridesmaids, Misses Nettie Hartsborn and Georgie Dillon, wore equally handsome dresses with short sleeves and cut very low in the neck. Miss Hartsborn's gown was pink and Miss Dillon's white. The groom was Mr. J. K. Urkert, of Tyrone. He wore a handsome new dress suit, with white kid gloves, and the ushers, Messrs. Geo. W. Hamilton, of Phillipsburg, and J. E. Willis, of Tyrone, also wore dress suits and white gloves. Rev. Dr. Clerc, rector of the parish, performed the ceremony, which from first to last was faultless. The church and altar were profusely decorated with golden-rod and ox-eye daisies. Miss Julia Hale played the wedding march. The party rode to and from the church in the best livery carriages in town, and the whole affair was as stylish as possible.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY HAS ANOTHER MURDER.—The Altoona Tribune of Monday last publishes the following concerning the murder of Solomon Ginter by Joseph Rhody, proprietor of the Mansard House at Coalport, which occurred on Saturday afternoon last:

"Soloman Ginter, a woodchopper by occupation, and a man who bore a good reputation for quietness and as an orderly citizen when sober, lived in Coalport but was employed in the woods near that place. When he was under the influence of liquor, however, he is said to have been very passionate. On Saturday last while under the influence of liquor, he entered the Mansard house and asked for liquor but was refused. Some words followed, when he went out and got a lot of stones, with which he entered the hotel and began to throw them about. He was told to go out or there would be trouble, and he did so, but returned almost immediately with more stones which he began to throw. It was then that Rhody, who in the meantime had secured a revolver, put his arm inside the room in which Ginter was and fired. Rhody denies that he had any intention of killing the man, but unfortunately the ball struck Ginter in the lungs. The wounded man started from the house and had gone some two squares when he fell dead when within a short distance of his home. He leaves a wife and six children.

Rhody then proceeded to deliver himself up, which he succeeded in doing, so it is stated, by telling the constable to make information against him, which that officer did. He will be taken to Clearfield."

THE LAST DAY AT THE PICNIC.—In our last issue we gave a full and careful account of the Grangers' Picnic and Exhibition last week, and it now remains for us to make note of the proceedings of the last day, or "Old Soldiers' Day," as it was called on the programme. The grangers finished up on Thursday night and the G. A. R. men of the county held away on Friday.

From daylight until noon excursion trains ran to the park, bearing little parties of men wearing the blue, and thousands who had come to picnic with them. The crowd grew so rapidly that by the time all the specials had arrived an assemblage of people, almost equal in number to the monstrous gathering of the day before, had come together on the grounds.

Anniversary services were held in the auditorium and the address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Leonard Rhone and responded to by Gen. Jas. A. Beaver, chairman of the county Veterans' Association. Gen. Gregg, candidate for Auditor General, Gen. Dank, Hon. A. S. Tilden, candidate for State Treasurer, Robert Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, and others, made stirring and able addresses. A number of specialties were introduced to make the meeting interesting, and the old soldiers and their friends were highly delighted with their day in camp.

"Old Soldiers' Day," Friday, wound up one of the most successful and best attended picnics the grangers have ever had. With this we will close to await the coming of another season of gayety and pleasure.

A few people remained on the grounds over Saturday and Sunday to get a few days quiet and rest before returning home.

Pine Grove Mentions.
Mrs. George Eckel is suffering with a broken arm.

Schools throughout the township will open next Monday, 28 inst.

We gladly note the recovery of Mr. Arthur Fortney from a prolonged spell of sickness.

The school building in our town is being repaired and hereafter both the grammar and primary will occupy the second floor.

Mr. James Lytle, of Lemant, accompanied by his best girl, was the guest of that prince of good fellows, D. B. Lowder, where they were royally entertained last Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Kropp is regretting the destruction of a lot of choice canned fruit which was demolished by the shelf giving way, precipitating the glass jars to the cellar floor, breaking a large number.

Prof. Jacob Roan and family have moved to Scotia where the Professor will take charge of the public school. The citizens of that place can congratulate themselves on securing the service of so competent an instructor, our loss being their gain.

Mr. D. L. Dennis, who is noted as having the best kept team of horses, had the displeasure of seeing them run away on Monday of this week. After they had run at the top of their speed a distance of five miles they were finally captured, one of them bleeding freely and the rigging badly wrecked.

Wednesday night of last week while Mr. W. E. Meek and family were absent from home the house was entered by burglars through the cellar. Their safe was not locked. Besides a lot of canned fruit and eatables missing, Mr. Meek's cash account failed to balance by some twenty dollars which amount was taken from a vest pocket hanging on the wall.

The Texan horn-fly has made its appearance in this section this season. It is a small green fly that never leaves the cattle, sticking to them night and day. It appears in numbers on the horns, mostly at the base under the hair, where they penetrate the brain causing death. Carbolic acid and tar, plentifully applied at the base of the horns is a good prevention and should be applied before it is too late.

On Friday of last week the editor and proprietor of the Forest National Democrat, J. M. Epler, while superintending his large farm in this valley, was taken suddenly ill with congestion of the brain. Telegrams were sent summoning his relatives to his bedside also to Dr. Davis, of Lancaster, to consult with his attending physician, Dr. Woods. At this writing there is an improvement in his condition, although there is but little hope of his recovery.

Our base ball team spent the entire week at Grange Park picnicking. On Thursday p. m. they had a set-to with the Bellefonte base ball club, which resulted 5 to 0 in favor of our Pine Grove team. The boys returned home on Saturday after having a joyous good time, but were under the painful necessity of reporting some of the tent holders on Pine Grove Avenue for noisy conduct after sleeping hours. The boys really are deserving a leather medal as big as a door-mat. This, in all probability, will be the last game of the season on account of the separation of our home team. J. Baker Krebs goes to Milesburg, Miles Stover to Petersburg, J. N. Krebs to Clearfield, Musser Heberling to Paradise, each wielding the rod in the school room; while Henry C. Goss takes charge of an engine on the Bell Gap railroad. Success, boys, is the desire of the WATCHMAN.

Tuesday of last week G. W. Cassell superintendent of the Gondola works at Huntingdon, purchased two young Hambletonians of Mr. James Thompson, at State College. On his way across the mountains to Huntingdon, accompanied by his wife, while passing through the hills the horses drove apparently gentle, but he had not gone far up the mountain when the team became unmanageable and while attempting to unhitch them from the buggy one of the horses bit him in the arm, making a very serious bruise. The horses were tied to separate trees and Mr. Cassell and his wife walked back to the hotel where he was kindly cared for by Mr. Deckert and wife, Dr. Woods was called in and dressed the wound, from which he suffered considerable pain. They were taken to the evening train at Pennsylvania Furnace further home in Huntingdon. In the morning a message was sent to Mr. Thompson, who took charge of the team and returned them to his barn. They are of the old Woodlawn breed, real beauties and were purchased at $500.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

"The Trouble Grandpa Nature had with the Horse," "Bee-Hunting," and "A Joint Snake," are three peculiar interesting Natural History articles in the October Wide Awake. "A Night with Russian Wolves," a true story, "Jessie's Chickens," a home-life story "Edith's Guinea-Pig," a travel story and "Bronson Company (Limited)," another home-life story are very entertaining. A Moqui folk tale of "The Genesis of Earth and Moon," a Norse folk-tale of "Why the Sea is Salt," the "Margaret-Patty Letter," the "Drawing of the Child Figure" "The Lake Maidens," a literary narrative about the daughters of Wordsworth, Southey, and Coleridge, with portraits, and the Peppers Serial, the Italian Child-life Serial, and "Miss Matilda Archambault Van Dorn," together with the poems and pictures, and four pages of "Men and Things" anecdotes, make up a most readable number. $2.40 a year. EVERY PATRIOT should read a good newspaper. In the selection of a newspaper many considerations should govern. First, it should be one that endeavors to give all the news without prejudice. It should be neatly printed—in good paper. It should be independent—in favor of all that is good, upright, clean. Such a newspaper is

THE PATRIOT, printed in Harrisburg. It is under new management—enlarged, handsome, bold in the right, fearless in denouncing wrong; is always Democratic, unswervingly Democratic. It is the only and the best newspaper at the State Capital. It makes a specialty of Department News. It receives and prints full Associated Press Reports, obtained by it over its own wires. It presents each day Special Correspondence from all points tributary to Harrisburg, all the Harrisburg News, Fashion Notes, Household Scientific, Humorous and Political Articles, Short Stories and Sketches. Its Market Reports are complete, both as to Finance and Commerce. Its Live Stock Markets are prepared specially for The Patriot, and have only been successfully imitated by one other newspaper in the State. The Saturday Sermon of Spurgeon, London, is a great feature. The Patriot wants the rascals turned out or locked up. To this end it heartily urges the election of Wright and Tilden as the only means to stop the plundering of the public treasury. The Weekly Patriot, 8 pages, is only $1 a year. It maintains the best features of the daily, including the Spurgeon Sermon. First take your home paper, then it. Send for circulars and sample (free) of either daily or weekly. Liberal rates for campaign or otherwise. Address THE PATRIOT COMPANY, D. A. ORR, President, Harrisburg, Pa. JOHN G. ORR, Treasurer 36-37

Rochester Clothing House.

The week of celebration is gone. The Firemen have had a rousing convention and the Grangers and their friends have doubtless had a great Picnic this week, but what is it in comparison with the one you are invited to up at the Rochester Clothing House, you take your basket empty and bring it away full, while the contrary was the way at Grange Park. There are no "Fakes" at the Rochester. Every exhibit is honest. The eagles on your dollars will scream for freedom when they see the counters. Come while the hour glass of bargains is still running.
