COMRADE SKILLMAN

TELLS HOW HE WAS CURED OF BLOOD POISONING.

Mr. Theodore Skillman was a member of Co. B. 7th New Jersey Regt., during the war, and is at present a member of Conyngham Post 97, G. A. R., Wilkes-Barre, Penn. He has for several years been janitor of the hall. He says: Wilkes-Barre, Pa., August 28, 1891.

"Some ten years ago as a result of caiairh, contracted in the army, I had ulcers form in my throat. Blood poisoning ensued that put me in a pitiable condition. I was under treatment at Jefferson Hospital, Phila., being in the special care of several of the most eminent physicians in the country. I left there in a worse condition than when I went and returned home pronounced incurable and fully expecting that my end was near. My throat grew so bad toward the last that I had to have an operation performed and a silver tube inserted into my larynx in order to breathe. One day a friend who had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with great benefit, urged me to try it. After I had taken but a single bottle I noticed some improvement. When I had taken three or four bottles I broke out all over with small blotches like water blotches. My friend told me to keep on with the medicine, that it was simply doing what it ought, driving the poison out of my system, and sure enough it did. I kept on till I had taken twelve of fifteen bottles. It is now four years since I stopped, completely cured, and I have since had no further trouble. I feel that I owe my life to the use of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA and that only. Several of the other members of my family have since used the medicine with beneficial results." THEO. SKILLMAN.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

BELVERNON, PA., Nov. 27, 1890. Dr. B. J. KENDALL Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.

Gents—In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say, that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and swollen. The horseman about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Strapped Hock, and all told me there was no cure for it, he became about useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a bottle, and I could see very plainly great improvement immediately from its use, and before the bottle was used up I was satisfied that it was doing him a great deal of good. I bought a second bottle and before it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the season since last April showing no more signs of it. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a valuable medicine, and it should be in every stable in the land. Respectfully yours, EUGENE DEWITT.

Prices $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont.

Democratic Watchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., Sept. 25, 1891.

A Poor Plea for Livsey.

Harrisburg Patriot.

The pathetic plea is made in behalf of the missing William Livsey that he was long ago called to the bedside of a sick daughter and that, absent on such an errand, he should have been spared from the "ugly attacks" of partisan newspapers.

Mr. Livsey is or was cashier of the state treasury department, to that extent a public official. He disappeared from sight about the time that his name was found recorded on one of John Bardsley's check stubs in connection with an act of "personal kindness." He came never got any money from Bardsley and then again disappeared.

Inquiries made for him at his public place of business at the capitol, at his temporary home in this city, at the permanent home of his family in Pittsburg, of his personal friends in this city and in Pittsburg, always brought more or less conflicting answers. Indeed, at the capitol it was distinctly asserted that he had not resigned, that he was "expected back any day" and that he was "either in Minneapolis or Milwaukee." At Pittsburg answers to like questions were wholly dissimilar. In the ground work of all replies, however, was the indistinct thread of a "sick daughter," but where the home of the sick daughter was, and how sick she was, and what she was sick of, never could be learned.

Now, coupled with the story that three or more members of the legislative investigating committee called upon Senator Quay at his Jersey home and held a conference of some kind, comes the other story that Livsey is indignant, is hastening home to testify, and that he never will forgive the people who assailed him because he so mysteriously visited his "sick daughter." The whole of the Livsey acting is bluff. The "sick daughter" story may have some basis, but Mr. Livsey, Mr. Livsey's associates and Mr. Livsey's companions in public office are to blame in any unjust suspicion that may be cast upon Mr. Livsey. If he has a story to tell him come boldly forward and tell it, but let him get out from behind the skirts of a sick woman. Affected indignation over his alleged ill treatment will not vary public opinion concerning him one way or another. The "sick daughter" plea is worn out.

A Four Years Sleep.

This Man Awakes Once in a While When Hungry.

SCRANTON, Sept. 13.—Michael Fernan, living beyond Factoryville, Wyoming county, near the Nicholson tunnel, yesterday roused out of four years of somnolence, broken only by semi-waking periods produced by pangs of hunger. Fernan was for many years night watchman at the tunnel, and worked a small farm on which he resided during the day.

Finally he became so exhausted in his vitality that one morning when returning home he sank into a profound sleep from which he could not be aroused for several days. Doctors watched over him until hunger brought him to. After eating he again dozed away, and so it has been going for these four years, the man in all this time never uttering an intelligible sentence.

The doctors ascribed the cause to over-work and the dampness of the tunnel through which he walked after the passage of every train. His health continuing good, they left the sleeper to himself.

Holding for $2 Wheat.

The Alliance Leaders Advising the Farmer Again.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 13.—A supplementary statement has been issued by the authors of the famous "Hold-Your-Wheat" Circular. The farmer is again urged to hold back his crop, as better prices await him in a few weeks. Claim is made that wheat will be $1.50 soon, and possibly $2. A review of European shortage is the basis for this assertion.

Editor Miller, in speaking of this circular, says: "The winter wheat rush is practically over now. These early sales were by those who were not connected with the Alliance. We do not believe that a majority of the farmers are foolish enough to co-operate with the speculator to depress prices further. There is no question that prices will take a turn upward in a few days. We are sending out another million supplements."

TOMATO JAM.—Take tomatoes just before they begin to turn red, wipe them well, see that they are thoroughly dry, then cut into quarters. Prepare a strong sirup with one pound of sugar to half a pint of water; put the tomatoes into this, and boil very quickly for twenty minutes. Take out the pieces of tomatoes very carefully, pour the sirup into another preserving-pan, and to each gallon of fruit allow one pound of loaf sugar; put it on and simmer with the fruit for an hour. When cold put into jars and cover with branded papers. A little lemon and ginger added as flavoring are liked by some people.

THREE HARVEST EXCURSIONS.—The Burlington Route, C. B. & Q. R. R., will run Harvest Excursions, Tuesdays, Aug. 25th and September 15 & 29th, from Chicago, Peoria, Quincy and St. Louis, to St. Paul, Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Denver, Helena, Salt Lake and all other points in the North West, West and South West. Rates very low; tickets for sale at all company's ticket offices at points on and east of Mississippi River. Many connecting lines will sell through tickets for these excursions. Inquire of local agent for full information, or address P. S. Eustis, Gen'l. Pass. and Ticket Agt., Chicago. 32-4t.

What steam is to the engine, Hood's Sarsaparilla is to the body, producing bodily power and furnishing mental force.

The Unexpected Answer.

Something stayed his feet. There was a fire in the grate within—for the night was chill—and it lit the little parlor, and brought out in startling effects the pictures on the hearth. There, by the soft glow of the firelight, knelt his little child at its mother's feet, its small hands clasped in prayer, its fair head bowed, and its rosy lips uttering each word with childish distinctness. The father listened, spellbound to the spot:

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

Sweet innocence! The man himself who stood there with bearded lips tightly shut together had said that prayer once at his mother's knee. Where was that mother now? The sunset glads had long ago unbarred to let her pass through. But the child had not yet finished; he heard her "God bless mamma, papa, and my own self." Then there was a pause, and she lifted her troubled blue eyes to her mother's face. "God bless papa," lisped the little one; "and—please send him home sober." He could not hear the mother as she said this, but the child followed, in a clear, inspiring tone "God—bless papa—and please—send him—home sober, Amen."

Mother and child sprang to their feet in alarm when the door opened suddenly, and they saw who had returned so soon; but that night, when little Mamie was being tucked in her bed after such a romp with papa, she said, in the sleepest and most contented of voices: "Mamma, God answers most as quick as the telephone, doesn't he?"

WORDS OF WISDOM.—Nothing can cost so much as sin.

No man has a right to be a curse to his neighbor.

No man can live low who is always looking high.

People never get the big head because they know too much.

A lie is one degree worse than the sin which it tries to conceal.

If there is death in your heart there will be death in your life.

The evil that is the most dangerous is the one that looks most harmless.

Nothing can make us richer except that which makes us more thankful.

A poet is a man who lets other people look at things through his spectacles.

The only joys which live and grow are those which are shared with others.

It is as much murder to kill a man with a pill as it is to do it with a cannon ball.

Full of the masks that people wear and nobody would know his next door neighbor.

Spend as much time in counting your blessings as you do in worrying over your troubles and you will soon be rich.

A HAPPY FATHER.—Mose Schaumburg, Jr., has gone into business for himself not far from the clothing emporium of his father.

A few days ago Col. Yergler was urged by Mose Schaumburg, Sr., to purchase a winter overcoat. He declined, saying:

"Your son, Mr. Schaumburg, offers me the same sort of a coat for a dollar less. Besides, he says your goods are not reliable."

"Is that so?" said Mose, clasping his hands with delight, as a gratified smile passed over his features.

"Yes, that's true."

"Well! well! well! I believe mine son was a fool, but now I see he has a fine head for business. Yet a proud fopper I was."

THEY DIDN'T SING IT.—Let's go up to the Dime Museum and see the picnic party."

"What picnic party?"

"Why, don't you know? The picnic party that came home on a barge the other night and didn't sing on their way 'Home Again from a Foreign Shore.' They are on exhibition."

A LOGICAL INFERENCE.—"Papa," said Willie, as they sailed down to Staten Island, "do sea-horses come from the sea?"

"Yes, my son."

"And do the bay horses all come from the bay?"

IN A BAD FIX.—A—How is Brown coming out?"

"Very poorly. He can't eat."

"What's the matter with him?"

"There is nothing the matter with him, except lack of food. He is stopping at a fashionable boarding house."

A CRUEL SON.—"I understand Jake Jimson struck his mother."

"Yes."

"The cruel scoundrel. What did he strike her for?"

"Ten dollars."

A SURE THING.—Daddy—If you are a good boy I'll take you to the circus. Sonny—Suppose I ain't a good boy? Daddy—Then you'll have a circus with me.

An Army of Northerners to Invade the South.

The invitation of the Southern people extended to the citizens of this section to visit them during their Great Industrial Exposition, October 1st to December 1st, 1891, at Raleigh, N. C., will be accepted. Thousands of Northern people will be present. There are being formed parties of three, four, six, and as large as twenty-five, in different sections, and they will in this way have company on the journey, stop at the same hotels in Raleigh, and together enjoy the sights of the South. The editor of this paper will attend and be one of a party to go at some time during October or November, and any friend or patron of this paper will be a welcome acquisition to our little band. We can arrange for special hotel accommodations and the entire trip will cost but little.

Hon. Jno. T. Patrick, of Raleigh, N. C., is Secretary of the Exposition, and he will do all in the power of one man to make it pleasant for Northern visitors.

Patrons of this paper wishing to go with our company will send in their names at an early date and we will publish one week in advance of our trip when the start will be made. Northern manufacturers should by all means make an exhibit at the Southern Exposition.

ECZEMA ON A LADY

STUBBORN CASE OF SKIN DISEASE COVERED HER FACE AND BODY. MANY DOCTORS BAFFLED.

MARVELLOUS AND COMPLETE CURE BY CUTICURA. SIX YEARS HAVE ELAPSED AND NO RETURN.

A lady customer of ours (Miss Fanny Atwood of Caroline Depot, N. Y.) has been cured of a stubborn case of skin disease by the use of Cuticura Remedies. She remarked that 222 cases had been cured by the skill of many well-known physicians. They unanimously pronounce it Eczema, with Rheumatism lurking in the blood. Some predicted that any treatment strong enough to cure the Eczema would surely increase the Rheumatism. She used two sets of Cuticura Remedies. The effect was marvellous. Her case of Eczema was not only completely cured, but her Rheumatism was greatly relieved during the treatment. Six years have elapsed since the cure was performed, her Rheumatism has since never increased by the treatment, but rather diminished, and she sees no symptoms of the return of the Eczema which once so completely took possession of her body. Miss Atwood delights in telling of the good effects that the Cuticura treatment had upon her, and recommends unhesitatingly the Cuticura Remedies for Eczema and all kindred ailments. Your preparations find ready sale; indeed Cuticura Soap is on the list to buy almost continuously. HASKIN & TODD, Druggists, Ithaca, N. Y.
