THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—O'Flynn in Mexico? to-night.
—An "Electric Spark" Monday night.

—Brown back wall paper, at 8cts and 4cts per bolt, at Williams;
—A full band and orchestra are attractions which lend much to the success of the "Electric Spark."

—Miss Kittie Bauer, of this place, spent last week pleasantly with her friend Miss Gertrude Scanlon, in Altoona.

—To-morrow, Saturday, will be the Jewish New Year and all their stores will be closed until six o'clock, in consequence.

—This, Friday, evening the annual meeting, of the Y. M. C. A. for the election of officers, will be held in the association rooms.

—Go to the Opera House to-night and laugh over an Irishman's troubles, among the Mexicans, as depicted by a good company of comedians.

—"Our Dan's" lecture on "Reminiscences of Johnstown" netted the Presbyterian church, of Philipsburg, a snug sum on last Friday night.

—The good people of Tyrone are having a great time investigating certain charges of immorality which have been made against their superintendent of schools.

—Mr. John Moore and family contemplate moving into the old stone house, corner of Howard and Penn streets, where Mr. Moore will open a cash grocery store.

—C. K. Sober, the crack ring and trick shot, will probably give an exhibition of his skill at the World's Fair. His shooting at the Granger's Picnic was quite remarkable.

—Pretty songs, nice people and clever acting are the cards which are drawing crowds for the "Electric Spark" wherever it appears. In the Opera House, Monday night, Oct. 5th.

—A thief entered the stable of George W. Youngman, Esq., of Williamsport, on Sunday night and took three bay mares, two sets of harness and a spring wagon. The horses were recovered at Middleburg.

—All the ministers in the world have been requested to preach a sermon on Sunday, October 11, on the discovery of America by Columbus. They have been assigned the following text: "Proclaim liberty throughout all the lands."

—At mass meetings, held all through the Beech Creek coal region, on Saturday, the miners adopted resolutions demanding a permanent Saturday half holiday. It is said that the operators are opposed to granting it and a strike may ensue.

—When the 9-15 train from Montandon arrived here, Friday morning last, the pilot of the engine was all smashed up. The result of a collision with a freight car which had not been pushed in past the clearance post on the Centre Hall siding.

—Mrs. Lewis Aikay, who lives just below Snow Shoe Intersection, found a man named Heyland dead in bed, on Friday morning last. He had been boarding with her for some time, was 65 years old and a widower. Some children reside up Buffalo Run.

—Anthony Eck and Lionel Tripp spent a few hours fishing in the river, above Renovo, early Monday morning. The news says Mr. Eck hauled out a salmon, which measured thirty inches in length, which is double the largest caught in the West Branch for many years.

—On Sunday Rev. W. D. Benton, the newly chosen rector of St. John's Episcopal church, held his first services. Large congregations greeted him both morning and evening and his salutatory sermons seemed to please everyone who heard them. Rev. Benton is a graceful, easy talker, and a very entertaining reader.

—When Professor J. C. Eddy, the aronaut, made his ascension, from the Hollidaysburg Fair Grounds last week, he treated the spectators to an immense sight. At the height of 1000 feet he jumped out and came down hanging to his parachute, but he jumped at the wrong time for he landed in the river and now his gay tights are too tight.

—Mrs. Morris Furey returned from the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Harris English, on Friday morning last. Mrs. English, having spent most of the summer on the farm, of Mr. Furey, just outside of town, left here about the 7th of September, much benefited in health, but blood poisoning set in and she died in New York last week. Her remains were taken to her late home, in Philipsburg, for burial.

NOT FOR BELLEFONTE.—Sunday's Philadelphia Press says: "The commission composed of Wharton Barker and Henry M. Dechert, of Philadelphia; Dr. John Kirwan, of Warren; John M. Reynolds, of Bedford, and Hon. John B. Storm, have recommended a site for the new insane asylum, for which an appropriation of $500,000 was made at the last session of the Legislature. They have sent their report to Governor Pattison. The act provides that a veto of the selection of the commission may be made by either the Governor or the Board of Public Charities. Henry M. Dechert, Esq., Saturday evening said he did not feel at liberty to make public the exact location of the site selected, and, refused to confirm the report that a place near Wernersville in the Lebanon Valley (about 9 miles from Reading) had been chosen. He said that the fact that this was an asylum and not a hospital must be borne in mind. No new patients were to be taken in, but it would be filled by chronic cases from the five State hospitals for the insane, thus relieving them. This being the class of inmates, it was necessary to provide for, and the act provided that the site chosen should be "accessible" to these hospitals.

Mr. Dechert admitted that a point east of the Alleghenies had been recommended by the Commission. Hon. John B. Storm was not present at the meeting, but sent his vote. It was in favor of the site chosen. Mr. Dechert recognized the need in the western portion of the State for additional accommodation, but repeated the point he had before made that this was merely an asylum for the relief of the overstocked State hospitals. He claimed that the site advocated by Dr. C. C. Wiley, of Pittsburg, at Bellwood, near Altoona, was inaccessible in the meaning of the act. Dr. Wiley believes that the State insane should be employed in some kind of manual labor, thus contributing to their own support. We have since learned that the choice of the commission has been centered on Wernersville.

KNOCKED OUT OF SIGHT.—The Bellefonte Club and all the balls, they took along to play with, were knocked out of sight by the sharp fielding and heavy hitting Centre Club team, on the ball grounds, Friday afternoon last. Notwithstanding the frantic efforts of Timothy Hay Keeffe Green and old Buckled Ewing Quigley to keep the hits down, the Centre boys would walk up to the bat and line out "dreisoggers" and "heimlickers" with an ease that was indeed tiresome to the Bellefonte fielders.

The game was characterized by brilliant (?) plays throughout, many of which were alarming in the extreme, and especially might we mention the manner in which David Orr Laurie held down the 1st bag for Bellefonte. Why there wasn't a bit of saw dust left in it after the game was over. Joseph Montgomery Ward found the leather after a great many crushing blows had been given the atmosphere, but it was a piece of an old horse collar which he picked up out in the field. In fact if they had all been given a little leather just about the time they were leaving the grounds they would have felt better. Jerry Denny Harris at short took lots of "chances, but they were all gum balls "utfrutti," "California fruit," etc., and Jim O'Rourke Fauble and Charley Hoy Richards covered themselves with goose feathers, etc., glory and every thing else, in centre field, for their respective sides.

The features of the game were the battery work of Harris and Harper for the Centre Club and the short field play of Parker, while the heavy batting of the writer came in for great applause. The final score of 31 to 12 was a betting denouement for the force.

THE WATCHMAN IS HER PAPER.—Little Bessie Brown, the bright fourteen year old, daughter of our great Democratic friend Mr. Frank Brown, of Blanchard, has placed the editor of this paper under many obligations to her by presenting him with a bushel of the nicest shell-bark hickory nuts we have seen this season. Ever since she could read Bessie has had a fondness for the WATCHMAN and when it is brought home on Friday, with the other papers, she invariably exclaims "give me the WATCHMAN. It is my paper" and so fond has she grown of our paper that her love for it has found an outlet in her most acceptable present to its editor. My little friend, may your desire for good wholesome reading matter grow with you, for there is nothing of which a young lady has better cause to be proud than a well cultivated taste for good literature.

BROKE THROUGH A BRIDGE.—Proton Fry, a driver in Williamsport, met with an accident, on Thursday afternoon which might have ended his life. While crossing Hagerman's Run just above the city with a heavy load of stone the bridge gave way precipitating driver, horses and wagon into the stream. The wagon turned over when it fell and went down on top of Mr. Fry, as the horses were lying on their backs it took a great deal of work to extricate the unfortunate man and his team.

ALTOONA'S P. R. R. FIRE COMPANY carried off five prizes at the Northampton county fair last week, but were barred out of all except the first prize for excellence in drilling.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, of Clearfield, and the Houtzdale Bank, of Houtzdale, closed their doors on Wednesday morning. W. H. Dill, of Clearfield is president of the former, and owner of the latter concern, and the suspension will not affect any other banks in the community.

WILL RESUME ON TUESDAY.—We have been reliably informed that the Glass Works will resume operation for the season on Tuesday, October 6th, with one furnace in full blast and prospects for the other's blowing in very bright. This is encouraging indeed and we hope ere long to record the resumption of more of our idle industries. One by one they are dropping into line.

GOOD BYE, WARM WEATHER.—The cool wave and the rain have both arrived and given great relief from the intense heat. The sun Tuesday morning, after brightening the orient for a short time hid himself behind the clouds and about eight o'clock the rain began to fall. Ah! but didn't it feel good, though? You can just bet your last nickel or your last chew of tobacco it did.

Neither "Uncle Jerry" nor General Dymonforth, the rain-maker, has sent us any word as to how long the wet and cool spell may continue, but they will please to the accept thanks of suffering, mosquito-bitten humanity for the present relief.

AN OLD FIRM DISSOLVED.—Yesterday, Oct. 1st, the firm of Geo. W. Jackson & Co. was dissolved by mutual consent of the partners. W. Fred Reynolds retiring and Mr. Geo. W. Jackson continuing the business. This firm has done a very extensive flour and grain business, in Bellefonte, for the past five years and the retirement of the Junior partner leaves the big flour mills under the sole control of Mr. Jackson. Extensive improvements have recently been made in the plant and the grade of flour which is being made is pleasing a very large trade. Mr. Jackson has always enjoyed the confidence of every business man in this community and we have that faith in his integrity, and ability as a manager, which tells us that his operations will meet with unbounded success. His son George will have charge of the books and act as general superintendent of the mill.

THE WITCH A SUCCESS.—The Philadelphia papers have the following to say concerning the play which Manager Garman has booked for Christmas Eve: Marie Hubert Frohman began a week's engagement at the Empire theatre to-night in "The Witch." Her appearance had been looked forward to with great interest. A large audience had gathered in the beautiful new play house. It was an ideal dramatic production. "The Witch" is the greatest dramatic novelty of the age and as a truth-revealing picture of life was never excelled. It attracts the attention of the audience at once and holds it unflinching, to the end.

Miss Frohman made a beautiful Marguerite and her acting was superb. Though scarcely more than a girl, in years, her acting was marked by that breathless silence and emotional attention which only great artists can command. The audience showed their appreciation by calling her before the curtain three times.

TEXAS ZACH GOES TO JAIL.—Not being able to furnish the $300 bail in which he was held, Zachariah Jackson, alias Texas Zack, the big puddler from the Nail Works, was sent to jail, Monday afternoon, to await the November court.

His trouble came on him on Saturday night, about eleven o'clock, when he slapped Davy Thomas so hard that he laid down on the pavement in front of the Brokerhoff House and outan ugly gasb in his head. It required four stitches and a great deal of plaster to fix Davy up, but he appeared before Squire Foster on Monday and told his tale of woe.

Texas Zach, who is about six feet and a half high, and Davy, better known as "the whistling wonder" were drinking together and as is invariably the case they could not agree, so they fixed it up by exchanging slaps, which ended rather disastrously to the whistler.

Billy Jones was also tried before Squire Foster's court and was fined $3.00 and costs, but not being able to furnish the sum he went to jail.

The charge preferred against Billy was "attempt to float the court house and its inmates down High street (?)" He plead ignorance of the law, but that didn't relieve the officials from the shattered condition of their nerves, which his almost successful effort to drown them all had caused.

When the Squire's court convened it was found that there was no bible, upon which to swear the witnesses, but his Squireship was not long in producing a little leather covered book which answered the purpose.

W. C. T. U. IN CONVENTION.—The eighth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Centre county convened, in the Baptist church at Philipsburg, on Thursday and Friday of last week.

The session was called to order by President Mrs. John P. Harris, of this place, and after the following committees had been appointed, a very interesting line of work was mapped out and perfected:

Committee on Resolutions—Mrs. Mitchel, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Dr. Guss, Mrs. Berket and Miss Ella Switzer.

Plan of Work—Mrs. Lathaw, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Berket, Mrs. Steler and Mrs. Cross.

Finance Committee—Mrs. Mitchel and Miss Ella Switzer. The routine of business was carried through with an ease and precision that would have done credit to any parliamentary assemblage and some important measures for the ensuing year were adopted.

During the sessions papers were read as follows: "Temperance Temple," Miss Annie Switzer; extract Union Signal, Mrs. Harris; "Scientific Temperance Instruction," Mrs. Lathaw, of Altoona; "Across the Atlantic," Mrs. H. Foster; a "parliamentary drill" by the Philipsburg Y's, was a very pleasant specialty during the afternoon session, and a number of debates and reports made the proceedings quite interesting.

One hundred dollars was voted to place Centre county on the memorial tablet in Willard Hall and the following officers were elected for the coming year; President Mrs. John P. Harris; Vice President, Mrs. James Harris; corresponding Secretary, Miss Eliza M. Thomas; treasurer, Mrs. D. D. Mitchell and recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Gray. The convention then adjourned to meet next year at Centre Hall.

No doubt many very excellent resolutions and plans were adopted for the work they are trying to do, but it seems to us that the results are not near commensurate with all the labor they put forth in the temperance cause.

DEATH OF A BELOVED WOMAN.—On Sunday morning, about two o'clock, there occurred at Oak Hall, the death of a woman whose place in the hearts of her family and friends can never be filled. It was that of Mrs. James Gilliland, a beloved christian woman, a devoted wife, and a loving mother.

Mrs. Gilliland was forty-nine years of age and leaves a husband and two children to mourn an irreparable loss. Five sisters: Mrs. D. M. Clemson and Miss Kate Gardner, of Pittsburg, Mrs. A. J. Mattern, of Tyrone, Mrs. J. M. Goheen, of East Tyrone, Mrs. Richard Kincaid, of Athens, Illinois, and two brothers, Messrs. Wilson and Frank Gardner, of Rock Springs, this county, are bereaved of a favorite sister, whose sudden death, from heart disease, was a severe shock to the community in which she lived. Every moment of her life was devoted to the comfort of those about her and now she has gone to reap the reward of a life spent for the love of others. Funeral services were held at her late home, on Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock, and a long and mournful cortege followed her body to its burial.

The most exemplary life of Mrs. Gilliland inspired the love of all who knew her, and the best evidence of the esteem in which she was held is seen in the universal sorrow which her death has caused. Throughout the entire community everything was suspended on the day of her funeral, the mechanic laid down his tools, the farmer his implements, the merchant closed his doors and the little children gave up their play, to pay their last respects to one whom they had learned to honor so much. Swift on the wings of faith, her soul was wafted to the spirit world, where it will await the coming of loved ones who are left to struggle alone, without her tender and solicitous care.

LYCOMING COUNTY FAIR.—The only Agricultural, Horticultural and Mechanical Fair in Lycoming county will be held by the Muncy Valley Farmers' Club, at Hughesville, Pa., on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th, 1891. All arrangements have been completed to make this, the twenty-first fair, the best ever held by the Association, or in the county. During the past year the race track has been lengthened to full half-mile and put in good condition, making it one of the best racing courses in the state. The Association now belongs to the National Trotting Association, and the races will take place under the rules of that association. "Already the list of fine trotting horses entered is large, which promises something unusually interesting and exciting in the races. The purses amount to $1250. New buildings have been erected for exhibitors, and other arrangements made for the accommodation of a large exhibit. There will be all sorts of attractions on the grounds, among them Curtis' Wild West Show, consisting of Indians, Cowboys, &c. Tickets will be sold at excursion rates on all railroads leading to Hughesville. The indications are for the largest attendance in the history of the Association.

—The "Electric Spark" a bright musical comedy comes to the Opera House, on Monday night, Oct. 5th.

—Embossed gold wall paper, 12cts. and upwards, at Williams;

—Joseph Rhody, proprietor of the Mansard House at Coalport, who shot and killed Solomon Ginter two weeks ago, while ejecting him from the bar room of his hotel, was released on $5000 bail, at Clearfield, on Friday last.

—19 new buggies, 5 second hand, and one 2nd hand spring wagon for sale at bottom prices by McQuiston & Co.

—William-port is being visited by Madame Leselle, a giddy brunette whose profession as a manicure and clairvoyant is so much in demand by the young women of that place that she has already run out of tales to tell her patrons. It is surprising how little sense some people have.

—Fine gold wall paper, from 8cts. to 20cts at Williams;

—Fra D. Canfield, a prominent Renovo physician, died suddenly at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Parsons, of Lock Haven, on Sunday night. He rocked too far back in his chair and fell over, sustaining injuries which caused his death in about twenty minutes.

—E. Brown, Jr., wants you to see his stock at his store on Bishop street.

—Rev. Edward J. Gray, of Williamsport, Rev. C. W. Smith, of Pittsburg, and Hon. John Patton, of Curwensville, are the only Pennsylvanians, outside of Philadelphia, chosen as representatives, to the Ecumenical Conference, to be held in Washington, D. C., commencing October 7.

—McQuiston & Co. is where you get just what you are told you are getting, so that is the place to get your buggies. No old buggies sold for new ones.

—The Blair county Agricultural Society is delighted with the fact that its fair drew twelve thousand people to Hollidaysburg in one day. Why you dear people the Granger's Picnic at Centre Hall last week drew over twenty thousand on, each of two consecutive days, and they had nothing to do but look at each other either.

—Novelties in furniture and wall paper are the order of the day at E. Brown, Jr.'s on Bishop street.

—The State Convention of the Christian Endeavor which will convene in Williamsport, soon, is worrying the people of that city no little. They are afraid they won't be able to entertain the crowd with their accustomed hospitality and comfort. Twelve hundred delegates are expected and Williamsport can only find accommodations for nine hundred, but we are sure she will carefully take care of all who attend.

—If you are in need of a buggy, go to McQuiston & Co. the only manufacturers in Bellefonte who ever served time at the business.

—James Platt, of Juniata township Huntingdon county, while out hunting squirrels a few days ago, discovered one of the frisky gentles in the top of a large oak. While moving around to get a shot at it, he was more than startled to see a high blacksnake drop at his feet, from the leafy canopy above a distance of 25 or 30 feet. The snake had evidently climbed the tree for a meal, and had secured it in the shape of a small gray squirrel which it had two-thirds swallowed when it fell to the ground. Mr. Platt killed the reptile, which measured over five feet six inches in length.

—If you want furniture cheap, E. Brown, Jr.'s is the place to get it.

—We would call your attention to the review we publish, in another column, of C. C. Zeigler's bright little book of poems which he has just published. Mr. Zeigler is now a resident of St. Louis, Mo., but was at one time a Centre county and often delighted the WATCHMAN readers, under the name of Carl Schreiber, with his clever poetry written in Pennsylvania dutch. Many of the poems appearing in his book are taken from those which have appeared in the WATCHMAN and when published together they make a most interesting collection of poetical gems.

—The new Presbyterian church at Centre Hall, was dedicated to the worship of God on Sunday morning last. The dedicatory was preached from Eph. 3rd and 19th, "the love of God passeth knowledge," by Rev. Dr. Freeman, of Huntingdon, and was a most interesting discourse. The church complete, cost $4,791.27 with $4,100 subscribed and but $691 to raise. The amount was quickly made up and the services continued. Rev. Garney, of Lewistown; and Rev. Baskerville, the pastor, both assisting. The congregation is small and deserves much credit for the successful manner in which they have built their new place of worship, for it is a very cosy little brick church and would be an ornament, in the architectural beauty, in any town.

COMING TO BELLEFONTE.—Great Island and Clinton Lodges of I. O. O. F. and Canton of Lock Haven, will be well represented in Bellefonte on October 14, when the Odd Fellows, of this place will dedicate their new hall. Grand Sire Nicholson, Secretary of the Grand Lodge of the United States, and other prominent officials of the order will be present. A feature of the occasion will be the grand parade in the afternoon.

—We have the largest stock of home made buggies in the county and at the lowest figures for the grade of work. McQuiston & Co.

A STRANGE CASE.—J. H. Pentz, at the head of Long street, was severely kicked on the nose by a steer on Tuesday last, while bringing a car load of cattle across the plank road. Mr. Pentz's nose was badly broken and mashed, and strange as it may seem, he was unconscious and went about his work from 9:30 in the morning until about 8 o'clock in the evening, without knowing anything he had done. His nose was badly injured and swollen, but he expects to be about again in a few days.—Dubois Express.

—Wall paper in every shade and pattern at E. Brown, Jr.'s on Bishop street.

JOHN HENRY CUT IN TWO.—On Saturday morning a most harrowing accident occurred on the railroad near Philipsburg in which John Henry, a miner, met an untimely death. He had been furnishing music for a party, out in the Third ward of the town, and returning about 4:30, he reached a place near the oil house bridge where he laid down on the track. Being under the influence of liquor he did not notice the approach of the early passenger train, due at Philipsburg at 4:50, and before the train could be stopped he was run over and his body completely severed at the abdomen. Deceased was 39 years old and leaves a wife and six children.

—White back wall paper, from 6cts to 10cts per bolt, at Williams;

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Simon S. Kline, of State College, and Emma Shreffler, of Snyder county; Harry E. Johnston, of Altoona, and Sadie J. Walkey, of Bellefonte; Archibald Shaw and Annie Wier, both of Snow Shoe; Tine Wagoner and Mary Elizabeth Jane Beals, both of Burnside township; G. H. Decker, of Potter township, and Emma R. Ziegler, of Benner.

—The finest and largest line of Foreign and Domestic woolsens for suitings and overcoats ever shown by us. Full assortment of Ready Made clothing Hats, Caps, and Furnishing Goods. MONTGOMERY & Co. Tailors.

Grand Millinery Opening. On October 2nd and 3rd, Friday and Saturday, I will exhibit the largest and best line of trimmed and untrimmed hats ever opened in this county. I have Miss Bettier, of New York, to assist me in trimming. I invite all to call and examine goods, styles, work and prices, and compare with others. 36 38 40* SNYDER SISTERS.
